To the Shareholders of WorldWide Online Corp.:

Auditors' Report

We have audited the balance sheet of WorldWide Online Corp. as at December 31, 2001 and the statements of income and deficit and cash flows for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the company as at December 31, 2001 and the results of its operations and cash flows for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

	2001	2000
Interest paid	$ 5,397	$ 10,278
Income taxes paid	-	-

13. Reconciliation to US GAAP

a) Stock Options

US GAAP Accounting Principles Board Option 25 requires compensation cost to be recognized for stock options granted to employees when the options price is less than the market price of the underlying common stock on the date of grant.

Canadian GAAP

has no such requirement. As no options were issued by the Company, there would be no adjustment required to the financial statements.

b) Management fees

Under US GAAP the Company must recognize the value of services contributed to the Company by its Officers.

Under Canadian

GAAP there is no such requirement. The contribution by the officers was recognized as the officers were compensated for their services, no adjustment would be required.

c) Marketable securities

Under US GAAP the Marketable Securities are classified as trading and reported at fair value. Under Canadian GAAP, marketable securities are valued at the lesser of purchase price or fair value, however if fair value increases, no increase is recorded. As the Company has no marketable securities there would be no adjustment required.

14. Going concern

These financial statements have been prepared on the basis of a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and liquidation of liabilities in the normal course of business. As at December 31, 2001 the Company was in a deficit position from accumulated operating losses.

Continuation of the Company as a going concern is dependent upon the Company's ability to generate future profitable operations.

To the Shareholders of WorldWide Online Corp.:

Auditors' Report

We have audited the interim balance sheet of WorldWide Online Corp. as at September 30, 2002 and the interim statements of income and deficit and cash flows for the period from January 1, 2002 to September 30, 2002. These interim financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these interim financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted our audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the interim financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the interim financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these interim financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the company as at September 30, 2002 and the results of its operations and cash flows for the period then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.
