(c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 10-Q, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Because the Registrant recently hired a new chief financial officer, the Registrant requires additional time to close year-end books to submit for audit review and, therefore, the Registrant's Annual Report on Form 10-K regarding the fiscal year ended August 31, 2003 could not be timely filed without unreasonable effort or expense.

(2) Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such reports(s) been filed? If answer is no, identity report(s)

Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes No (except for a smaller amount of impairment expense).

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The Registrant's net loss for the fiscal year 2003 was approximately $3,900,000, an approximate $9,200,000 decrease from the Registrant's net loss in fiscal 2002, which was approximately $13,100,000. The primary reason for the decrease in net loss was a decrease in impairment and abandonment of oil and gas properties, which was approximately $11,700,000 in fiscal 2002, and approximately $2,100,000 in fiscal 2003.
