PROPOSAL

CREATION OF CLASS OF PREFERRED STOCK

The Board of Directors has approved, subject to stockholders' approval, an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to create a class of preferred stock, consisting of 100,000,000 shares, par value $0.00001, the rights, privileges, and preferences to be set by the our Board of Directors without further shareholder approval.

The Board of Directors has determined that this amendment is advisable and in our best interests.

On June 19, 2012, our Board of Directors approved, declared it advisable and in our best interest and directed that a class of preferred stock be created, consisting of 100,000,000 shares, par value $0.00001, the rights, privileges and preferences of which may be set by the Board of Directors without further shareholder approval.

Reasons for the Creation of Preferred Stock Amendment

Currently, we are not authorized to issue preferred stock. Our Board of Directors believes it is prudent at this time to create a class of preferred stock which will be available for issuance in connection with possible future acquisitions, equity and equity-based financings, possible future awards under employee benefit plans, stock dividends, stock splits, and other corporate purposes. Therefore, the Board of Directors approved the creation of a class of preferred stock as a means of providing us with the flexibility to act with respect to the issuance preferred stock in circumstances which they believe will advance our interests and its stockholders without the delay of seeking an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation at a later date.

If the Board of Directors elects to utilize preferred stock, it will approve a Certificate of Designation identifying the series (i.e. Series A, Series B., etc.) and setting forth the exact terms thereof. The terms of any series of preferred stock could operate to the disadvantage of the outstanding common stock. Such terms could include, among others, preferences as to dividends and distributions on liquidation.

The Board of Directors is considering, and will continue to consider, various financing options, including the issuance of common stock or securities convertible into common stock from time to time to raise additional capital necessary to support our future growth. As a result of the creation of the class of preferred stock, the Board of Directors will have more flexibility to pursue opportunities to engage in possible future capital market transactions involving common stock or securities convertible into common stock, including, without limitation, public offerings or private placements of such common stock or securities convertible into common stock.

In addition, our growth strategy may include the pursuit of selective acquisitions to execute our business plan. We could also use the newly created preferred stock for potential strategic transactions, including, among other things, acquisitions, spin-offs, strategic partnerships, joint ventures, restructurings, divestitures, business combinations and investments. There are no specific acquisitions under consideration at this time.

Description of the Preferred Stock

The preferred stock may be divided into and issued in series. Our Board of Directors will be authorized to divide the authorized shares of preferred stock into one or more series, each of which shall be so designated as to distinguish the shares thereof from the shares of all other series and classes. Our Board of Directors will be authorized, within any limitations prescribed by law to fix and determine the designations, rights, qualifications, preferences, limitations and terms of the shares of any series of preferred stock including but not limited to the following:

- (a) The rate of dividend, the time of payment of dividends, whether dividends are cumulative, and the date from which any dividends shall accrue;
- (b) Whether shares may be redeemed, and, if so, the redemption price and the terms and conditions of redemption;
- (c) The amount payable upon shares in the event of voluntary or involuntary liquidation;
- (d) Sinking fund or other provisions, if any, for the redemption or purchase of shares;
- (e) The terms and conditions on which shares may be converted, if the shares of any series are issued with the privilege of conversion;
- (f) Voting powers, including but not limited to super voting rights and the right to have the preferred stock vote as a single class with the common shares on all matters submitted to shareholders; and,
- (g) Subject to the foregoing, such other terms, qualifications, privileges, limitations, options, restrictions, and special or relative rights and preferences, if any, of shares or such series as our Board of Directors may, at the time so acting, lawfully fix and determine under the laws of the State of Nevada.

In the event of our liquidation, holders of preferred stock will be entitled to received, before any payment or distribution on the common stock or any other class of stock junior to the preferred stock upon liquidation, a distribution per share in the amount of the liquidation preference, if any, fixed or determined in accordance with the terms of such preferred stock plus, if so provided in such terms, an amount per share equal to accumulated and unpaid dividends in respect of such preferred stock (whether or not earned or declared) to the date of such distribution. Neither the sale, lease, or exchange of all or substantially all of our property and assets, nor any consolidation or merger, shall be deemed to be a liquidation.

Additional Information

Ability of the Board to Issue Stock; Certain Issuances Requiring Shareholder Approval

Preferred stock may be issued in the future for any proper purpose from time to time upon authorization by the Board of Directors, without further approval by the stockholders unless required by applicable law, rule or regulation, including, without limitation, rules of any trading market that we may trade on at that time. Shares of preferred stock may be issued for such consideration as the Board of Directors may determine and as may be permitted by applicable law.
