TEAM FINANCIAL, INC. APPOINTS NEW DIRECTOR; VOWS TO DEFEAT DISSIDENT SHAREHOLDER'S SOUR GRAPES PROXY SOLICITATION FOR BOARD SEATS

Paola, Kansas, May 28, 2008 Team Financial, Inc. (the Company), (NASDAQ: TFIN) today announced the Board of Directors' unanimous appointment of Robert M. Blachly to fill a vacant Board of Directors seat, and that, as set forth in the Company's recent definitive proxy material, Mr. Blachly will serve as a nominee to the Board at the annual meeting of shareholders to be held on Tuesday, June 17th.

Mr. Blachly, age 58, has served as a director of our primary bank subsidiary, TeamBank, N.A. since August 2006, and continues to serve in that capacity, having recently been appointed to a special committee to oversee loan administration and credit risk. He has also served as a member of the board loan committee. He is Executive Vice President of The Industrial Fumigant Company, Olathe, Kansas, a multimillion dollar international supplier of food plant sanitization and consulting services, where he has served in various progressive capacities since 1976. He chaired its ESOP Committee from 1991 to 2005. Mr. Blachly is a graduate of the University of Kansas, B.S., Business Administration. His expertise in a growing and profitable company and his experience with an employee ownership plan will add to the strength and depth of our Board.

Mr. Blachly fills the seat of dissident shareholder, Keith B. Edquist, who resigned from the Board on May 20th in order to solicit proxies to seat his own slate of three Board members at the Company's upcoming annual meeting.

We believe Mr. Edquist's solicitation is a sour grapes attempt to obtain Board seats, as our Nominating Committee, consisting entirely of independent members, determined earlier this year that a highly qualified Board candidate, Mr. Blachly, should be nominated to serve instead of any other candidate. The Company believes Mr. Edquist and his hand-picked slate of two other nominees would not result in an increase in shareholder value and their presence on the Board would not be in the best interests of shareholders. Among other things, during the time Mr. Edquist served on the Board, he was generally uncooperative and antagonistic with the other Board members and our employees. The Company recently rejected an offer by Mr. Edquist to purchase one of our Nebraska bank branches because of the negative impact to the Company's shareholders.

Mr. Edquist's proxy solicitation expresses concern about the Company's executive pay practices. He has not disclosed that while on our Compensation Committee he was integral to reviewing our executives' compensation and in late 2005 led the approval of an executive employment and salary package for the then chief financial officer which was identical in material form to the compensation package offered to the CEO. The Company, its Board, and the various committees of the Board adhere to the corporate governance practices in compliance with applicable law, under the guiding principle that all actions taken by them will be in the best long-term interests of shareholders. The Compensation Committee, which is comprised solely of independent directors, diligently examines appropriate compensation levels for the Company's named executive officers. Compensation is reviewed annually and is tied to Company performance through numerous factors including asset growth, return on average equity, earnings growth compared to the prior year's performance, and strategic positioning of the Company for the future. The Company disagrees with Mr. Edquist's conclusion that he was relieved of his Board committee responsibilities "...when I objected to the Chairman of the Compensation Committee's procedures. Nominations to our Board are thoroughly discussed and analyzed by our Nominating Committee, all of whom are independent directors, using well thought out, established practices.

We strongly urge our shareholders to vote for the Company's nominees to the Board, all of whom are highly qualified and committed to our mission of full service community banking through our dedicated and hard working employees. Between now and the annual meeting on June 17th we will be providing our shareholders with additional soliciting material demonstrating, we believe, the superiority of our highly qualified nominees compared to Mr. Edquist and his nominees.
