Vale informs the withdrawal of HDRs listing on the HKEx

Rio de Janeiro, April 27, 2016 – Vale S.A. (Vale) informs that its Board of Directors approved the proposal for withdrawal of the HDRs listing on the Hong Kong Stock Exchange (HKEx). The withdrawal is subject to the approval of the HKEx and is expected to become effective at 9:00 am (Hong Kong time) on July 28th, 2016, upon such approval.

The notice to HDR holders, which is available on our website (www.vale.com under the Investor Relations section), was released today with details on the withdrawal of the HDRs listing.

The withdrawal of the HDRs listing is in line with Vale's simplification strategy.

This press release may include statements that present Vale's expectations about future events or results. All statements, when based upon expectations about the future and not on historical facts, involve various risks and uncertainties. Vale cannot guarantee that such statements will prove correct. These risks and uncertainties include factors related to the following: (a) the countries where we operate, especially Brazil and Canada; (b) the global economy; (c) the capital markets; (d) the mining and metals prices and their dependence on global industrial production, which is cyclical by nature; and (e) global competition in the markets in which Vale operates. To obtain further information on factors that may lead to results different from those forecast by Vale, please consult the reports Vale files with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), the Brazilian Comissão de Valores Mobiliários (CVM), the French Autorité des Marchés Financiers (AMF), and The Stock Exchange of Hong Kong Limited, and in particular the factors discussed under "Forward-Looking Statements" and "Risk Factors" in Vale's annual report on Form 20-F.
