The agreement provides for an annual base salary with provisions allowing for annual increases. Mr. McCann's annual salary for Fiscal 2002 was $1,100,000. Upon termination without good cause or resignation for good reason, including a change of control, Mr. McCann is entitled to severance pay in the amount of $2,500,000, plus the base salary otherwise payable to him for the balance of the then current employment term and any base salary, bonuses, vacation and unreimbursed expenses accrued but unpaid as of the termination date, and health and life insurance coverage for himself and his dependents for the balance of the then current employment term. Upon termination due to death, or for good cause or a voluntary resignation, Mr. McCann is not entitled to any compensation from the Company, except for the payment of any base salary, bonuses, benefits or unreimbursed expenses accrued but unpaid as of the date of termination.

Mr. Christopher G. McCann's employment agreement became effective as of July 1, 1999. The agreement provides for a five year term, and on each anniversary of the agreement, the term is extended for one additional year. Mr. McCann is eligible to participate in the Company's management incentive plan, other bonus or benefits plans, stock option plan, and is entitled to health and life insurance coverage for himself and his dependents. The agreement provides for an annual base salary with provisions allowing for annual increases. Mr. McCann's annual salary for Fiscal 2002 was $385,000. Upon termination without good cause or resignation for good reason, including a change of control, Mr. McCann is entitled to severance pay in the amount of $500,000, plus the base salary otherwise payable to him for the balance of the then current employment term and any base salary, bonuses, vacation and unreimbursed expenses accrued but unpaid as of the termination date, and health and life insurance coverage for himself and his dependents for the balance of the then current employment term. Upon termination due to death, or for good cause, or a voluntary resignation, Mr. McCann is not entitled to any compensation from the Company, except for the payment of any base salary, bonuses, benefits or unreimbursed expenses accrued but unpaid as of the date of such termination.

Mr. Peter G. Rice's employment agreement with The Plow & Hearth, Inc. became effective as of April 3, 1998 and has been automatically renewed through April 3, 2003. The agreement contains automatic one-year renewals unless prior notice of termination is given. Mr. Rice's annual salary for Fiscal 2002 was $238,000 and he was eligible to participate in the Company's management incentive plan. Upon termination without cause, Mr. Rice is entitled to an amount equal to his salary through the end of the agreement, any amounts earned, accrued or owing but not yet paid as of the date of the termination and other benefits, if any, as are payable to or for the benefit of Mr. Rice as of the date of his termination until the end of the agreement.

Under their employment agreements, Messrs. James F. McCann and Christopher G. McCann are each restricted from participating in a competitive floral products business for a period of one year after a voluntary resignation or termination for good cause. Mr. Rice has agreed not to compete with the Company or solicit its clients or employees during his term of employment and for two years immediately following his termination. Each of these executives is also bound by confidentiality provisions, which prohibit the executive from, among other things, disseminating or using confidential information about the Company in any way that would be adverse to the Company.

The Compensation Committee advises the Board of Directors on issues concerning the Company's compensation philosophy, and the compensation of executive officers and other individuals compensated by the Company. The Compensation Committee is responsible for the administration of the Company's 1999 Stock Incentive Plan under which option grants, stock appreciation rights, restricted awards and performance awards may be made to Directors, executive officers and employees of the Company and its subsidiaries. The Board of Directors has authorized a secondary committee of the Compensation Committee to also review stock compensation options for all of the Company's employees other than its executive officers.

The Compensation Committee believes that the compensation programs for the Company's executive officers should reflect the Company's performance and the value created for the Company's stockholders. In addition, the compensation programs should support the short-term and long-term strategic goals and values of the Company and should reward individual contribution to the Company's success. The Company is engaged in a very competitive industry, and the Company's success depends upon its ability to attract and retain qualified executives through the competitive compensation packages it offers to such individuals.

General Compensation Policy. The fundamental policy of the Compensation Committee is to advise the Board of Directors on information which will aid the Board of Directors in providing the Company's executive officers with competitive compensation opportunities based upon their contribution to the development and financial success of the Company and their personal performance. It is the Compensation Committee's philosophy to advise the Board of Directors that a portion of each executive officer's compensation should be contingent upon the Company's performance as well as upon such executive officer's own level of performance. Accordingly, the compensation package for each executive officer should be comprised of two elements: (i) base salary and bonus which reflects experience and individual and Company performance and is designed to be competitive with salary levels in the industry, and (ii) long-term stock-based incentive awards which strengthen the mutuality of interests between the executive officers and the Company's stockholders.

Factors. The principal factors which the Compensation Committee considers in reviewing the components of each executive officer's compensation package are summarized below. The Compensation Committee may, however, in its discretion apply other factors in advising the Board of Directors with respect to executive compensation for future years.

- o Base Salary. The suggested base salary for each executive officer is determined on the basis of the following factors: experience, personal performance, the salary levels in effect for comparable positions within and without the industry and internal base salary comparability considerations. The weight given to each of these factors shall differ from individual to individual as the Compensation Committee deems appropriate and subject to any applicable employment agreements.

- o Bonus. The bonus for Messrs. James F. McCann, Christopher G. McCann, T. Guy Minetti, Gerard M. Gallagher, and William E. Shea is determined by the Company's financial performance. For other executive officers, consideration is also given to performance of the specific areas of the Company under the executive officer's direct control. This balance supports the accomplishment of the Company's overall financial objectives and rewards the individual contributions of our executive officers.

- o Long-Term Incentive Compensation. Long-term incentives are provided primarily through grants of stock options. The grants are designed to align the interests of each executive officer with those of the stockholders and provide each individual with a significant incentive to manage the Company from the perspective of an owner with an equity stake in the Company. Each option grant allows the individual to acquire shares of the Company's Common Stock at a fixed price per share over a specified period of time. Each option generally becomes exercisable in installments over a fixed period, contingent upon the executive officer's continued employment with the Company. Accordingly, the option grant will provide a return to the executive officer only if the executive officer remains employed by the Company during the vesting period, and then only if the market price of the underlying shares appreciates.

The number of shares subject to each option grant is set at a level intended to create a meaningful opportunity for stock ownership based on the executive officer's current position with the Company, the base salary associated with that position, the size of comparable awards made to individuals in similar positions within the industry, the individual's potential for increased responsibility and promotion over the option term and the individual's personal performance in recent periods. The Compensation Committee also intends to consider the number of unvested options held by the executive officer in order to maintain an appropriate level of equity incentive for that individual. However, the Compensation Committee may use its discretion in awarding options to the Company's executive officers.

CEO Compensation. In July 1999, the Board of Directors approved the Employment Agreement between the Company and James F. McCann, its Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, which initially provided for an annual salary of $1,000,000 and eligibility to participate in the Company's management incentive plan, or other bonus or benefits plans, stock option plan, and which is discussed in further detail under "Employment Agreements". The Board determined it to be in the best interests of the Company to enter into the Employment Agreement with Mr. McCann as of such date and believes that the agreement with Mr. McCann and the compensation paid thereunder for Fiscal 2002 was fair and reasonable. In determining the total compensation for Mr. McCann, and that such compensation was fair and reasonable in Fiscal 2002, a number of factors were taken into account. These factors included: the key role Mr. McCann has performed with the Company from its inception; the benefit to the Company in assuring the retention of his services; the performance of the Company compared to its budgeted performance during Fiscal 2002; the competitive market conditions for executive compensation; and the objective evaluation of Mr. McCann's performance of his duties as Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer.

Compliance with Internal Revenue Code Section 162(m). As a result of Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986 ("Section 162(m)"), as amended, which was enacted into law in 1993, the Company will not be allowed a federal income tax deduction for compensation paid to certain executive officers, to the extent that compensation exceeds $1 million per officer in any one year. This limitation will apply to all compensation paid to the covered executive officers which is not considered to be performance based. Compensation which qualifies as performance-based compensation will not have to be taken into account for purposes of this limitation. The 1999 Stock Incentive Plan contains certain provisions which are intended to ensure that any compensation deemed paid in connection with the exercise of stock options granted under that plan with an exercise price equal to the market price of the option shares on the grant date will qualify as performance-based compensation.

The Compensation Committee does not expect that the non-performance based compensation to be paid to any of the Company's executive officers, except James F. McCann for Fiscal 2002 will be subject to the deduction limitations of Section 162(m). Further, in accordance with issued Treasury Regulations relating to the $1 million limitation, the Committee may in the future determine to restructure one or more components of the compensation paid to the executive officers so as to qualify those components as performance-based compensation that will not be subject to the $1 million limitation.
