PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Springleaf Holdings, Inc. (the Registrant) has experienced a delay in completing the financial statements and related disclosures to be included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 (the Annual Report). As a result of this delay, the Registrant is unable to file its Annual Report by the prescribed filing date without unreasonable effort or expense.

The Registrant does not currently anticipate that its statements of operations, as will be reflected in the Annual Report when filed, will differ materially from its Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2013 statements of operations as disclosed in its press release dated March 11, 2014.

The Registrant's inability to timely file its Annual Report is a result of time needed to address certain accounting matters. We believe that these matters—accounting for structural attributes of certain securitizations and investment securities as embedded derivatives, and the accretion of the effective interest expense on certain indebtedness of the company—have been resolved. However, for the purposes of filing the Annual Report, the recording of adjustments relating to these matters, together with recording to the appropriate periods certain previously recorded and disclosed out-of-period adjustments, are not yet complete.

In addition, the Registrant expects to report in the Form 10-K a material weakness in its internal control over financial reporting in connection with accounting for complex transactions. The Company is determining the steps necessary to remediate the material weakness.

Edgar Filing: Springleaf Holdings, Inc. - Form NT 10-K

The Registrant currently anticipates that it will be able to complete the work described above in time for the Registrant to file its Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2013 within the 15 day extension provided by Rule 12b-25. However, there can be no assurance that the Registrant will be able to file the Form 10-K within such 15 day period.

For a comparison of 2012 and 2013 results, refer to the Registrant's statements of operations for the Fourth Quarter and Full Year 2013, as disclosed in the Registrant's press release dated March 11, 2014 and furnished as an exhibit to the Registrant's Form 8-K dated March 11, 2014, as supplemented by the discussion herein in Part III. The Registrant presently anticipates that its results for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2013 will be materially consistent with the results reported in such press release.
