Amendment of Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan

On June 27, 2011, Freddie Mac (formally known as the Federal Home Loan Mortgage Corporation) amended, with the approval of the Federal Housing Finance Agency (FHFA) on June 23, 2011, the company's Supplemental Executive Retirement Plan (the SERP). The amendment is effective January 1, 2012.

A description of the SERP, prior to the amendment, is included in our annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2010. The principal changes to the SERP are discussed below.

Under the amendment, eligibility for the Pension SERP Benefit (as defined in the SERP) will be limited, and Executives (as defined in the SERP) whose employment with the company commences after December 31, 2011 (or who are rehired after that date) will not be eligible for the Pension SERP Benefit. However, non-Executives employed as of December 31, 2011 who are subsequently promoted to Executive positions will be eligible for the Pension SERP Benefit.

The amendment also revises the Thrift/401(k) SERP Benefit (as defined in the SERP). Under the amendment:

The portion of the Thrift/401(k) SERP Benefit attributable to the Matching Contribution (as defined in the SERP) will be determined based on 6% of eligible compensation for all eligible current and future Executives, effective January 1, 2012. Currently, this portion of the Thrift/401(k) SERP Benefit is determined based on a step-based formula that increases to 6% of eligible compensation over a period of 5 years.

Replace the portion of the Thrift/401(k) SERP Benefit attributable to the annual discretionary Basic Contribution (as defined in the SERP) with a benefit attributable to an annual Discretionary Contribution that would be based on company performance, effective January 1, 2012. The Discretionary Contribution will be equal to 2.5% of eligible compensation, with a three-year cliff-vesting schedule for all new contributions. The Basic Contribution is based on 2% of eligible compensation up to the Social Security wage base and 4% of eligible compensation above the Social Security wage base, subject to a five-year graded vesting schedule.

A copy of the amendment to the SERP is filed as Exhibit 10.1 to this Report on Form 8-K.
