Item 3. Incorporation of Documents by Reference

The following documents filed by Arbios Systems, Inc. (the “Company”) with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the “Commission”) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the “Exchange Act”) (Commission File No. 0-32603) are incorporated herein by reference: (a) the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-KSB, as amended, for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004; and (b) The description of the Company’s Common Stock that is contained in the Registration Statement on Form 10-SB, as amended filed on November 11, 2001 (Registration No. 0-32603); and any amendment or report filed for the purpose of updating such description.

In addition, any document filed by the Company with the Commission pursuant to Sections 13(a), 13(c), 14 or 15(d) of the Exchange Act subsequent to the date hereof, but prior to the filing of a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement which indicates that all shares of Common Stock registered hereunder have been sold or that deregisters all such shares of Common Stock then remaining unsold, will be deemed incorporated herein by reference and to be a part hereof from the date of filing of such document.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers

The Company’s Articles of Incorporation provide that no officer or director shall be personally liable to this corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director or officer of this corporation. Sections 78.7502, 78.751 and 78.752 of the Nevada Revised Statutes authorize a corporation, under certain circumstances to indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents. The Company’s bylaws and Articles of Incorporation also provide that it shall, to the maximum extent and in the manner permitted by the Nevada Revised Statutes, indemnify each person who serves at any time as a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company from and against any and all expenses, judgments, fines, settlements and other amounts actually and reasonable incurred in connection with any proceeding arising by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the Company. The Company also has the power to defend such person from all suits or claims in accord with the Nevada Revised Statutes. The rights accruing to any person under the Company’s bylaws and Articles of Incorporation do not exclude any other right to which any such person may lawfully be entitled, and the Company may indemnify or reimburse such person in any proper case, even though not specifically provided for by the bylaws and Articles of Incorporation.

Generally, under Nevada law, a corporation may indemnify officers, directors, employees and agents of a corporation against all expenses (including attorneys’ fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with any threatened, pending or completed civil, criminal, administrative or investigative proceeding (other than derivative actions) if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation and, with respect to any criminal action, they had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful. With respect to derivative actions, officers, directors, employees and agents of a corporation may be indemnified against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred by them in connection with the defense or settlement of such action if they acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no such indemnification may be made in respect of any claim as to which such person shall have been adjudged to be liable to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the court in which the action was brought determines that such person is entitled to indemnification despite the adjudication of liability. To the extent that an officer, director, employee or agent is successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to above, the corporation shall indemnify such officer, director, employee or agent against expenses (including attorneys’ fees) actually and reasonably incurred in connection therewith. Any indemnification (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Company only as authorized in the specific case upon a determination that indemnification of the director or officer is proper in the circumstances because the officer or director has met the applicable standard of conduct. Such determination shall be made by the Board of Directors by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of Directors who were not parties to such action, suit, or proceeding, or, regardless of whether or not such a quorum is obtainable and a quorum of disinterested Directors so directs, by independent legal counsel in a written opinion, or by the stockholders.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities for damages arising under the Securities Act of 1933, (the “Act”) may be permitted to the Company’s directors, officers, and controlling persons pursuant to the foregoing provision, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Security and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable.

Item 9. Undertakings

(a) The Company hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement. Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which is registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the “Calculation of Registration Fee” table in the effective registration statement.

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement;

(iv) provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by the Company pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered hereunder which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The Company hereby undertakes:

That for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Company's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Company pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Company has been advised that in the opinion of the Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Company of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Company in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Company will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
