Dear Fellow MMG Stockholder:

Elliott Associates, L.P. and Elliott International, L.P. (together "Elliott"), institutional stockholders under common management, hold over 3 million shares of common stock of Metromedia International Group, Inc. (the "Company" or "MMG"). Elliott wishes to provide you with an update on the status of its dealings with MMG.

We remain profoundly concerned about the continued decline in MMG's stock price. As the graph below demonstrates, MMG'S STOCK PRICE HAS DECLINED APPROXIMATELY 87% since its initial trading day:

[In the letter sent to stockholders, a graph is inserted here in place of the preceding table showing the decline in the closing price of MMG's common stock on the American Stock Exchange from November 2, 1995, its initial trading day, through July 25, 2001. The graph illustrates the information contained in the immediately preceding table as follows:

X-axis (Horizontal):           Date (November 2, 1995 - July 25, 2001, broken down into quarterly intervals)

Y-axis (Vertical):            Metromedia closing stock price]

MMG's closing price on the American Stock Exchange on July 25, 2001 was $2.30. HOW MUCH DID YOU PAY FOR YOUR SHARES?

As stockholders of MMG, you should be aware that Elliott has filed a formal complaint against the Company under Section 211 of the Delaware General Corporation Law to compel MMG to schedule its 2001 annual meeting of stockholders. On July 23, after a trial date was set in our case against the Company, MMG finally announced in a press release that its annual meeting will be held on October 12, 2001. That announcement was long overdue. In light of this development, we are weighing alternatives in regard to our litigation.

While it is a positive development that MMG has finally set a date for its annual meeting, we are extremely dissatisfied by the fact that MMG is forcing its stockholders to wait another 2 1/2 months before the annual meeting. The last annual meeting held by MMG was on May 17, 2000, meaning that close to 17 months will have elapsed between annual meetings. In our opinion, THIS DELAY IS UNJUSTIFIED, especially in light of the poor stock price performance of MMG. The annual meeting is the cornerstone of corporate governance and stockholder accountability. It is unfortunate that we have had to resort to litigation designed to force the Company to provide this most basic of rights to its stockholders.

What is particularly troubling about MMG's announcement of the annual meeting date is that it raises many more questions than it answers.

- o MMG has still not set a record date for the annual meeting, nor have they disclosed the exact time or place where the meeting will be held.
- o MMG has made no reference to what issues are to be voted on at this upcoming annual meeting. You as a stockholder may be aware that MMG has been exploring structural alternatives since November of 2000, ostensibly to maximize stockholder value. Since that time, close to nine months have passed and MMG has yet to put forth concrete alternatives to maximize stockholder value, stating only that:

"The Company is continuing to work with its advisors on restructuring the Company, but has not yet finalized these plans. Any final action will be subject to a number of conditions in addition to final Board approval, including, for certain transactions, obtaining the consent of the Company's banks, bondholders and SHAREHOLDERS (emphasis added). "2

- o A plan purported to be in the works for nine months may require stockholder consent and yet MMG still has not indicated what issues are to be voted on at the annual meeting. When will we hear if the Company has finalized any reorganization plan, or what that plan includes?

You as a stockholder should be aware that Elliott has filed an amended preliminary proxy statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the 2001 annual meeting of MMG stockholders. The amended preliminary proxy statement nominates two candidates to the Board and puts forward two stockholder proposals. The amended preliminary proxy statement, which can be found on the SEC's website (<http://www.sec.gov>), discusses a number of issues that Elliott believes have resulted in the downward trend in MMG's stock price. Elliott urges you to read its amended preliminary proxy statement. You may also read Elliott's relevant press releases at (<http://www.lens-inc.com/companies/mmg/mmg.html>).

If you receive a proxy statement from the Company, we urge you to take no action until after you have received our proxy statement in the mail and reviewed it.
