Fiscal 2016 Bonus Determinations

On April 5, 2017, the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company approved cash bonus payments to the Company s named executive officers under the Annual Incentive Plan (the AIP) and Long Term Incentive Plan (LTIP), in respect of fiscal 2016. This bonus compensation information was not included in the Summary Compensation Table included in the Company s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2016, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 29, 2017 (the Form 10-K), because the amount of the AIP and LTIP payments had not been determined at the time of filing the Form 10-K. In accordance with Item 5.02(f), the table below updates the Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation and Total columns in the fiscal 2016 summary compensation table for the named executive officers previously set forth in the Form 10-K. No other amounts have changed.

(4) For Mr. Becker, $2,117,841 represents the incremental fair value on the modification date in accordance with Financial Accounting Standards Codification Topic 718 (ASC 718) with respect to the reduction to $23.20 of the exercise price per share of certain options granted under the 2013 Plan. See 2016 Stock Option Repricing/Retention Equity Grant and 2016 Grants of Plan-Based Awards for more information. $1,953,704 represents the grant date fair value, which is an estimated value computed in accordance with ASC 718, of option awards granted to Mr. Becker in 2016. See Grants of Plan-Based Awards for more information. Please refer to Note 13, Share-based Compensation, in our consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in the Form 10-K for a discussion of the assumptions related to the calculation of such value.
For 2016, includes $24,987 for executive supplemental disability plan premium paid by us, $10,750 for medical concierge services, as well as other personal expense reimbursement. For 2015, includes $24,987 for executive supplemental disability plan premiums paid by us and $10,000 for medical concierge services, as well as transportation and personal expense reimbursement. For 2014, includes $20,934 for executive supplemental disability plan premiums paid by us, $2,371 for medical expense reimbursement and $10,000 for medical concierge services.
(6) The amounts reported represent the grant date fair value, which is an estimated value computed in accordance with ASC 718, of RSUs and PSUs granted to the NEOs in 2016. For Mr. Serck-Hanssen this amount represents $504,740 for RSUs, which vest over time, subject to continued employment and $201,900 for PSUs which vest based on achievement of certain Corporate performance targets and continued employment through June 17, 2018. For Mr. Berckemeyer, this amount represents $504,740 for RSUs, which vest over time, subject to continued employment and $201,900 for PSUs which vest based on achievement of certain corporate performance targets and continued employment through June 17, 2018. For Ms. Singer this amount represents $250,285 for RSUs, which vest over time, subject to continued employment and $100,115 for PSUs which vest based on achievement of certain corporate performance targets and continued employment through June 17, 2018. Please refer to Note 13, Share-based Compensation, in our consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in the Form 10-K for a discussion of the assumptions related to the calculation of such value.
(7) Represents the incremental fair value on the modification date in accordance with ASC 718 with respect to the reduction to $23.20 of the exercise price per share of certain options granted under the 2013 Plan. See 2016 Stock Option Repricing/Retention Equity Grant and 2016 Grants of Plan-Based Awards for more information. Please refer to Note 13, Share-based Compensation, in our consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in the Form 10-K for a discussion of the assumptions related to the calculation of such value.
For 2016, includes $3,609 for executive supplemental disability plan premiums paid by us. For 2015, includes $3,609 for executive supplemental disability plan premiums paid by us and $713 in distributions on unvested restricted shares. For 2014, includes $3,609 for executive supplemental disability plan premiums paid by us and $397 in distributions on unvested restricted shares.
The amounts reported represent the grant date fair value, which is an estimated value computed in accordance with ASC 718, of RSUs and PSUs, as applicable, granted to the NEOs in 2015. For Mr. Serck-Hanssen this amount represents RSUs, which vest over time, subject to continued employment. For Mr. Guimarães this amount includes RSUs and PSUs. PSUs vest based on achievement of certain corporate performance targets. In accordance with ASC 718 we account for PSUs based on the amount probable to vest at each period end date. If we were to assume the highest level of performance on these PSUs, Mr. Guimarães s total Stock Award grant date fair value would be $7,163,617. Please refer to Note 13, Share-based Compensation, in our consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in the Form 10-K for a discussion of the assumptions related to the calculation of such value.
(10) For 2016, includes $4,639 for executive supplemental disability plan premiums paid by us and $28,314 for family transportation.
