2001, subject to a Department of Justice (the "DOJ") Consent Order requiring the divestiture of KTVX. The transfer of KTVX to Clear Channel was approved by the DOJ and satisfied the divestiture requirements of the DOJ's Consent Order. The Federal Communications Commission's (the "FCC") approval of the Chris-Craft acquisitions by FEG also required the divestiture of KTVX which was satisfied by the filing of the application to assign the KTVX license to Clear Channel with the FCC.

On November 1, 2001, News Corporation, Fox Television Stations and Viacom, Inc. completed the exchange of Viacom's WDCA-TV (UPN-20) in Washington, D.C. and KTXH-TV (UPN-20) in Houston, Texas for Fox Television Stations' KBHK-TV (UPN-44) in San Francisco, California. A copy of the press release issued by News Corporation and Fox Television Stations announcing the transaction is attached as Exhibit 99.2 to this Report and is incorporated herein by reference.

The consummation of the Clear Channel and Viacom transactions have reduced the national audience reach of Fox Television Stations, moving News Corporation closer toward compliance with the FCC's national station ownership cap.
