Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On February 22, 2017, Univest Corporation of Pennsylvania (the “Company”) entered into change in control agreements (the “Agreement”), with certain of its executive officers, including, Roger S. Deacon, Senior Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Company. The Agreement commences on February 22, 2017 and ends on December 31, 2018, with automatic annual one-year renewals of the Agreement thereafter, absent notice of non-renewal from either party.

In the event an executive’s employment is terminated subsequent to a “change in control” during the term of the Agreement either by the Company for a reason other than “cause” (as defined in the Agreement) or by the executive after the occurrence of certain specified events of “good reason” described below, the Company will pay the executive a lump-sum cash payment equal to the sum of (i) two times his highest annual base salary in effect at the time of termination of employment for the current and two preceding calendar years (or such lesser period of time during which he was employed by the Company) and (ii) two times his average cash bonus paid within the current and two calendar years (or such lesser period of time during which he was employed by the Company) preceding termination of employment. For purposes of (ii) above, to the extent that any bonus is paid with respect to a partial year of employment, such amount would be considered on an annualized basis. In addition, the executive will receive continuation of medical insurance benefits for two years, or a cash payment equal to the cost to obtain such benefits. Payments under the Agreement would be reduced to the extent necessary to avoid an “excess parachute payment” under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code. In the event that the executive becomes entitled to and receives benefits under the Agreement after a change in control, he will be subject to one year non-compete and non-solicitation covenants. In the event that the executive voluntarily terminates employment during the term of the Agreement prior to a change in control, he will be subject to similar non-compete and non-solicitation covenants for six months. The specified events of “good reason” permitting an executive to terminate employment following a change in control and receive payments or benefits under the Agreement include: (i) material diminution in executive’s authority, duties or other terms and conditions of employment; (ii) reassignment to a location greater than 25 miles from executive’s office on the date of the change in control (unless closer to executive’s residence); (iii) material diminution in executive’s base salary; (iv) failure to provide executive with employee benefits (retirement or pension, life insurance, medical, health and accident insurance, and similar plans) applicable at the time of the change in control; or (v) a material breach of the Agreement.

The foregoing description of the Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the form of Agreement attached hereto as exhibit 10.1 of this Current Report on Form 8-K, and is incorporated by reference into this Item 5.02.
