Item 1.01. ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On March 20, 2008, LKQ Corporation (LKQ) entered into two interest rate swap agreements (collectively, the Swap Transactions and each individually a Swap Transaction) with J.P. Morgan Chase Bank, National Association, as counterparty under a 2002 ISDA Master Agreement dated March 20, 2008, as supplemented and amended by a schedule and confirmations related thereto. Each Swap Transaction contains customary representations and warranties and covenants and may be terminated prior to its expiration, including as a result of the prepayment of LKQ s current credit facilities. Any such early termination may require LKQ to make additional payments to the counterparties.

LKQ entered into the Swap Transactions in order to hedge the floating rate interest risk on LKQ s current credit facilities. Each Swap Transaction has an effective date of April 14, 2008. Under the terms of the Swap Transactions, LKQ is required to make monthly payments based on a fixed rate of interest on a notional amount to the counterparty while the counterparty is obligated to make monthly floating rate payments on the same notional amount to LKQ based on the one month London Interbank Offered Rate rounded up to the nearest 1/100th of 1%. All interest rates are calculated based on a 360-day year for actual days elapsed. One of the Swap Transactions has a notional amount of $50,000,000, a fixed interest rate of 2.43%, and a termination date of April 12, 2010. The other Swap Transaction has a notional amount of $200,000,000, a fixed interest rate of 2.74%, and a termination date of April 14, 2011. Our actual cost of borrowing will be the rates discussed above plus an applicable margin, which is currently 2.25%.
