NEWS RELEASE

ABLEAUCTIONS AND ICOLLECTOR.COM REACH SETTLEMENT WITH LIVEAUCTIONEERS LLC, JULIAN ELLISON AND JOHN RALSTON

Ableauctions.com Inc. (AMEX:AAC) (the Company) announced today that it has reached a settlement in the suit brought against Liveauctioneers LLC, Julian Ellison, and John Ralston. In February 2005, a jury in the Supreme Court of the State of New York, County of New York, awarded damages to the Company and iCollector.com Technologies Ltd. (iCollector) after unanimously finding that, in 2002, Ellison breached the fiduciary duty he owed to iCollector and that Liveauctioneers LLC, Ellison, and John Ralston engaged in acts of unfair competition.

Under the terms of the settlement agreement, Liveauctioneers, Ellison and Ralston have agreed to pay the Company $310,000 over the course of one year beginning with a $155,000 payment due in September 2005.

Abdul Ladha, CEO of Ableauctions, commented, "We believe the settlement was in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. This truly marks the end of a contentious period. We look forward to focusing our energy in building and developing our core businesses."

iCollector.com is the preeminent supplier of live online auction technology to the world's most prestigious galleries and industrial auction houses. It is the only auction technology company to be endorsed by the National Auctioneers Association (NAA) and has partnered with eBay Live Auctions in broadcasting real-time on the Internet. iCollector's technology enables auction houses to open their establishments to the world by allowing online bidders to participate in real-time on the auction floor.
