The telephone number for the Corporation is (724) 867-2311. All inquiries should be directed to David L. Cox, President. This Proxy Statement and the enclosed form of proxy (the "Proxy") are first being sent to shareholders of the Corporation on April 23, 2001.

Solicitation

Shares represented by proxies on the accompanying Proxy, if properly signed and returned, will be voted in accordance with the specifications made thereon by the shareholders. Any Proxy not specifying to the contrary will be voted for the election of the three (3) nominees for Class A Director named below and for the approval of S. R. Snodgrass, A.C., Certified Public Accountants as the independent auditors for the fiscal year ending December 31, 2001. Execution and return of the enclosed Proxy will not affect a shareholder's right to attend the Annual Meeting and vote in person.

The cost of preparing, assembling, mailing and soliciting proxies will be borne by the Corporation. In addition to the use of the mails, certain directors, officers and employees of the Corporation intend to solicit proxies personally, by telephone and by telefacsimile. Arrangements will be made with brokerage houses and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries to forward proxy solicitation material to the beneficial owners of stock held of record by these persons, and, upon request therefor, the Corporation will reimburse them for their reasonable forwarding expenses.

Right of Revocation

A shareholder who returns a Proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted by: (1) delivering written notice of revocation to John J. ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Corporation has a classified Board of Directors with staggered 3-year terms of office. In a classified board, the directors are generally divided into separate classes of equal number. The terms of the separate classes expire in successive years. Thus, at each Annual Meeting of Shareholders, successors to the class of directors whose term shall then expire shall be elected to hold office for a term of three years, so that the office of one class shall expire each year.

Unless otherwise instructed, the Board of Directors of the Corporation or its designee, the proxy holder, will have the right to cast their votes for the nominees, unless the shareholder indicates on his or her Proxy how he or she desires the votes to be cast. If any nominee should become unavailable for any reason, proxies will be voted in favor of a substitute nominee as the Board of Directors of the Corporation shall determine. The Board of Directors has no reason to believe the nominees named will be unable to serve if elected. Any vacancy occurring on the Board of Directors of the Corporation for any reason may be filled by a majority of the directors then in office until the expiration of the term of the vacancy. The Board of Directors recommends that its nominees be elected as Directors.

There have been no material transactions, proposed or consummated, between the Corporation and the Bank with any director or executive officer of the Corporation or the Bank, or any associate of the foregoing persons. The Bank, like many financial institutions, has followed a policy of granting various types of loans to officers, directors, and employees. With the exception of the loans presented in the following table, all loans to executive officers and directors of the Corporation and the Bank have been made in the ordinary course of business and on substantially the same terms and conditions, including interest rates and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable transactions with the Bank's other customers, and do not involve more than the normal risk of collectibility nor present other unfavorable features. The Board of Directors maintains a policy granting a discount of 100 basis points on loans extended to employees including executive officers. RATIFICATION OF INDEPENDENT PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS

Unless instructed to the contrary, it is intended that votes will be cast pursuant to the proxies for the ratification of the selection of S. R. Snodgrass, A.C., Certified Public Accountants, of Wexford, Pennsylvania ("Snodgrass"), as the Corporation's independent public accountants for its fiscal year ending December 31, 2001. In addition to performing customary audit services, Snodgrass assisted the Corporation with the preparation of its federal and state tax returns, provided assistance in connection with regulatory matters and provided other internal audit outsourcing services, charging the Corporation for such services at its customary hourly billing rates. These non-audit services were approved by the Corporation's and the Bank's Board of Directors, after due consideration of the effect of the performance thereof on the independence of the accountants and after the conclusion by the Corporation's and the Bank's Board of Directors that there was no effect on the independence of the

Fees

The following table sets forth the aggregate fees Emclaire Financial Corp. incurred for audit and non-audit services provided by S. R. Snodgrass, A.C., who acted as independent auditors for the fiscal year ending 2000 and performed Emclaire Financial Corp.'s audit services in fiscal year 2000. All Other Fees. All other fees include the aggregate fees billed for services rendered by S. R. Snodgrass, A.C. other than those services covered above.

The audit committee of the board did consider whether the provision of financial information systems design and implementation services and other non-audit services is compatible with maintaining the independence of S. R. Snodgrass, A.C.

In the event that the shareholders do not ratify the selection of Snodgrass as the Corporation's independent public accountants for the 2001 fiscal year, another accounting firm will be chosen to provide independent public accountant audit services for the 2001 fiscal year. The Board of Directors recommends that the shareholders vote FOR the ratification of the selection of Snodgrass as the auditors for the Corporation for the year ending December 31, 2001.

Edgar Filing: EMCLAIRE FINANCIAL CORP - Form DEF 14A

It is understood that even if the selection of Snodgrass is ratified, the Board of Directors, in its discretion, may direct the appointment of a new independent auditing firm at any time during the year if the Board of Directors determines that such a change would be in the best interests of the Corporation and its shareholders.

ANNUAL REPORT

A copy of the Corporation's Annual Report for its fiscal year ended December 31, 2000, is being mailed with this Proxy Statement. Such Annual Report is not to be treated as part of the proxy solicitation material or having been incorporated herein by reference. A representative of Snodgrass, the accounting firm which examined the financial statements in the Annual Report, will not attend the Annual Meeting.

SHAREHOLDER PROPOSALS

Any shareholder who, in accordance with and subject to the provisions of the proxy rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission, wishes to submit a proposal for inclusion in the Corporation's proxy statement for its 2001 Annual Meeting of Shareholders must deliver such proposal in writing to the Secretary of Emclaire Financial Corp. at the principal executive offices of the Corporation at 612 Main Street, Post Office Box D, Emlenton, Pennsylvania 16373, not later than Thursday, December 16, 2001.

Consistent with this function, the Audit Committee should encourage continuous improvement of, and should foster adherence to, the Company's policies, procedures and practices at all levels. The Audit Committee's primary duties and responsibilities are to:

The Audit Committee will primarily fulfill these responsibilities by carrying out the activities in Section IV of this Charter.

II. MEMBERSHIP

The Audit Committee will be composed of not less than three outside Directors.
