Peace Arch Announces Sony Pictures Worldwide Acquisitions Group and the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation Have Acquired International Distribution Rights for Second Season of Acclaimed Series The Tudors

Renewed Agreements Follow First Season's Record Setting U.S. Premiere on Showtime Networks, Four Emmy Award Nominations, Two Emmy Award Wins and Successful Worldwide Distribution by Sony Pictures Television International

TORONTO September 19, 2007 - Peace Arch Entertainment Group Inc. (AMEX: PAE) (TSX: PAE), an integrated global entertainment company creating critically-acclaimed television, film and DVD content for worldwide distribution, has announced that Sony Pictures Worldwide Acquisitions Group (SPWAG) and the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation (CBC) have acquired international distribution rights for the second season of the critically acclaimed, and multi-Emmy® Award-winning ten-hour series The Tudors. These agreements for The Tudors are a milestone achievement for Peace Arch as the Company continues to generate revenues from its growing portfolio of film, television and DVD productions for lucrative international and domestic distribution.

Sony Pictures Worldwide Acquisitions Group has agreed to extend its previous license agreement for DVD, television, mobile and new media exclusive distribution rights to the second season of The Tudors outside North America. Sony has already successfully begun premiering the first season of the series in several key international markets this summer. Peace Arch licensed Canadian television rights to the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, which will broadcast the series' first season in Canada, beginning October 2, 2007.

The Tudors is produced by Peace Arch Entertainment and TM Productions in association with the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation and Showtime Networks. The series premiered in the United States to record audiences on Showtime, which holds all U.S. distribution rights. Peace Arch owns all distribution rights outside the United States. Peace Arch Home Entertainment will distribute the series on DVD in Canada.

The decision by Sony and the CBC to acquire distribution rights to The Tudors for a second season is a significant achievement for Peace Arch and will provide strong support for our 2008 financial performance, said Gary Howsam, Chief Executive Officer of Peace Arch Entertainment. We're delighted to be working on The Tudors for another year. It is a project that we believe will continue to provide Peace Arch with consistent revenues and increase the Company's profile with mainstream media coverage and award-winning programming.

Added SPWAG President Peter Schlessel, We are pleased to continue our relationship with Peace Arch on The Tudors. This series is a fine example of the type of quality entertainment that our distribution system handles so well.

CBC Television is thrilled to bring the second season of this seductive and entertaining series to Canadian fans of The Tudors, said Kirstine Layfield, CBC's Executive Director of Network Programming.

Season one of The Tudors, a ten-part series of one hour episodes, tells the tale of the young, powerful, seductive King Henry VIII, focusing on the tumultuous early years of the ambitious King's nearly 40 year reign of England. Bold and passionate about his country and his women, Henry's obsession with ensuring his legacy led to beheadings of friend and foe, waging war, and challenging the almighty Catholic Church of England, forever changing the soul of the British Empire.

The Tudors earned four 2007 Emmy Award nominations from the Academy of Television Arts & Sciences: Outstanding Casting for a Drama Series, Outstanding Art Direction for a Single Camera Series, Outstanding Costumes for a Series, and Outstanding Original Main Title Theme Music. The series took the Emmy Awards in the latter two categories.
