If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed.(Check box if appropriate.)

- (a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense.

Part III - Narrative

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

The Registrant's filing of its Report on Form 10-Q is delayed due to the Registrant's inability to timely process the financial information for the quarter and present it to the Registrant's independent registered public accounting firm for review and comment prior to the filing deadline. The Registrant does anticipate filing its quarterly report within the additional time provided by this filing. The delay in processing is a result of the Registrant's acquisition of (i) all of the outstanding equity of Fenwick Automotive Products Limited, a corporation incorporated under the laws of Ontario ("FAPL"), (ii) all of the outstanding equity of Introcan Inc., a Delaware corporation ("Introcan"), and (iii) 1% of the outstanding equity of Fapco S.A. de C.V., a Mexican variable capital company ("Fapco") (collectively, "Fenco").

Yes √ No

If answer is no, identify report(s).

3. Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

Yes √ No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

The results of operations for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2011 are expected to show significant changes when compared to the same period for the last fiscal year. These changes reflect, among other things, the acquisition of Fenco and the restatement of Fenco's financials to reflect Fenco's adoption of US GAAP (rather than Canadian GAAP), net-of-core accounting, the establishment of various reserves, conversion from Canadian dollar to US dollar, and the adoption of various accounting policies related to inventory and accounts receivable. As the Registrant is currently still processing its financial information for the fiscal quarter ended September 30, 2011, a reasonable quantitative estimate of the results for such fiscal quarter cannot be made at this time.
