ANZ not to proceed with trustee merger

ANZ today announced the planned merger of ANZ's trustee business with Equity Trustees would not proceed.

Following the announcement of a Heads of Agreement between ANZ and Equity Trustees in October 2004, a number of issues emerged during due diligence that were unable to be resolved. This led to the decision by both parties not to proceed.

ANZ Group Managing Director Strategic Development, Mr Peter Hawkins, said: "ANZ Trustees continues to be a sound business which includes servicing the many charitable trusts that support the philanthropic work done by our clients.

We continue to believe the trustee sector offers opportunities for the Group, ANZ Trustees is a good business and the potential to advance the business strategically can be explored over the longer term.

ANZ and Vietnam's Sacombank form strategic alliance

ANZ and Sacombank, one of Vietnam's leading private commercial banks, today announced they had formed a strategic alliance to accelerate Sacombank's development as one of Vietnam's leading banks.

The alliance will involve ANZ acquiring 10% of Sacombank's share capital for US$27 million.

As part of the strategic alliance, ANZ will provide technical assistance in the areas of risk management and retail and small business banking. Sacombank will work with ANZ to leverage its growing consumer/small business franchise, which includes Vietnam's largest network of private commercial bank branches - 92 branches and 18 ATMs. ANZ will have representation on the Sacombank Board.

The alliance is a further step in ANZ's Asian growth strategy and builds on the success of its Asian business and its existing partnership investments in Indonesia and the Philippines. In Vietnam, ANZ is the largest foreign bank in terms of capital, customers and employees, with branches in Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City, and a representative office in Can Tho Province.

ANZ Group Managing Director Asia Pacific, Mr Elmer Funke Kupper said the alliance would assist Sacombank's growth and support Vietnam's continued economic expansion through the development of its financial services sector.

The alliance with Sacombank creates a unique growth opportunity based on Sacombank's strong distribution footprint and ANZ's capabilities in risk management, retail banking and technology, Mr Funke Kupper said.

With over a decade of experience in Vietnam, we believe this is a good platform to expand our presence in the rapidly growing Vietnamese banking sector. If changes take place in Vietnamese Law regarding the shareholding limit of foreign shareholders, ANZ's investment could increase over the longer term, he said.

Sacombank Chairman Mr Dang van Thanh said: The alliance with ANZ will assist us in accelerating the development of Sacombank into one of Vietnam's leading retail and small business banks.

The strategic alliance between ANZ and Sacombank is subject to the necessary regulatory approvals from the Vietnamese Government.

Note for Editors:

About Sacombank

Sacombank was formed in 1991 following the consolidation of four credit institutions in Ho Chi Minh City.

It is the largest private commercial bank in Vietnam by capital and the largest based on its network of 92 branches and 18 ANZ co-branded ATMs.

Sacombank's business is predominantly consumer and small to medium enterprises with its business geographically concentrated in Ho Chi Minh City.

Sacombank currently has two major foreign shareholders each with a 10% stake - The International Finance Corporation (IFC), a member of the World Bank Group; and Dragon Capital Holdings. It was the first bank in Vietnam to receive investment from IFC in 2002.

Sacombank has recently moved to adopt Western audit standards and International Accounting Standards.

ANZ in Vietnam

ANZ was one of the first foreign banks to establish a presence in Vietnam with a branch in Hanoi and a representative office in Ho Chi Minh City in 1993.

ANZ remains one of only six international banks to have more than one branch in Vietnam with full branches in Hanoi and Ho Chi Minh City and a representative office in Can Tho Province.

ANZ to open representative office in New Caledonia

ANZ today announced it will open a representative office in Nouméa, New Caledonia, to support the growing business and economic links between New Caledonia and Australia, New Zealand, Asia and the Pacific.

The office will represent and support the Group's capabilities outside New Caledonia including payments, treasury, trade finance and personal and private banking although it will not undertake commercial banking activities in New Caledonia.

ANZ Group Managing Director Pacific Mr Bob Lyon said the opening of the representative office in Nouméa was an exciting new step in developing ANZ's business in the Pacific.

We are already the leading bank in much of the Pacific and establishing a representative office in Nouméa gives ANZ a presence in one of the Pacific's largest economies for the first time. It will allow businesses and personal customers to directly access ANZ's capabilities in Australia, New Zealand, Asia and the Pacific, Mr Lyon said.

ANZ's representative in Nouméa will be Mr Ian Peterkin and its representative office will be located at Ground Floor, 9 rue d'Austerlitz, Noumea. The office can be contacted by phone on (687) 27 47 37 and fax on (687) 27 47 78 from Monday, 14 March.

ANZ dismisses Noga legal claim as mischievous

ANZ today confirmed that the High Court in London yesterday granted permission to Compagnie Noga d'Importation et d'Exportation SA (Noga) and a Swiss resident, Mr Nessim Gaon, to proceed with litigation against ANZ over its role in 1996 as an arranger of an emerging market debt buyback.

ANZ Chief Financial Officer, Mr Peter Marriott said: "We believe that Noga and Mr Gaon's claim which concerns a transaction dating back some nine years is opportunistic and mischievous, and will not be successful."

The claim relates to the buyback of overdue Nigerian Government bills of exchange in respect of which the Government paid a total of DEM973 million ($A860m). ANZ's former London-based Emerging Markets business acted as arranger of the buyback and escrow agent for DEM486 million (A$430m) in 1996. Noga and Mr Gaon allege the debt had been assigned to Noga in 1992. The claim against ANZ is yet to be properly formulated but Noga has asserted that it (and, through it, Mr Gaon) is entitled to up to the total amount paid by Nigeria in respect of the bills plus interest.

"While we do not normally comment on litigation, this disclosure has been made in view of the potential size of the claim, which in our view reinforces the opportunistic nature of the case. Following a careful review of the matter, in the bank's view the chances of the claim being successful are very remote and ANZ does not plan to make a provision for the matter," Mr Marriott said.

ANZ notes that:

The buyback was authorised by the legal Government of Nigeria in 1996.

ANZ had no notice of the existence of the alleged assignment of the debt to Noga in 1992 or of any proprietary claim by Noga to the bills or their proceeds and acted in good faith as an arranger to the transaction, including taking external legal advice.

The buyback was considered by authorities in the United Kingdom over five years ago and no action against ANZ arose in relation to the transaction. No new facts have been raised in the Noga claim.

The claim follows previous legal action by Noga dating back to 1999, which is still ongoing, against the Nigerian beneficiaries of the buyback that has to date been unsuccessful in resolving the matter.

Noga is apparently no longer an entity of substance and has assigned the claim to Mr Nessim Gaon, in order to avoid having to provide ANZ with security for costs.

ANZ's London-based Emerging Markets business was closed in 1998 following a decision to withdraw from emerging markets debt trading.
