Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Edgar Filing: FIRST FINANCIAL FUND INC - Form SC 13D/A

No change except for the addition of the following:

As previously reported in this statement on Schedule 13D, at a hearing held on September 20, 2002, the United States District Court for the District of Maryland (the "District Court") stayed the effectiveness of its September 19, 2002 ruling until October 4, 2002 in connection with the lawsuit filed against the Company regarding the Company's bylaw requiring a 50% vote of all outstanding shares in order to elect directors (the "By-Law Lawsuit"). The District Court further reinstated the injunction enjoining the Company's Board from holding any meetings during the pendency of the stay. Judge Motz indicated that he was granting the stay so as to allow at least one judge of the United States Court of Appeals for the Fourth Circuit (the "Court of Appeals") time to review the issue.

On October 4, 2002, the Court of Appeals granted the Company's motion to extend the stay pending appeal and ordered an expedited briefing schedule. Oral arguments regarding the By-Law Lawsuit will be heard at the Court of Appeals' December term.

On Friday, October 18, 2002, the District Court held a hearing on Badlands' Emergency Motion to Restore Injunction Pending Appeal (the "Motion"). The Motion along with the Memorandum in Support of Plaintiff's Emergency Motion to Restore Injunction Pending Appeal (without exhibits filed with the District Court) are attached as Exhibit 18 and incorporated in this statement by reference. The Motion was filed in response to news that management of the Company had scheduled a meeting of the board of directors, including the carry-over directors, Robert E. LaBlanc and Eugene C. Dorsey, for Monday, October 21, 2002. The District Court granted Badlands' Motion and ordered that the Company not permit Messrs. La Blanc and Dorsey to sit or act as directors in any meeting of its board of directors until further order of the Court. The District Court also ordered that the remaining directors may meet as necessary and appropriate to consider and address matters arising in the ordinary course of the Company's business. However, the remaining directors may not act on matters that do not arise in the ordinary course of the Company's business, including extraordinary transactions, a material departure from prior dividend policy, or transactions affecting corporate governance or the jurisdiction or ability of the courts to afford complete relief in the litigation commenced by Badlands. Finally, the District Court ordered that a written agenda for any board meeting must be provided to the remaining directors at least forty-eight hours in advance of a meeting and that the remaining directors essentially be limited to acting on matters on the written agenda or those matters added only by unanimous consent at the meeting. A copy of the District Court's "Injunction Preserving Status Quo Pending Appeal" is attached as Exhibit 19 and incorporated in this statement by reference.

Item 7. Material to be Filed as Exhibits.

PLAINTIFF'S EMERGENCY MOTION
TO RESTORE INJUNCTION PENDING APPEAL

Pursuant to Rule 62(c) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and Rule 8(a)(1)(C) of the Federal Rules of Appellate Procedure, Plaintiff Badlands Trust Company, ("Badlands"), moves to preserve the status quo by restoring the injunction initially entered by this court on August 28, 2002, which the Court extended on September 10, 2002 and again on September 20, 2002, prohibiting Defendant First Financial Fund, Inc ("First Financial") from holding a meeting of its board of directors.

Edgar Filing: FIRST FINANCIAL FUND INC - Form SC 13D/A

On October 4, 2002 the Fourth Circuit - in a one sentence order - granted defendant-appellant First Financial a stay pending appeal, but did not address the issue addressed by this Court's injunction - whether the Board of First Financial might meet during the pendency of the appeal. First Financial has now made and announced plans to hold a board of directors meeting on October 21, 2002. Moreover, FF intends to have Robert E. LaBlanc and Eugene C. Dorsey ("LaBlancDorsey") - the two defeated incumbent directors - sit and participate in the meeting even though this Court has declared, in a final judgment, that LaBlanc and Dorsey cannot sit as members of the FF Board.

Badlands respectfully requests that the Court reinstate its prior injunction against meetings of the Board of Directors of First Financial until the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals, which has established an expedited briefing and oral argument schedule, with argument set for December 6, 2002, issues a ruling in the case in order to preserve the status quo.

The attached memorandum of law sets forth the facts and points of law that support this motion.

Civil Action No. JFM 02-CV-2423

MEMORANDUM IN SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S EMERGENCY MOTION
TO RESTORE INJUNCTION PENDING APPEAL

On three separate occasions during the litigation of this case, the Court granted Plaintiff Badlands Trust Company ("Badlands") injunctive relief to preserve the status quo in connection with its rulings on the merits of the underlying matter. On August 28, 2002, September 10, 2002 and September 20, 2002, the Court entered orders prohibiting the Board of Directors of Defendant First Financial Fund, Inc. ("First Financial") from holding a meeting until the legality of First Financial's director election bylaw was resolved.

On October 4, 2002, this Court's stay pending appeal - which was joined with an extension of the injunction against a meeting of the Board - expired and was replaced with an order for an expedited appeal and a stay pending that expedited appeal. (Exhibits A & B). The Circuit Court's one sentence order - an order clearly directed at maintenance of the status quo pending the result of the appeal - did not address, however, whether the Board might meet in the meantime. Footnote 1

Soon thereafter, First Financial made preparations to hold a meeting of its Board of Directors. Yesterday, First Financial's incumbent management, through its Secretary, Footnote 2 announced that a meeting is now scheduled to take place next Monday, October 21, 2002, at 12:30 PM. See Declaration of Steve C. Miller at Paragraph 3. (Exhibit C). First Financial's management has also indicated that it will meet on November 19, 2002. See id.

Any stay pending appeal is an effort to maintain the status quo. That works in both directions. Because any board meeting will harm Badlands and the shareholders of First Financial, First Financial should be enjoined from holding any board meeting until the appeal pending in the Fourth Circuit Court of Appeals is resolved.

A. Jurisdiction in the Court

Both Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 62(c) and Federal Rule of Appellate Procedure 8(a)(1)(C) authorize this Court to restore an injunction pending appeal. See Duke v. Uniroyal, Inc., 777 F.

Edgar Filing: FIRST FINANCIAL FUND INC - Form SC 13D/A

Supp. 428,430-31 (E.D.N.C. 1991). Even though the case is pending in the Court of Appeals, Rule 62(c) gives this Court authority to reinstate the injunction that expired on October 4,2002 in order to preserve the status quo while this case is pending on appeal. See, e.g., National Resources Defense Council v. Southwest Marine, Inc., 242 F.3d 1163, 1 166 (9th Cir. 2001). Indeed, under FRAP 8, Badlands is directed to apply to this Court, and not to the Fourth Circuit, to apply for restoration of the injunction pending appeal. See Fed. R. App. P. S(a)( 1)(C) ("A party must ordinarily move first in the district court for the following relief. . . . an order suspending, modifying, restoring, or granting an injunction while an appeal is pending.") (emphasis added); see also Koger v. United States, 755 F.2d 1094, 1098 (4th Cir. 1098).

B. The Injunction Against A Board Meeting Should Be Extended

Reinstatement of the injunction is necessary because, as this Court recognized on several occasions: Badlands would suffer irreparable harm if First Financial holds a board meeting that excludes the two directors duly elected by the shareholders of First Financial or if the Board holds a meeting and takes other action that will bind First Financial subsequent to any affirmance of this Court's Order. Indeed, the board meeting noticed for October 21,2002 does not include the two new Directors nominated by Badlands, whom this Court has ruled were duly elected by the shareholders of First Financial. Instead, First Financial intends to seat the defeated incumbents - Robert E. LaBlanc and Eugene C. Dorsey, the lame-duck directors whothis Court has declared, in a final judgment, cannot sit as members of the First Financial Board - at the meeting.

Moreover, any action of this Board of Directors will become void if the Fourth Circuit affirms this Court's holding in the case. If the Fourth Circuit ultimately affirms this Court's September 19, 2002 Opinion and Order, actions taken by the current board during the pending appeal would become an action by an illegal board, and thus void:

"[P]roceedings by directors at a meeting which was illegal . . . are absolutely void. . . ."Footnote 4 Fletcher Cyc Corp Section 428 (1997). The status quo in this case, which this Court continuously preserved while the case was litigated in this Court, is that no board meeting should take place until resolution of the lawsuit, including the present appeal.

There is no reason the board of directors of First Financial Fund should meet prior to December 6, 2002 - the date oral arguments will be presented to the Fourth Circuit in this case. See Miller Decl. at Paragraph 4. Indeed, in Larkin v. Baltimore Bancorp, 948 F.2d 1281 (4th Cir. 1991), the Fourth Circuit issued its Order affirming this Court's decision two days after oral argument. A similarly quick resolution by the Court of Appeals is likely in this case - the Court deliberately expedited the hearing of the appeal - providing the board of directors ample time to take any actions that may be necessary before the end of the calendar year. Accordingly, the First Financial Board of Directors should not be permitted to hold a meeting until the Fourth Circuit has issued a final ruling in the case.
