Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Amendment No. 1 to the Separation Agreement

On June 25, 2014, Nabors Industries Ltd., a Bermuda exempted company (Nabors), and Nabors Red Lion Limited, a Bermuda exempted company and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Nabors (Red Lion), entered into a Separation Agreement (the Separation Agreement) pursuant to which, prior to the Merger (as defined below), Nabors will undergo a restructuring to separate Nabors completion and production services businesses in the U.S. and Canada (the C&P Business) from the other businesses of Nabors, as a result of which Red Lion will own solely the C&P Business (the Separation). On February 6, 2015, Nabors and Red Lion, with the consent of C&J Energy Services, Inc., a Delaware corporation (C&J), entered into Amendment No. 1 to the Separation Agreement (the Amendment No. 1 to the Separation Agreement), which provides for a $250 million reduction in the aggregate face value of the intercompany notes issued to Nabors in connection with the Separation, which notes will be repaid by Red Lion in connection with the closing of the Merger. Accordingly, upon the closing of the Merger, Nabors will receive total consideration comprised of approximately $688 million in cash and approximately 62.5 million Red Lion common shares. At closing, the authorized share capital of Red Lion would consist of 750 million common shares and 50 million preferred shares.

The foregoing description of the Amendment No. 1 to the Separation Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to such agreement which is filed as Exhibit 10.1 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference.

Amendment No. 1 to the Merger Agreement

On June 25, 2014, Nabors and Red Lion entered into a definitive merger agreement (the Merger Agreement) with C&J, pursuant to which, subject to the terms and conditions thereof, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Red Lion will merge with and into C&J, with C&J surviving as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Red Lion (the Merger). On February 6, 2015, the parties to the Merger Agreement entered into Amendment No. 1 to the Merger Agreement (the Amendment No. 1 to the Merger Agreement), which revises the descriptions of the opinions to be delivered by each party s tax advisors in connection with the closing of the Merger. The tax opinion to be delivered to Nabors will be required to state that the distribution of Nabors Completion & Production Services Co. by Nabors International Finance Inc. to Nabors Blue Shield Ltd. is subject to the possible application of Section 355(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code). The tax opinion to be delivered to C&J will be required to state that it is more likely than not that (i) the Merger qualifies as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and (ii) Red Lion qualifies as a corporation under Section 367(a) of the Code with respect to each transfer of property in connection with the Merger (with certain exceptions). Additionally, Amendment No. 1 to the Merger Agreement (1) provides that if Nabors fails to deliver certain required financial information to C&J on or before the close of business on March 3, 2015, Nabors will not be entitled to recover a $65 million termination fee in the event Nabors terminates the Merger Agreement on the basis that C&J s financing arrangements are not available to close the Merger, and (2) requires C&J to request each person treated as a 5-percent transferee shareholder (as defined in the Treasury Regulations) to enter into a gain recognition agreement (as defined in the Treasury Regulations) following the closing of the Merger.

The foregoing description of the Amendment No. 1 to Merger Agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to such agreement which is filed as Exhibit 10.2 hereto and is incorporated herein by reference. Capitalized terms used in the foregoing description but not defined herein shall have the meaning given to them in Amendment No. 1 to the Merger Agreement.

Loan Agreement

On February 6, 2015, Nabors Industries, Inc. (NII), a wholly owned subsidiary of Nabors, and Nabors entered into a term loan agreement (the Loan Agreement) with Citibank, N.A., Mizuho Bank, Ltd., HSBC Bank USA, N.A. and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. for a $300 million, three-year unsecured term loan facility. Nabors fully and unconditionally guarantees the obligations of NII under the Loan Agreement.

Under the Loan Agreement, Citigroup Global Markets Inc. and Mizuho Bank, Ltd. are joint lead arrangers and bookrunners, HSBC Bank USA, N.A. and Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. are documentation agents, Mizuho Bank, Ltd. is syndication agent and Citibank, N.A. is administrative agent.

Borrowings under the Loan Agreement will bear interest for interest periods of one, two, three or six months, at an annual rate equal to the London Interbank Offered Rate for the corresponding deposits of U.S. dollars, plus the applicable interest margin. The margin is based on Nabors' long-term unsecured credit rating for debt as in effect from time to time. Based on Nabors' current unsecured debt rating, the margin is 150 bps. In the event that Nabors or its subsidiaries receives net proceeds of $70 million or more from a material asset disposition, material debt issuance or material equity issuance, such proceeds must be used to prepay borrowings under the Loan Agreement. The Loan Agreement contains representations and warranties, covenants and events of default which are customary for loan facilities of this type.

The foregoing description of the Loan Agreement does not purport to be complete. A copy of the Loan Agreement, which is filed hereto as Exhibit 10.3, is incorporated herein by reference and should be read in its entirety for a complete description of its provisions.
