Part III Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K and Form 10-KSB, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q and Form 10-QSB, N-SAR or the transition report or portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Pursuant to Rule 12b-25 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, Gold Banc Corporation, Inc. (the "Company") is today filing only those parts of this Annual Report on Form 10-K ("Form 10-K") that it is able to file without unreasonable effort or expense. Due to the extensive compliance efforts associated with Section 404 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002 ("Sarbanes-Oxley"), the Company is not submitting Selected Consolidated Financial Data, Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations, Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures about Market Risk, Financial Statements and Supplementary Data, or Controls and Procedures.

On January 24, 2004, the Company entered into an agreement and plan of merger with Silver Acquisition Corp. ("Silver"), pursuant to which the Company would no longer be a publicly-held company upon consummation of the merger and would no longer be subject to Sarbanes-Oxley. The Company expected the merger to be consummated in the second or third quarter of 2004. Upon becoming aware in July 2004 of Silver's difficulties in obtaining regulatory approval of the merger, the Company accelerated its efforts to take steps needed to enable management to issue the report required by Sarbanes-Oxley. After determining that Silver would be unable to obtain regulatory approval for the merger, the Company terminated the merger agreement on October 11, 2004. The Company then further enhanced its efforts and devoted even more resources to achieving compliance with Sarbanes-Oxley. The Company's independent registered public accounting firm, KPMG LLP, was unable to issue its reports on the audit of the consolidated balance sheets of the Company as of December 31, 2004 and 2003, and the related consolidated statements of income, stockholders' equity and comprehensive income, and cash flows for each of the years in the period ended December 31, 2004, and the audit of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. The Company expects to complete its assessment and the finalization of its financial statements and is working closely with KPMG LLP in an effort to obtain the independent registered public accounting firm's reports within 15 days after the date hereof so that the Company can amend Form 10-K within that time period in order to include those items not submitted required by Items 6, 7, 7A, 8 and 9A of Form 10-K, and thereby deem the Form 10-K, as so amended, to have been timely filed on March 16, 2005.
