AMEREN CORPORATION ESTIMATES EXPOSURE
RESULTING FROM ENRON CORP. BANKRUPTCY FILING

St. Louis, Mo., Dec. 5, 2001---Ameren Corporation (NYSE: AEE) today announced that the company estimates its overall financial exposure based on transactions with Enron Corp. (NYSE:ENE) and its affiliates to be less than $10 million on an after-tax basis.

Edgar Filing: AMEREN CORP - Form 8-K

The company's overall financial exposure includes accounts receivable owed to the company from Enron, which is less than $5 million on an after-tax basis. The company's overall financial exposure, based on current market prices, is not considered material to the company's financial position, results of operation, or liquidity. Enron Corp. filed for bankruptcy on Dec. 2, 2001.

With assets of $10 billion, Ameren serves 1.5 million electric customers and 300,000 natural gas customers in a 44,500-square-mile area of Missouri and Illinois.

Safe Harbor Statement

Statements made in this release, which are not based on historical facts, are "forward-looking" and, accordingly, involve risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed. Although such "forward-looking" statements have been made in good faith and are based on reasonable assumptions, there is no assurance that the expected results will be achieved. These statements include (without limitation) statements as to future expectations, beliefs, plans, strategies, objectives, events, conditions, and financial performance. In connection with the "Safe Harbor" provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, the company is providing this cautionary statement to identify important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated. The following factors could cause results to differ materially from management expectations as suggested by such forward-looking statements: the effects of regulatory actions, including changes in regulatory policy; changes in laws and other governmental actions; future market prices for fuel and purchased power, electricity, and natural gas, including the use of financial instruments; business and economic conditions; the impact of the adoption of new accounting standards; interest rates; weather conditions; fuel availability; and legal and administrative proceedings.
