Salem Communications Increases First Quarter Revenue Guidance;

Company to Present at A.G. Edwards 2005 Media & Entertainment Institutional Conference in Las Vegas

CAMARILLO, Calif. --April 15, 2005--Salem Communications Corporation (Nasdaq:SALM), the leading radio broadcaster focused on Christian and family-themed programming, today announced an increase to its first quarter 2005 guidance provided on March 7, 2005 in conjunction with the company's fourth quarter 2004 earnings results.

Specifically, the company announced increased revenue guidance for the first quarter of 2005. Salem is projecting net broadcasting revenue growth of approximately 10% and same station net broadcasting revenue growth of approximately 10% for the first quarter of 2005 compared to the same period in 2004.

In addition, the company announced that it will present at the A.G. Edwards 2005 Media and Entertainment Institutional Conference to be held at the Venetian Hotel and Casino in Las Vegas on Monday and Tuesday, April 18 and 19, 2005.

Edward G. Atsinger III, president and chief executive officer, and David A.R. Evans, executive vice president and chief financial officer, will present at 9:50 am PT on Monday, April 18. The presentation will be audio webcast live and then will be available for replay for 30 days. Both the live webcast and the replay will be accessible through the investor relations portion of the company's website at www.salem.cc.

Salem Communications Corporation (Nasdaq:SALM), headquartered in Camarillo, CA, is the leading U.S. radio broadcaster focused on Christian and family-themed programming. Upon the close of all announced transactions, the company will own 105 radio stations, including 67 stations in 24 of the top 25 markets. In addition to its radio properties, Salem owns Salem Radio Network(R), which syndicates talk, news and music programming to approximately 1,900 affiliates; Salem Radio Representatives(TM), a national radio advertising sales force; Salem Web Network(TM), a leading Internet provider of Christian content and online streaming; and Salem Publishing(TM), a leading publisher of Christian themed magazines.
