Use of Forward Looking Statements in this Report

This Annual Report on Form 10-KSB (the "Annual Report") contains forward-looking statements. These forward-looking statements include predictions regarding our future:

- business plans;
- financing plans;
- general and administrative expenses;
- liquidity and sufficiency of existing cash;
- the outcome of pending or threatened litigation; and
- the effect of recent accounting pronouncements on our financial condition and results of operations.

You can identify these and other forward-looking statements by the use of words such as "may," "will," "expects," "anticipates," "believes," "estimates," "continues," or the negative of such terms, or other comparable terminology. Forward-looking statements also include the assumptions underlying or relating to any of the foregoing statements.

Our actual results could differ materially from those anticipated in these forward-looking statements as a result of various factors, including those set forth below under the heading "Risk Factors." All forward-looking statements included in this document are based on information available to us on the date hereof. We assume no obligation to update any forward-looking statements.

The information contained in this Annual Report is as of December 31, 2004, unless expressly stated otherwise.

Overview

NuWay Medical, Inc., a Delaware corporation (the "Company") had no continuing business operations as of December 31, 2004. At this time, the Company is operating as a public shell and management is seeking merger and acquisition candidates with ongoing operations.

Over the course of several years, the Company has attempted to enter various businesses through the acquisitions of entities operating ongoing businesses or technology that needed to be developed and marketed. However, as a result of various factors, primarily inadequate capital and the inability to raise sufficient financing successfully, these acquisitions could not be properly exploited and integrated to produce profitable operations by the Company. Management of the Company has elected to dispose, through sales or other means, these acquisitions.

The Company was initially organized as Repossession Auction, Inc. under the laws of the State of Florida in 1989. In 1991, the Company merged into a Delaware corporation bearing the same name. In 1994, the Company's name was changed to Latin American Casinos, Inc. to reflect its focus on the gaming and casino business in South and Central America, and in 2001 the Company changed its name to NuWay Energy, Inc. to reflect its new emphasis on the oil and gas development industry. During October 2002, the Company's name was changed to NuWay Medical, Inc. coincident with the divestiture of its non-medical assets and the retention of new management.

Since March 2003, new management of the Company has struggled to deal with the following issues, often simultaneously:

- Limited capital resources in a prolonged period of difficulty in the capital markets, especially for small public companies, creating severe limitations on the Company's ability to maintain its reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act"), and its business operations
- Trying to exploit technologies or businesses that existed when the Company's president, Dennis Calvert, took the helm of management
 - Determining which businesses were worth pursuing and which were not
 - Trying to acquire or develop new businesses
- Because of the scarcity of cash on hand, using common stock and securities convertible into common stock to bring on board employees, directors, consultants, professional service providers and advisors
- Because of the scarcity of cash on hand, using common stock and securities convertible into common stock to acquire businesses
- Dealing with inquiries from the SEC regarding certain practices and transactions in the Company's past, including questions raised about any continued involvement of Mark Roy Anderson in the ongoing business of the Company
 - Dealing with the NASDAQ Qualifications Panel hearing process in May 2003
 - Dealing with the delisting of the Company's common stock from the NASDAQ Small Cap Market
- Dealing with inquiries from the Federal Bureau of Investigations ("FBI") related to any past dealings with Mr. Anderson or his affiliates
- Dealing with litigation with former officers of the Company and related litigation stemming from their leadership of the Company

These issues present extraordinary challenges to management as it tries slowly to turn the situation around. The Company is presently focused primarily on maintaining the corporate entity, complying with its reporting obligations under the Securities Exchange Act and seeking new business opportunities, including without limitation, healthcare and technology businesses. The Company will need working capital resources to maintain the Company's status and satisfy its reporting obligations, and to fund other anticipated costs and expenses during the year ending December 31, 2004 and beyond. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on the Company's ability to raise capital to, at a minimum, meet its corporate maintenance requirements and reporting obligations. If the Company is able to acquire an ongoing business and/or technology that must be exploited, it would need additional capital until and unless that prospective operation is able to generate positive working capital sufficient to fund the Company's cash flow requirements for operations.

Until April 2005, the Company also continued to deal with the effects of certain matters that arose (i) under prior management and (ii) from its business dealings with a former consultant and principal stockholder of the Company, Mark Roy Anderson.

Mr. Anderson is a former affiliate of the Company and was involved in the Company from June 2002 until March 2003 through a series of transactions between the Company and Mr. Anderson or companies affiliated with Mr. Anderson. See "Related Parties and Certain Transactions". Mr. Anderson became involved with the Company during a period of transition of management from the Company's prior management team led by Mr. Sanders and a shift in the Company's business focus from a variety of businesses in gaming, tobacco and oil and gas, to healthcare and health-related technology.

In June 2002, Mr. Anderson purchased 1,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock for $250,000. In July 2002, Med Wireless, Inc. ("Med Wireless"), a company in which Mr. Anderson was the founder and principal stockholder, licensed certain medical-related technology to the Company for a 15-year term. In exchange for the license, the Med Wireless stockholders in the aggregate received 6,600,000 shares, or approximately 44%, of the Company's then outstanding common stock. Of that amount, Mr. Anderson and his affiliates received 2,868,928, or approximately 19%, of the Company's then outstanding common stock.

Camden Holdings, Inc. ("Camden Holdings"), another company controlled by Mr. Anderson, was active in the development of the business of Med Wireless, beginning prior to the acquisition of the Med Wireless technology by the Company.

In addition, Camden Holdings was actively involved in the Company's sale-leaseback program of ultrasound machines, which were marketed primarily to doctors, medical clinics and hospitals. Under this program, the Company attempted to arrange the purchase of ultrasound machines by investors, who would lease the machines to the Company. In turn, the Company would sub-lease the ultrasound machines to the end user. Camden Holdings secured purchase orders from both investors and prospective end-use lessees of the ultrasound machines. These purchase orders were conditioned upon the Company's ability to secure financing of its own lease obligations of the ultrasound machines from the investors. This was not accomplished because the Company lacked the financial resources and credit to obtain such financing. The Company continued to pursue attempts to arrange such financing through March 2003.

Also in June 2002, the Company purchased a marketing database of healthcare providers in the United States from Genesis Healthtech, Inc. ("Genesis"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of Camden Holdings, which was controlled by Mark Roy Anderson. The total purchase price of $300,000 was satisfied by the issuance of 666,667 shares of the Company's common stock. The database was purchased with the intention of marketing the Company's sale-leaseback program of ultrasound machines. When the Company was unable to make the sale-leaseback program commercially viable, the marketing database became useless to the Company.

In order to focus the Company's then-primary business opportunity in healthcare technology, the Company divested its non-core businesses in gaming, oil and gas and tobacco, during the period that Mr. Anderson exerted his influence over the Company. In October 2002, the Company sold its Latin America gaming businesses, Latin American Casinos Del Peru S.A., a Peruvian corporation, and Latin American Casinos of Colombia LTDA, a Colombian corporation, to Casino Venture Partners ("CVP"), another entity controlled by Mr. Anderson.

Also in October 2002, the Company sold its Canadian oil and gas development businesses, NuWay Resources, Ltd., to Summit Oil & Gas, Inc. ("Summit Oil"), yet another entity which was controlled by Mr. Anderson. In November 2002, World's Best Rated Cigars, Inc., the Company's wholly-owned subsidiary, which was engaged in the distribution and sale of premium brand cigars, was shut down and discontinued.

As a result of all of the foregoing transactions with Mr. Anderson and companies controlled by Mr. Anderson, the Company believes that Mr. Anderson was the beneficial owner of an aggregate of 5,777,479 shares, or more than 30%, of the Company's common stock outstanding as of December 31, 2002, assuming Mr. Anderson beneficially owned all the shares at the same time. The Company believes that Mr. Anderson sold some of the shares which were issued pursuant to the Company's 2002 Consultant Equity Plan (the "2002 Plan"), and as such the number and percentage of the Company's common stock held by Mr. Anderson at any one time may have been less than that indicated above. In any event, Mr. Anderson failed to file any reports with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") on Schedules 13D or 13G, or on Forms 3 or 4, and, therefore, the Company cannot confirm any of these numbers at any given point in time.

By the end of 2002 and into the beginning of 2003, it had become apparent to the Company that Mr. Anderson had divergent business objectives to those of the Company, and the Company had concerns about additional dealings with Mr. Anderson. In March 2003, the relationship between the Company and Mr. Anderson reached a climax when the Company severed its business relationships with Mr. Anderson. At that time, the Company actively supported Dennis Calvert, the Company's current President, in his purchase of Mr. Anderson's interests in the Company. New Millennium Capital Partners, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company ("New Millennium") controlled by Mr. Calvert, purchased the Company's promissory note in the principal amount of $1,120,000 and an aggregate of 4,182,107 shares of the Company's common stock from various entities controlled by Mr. Anderson, although the total number of shares purchased is in dispute.

The transaction was executed as part of a plan to remove Mr. Anderson totally from any involvement in the Company and provide a completely new focus and direction for the Company under new management led by Mr. Calvert. Please see "Related Parties and Certain Transactions" for more information regarding these businesses and the relationship between the Company and Mark Roy Anderson.

Impaired Assets and Discontinued Businesses

Med Wireless and PRLS Technologies

Management of the Company deemed it necessary to discontinue the Company's attempt to develop and market the Med Wireless and Player Record Library System ("PRLS") technologies, because the Company was unable to raise additional funds to further develop and market those technologies. The Med Wireless technology consists of software that is compliant with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act ("HIPAA"), to electronically organize, store and retrieve medical records and medical images. Although the formal decision to discontinue the operations was made subsequent to December 31, 2003, the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 reflect a discontinued operations segment related to the abandonment of the exploitation of the Med Wireless and PRLS technologies after a charge to impairment in an amount equal to the remaining net book value of the acquired technology. See Note 3 to Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements.

Based on the rapid increase in the number of well-capitalized companies offering competing technologies, as well as the fact that the Company has been unable to continue funding any technology enhancements or development related to the Med Wireless technology, management came to believe that the Med Wireless technology had lost the ability to be a viable competing technology in its sector and that it was not in the Company's best interest to continue to pursue the Med Wireless technology. Moreover, management is doubtful if the Med Wireless technology will be considered of any significant value to a prospective buyer or licensee of the technology. The Company desires to sell this technology, if the opportunity presents itself, but expects to realize only nominal net proceeds, if any, for the technology.

In addition, the Company has abandoned its efforts to market a variety of products and services to the sports industry with an emphasis on health and technology related products. In 2003, the Company focused its primary efforts on developing and marketing PRLS, a technology product that is derived, in part, from the Med Wireless technology. In December 2002, the Company had established NuWay Sports, LLC ("NuWay Sports"), to develop and market the PRLS technology. NuWay Sports is owned 51% by the Company and 49% by former NFL football player Kenyon Rasheed. PRLS is a highly specialized electronic medical record and workflow process software application, designed to address the information technology needs of the sports industry relating to player health.

In 2004, the Company attempted to sell NuWay Sports to a third party; however, these negotiations were unsuccessful and a sale was not consummated. It is not likely that the Company will find a party to sell its interest in NuWay Sports. If it did, it is not likely that the Company would receive any up-front cash payments. It should also be noted that because Augustine II, LLC (the "Augustine Fund"), a creditor of the Company, has a lien on the Company's 51% membership interest in NuWay Sports, they would have to approve any such sale. See "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations - Liquidity and Capital Resources".

Ultrasound Machine Sale-Leaseback Program

Under the Company's ultrasound machine sale-leaseback program, the Company attempted to arrange the purchase of ultrasound machines by investors, who would lease the machines to the Company. In turn, the Company would sub-lease the ultrasound machines to the end user. Camden Holdings secured purchase orders from both investors and prospective end-use lessees of the ultrasound machines. These purchase orders were conditioned upon the Company's ability to secure financing of its own lease obligations of the ultrasound machines from the investors. This was not accomplished because the Company lacked the financial resources and credit to obtain such financing.

The Company continued to pursue attempts to arrange such financing through March 2003. Thereafter, the Company focused primarily on the Med Wireless and PRLS technologies and, after occasional attempts to pursue the sale-leaseback program through mid-2003, this program was no longer pursued.

The termination of the sale-leaseback program also rendered useless the marketing database, which the Company had purchased from Genesis, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Camden Holdings. The database had been purchased with the intention of marketing the Company's sale-leaseback program of ultrasound machines.

Please see Part II, Item 12, "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions" for more information regarding these businesses and the relationship between the Company and Mr. Anderson.

Abandoned Acquisition

On January 31, 2004, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Stock Purchase Agreement") with Premium Medical Group, Inc., a Florida corporation ("PMG") and PMG's sole stockholders, Eduardo A. Ruiz and Luis A. Ruiz (the "PMG Stockholders"). Prior to this transaction, there was no business or other relationship between the Company and its affiliates and PMG or the PMG Stockholders and, to the Company's knowledge, there was no business or other relationship between PMG or the PMG Stockholders and Mark Roy Anderson.

Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Company agreed to acquire 100% of the shares of PMG from the PMG Stockholders in exchange for 30,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock, subject to certain adjustments. The exact number of Company Shares to be issued to the PMG Stockholders was subject to adjustment in the event certain revenue was or was not generated by PMG during one year following the closing of the transaction. PMG had been organized in June 2003 to provide medical products to hospitals and medical clinics in South America, primarily Venezuela. Luis A. Ruiz became a director of the Company in connection with the transaction.

The parties had a difference in expectations regarding who would be ultimately responsible for paying for the audit of PMG that was required in order for the Company to complete its disclosure obligations under the Securities Exchange Act. Additionally, the Company did not have a sufficient number of authorized and unissued shares of its common stock to both satisfy its obligations to the PMG Stockholders and to issue shares of common stock in a meaningful financing transaction, given the low price per share at which the Company's common stock trades. The Company lacked the financial resources to schedule a stockholders' meeting, prepare a proxy statement and solicit proxies for the purpose of amending its Certificate of Incorporation to increase its authorized capital stock.

As a result of these and other factors, the Company and PMG never consolidated their operations, the Company never exercised control over PMG or its operations and the parties never exchanged stock certificates evidencing their ownership in each other.

Therefore, the parties entered into discussions and concluded amicably that it was in the mutual best interest of the respective companies and their respective stockholders, to rescind the transactions provided for in the Stock Purchase Agreement and return all parties to their respective positions prior to the transactions contemplated in the Stock Purchase Agreement.

The parties entered into a Rescission Agreement on October 14, 2004 that provides, in relevant part, that (i) all transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement shall be rescinded as if the Stock Purchase Agreement had never been executed and delivered; (ii) the parties forever waive all rights to receive stock in PMG and the Company, as the case may be; (iii) Luis A. Ruiz shall resign as a director of the Company; and (iv) the Company and PMG shall file appropriate documents with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida with respect to the rescission of the exchange of shares provided for in the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Employees

At December 31, 2004, the Company employed two full-time employees, reflecting the reduced operations of the Company at that time.

Risk Factors

The Company faces a number of significant risks associated with its current plan of operations. These include the following:

We have a limited operating history and a history of losses.

The Company has no current operations and, as such, may not be able to overcome unanticipated difficulties that may be encountered related to the implementation of its business plan. The Company has a limited operating history, limited revenue from operations and a history of losses. In addition, because the Company currently has no operations, the Company faces all of the risks inherent with a start-up business, including the possibility that the Company cannot acquire or develop a business that is viable. There is no assurance that, if the Company does find or develop a business, to acquire, whether such business will ever be profitable. The Company may also face unforeseen problems, difficulties, expenses or delays in implementing its business plan.

We need additional funds.

If it necessary for the Company to seek to secure additional funds for any new business, general and administrative expenses and period reporting requirements, there can be no assurance that such funds will be available, or will be available on favorable terms. Failure to secure needed funds will directly impact the Company's ability to maintain its publicly-traded status and, potentially, the corporate entity itself. While management has dedicated itself to the efforts to secure needed funds, the outcome and ultimate success of those efforts is uncertain.

The cost of maintaining our reporting obligations is high.

The Company is obligated to maintain its periodic public filings and public reporting requirements, on a timely basis, to remain a public company and maintain its registration as a listed stock. In order to meet these obligations, the Company will need to continue to raise capital. If adequate funds are not available to the Company, it will be unable to comply with those requirements and could cease to be qualified to have its stock traded in the public market. The Company has a history of delinquencies in its filing obligations with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Our stockholders face potential dilution in any new financing.

Any additional equity that the Company raises would dilute the interest of the current stockholders and any persons who may become stockholders before such financing. Given the low price of the Company's common stock, such dilution in any financing of a meaningful amount, could be substantial.

Our stockholders face potential adverse effect from the terms of any newly issued preferred stock.

In order to raise capital to meet expenses or to acquire a business, the Board of Directors of the Company may issue additional stock, including preferred stock. Any preferred stock which the Company may issue may have voting rights, liquidation preferences, redemption rights and other rights, preferences and privileges. The rights of the holder's of the Company's Common Stock will be subject to, and in many respect subordinate to, the rights of the holders of any such preferred stock. Furthermore, such Preferred Stock may have other rights, including economic rights, senior to the Company's Common Stock that could have a material adverse effect on the value of the Company's Common Stock. Preferred stock, while providing desirable flexibility in connection with possible acquisitions and other corporate purposes, can also have the effect of making it more difficult for a third party to acquire a majority of outstanding voting stock of the Company, thereby delaying, deferring or preventing a change in control of the Company.

We have been unable to obtain a quorum and schedule a vote of stockholders to approve certain material transactions.

The Company will be required to obtain stockholder approval to approve certain material transactions and amend its charter to increase the authorized number of shares to approve a transaction with New Millennium, which is controlled by our President Dennis Calvert; raise funds; or effect a conversion of the convertible notes beyond the number of shares of common stock currently authorized but unissued. Obtaining stockholder approval is both costly and uncertain as to its success. The Company has attempted to secure stockholder votes for certain corporate actions in the past and has been unable to secure a quorum. As a result, the Company has been unable to effect certain material transactions, and this inability to act could threaten the viability of the Company.

If we acquire any business, we will be dependent upon market acceptance and competitive factors.

The success of any business the Company acquires or develops will be highly dependent upon, among other things, gaining market acceptance from customers that will use the company's products and services. More specifically, these factors include, among other things, how well its products or services perform (ease of implementation, ease of use by customers, reliability, and scope of products and services), competitive forces, the level of consumer demand for products and services offered, the selling prices of its products and services, and the effectiveness of the Company's marketing activities.

Our common stock is thinly traded and largely illiquid.

In June 2003, our common stock was delisted from the NASDAQ SmallCap Market. Our stock currently trades on the Pink Sheets. The delisting has made it more difficult to buy or sell our stock and has led to a significant decline in the frequency of trades and trading volume. The delisting will likely adversely affect the Company's ability to obtain financing in the future due to the decreased liquidity of the Company's shares. There can be no assurance when or if the Company's common stock will be quoted on the OTC Bulletin Board, in light of the public interest concerns previously raised by NASDAQ in connection with the delisting of the Company's shares.

Our common stock is subject to "penny stock" regulations that may affect the liquidity for our common stock.

Our common stock is subject to the rules adopted by the Securities and Exchange Commission that regulate broker-dealer practices in connection with transactions in "penny stocks." Penny stocks are generally equity securities with a price of less than $5.00 (other than securities registered on certain national securities exchanges or quoted on the NASDAQ Stock Market, provided that current price and volume information with respect to transactions in such securities is provided by the exchange or system). The penny stock rules require a broker-dealer, prior to a transaction in a penny stock not otherwise exempt from those rules, deliver a standardized risk disclosure document prepared by the Securities and Exchange Commission, which contains the following:

- a description of the nature and level of risk in the market for penny stocks in both public offerings and secondary trading
 - a description of the broker's or dealer's duties to the customer and of the rights and remedies available to the customer with respect to violation to such duties or other requirements of Securities' laws
- a brief, clear, narrative description of a dealer market, including "bid" and "ask" prices for penny stocks and significance of the spread between the "bid" and "ask" price
- a toll-free telephone number for inquiries on disciplinary actions; definitions of significant terms in the disclosure document or in the conduct of trading in penny stocks, and
- such other information and is in such form (including language, type, size and format), as the Commission shall require by rule or regulation.

Prior to effecting any transaction in penny stock, the broker-dealer also must provide the customer the following:

- the bid and offer quotations for the penny stock
 - the compensation of the broker-dealer and its salesperson in the transaction
- the number of shares to which such bid and ask prices apply, or other comparable information relating to the depth and liquidity of the market for such stock
 - the depth and liquidity of the market for such stock, and
 - monthly account statements showing the market value of each penny stock held in the customer's account.

In addition, the penny stock rules require that prior to a transaction in a penny stock not otherwise exempt from those rules, the broker-dealer must make a special written determination that the penny stock is a suitable investment for the purchaser and receive the purchaser's written acknowledgment of the receipt of a risk disclosure statement, a written agreement to transactions involving penny stocks, and a signed and dated copy of a written suitability statement. These disclosure requirements may have the effect of reducing the trading activity in the secondary market for a stock such as our common stock if it is subject to the penny stock rules.

The Company, some of its directors and its officers face risks in connection with the criminal investigation of a former consultant and principal stockholder of the Company.

In or about May 2003, the Company learned through verbal discussions with representatives of NASDAQ, in preparation for the Company's pending NASDAQ qualifications hearing, that Mark Roy Anderson had a criminal background. In or about May and June 2003, the Company was informed in writing by the United States Attorney's office in Los Angeles, that Mr. Anderson (i) was the target of a criminal investigation (the "Investigation") pertaining to the sale of securities by Med Wireless (from which the Company licensed certain assets in 2002), and (ii) had been convicted of multiple felonies unrelated to Med Wireless in the 1990s. Mr. Anderson was the founder and principal stockholder of Med Wireless, and first introduced the concept of licensing the Med Wireless software application and contracts to the Company in May 2002.

Dennis Calvert had been approached initially by Mr. Anderson some time in 1996 to consider entering into a business consulting relationship with Anderson-controlled entities. Over the period from 1996 to 2001, Mr. Calvert worked as a consultant periodically with Anderson-related entities for the purpose of evaluating potential new businesses and potential investment opportunities being considered by Mr. Anderson and these entities. In June 2002, Mr. Calvert agreed to become president of Med Wireless, primarily for the purpose of completing the Med Wireless transaction with the Company. As consideration for his agreeing to become President of Med Wireless, Mr. Calvert received 1,327,700 shares of Med Wireless stock from Mr. Anderson's holdings. These shares were subsequently converted into 600,000 shares of the Company's common stock pursuant to the terms of the transaction between Med Wireless and the Company.

On June 28, 2002, Mr. Calvert was appointed president of the Company. At the same time, Joseph Provenzano, who at that time was an employee of Camden Holdings, another affiliate of Mr. Anderson, joined the Company's board of directors. In addition to the Med Wireless transaction, and as disclosed elsewhere in this Annual Report, entities that Mr. Anderson controls, including Camden Holdings, Genesis, Summit Oil and CVP, invested $250,000 in the Company, sold the Company additional assets and purchased the Company's previous operating businesses. See Part II, Item 12, "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions". Although Mr. Anderson never served as an officer or director of the Company, he served as a consultant to the Company and received consulting fees in the form of an aggregate 1,241,884 shares of the Company's common stock. Since December 2002 Mr. Anderson has not been a consultant to the Company and since March 2003 has not been involved in any way in the Company's operations.

In the purchase agreement between Mr. Anderson, his affiliates and New Millennium in March 2003 (the "New Millennium Agreement"), Mr. Anderson represented that he was selling 100% of his stock to New Millennium and would no longer own any of the Company's stock. Mr. Calvert is the Manager and, together with his wife, the sole members of New Millennium, and this transaction was engaged in to eliminate Mr. Anderson as a stockholder of the Company and to remove him from any involvement in the operations of the Company.

Subsequent to the closing of that transaction, management learned through the Company's transfer agent that Camden Holdings still owns 340,894 shares of the Company's common stock. The Company and New Millennium believe that the existence of these 340,894 shares of the Company's common stock owned by Camden Holdings Inc. is a material breach of the New Millennium Agreement, and the Company and New Millennium are reviewing their respective legal rights with regards to this matter.

Technically, under the terms of the New Millennium Agreement, it is possible that Camden Holdings or Mr. Anderson has the right to reacquire the shares of the Company's common stock that were sold to New Millennium, if New Millennium defaults on the promissory note issued by New Millennium to Camden Holdings to purchase the shares (the "New Millennium Note"). See " Part II, Item 12, "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions". The New Millennium Note is purportedly secured by the purchased shares of the Company's common stock; however, New Millennium and Mr. Calvert believe that Camden Holdings and Mr. Anderson have not perfected their security interest in those shares. New Millennium has defaulted on the New Millennium Note. However, New Millennium believes that Camden Holdings failed to deliver all the shares of the Company held by Camden Holdings, and thus breached the terms of their purchase agreement, making the New Millennium Note void by its terms. In addition, the Augustine Fund is the pledgee of 2,500,000 of these shares and holds those shares as pledgee.

On or about May 17, 2003, the Company was served by a subpoena issued by the grand jury impaneled to investigate Mr. Anderson, requesting documents relating to Mr. Anderson and his affiliates, including Med Wireless, Camden Holdings, Summit Oil and Gas, and Summit Health Care. Additionally, the subpoena requested information relating to the identity of the Company's officers, directors, stockholders and consultants (legal, accounting and otherwise), and that the Company provide copies of its filings and correspondence with the SEC, the National Association of Securities Dealers and the NASDAQ Stock Market. The Company cooperated fully with that request by providing the requested information and intends to continue to fully cooperate with any future investigative requests.

The Company has learned that private placement memoranda distributed to Med Wireless investors stated that Dennis Calvert was the president of Med Wireless as early as 2001, and additionally believes that Mr. Anderson apparently made a number of similar false representations throughout 2001 and 2002. Mr. Calvert did not approve this disclosure contained in those private placement memoranda nor in any other form, and has informed the Company that he was not engaged as the president of Med Wireless until June 2002 and not any earlier, and that any statements to the contrary are untrue.

Mr. Provenzano joined Camden Holdings in 2001 to assist in its mergers and acquisitions department, and he worked at Camden Holdings until March 2003. Both Mr. Calvert and Mr. Provenzano have informed both the Company and, through their own legal counsel, the Assistant U.S. Attorney, that they intend to cooperate fully with law enforcement officials in the Investigation.

In mid-2003, the Company was also informed by the Assistant United States Attorney handling the Investigation that Dennis Calvert and Joseph Provenzano were not considered "targets" of the Investigation; however, until their respective roles, if any, in the specific events being investigated are determined, they will be considered to be "subjects" of the Investigation, meaning that their conduct is believed by the U.S. Attorney's office to be "within the scope" of the grand jury's investigation.

Although neither the Company nor any of its officers or directors is currently the target of any criminal investigation, including the one described in the previous paragraph, there can be no assurance that such an investigation will not be undertaken. Additionally, although neither the Company nor its officers or directors have been contacted by either the U.S. Attorney's Office, or the FBI regarding the Investigation since mid-2003, neither the Company nor its officers and directors can be certain that such requests will not be made in the future. Furthermore, the ongoing Investigation has in the past occupied, and may in the future occupy, a significant amount of time of the Company and Messrs. Calvert and Provenzano, creating a distraction from the Company's business. The mere existence of the Investigation, not to mention the outcome thereof, depending upon such outcome, could have a material adverse effect on the Company.

The Company may have violated certain securities laws and is delinquent in its SEC filings.

While the Company and its management seek to operate fully within the scope of the law and fulfill any and all regulatory obligations, the Company has been subject to informal inquiries by the civil enforcement division of the SEC for possible securities violations in the past, including the acts of Mark Roy Anderson and its previous failure to timely file its reports under the Exchange Act. On or about August 19, 2004, the Company received a "Wells Notice" from the SEC that the Company is delinquent in its filing of periodic reports with the SEC and the staff of the SEC may recommend enforcement proceedings be commenced against the Company. Since that time, the Company has cured this delinquency. Although the SEC formally terminated its investigation on April 19, 2005, and recommended no enforcement action by the SEC against the Company, there can be no assurance that the SEC will not begin a new investigation into the Company should circumstances warrant.

ITEM 2. DESCRIPTION OF PROPERTY

As of December 31, 2003, the Company maintained its principal place of business at 23461 South Pointe Drive, Suite 200, Laguna Hills, California 92653. The lease for the office was on a month-to-month basis, and was cancelable by either party with sixty days' written notice. Monthly rent was $7,850, payable in cash or shares of the Company's common stock, valued at the then-current market price. In 2003, the Company recorded $96,560 of rental expense in connection with this lease.

On April 1, 2004, the Company terminated this lease. The Company's offices are currently located at 2603 Main Street, Suite 1150, Irvine, California 92614. The Company currently occupies space from a consultant at no cost to the Company.

ITEM 3. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

In June 2002, Geraldine Lyons, the Company's former Chief Financial Officer, sued the Company and the Company's former president Todd Sanders, for breach of her employment contract. The lawsuit was brought in the Circuit Court of the 11th Judicial Circuit in Miami-Dade County in Florida. Ms. Lyons seeks approximately $25,000 due under the contract and the issuance of 100,000 shares of common stock, with a guarantee that the stock could be sold by Ms. Lyons for $300,000. Ms. Lyons alleges that additional funds are due under her employment contract; that the contract requires the Company guarantee that she can sell for $300,000 the 100,000 shares of stock the Company is required to issue her; and, that Mr. Sanders promised to purchase from her 100,000 shares of Company common stock held by her at the price of $4.00 per share.

The Company has counter-sued Ms. Lyons for breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, violation of Section 12(a)(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, violation of Section 517.301 of the Florida Statutes, negligent misrepresentation, conversion and unjust enrichment resulting from the required restatement of the Company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2000 and December 31, 1999. The restatements corrected the previous omission of certain material expenses related primarily to compensation expense arising from warrants issued and repriced stock options, as well as other errors.

The case is ongoing at this time, although it has not been vigorously prosecuted by Ms. Lyons or the Company, in the Company's case primarily because the Company had lacked the resources to do so. The Company entered into an agreement ("Legal Defense Agreement") in December 2004 such that Augustine Fund would pay for the legal expenses associated with the Company's defense and affirmative claims in this lawsuit (with the right to withdraw funding at any time), and in exchange would share any net proceeds awarded to the Company pursuant to a settlement or judgment. The sharing arrangement provides that Augustine Fund will recover first, out of any money available from recovery, its legal and out of pocket expenses related to the lawsuit; second, 85% of any additional amounts recovered up to $500,000; and third, 50% of amounts recovered beyond $500,000. While the Company believes that it has meritorious positions in this litigation, given the inherent nature of litigation, it is not possible to predict the outcome of this litigation or the impact it would have on the Company.

In May 2004, the Company was sued by Flight Options, Inc. ("Flight Options"), a jet plane leasing company, in the Superior Court of Orange County California. The lawsuit alleges that the Company owes Flight Options approximately $418,300, pursuant to a five-year lease assigned to the Company by the Company's former president Todd Sanders, from his corporation, Devenshire Management Corporation ("Devenshire"). Management of the Company believes that the assignment of the lease was not properly authorized or approved by the Company, and that by Mr. Sander's failure to identify the lease in a December 2002 settlement agreement with the Company, he breached the terms of that settlement agreement and, pursuant to the settlement agreement, must indemnify the Company for any losses owed to Flight Options. The Company has cross-complained against Mr. Sanders for indemnity, and has added the affirmative claim of breach of fiduciary duty.

On March 17, 2005, the Company settled the lawsuit with Flight Options pursuant to a stipulation that allows the Company to either pay Flight Options $100,000 on or before August 5, 2005, or allows Flight Options to file a judgment against the Company for $163,310 after such date. The Company's claims against Devenshire and Mr. Sanders will be litigated through binding arbitration prior to the date on which it must pay $100,000 to Flight Options. The Company's Legal Defense Agreement with the Augustine Fund applies also to the Flight Options litigation. While the Company believes that it has meritorious positions against Devenshire and Mr. Sanders, given the inherent nature of litigation, it is not possible to predict the outcome of this litigation or the impact it would have on the Company.

On December 4, 2004, the Company was sued by the law firm of Enenstein Russell and Saltz, LLP to collect fees that had been billed to the Company in the amount of $15,233, which had been disputed by the Company. The case is in its beginning stage, and discovery has not yet been commenced. While the Company believes that it has meritorious positions in this litigation, given the inherent nature of litigation, it is not possible to predict the outcome of this litigation or the impact it would have on the Company.

The Company is party to various other claims, legal actions and complaints arising periodically in the ordinary course of business. In the opinion of management, no such matters will have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

At December 31, 2004, the Company also had the following warrants outstanding:

- stock purchase warrants to purchase an aggregate 300,000 shares of the Company's common stock, which warrants had been issued in private offerings. These warrants permit the holder to purchase shares of common stock at an exercise price of $1.75 per share through December 11, 2005.

- stock purchase warrants to purchase an aggregate 6,158,381 shares of the Company's common stock, which warrants had been issued in a private offering to the Augustine Fund. These warrants initially allowed for the holder to purchase shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.16 per share through August 10, 2008, but were re-priced in 2004 (in conjunction with an extension of the financing provided by Augustine Fund) to $0.035 per share.

- stock purchase warrants to purchase an aggregate 333,333 shares of the Company's common stock, which warrants had been issued to a consultant that provided services to the Company. These warrants allow for the holder to purchase shares of common stock at an exercise price of $0.06 per share through August 29, 2008.

Dividends

The Company has never declared or paid a cash dividend to stockholders. The board of directors presently intends to retain any earnings which may be generated in the future to finance Company operations.

Sales of Unregistered Securities

The Company engaged in the following sales of unregistered securities during the fiscal year ended December 31, 2004:

In January 2004, The Company issued 30,000,000 shares of common stock to the Premium Medical Group Shareholders in connection with a transaction in which the Company acquired the outstanding stock of Premium Medical Group. This transaction has since been rescinded by the parties. See Note 15 to Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements.

In February 2004, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $5,000 from an individual investor in connection with the sale of 156,250 shares of the Company's common stock. The issuance of the shares described above was made in reliance on the exemption from registration set forth in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

In February, 2004, the Company issued 600,000 shares of its common stock to former convertible debenture holders to partially satisfy its obligations on a settlement agreement. The shares issued reduced the Company's settlement obligations by approximately $17,000.

In February, 2004, the Company issued an unvested warrant to Sachi International, Inc. to purchase up to 3,000,000 shares of common stock at $0.04 a share. The Warrant vests based on the amount of investment proceeds brought to the Company by the Holder, with 100% vesting if the Holder brings $500,000 in investment capital. In the event less than $500,000 is invested, the warrant vests in a pro-rata amount. The closing of any such investment shall be in the sole and absolute discretion of the Company. Sachi International, Inc., has not met the conditions to vest the warrant.

In March 2004, the Company issued 200,000 shares to David Wiechert in exchange for professional services provided to the Company.

In March 2004, the Company issued 3,000,000 shares to three of its four directors in exchange for services provided to the Company.

In September, 2004, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $25,000 from two individual investors in connection with the sale of 5,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock.

In October, 2004, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $50,000 from an outside investor and issued its convertible promissory note due and payable one year from the date of issuance. The note bears interest at a rate of 10% per annum, payable on the maturity date. The note can be converted, in whole or in part, into shares of the Company's Series A Preferred stock, on the basis of $.005 per share, at any time prior to maturity by either the Company or the lender. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock may be converted by the holder into one share of the Company's common stock. If the noteholder converts the note into Series A Preferred Stock, on or after the note's original maturity date the noteholder may require the Company to buy back the shares of Series A Preferred Stock for 110% of the principal amount of the promissory note (the "Buy Back Provision"). If the Company is unable to do so, the Company's president, Dennis Calvert, has agreed to buy back the shares on the same terms. If shares of Series A Preferred Stock are converted into common stock, the holder has the right to include (piggyback) the shares of common stock in a registration of securities filed by the Company (other than on Form S-4 or Form S-8).

The Company's payment obligations under the note may be accelerated upon the following events: (i) the sale of the Company's assets outside the ordinary course of business; (ii) a breach of the representations and warranties contained within the agreement evidencing the loan; (iii) the failure to timely pay the note; (iv) the Company's default in any other loan obligation greater than $100,000; (v) the Company's dissolution, liquidation, merger, consolidation, bankruptcy, or future insolvency; and (vi) the commencement of any suit that threatens to have a material adverse effect on the Company, including the entry of a final judgment or settlement in excess of $100,000.

In November, 2004, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $10,000 from an outside investor and issued a convertible promissory note on substantially the same terms as the previously described note.

In December 2004, the Company issued 500,000 shares of its common stock to its remaining former convertible debenture holder to partially satisfy its obligations on a settlement agreement. The shares issued reduced the Company's settlement obligations by approximately $8,700.

All of these offerings and sales were made in reliance on the exemption from registration contained in Section 4(2) of the Securities Exchange Act and/or Regulation D promulgated thereunder as not involving a public offering of securities.

Sales of Unregistered Securities In 2005

In January 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $25,000 from an outside investor and issued a convertible promissory note on substantially the same terms the previously described note.

Also in January 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $75,000 from two outside investors and issued convertible promissory notes on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the notes do not include buy back provisions, and allow conversion into a total of 18,000,000 shares of common stock (at $0.0042 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

In February 2005, the Company amended its obligations to Dr. James Seay (the “noteholder”) under its promissory note dated November 20, 2003 in the principal amount of $50,000 and which matured on February 18, 2004. On the maturity date of the note the Company was obligated to pay the noteholder $65,000. The Company has paid the noteholder $30,000 and the balance of $35,000 remains outstanding. The amendment to the note entered into on February 10, 2005, (i) extends the maturity date of the note to February 3, 2006, (ii) provides for interest to accrue at a rate of 10% per annum (15% upon default), and (iii) allows for the conversion of the note into 7,000,000 shares of the Company’s common stock, or $.005 per share.

In February 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $16,000 from three outside investors and issued convertible promissory notes on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the note does not include buy back provisions, and allow conversion into a total of 2,261,701 shares of common stock (at $0.007 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

In February 2005, the Company received gross proceeds of $40,000 and net proceeds of $36,000 from two outside investors and issued convertible promissory notes on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the notes do not include buy back provisions, and allow conversion into a total of 4,000,000 shares of common stock (at $0.01 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

In April 2005, the Company received gross proceeds of $25,000 and net proceeds of $23,750 from an outside investor and issued a convertible promissory note on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the note does not include buy back provisions, and allows conversion into a total of 2,500,000 shares of common stock (at $0.01 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

In May 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $50,000 and $47,500 from an outside investor and issued a convertible promissory note on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the note does not include buy back provisions, and allows conversion into a total of 7,142,857 shares of common stock (at $0.007 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

In June 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $5,000 from an outside investor and issued a convertible promissory note on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the note does not include buy back provisions, and allows conversion into a total of 500,000 shares of common stock (at $0.01 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

In June 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $100,000 from two outside investors and issued convertible promissory notes on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the notes do not include buy back provisions, and allow conversion into a total of 13,000,000 shares of common stock (at approximately $0.008 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

All of these offerings and sales were made in reliance on the exemption from registration contained in Section 4(2) of the Securities Exchange Act and/or Regulation D promulgated thereunder as not involving a public offering of securities.

Until the Company's stockholders approve an amendment to the Company's charter to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock, the Company will be unable to fulfill its obligations to all convertible noteholders to permit the conversion into common stock of amounts due pursuant to the terms of the convertible notes. In the event that the Company has not raised further capital prior to the maturity dates of the convertible notes, the Company would be in default of those notes if its stockholders have not formally approved an increase in the number of authorized common shares. The Company is not, at this time, in default of the convertible notes. Securities Authorized for Issuance Under Equity Compensation Plans

ITEM 6. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OR PLAN OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion and analysis should be read in conjunction with our audited consolidated financial statements and the related notes to the consolidated financial statements included elsewhere in this report.

This discussion contains forward-looking statements that involve risks and uncertainties. Such statements, which include statements concerning future revenue sources and concentration, selling, general and administrative expenses, research and development expenses, capital resources, additional financings and additional losses, are subject to risks and uncertainties, including, but not limited to, those discussed above in Part I, Item 1 and elsewhere in this Form 10-KSB, particularly in "Risk Factors," that could cause actual results to differ materially from those projected. The forward-looking statements set forth in this Form 10-KSB are as of December 31, 2004, and we undertake no duty to update this information.

Plan of Operations

The Company had no continuing business operations as of December 31, 2004. At this time, the Company is operating as a public shell and management is seeking merger and acquisition candidates with ongoing operations.

Over the course of several years, the Company has attempted to enter various businesses through the acquisitions of entities operating ongoing businesses or technology that needed to be developed and marketed. However, as a result of various factors, primarily inadequate capital and the inability to raise sufficient financing successfully, these acquisitions could not be properly exploited and integrated to produce profitable operations by the Company. Management of the Company has elected to dispose, through sales or other means, these acquisitions, including the Company's attempt to develop and market the 15-year licensing rights acquired from Med Wireless in July 2002. Although the formal decision to discontinue these operations was made subsequent to December 31, 2003, the Company's financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003 reflect a discontinued operations segment related to the abandonment of the exploitation of the Med Wireless and PRLS technologies after a charge to impairment in an amount equal to the remaining net book value of the acquired technology. See Note 3 to Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements.

Based on the rapid increase in the number of well-capitalized companies offering competing technologies, as well as the fact that the Company has been unable to continue funding any technology enhancements or development related to the Med Wireless technology, management came to believe that the technology had lost the ability to be a viable competing technology in its sector and that it was not in the Company's best interest to continue to pursue the Med Wireless technology. Moreover, management is doubtful if the Med Wireless technology will be considered of any significant value to a prospective buyer or licensee of the technology. The Company desires to sell this technology, if the opportunity presents itself, but expects to realize only nominal net proceeds, if any, for the technology.

In addition, the Company has abandoned its efforts to market a variety of products and services to the sports industry with an emphasis on health and technology related products, primarily PRLS. In 2004, the Company attempted to sell NuWay Sports to a third party; however, these negotiations were unsuccessful and a sale was not consummated. It is not likely that the Company will find a party to sell its interest in NuWay Sports. If it did, it is not likely that the Company would receive any up-front cash payments.

The Company is presently focused on maintaining the corporate entity and seeking new business opportunities. The Company will need working capital resources to maintain the Company's status and to fund other anticipated costs and expenses during the year ending December 31, 2004 and beyond. The Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on the Company's ability to raise capital to, at a minimum, meet its corporate maintenance requirements. If the Company is able to acquire an ongoing business and/or technology that must be exploited, it would need additional capital until and unless that prospective operation is able to generate positive working capital sufficient to fund the Company's cash flow requirements form operations.

As a result of the dramatic change in direction of the Company's scope and focus, and the discontinuation of its operating businesses in 2003 and 2004, comparisons of year-to-year results of operations are not meaningful.

Results of Operations - Comparison of the Years Ended December 31, 2004 and 2003

Revenue

The Company had no revenues from continuing operations during 2004 or 2003.

Selling, General and Administrative Expense

Selling, and General and Administrative expenses were $970,000 for the year ending December 31, 2004, as compared to $2,339,000 for the year ending December 31, 2003, or a net decrease of 59%. The largest components of these expenses were:

- a. Salaries and Payroll-related Expenses: These expenses were $371,000 in 2004, versus $323,000 in 2003, an increase of $48,000 or 15 percent. The $48,000 increase is almost entirely attributable to an expense recorded by the Company for the issuance of 3,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock to an officer of the Company in lieu of cash compensation in the amount of $118,000, and relates to the efforts by management to obtain additional financing, comply with SEC reporting requirements, and find a viable merger candidate.
- b. Consulting Expenses: These expenses were $24,000 in 2004, versus $1,108,000 in 2003, a decrease of $1,084,000. This decrease is primarily attributable to the fact that during 2004 the Company substantially reduced the use of and thus compensation to outside consultants in all areas of the company, including those efforts focused on identifying potential acquisition candidates for the Company. Consulting expense for 2004 included $142,000 of expense related to the issuance of the Company's common stock, which was offset by a reversal of accrued consulting expense relating to the issuance (and subsequent return to treasury) of the Company's common stock totaling $142,000.
- c. Legal Expenses: These expenses were $307,000 in 2004, versus $694,000 in 2003, a decrease of $387,000. This decrease is primarily attributable to the high level of legal assistance required in 2003 for matters such as (i) addressing NASDAQ compliance issues (ii) a major shift in the Company's core business (iii) numerous stock issuances to consultants.
- d. Settlement Charge: This expense was $163,000 in 2004, versus $0 in 2003. This increase is attributable to the settlement reached in the Flight Options, Inc. litigation, in which the Company may be obligated to pay up to approximately $163,000 to Flight Options, Inc. (See Part I, Item 3, "Legal Proceedings".)

Expenses Associated With Stock Issued for Services

In 2004, the Company recorded an expense of $346,000 related to the issuance of 9,900,000 shares to approximately 14 directors, employees and consultants. Of this amount, $135,000 related to consulting services, $80,000 related to service by directors and advisory board members, and $118,000 related to salary expense.

In 2003, the Company recorded an expense of $1,555,000 related to the issuance of 19,248,759 shares to approximately 20 directors, employees and consultants. Of this amount, $1,046,000 related to consulting services, $394,000 related to legal services, $63,000 related to service by directors and advisory board members, and $52,000 related to salary expense.

Discontinued Operations

The Company disposed of all operating entities and discontinued all operations during 2003. The Company recorded a Net Loss from Discontinued Operations for the year ended December 31, 2004 of $0, as compared to a Net Loss from Discontinued Operations for the year ended December 31, 2003 of $4,938,113.

Net Loss

Net Loss for the year ended December 31, 2004 was $1,218,048 or $0.03 per share compared to a $7,622,209 loss or $.25 per share for the year the year ended December 31, 2003.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash and cash equivalents totaled $0 at December 31, 2004. The Company had no revenues in the twelve-month periods ended December 31, 2004 and was forced to consume cash on hand to fund operations. The Company's cash position is insufficient to meet its expenses. The Company will be required to raise additional capital to sustain basic operations through the remainder of 2005 and until a merger candidate with operations of its own is located and a transaction is consummated. While the Company is actively seeking investments through private investors and other parties, there is no assurance that the Company will be able to raise additional capital for the entire period required.

Total Current Liabilities were $3,707,521, as of December 31, 2004, versus $2,924,344 as of December 31, 2003, an increase of $783,177 from. The increase is due to (i) an increase of Accrued Expenses of $321,540 related to operating expenses incurred but not paid (ii) an increase of Officer Payable of $281,083 related to business expenses paid on behalf of the Company's president and compensation but not paid (iii) an increase of Accrued Interest of $188,572 related to the Company's outstanding obligations (iv) an increase in Notes Payable as a result of the write-off of the Company's discount on Notes Payable and the funding of $60,000 from outside sources; offset by (v) a decrease in Debenture Payable of $103,849 arising from the conversion of debenture holders of the debentures into equity.

The Company will be required to raise additional capital to sustain operations and meet its liabilities as they become due for the next twelve months, and is actively seeking investments from third parties. There is no assurance that the Company will be able to raise additional capital. It is unlikely that the Company will be able to qualify for bank debt until such time as the Company is able to demonstrate the financial strength to provide confidence for a lender.

The Company's consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. During 2003, 2004, and as of May 31, 2005, the Company had limited liquid and capital resources and management is incurring personal losses, while seeking acquisition opportunities. Total Stockholders' Deficit increased by $1,216,048 during the year ending December 31, 2004. The reason for the increase is that net loss totaled $1,216,048.

The financial statements accompanying this Annual Report have been prepared on a going concern basis, which contemplates the realization of assets and the settlement of liabilities and commitments in the normal course of our business. As reflected in the accompanying financial statements, we had a net loss of $6,803,280 and a negative cash flow from operations of $2,411,464 for the year ending December 31, 2004, and a stockholders' deficiency of $2,007,144 as of December 31, 2004. These factors raise substantial doubt about our ability to continue as a going concern. Our ability to continue as a going concern is dependent on our ability to raise additional funds and implement our business plan. The financial statements do not include any adjustments that might be necessary if we are unable to continue as a going concern.

During 2004, the Company raised $221,033. These funds were raised through straight debt financing, convertible debt financing, and equity financing, as described below.

Straight Debt Financing

The Company's President, Dennis Calvert, loaned money to the Company by paying from his personal funds certain of the Company's expenses. A significant portion of these personal funds was obtained by Mr. Calvert by refinancing his primary residence and cashing out equity thereon. For the year ended December 31, 2004, Mr. Calvert loaned to the Company $131,033. As of December 31, 2004, the Company repaid $29,263 of this amount. On March 7, 2005, the Company and Mr. Calvert agreed that the $101,770 still outstanding and owed by the Company to Mr. Calvert will be repaid under the terms of a promissory note bearing interest of 10% per annum, requiring monthly payments and maturing on January 15, 2006.

Convertible Debt Financing

During 2004, the Company raised $60,000 and issued convertible promissory notes due and payable one year from the date of issuance. The notes bear interest at a rate of 10% per annum, payable on the maturity date, and can be converted, in whole or in part, into shares of the Company's Series A Preferred stock, on the basis of $.005 per share, at any time prior to maturity by either the Company or the lender. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock may be converted by the holder into one share of the Company's common stock. If the noteholder converts the note into Series A Preferred Stock, on or after the note's original maturity date, the noteholder may require the Company to buy back the shares of Series A Preferred Stock for 110% of the principal amount of the promissory note. If the Company is unable to do so, the Company's president, Dennis Calvert, has agreed to buy back the shares on the same terms. If shares of Series A Preferred Stock are converted into common stock, the holder has the right to include (piggyback) the shares of common stock in a registration of securities filed by the Company (other than on Form S-4 or Form S-8).

Equity Financing

During the year ended December 31, 2004, the Company received $30,000 (gross and net proceeds), from the sale of 5,156,250 shares of its common stock which were restricted and unregistered.

Other Obligations

Significant debt obligations at December 31, 2004 included:

- (i) $420,000 (plus interest) due to Augustine II, LLC (the "Augustine Fund"), described in more detail below;
- (ii) a $1,120,000 note payable which was purchased in March 2003 by New Millennium Capital Partners, LLC, an entity owned and controlled by the Company's president, Dennis Calvert, and certain members of his family, together with accrued but unpaid interest, described in more detail below.
- (iii) approximately $15,000 outstanding remaining on a settlement agreement with former convertible debenture holders; and
- (iv) $32,100 due to a former advisory board member, reduced from a promissory note dated November 20, 2003 in the principle amount of $65,000.

For the year ended December, 2004, there was $189,000 of accrued interest recorded related to these obligations.

Augustine Fund Note

On June 10, 2003 the Company entered into a Term Loan Agreement ("Loan Agreement") with the Augustine Fund, pursuant to which the Augustine Fund agreed to lend the Company $420,000, payable in installments of $250,000, $100,000, and $70,000 (the "Augustine Loan"). The proceeds of the Augustine Loan were used by the Company for working capital.

Principal and interest, at an annual rate of 10%, of the Augustine Loan, was originally due on February 29, 2004. In addition, the Loan Agreement contains certain requirements that the Company make mandatory prepayments of the Augustine Loan from the proceeds of any asset sales outside of the ordinary course of business, and, on a quarterly basis, from positive cash flow. In addition, all or any portion of the Augustine Loan may be prepaid by the Company may prepay all or any portion of the Augustine Loan at any time without premium or penalty.

As additional consideration for making the Augustine Loan, the Augustine Fund received five-year warrants to purchase up to 6,158,381 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $0.16 per share. The Company could require that the warrants be exercised if certain conditions were satisfied. Since these conditions were not fully satisfied by the maturity date, the Loan Agreement provides that the Augustine Fund may, at any time following the maturity date and so long as the warrants remain exercisable, elect to exercise all or any portion of the warrants pursuant to a "cashless exercise", whereby the Augustine Fund would be issued the net amount of shares of our common stock, taking into consideration the difference between the exercise price of the warrants and the fair market value of our common stock at the time of exercise, without having to pay anything to the Company for such exercise.

As security for the Augustine Loan, New Millennium Capital Partners LLC ("New Millennium"), a company controlled and owned by the Company's president, Dennis Calvert, and members of his family, pledged 2.5 million shares of the Company's common stock owned by New Millennium, and, in addition, the Company has granted the Augustine Fund a security interest in its 51% membership ownership interest in NuWay Sports. As a result, the Company will need to consent of the Augustine Fund to release its security interest in NuWay Sports if the Company is able to sell NuWay Sports.

Prior to the original maturity date of the Augustine Loan, the Company spoke with representatives of the Augustine Fund and advised them that the Company was unable to pay the amount due under the Augustine Loan by the February 29, 2004 maturity date. On March 30, 2004, the Augustine Fund agreed to extend the maturity date of the Loan Agreement to August 2004. In addition to the extension of the maturity date, the Augustine Fund was given the option of having the Augustine Loan satisfied in cash or by the conversion of any remaining principal balance and any accrued interest on the Augustine Loan to shares of the Company's common stock at a 15% discount to market, so long as Augustine Fund's holdings do not exceed 4.9% of the total issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock at any time. In addition, the warrants held by the Augustine Fund to purchase 6,158,381 shares of the Company's common stock were re-priced to an exercise price of $.035 per share. Exercise of the warrants is also subject to the limit that the Augustine Fund does not hold more than 4.9% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock. The Company recorded $19,000 and $50,000 of interest expense for the three- and nine-month periods ended September 30, 2004, related to the Augustine Loan.

On March 7, 2005, the Company and the Augustine Fund agreed to extend the maturity date of the Augustine Loan to May 2006, in exchange for the issuance of a warrant that gives the Augustine Fund the right to purchase 8,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock at $0.005 per share for a period of five years. The final documentation of the extension and the warrant is being finalized and has not yet been completed.

Obligation to New Millennium

In conjunction with the acquisition from Med Wireless of the license for the Med Wireless and PRLS technologies on August 21, 2002, the Company assumed a $1,120,000 note (the "Note") with interest at 10% per annum payable by Med Wireless to Summitt Ventures, Inc. ("Summitt Ventures"). Summitt Ventures is controlled by Mark Anderson, a former consultant and principal stockholder of the Company. The Note is secured by the Company's assets and was originally due on June 15, 2003.

As part of a series of transactions that the Company undertook to separate itself completely from Mr. Anderson, on March 26, 2003, Summitt Ventures sold the Note, together with 4,182,107 shares of the Company's common stock owned by Mr. Anderson's affiliates, Camden Holdings and Summit Healthcare, Inc. ("Summit Healthcare"), to New Millennium, in exchange for a $900,000 promissory note issued by New Millennium in favor of Summitt Ventures, Camden Holdings, and Summit Healthcare (the "New Millennium Note"). The New Millennium Note is secured by all of the stock of the Company owned by New Millennium and Mr. Calvert. (See "Augustine Fund Note" above.) Other than Mr. Calvert, no individual, entity or party presently or previously associated with the Company has ever had any ownership interest in New Millennium. Mr. Anderson, a principal of those companies that sold and/or licensed the technologies to the Company, conditioned the transaction with New Millennium on the Company's agreeing to convert the Note to common stock.

Since New Millennium purchased the Note, the Company has attempted multiple times to convert the Note, but has been unable to obtain the required stockholder vote, due to a lack of quorum, to do so. The three attempts are described below.

On March 26, 2003, the Company's board of directors voted to convert the Note by New Millennium into 22,400,000 shares of common stock of the Company, at a conversion price discounted 37.5% from the then market price of $0.08. New Millennium agreed to this conversion.

In arriving at a conversion price, the board of directors determined that a 37.5% discount to market price was appropriate based on a number of factors, including that (i) with the quantity of the shares that would be issued, a block of shares that size could not be liquidated without affecting the market price of the shares, and (ii) the shares would be "restricted shares" and could therefore not be sold by New Millennium in the public markets prior to two years from the date of the conversion, and thereafter would be subject to the volume and manner of sale limitations of Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933.

Subsequent to the vote by the board to convert the Note, the Company received notification from NASDAQ's Listing Qualifications Department that converting the Note without stockholder approval violated certain NASDAQ Marketplace Rules. In response to this notification, the board, with the concurrence of New Millennium, voted to amend its resolution and delay conversion of the Note until the Company's stockholders approved the conversion.

At the Company's June 6, 2003 board meeting, Mr. Calvert, on behalf of New Millennium, and the Company, through the unanimous action of the board (with Mr. Calvert abstaining), agreed that, in light of current market conditions (namely the significant increase in the trading price of the Company's common stock since March 26, 2003, the date on which the conversion of the Note was originally approved by the board, from $0.08 to $0.28 as of June 6, 2003), it would be inequitable for New Millennium to convert the Note at the originally agreed to $0.05 per share price. Mr. Calvert, on behalf of New Millennium, and the Company orally agreed to rescind the agreement to convert the Note.

In addition, New Millennium orally agreed with the Company to extend the maturity date of the Note to a first payment due October 1, 2003 in the amount of $100,000 and the balance of the principal due on April 1, 2004, with interest due according to the original terms of the Note (to correspond to the payment terms of the New Millennium Note), and furthermore to reduce the Company's obligation on the Note to the extent that New Millennium might be able to reduce its obligation on the New Millennium Note. While the prior holder of the Note, Summitt Ventures, purported to condition New Millennium's purchase on the conversion of the Note, Mr. Calvert has represented to the Company that due to Mr. Anderson's failure to honor his obligations in the purchase agreement, Mr. Calvert now believes that conversion of the Note is no longer a required term of the agreement between New Millennium and Summitt Ventures.

The Company was unable to make the $100,000 payment on the Note on the extended due date of October 1, 2003. At a board meeting on October 15, 2003, the board decided to put the issue of conversion of the Note to the Company's stockholders at a special meeting of the stockholders scheduled for December 9, 2003. The stockholders meeting was held on December 9, 2003, but adjourned without a vote, because not enough shares to constitute a quorum were represented. The stockholders meeting was rescheduled for December 30, 2003, at which a quorum was also not present. Because this was the second attempt to obtain a quorum, and more than 4,000,000 additional shares were required to be voted to obtain a quorum, the board adjourned the meeting indefinitely. As a result, the Note was not converted into stock and the outstanding principal amount, together with accrued and unpaid interest, remains as a liability of the Company.

In conjunction with the Company's January 31, 2004 purchase of Premium Medical Group ("PMG") (later rescinded in October 2004), and as a condition to that transaction, the Premium Medical Group shareholders (the "PMG Shareholders") required the Company to convert the note so as to eliminate the obligation from the Company's balance sheet. At a meeting on February 10, 2004, the board of directors voted to convert the note into 30,869,992 shares of its common stock, at a conversion price of $0.04, discounted 20% from the then market price of $0.05. New Millennium agreed to this conversion. In arriving at a conversion price, the board of directors determined that a 20% discount to market price was appropriate based on a number of factors, including (i) the holding period of the stock will be two years, and thus is not liquid until that point, and (ii) the amount of the stock issued would make it impossible to liquidate the stock at the current market price. This discount was equal to the discount proposed to the stockholders in December 2003 at the abandoned stockholders meeting, and less than the discount used by the board at the first conversion attempt in April 2003.

The board approved the conversion knowing that, since its conversion was a condition imposed by the PMG Shareholders, they (who would hold 45% of the Company's common stock at the time of such meeting) would provide the additional shares necessary to obtain a quorum and formal stockholder approval. Stockholder approval was also necessary to increase the number of authorized shares necessary to convert the Note. However, due to lack of operational capital, the Company was unable to remain current in its SEC filings, and thus was unable to hold the required stockholder meeting.

In October 2004, the Company, PMG and the PMG Shareholders rescinded the Stock Purchase Agreement. Because the board of director's decision to convert the Note was based in part on the requirements of the PMG Stock Purchase Agreement, the board on October 28, 2004, determined not to convert the Note. Considering that the Company at the time was a shell corporation with no operations, Mr. Calvert also agreed to extend the maturity of the Note indefinitely until the Company's status changed.

Accordingly, as of September 30, 2004, the principal amount of the loan, together with $73,504 in accrued but unpaid interest, had not been repaid.

Under the terms of the New Millennium Note, it is possible that Summitt Ventures, Camden Holdings, and Summit Healthcare may have a claim to reacquire the shares of the Company's common stock that were sold to New Millennium. The New Millennium Note is purportedly secured by the purchased shares of the Company's common stock; however, New Millennium and Mr. Calvert believe that Mr. Anderson and his affiliates have not perfected their security interest in those shares. In addition, the Augustine Fund is the pledgee of 2,500,000 of these shares and has physical possession of those shares.

New Millennium has informed the Company's board of directors that New Millennium still intends to fully convert the Note to stock as soon as it is practical, following stockholder approval. As of the date of the filing of this report, the stockholder vote has not taken place and the Note has not been converted into shares of the Company's common stock.

Critical Accounting Policies

The Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC") recently issued Financial Reporting release No. 60, "Cautionary Advice Regarding Disclosure About Critical Accounting Policies" (FRR 60), suggesting companies provide additional disclosure and commentary on their most critical accounting policies. In FRR 60, the SEC defined the most critical accounting policies as the ones that are most important to the portrayal of a company's financial condition and operating results, and require management to make its most difficult and subjective judgments, often as a result of the need to make estimates of matters that are inherently uncertain. Based on this definition, the Company's most critical accounting policies include: non-cash transactions and compensation valuations that affect the total expenses reported in the current period and/or values of assets received in exchange.

The Company has established a policy relative to the methodology to determine the value assigned to each intangible acquired with or licensed by the Company and/or services or products received for non-cash consideration of the Company's common stock. The value is based on the market price of the Company's common stock issued as consideration, at the date of the agreement of each transaction or when the service is rendered or product is received, as adjusted for applicable discounts.

The methods, estimates and judgments the Company uses in applying these most critical accounting policies have a significant impact on the results of the Company reports in its financial statements.

ITEM 7. FINANCIAL STATEMENTS.

Our consolidated financial statements as of and for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003 are presented in a separate section of this report following Item 14 and begin with the index on page F-1.

ITEM 8. CHANGES IN AND DISAGREEMENTS WITH ACCOUNTANTS ON ACCOUNTING AND FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE.

As disclosed in our Current Report on Form 8-K filed on September 10, 2004, as amended on September 17, 2004, we dismissed Haskell & White LLP ("H&W") as our principal accounting firm as of September 9, 2004. As disclosed in our Current Report on Form 8-K filed on September 16, 2004, we engaged Jeffrey S. Gilbert, CPA ("Gilbert") as our principal accountant. Gilbert was engaged to audit our consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2003. The decision to change auditors was recommended by our audit committee and approved by our board of directors. During the Company's relationship with H&W, since H&W's initial engagement as the principal auditors on March 31, 2003, through September 9, 2004, there were no disagreements with H&W, whether or not resolved, on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure, which, if not resolved to H&W's satisfaction, would have caused it to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement(s) in connection with its report on the consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2002.

Item 8A. Controls and Procedures

(a) Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures. Our management evaluated, with the participation of Dennis Calvert, who serves as both our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, the effectiveness of our disclosure controls and procedures as of the end of the period covered by this Annual Report on Form 10-KSB. Based on this evaluation, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer have concluded that our disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Rules 13a-15(e) and 15d-15(e) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) are effective to ensure that information required to be disclosed by us in reports that we file or submit under the Exchange Act is recorded, processed, summarized and reported within the time periods specified in Securities and Exchange Commission rules and forms. It should be noted that the design of any system of controls is based in part upon certain assumptions about the likelihood of future events, and there can be no assurance that any design will succeed in achieving its stated goals under all potential future conditions, regardless of how remote.

(b) Changes in internal control over financial reporting. There was no change in our internal control over financial reporting that occurred during the period covered by this Annual Report on Form 10-KSB that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, our internal control over financial reporting.

Item 8B. Other Information

During 2004, the Company conducted a private offering of stock and convertible debt, which offering continued during the fourth quarter of 2004. The Company filed a Current Report on Form 8-K with respect to this offering on February 23, 2005.

In August 2004, the Company defaulted on its payment obligations in the Augustine Loan. This event was reported in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB for the year ended December 31, 2003.

Committees Of The Board Of Directors

The board of directors has established an Audit Committee and a Compensation Committee.

The Audit Committee meets with management and the Company's independent public accountants to review the adequacy of internal controls and other financial reporting matters. Mr. Harrison is Chairman of the Audit committee. Mr. Cox also serves on the audit committee. The board of directors has not designated an audit committee financial expert and does not believe that either member of the Audit Committee would satisfy the current definitional requirements of SEC rules and regulations to be an audit committee financial expert.

The Compensation Committee reviews the compensation for all officers and directors and affiliates of the Company. The Committee also administers the Company's stock option plan. Mr. Harrison is Chairman of the Compensation Committee and Mr. Cox serves on the Compensation Committee.

The board of directors has determined that each of Messrs. Harrison and Cox is independent as defined under NASDAQ Marketplace rules. In 2003, the staff of NASDAQ had questioned whether Mr. Harrison was independent, and the NASDAQ Qualifications Panel discussed those issues with the Company at a hearing held on May 16, 2003. The determination letter delivered to the Company by the NASDAQ Qualifications Panel, which resulted in the delisting of the Company's common stock from the NASDAQ SmallCap Market, stated, "While the Panel acknowledged that it appears the Company may have regained compliance with the independent directors and audit committee composition requirements based on the appointment of Messrs. Cox and Harrison, it [the Panel] determined not to make a finding on these deficiencies given that the appropriate NASDAQ background checks have not yet been completed".

The Company continues to believe that Mr. Harrison is independent, because has no business dealings with the Company other than in his role as board member. However, Mr. Harrison formerly was a partner of Mr. Calvert in a business named Beep For Free.com, LLC, from which Mr. Calvert resigned as the managing member in June 2002. Beep For Free.com, LLC ceased operations in December 2002.

In October 2004, the board of directors adopted a written code of ethics that applies to its principal executive officer, principal financial officer, principal accounting officer or controller, or persons performing similar functions.

Compliance with Section 16(a) of the Exchange Act

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 requires the Company's directors, certain officers and persons holding 10% or more of the Company's common stock to file reports regarding their ownership and regarding their acquisitions and dispositions of the Company's common stock with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such persons are required by SEC regulations to furnish the Company with copies of all Section 16(a) forms they file.

To our knowledge, based solely upon review of Forms 3, 4, and 5 (and amendments thereto) and written representations provided to the Company by executive officers, directors and stockholders beneficially owning 10% or greater of the outstanding shares, the Company believes that such persons filed pursuant to the requirements of the Securities and Exchange Commission on a timely basis, other than one Mr. Provenzano's failure to file a report with respect to two grants of common stock. Mr. Provenzano intends to file a Form 5 with respect to these transactions.

Employment Agreements

The Company entered into an employment agreement with Dennis Calvert in December 2002. Mr. Calvert's employment agreement provides for him to be employed for five years at an annual salary of $168,000. The employment agreement further provides that Mr. Calvert work with the Company on a full time basis, that the office be located in Laguna Hills, California, that he receive annual increases of 10% of his base income, that bonuses will be payable based on the greater of a performance scale established by the Compensation Committee, assigned by the board of directors, or 3% of the annual increase in market capitalization value. The compensation plan includes benefits of a car allowance, insurance and a standard vacation package. The agreement has certain minimum performance standards and calls for a severance package equal to one year's base compensation, plus an additional one half year's compensation for each year of service beginning in 2003. Standard confidentiality, company ownership rights to property and assets and arbitration clauses are included in the agreement.

The Company entered into an employment agreement with Mr. Provenzano in March 2003. Mr. Provenzano's employment agreement provides for him to be employed for five years at an annual salary of $130,800. The employment agreement provides that, at the Company's discretion, the Company may choose to pay up to $4,900 of Mr. Provenzano's monthly salary in the form of stock in lieu of cash. Mr. Provenzano is also eligible to receive incentive bonuses, stock ownership participation and employee related benefits. The employment agreement further provides that Mr. Provenzano receive annual increases of 5% of his base income, that bonuses will be payable based on the greater of a performance scale established by the Compensation Committee, assigned by the board of directors, or 1.5% of the annual increase in market capitalization value. The compensation plan includes those benefits of car allowance and insurance benefits and a standard vacation package. The agreement has certain minimum performance standards and calls for a severance package equal to one year's base compensation, plus an additional one half year's compensation for each year of service beginning in 2003. Standard confidentiality, company ownership rights to property and assets and arbitration clauses are included in the agreement.

Options Granted During Last Fiscal Year

No options were granted to the Named Executive Officers during 2004.

Equity Compensation Plans

2002 Consultant Equity Plan

In August 2002, the Company's board of directors approved the formation of the 2002 Consultant Equity Plan (the "2002 Plan"), designed to allow consultants to be compensated with shares of Company common stock for services provided to the Company. A total of 1,500,000 shares under the 2002 Plan were registered with the SEC. The 2002 Plan was amended by the Company's board of directors in December 2002. A total of 3,500,000 additional shares were registered with the SEC on a Form S-8 registration statement on December 27, 2002. Approval of the 2002 Plan was not submitted to the vote of the stockholders. Persons eligible to receive stock awards under the 2002 Plan included "consultants" that provide bona fide consulting services to the Company, excluding any services incident to the raising of capital or promotion or maintenance of a market for the Company's securities.

The 2002 Plan was terminated by the board of directors on December 16, 2004. From August 2002 through February 2003, the Company issued all but 84,452 of the 5,000,000 shares available under the 2002 Plan to approximately 26 consultants, employees and directors.

2003 Stock Compensation Plan

In February 2003, the board of directors approved the 2003 Stock Compensation Plan ("2003 Plan") as a means of providing directors, key employees and consultants additional incentive to provide services to the Company. The 2003 Plan was terminated by the board of directors at its meeting on December 16, 2004. The 2003 Plan set aside up to 15,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock for these purposes, which shares were registered with the SEC on a Form S-8 registration statement on February 27, 2003. Approval of the 2003 Plan was not submitted to a vote of the stockholders. The board of directors administered the 2003 Plan. The 2003 Plan allowed the board of directors to award grants of shares of the Company's common stock or options to purchase shares of the Company's common stock.

From February through September 2003, the Company issued 14,863,230 shares under the 2003 Plan to 27 directors, employees and consultants.

In March 2003, the board of directors approved, and the Company issued, 3,000,000 shares of common stock to Dennis Calvert, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, as consideration for his services. The board of directors subsequently modified its approval of this issuance to make it conditioned upon stockholder approval of the transaction because of NASDAQ Marketplace Rules governing change of control transactions. Mr. Calvert returned the 3,000,000 shares to the Company. On December 9, 2003, the Company attempted to conduct a stockholder meeting to approve the terms of the issuance of 3,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock to Dennis Calvert. The Company was unable to obtain a quorum at the meeting. The meeting was adjourned to December 30, 2003, but again the Company was unable to obtain a quorum. As of the date of the filing of this Annual Report, the 3,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock have not been issued to Mr. Calvert.

2004 Equity Plan

On March 10, 2004, the board of directors approved the Company's 2004 Equity Plan as a means of providing directors, key employees and consultants additional incentive to provide services for the Company. Both stock options and stock grants may be made under this plan. The Plan sets aside up to 20,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock for these purposes, which were registered with the SEC. Approval of this plan was not submitted to the vote of the stockholders. The Board administers this plan. The plan allows the Board to award grants of common shares or options to purchase common shares. As plan administrator, the board has sole discretion to set the price of the options. The Board may at any time amend or terminate the plan. It does not expire on its terms.

During 2004, the Company issued 9,780,000 shares to 16 consultants, directors, and employees. Of this total 5,680,000 have been registered with the SEC, while the balance, 3,500,000 shares were not registered and are restricted securities. Of the total issued in 2004, 1,580,000 shares relate to services performed in 2003 and 7,600,000 shares relate to 2004. The effect of the shares issued for 2003 services in 2004 was accrued in the Company's financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2003. In 2004 there was $275,400 of expenses recorded related to the issuance of these shares. Of this amount $120,000 related to consulting services, $5,400 related to legal services, $60,000 related to Board of Directors expense, and $90,000 related to salary expense.

ITEM 11. SECURITY OWNERSHIP OF CERTAIN BENEFICIAL OWNERS AND MANAGEMENT.

The following table sets forth information regarding the beneficial ownership of shares of the Company's common stock as of May 31, 2005 by (i) all stockholders known to the Company to be beneficial owners of more than 5% of the outstanding common stock; (ii) each director and executive officer of the Company individually and (iii) all directors and executive officers of the Company as a group.

Name and Address of Beneficial Owner (1)(2)	Amount of Beneficial Ownership (3)	Percent of Class (5)
Dennis Calvert	4,782,107 (4)	9.2%
Joseph Provenzano	4,224,936	8.2%

(3) Other than as footnoted below, none of these security holders has the right to acquire any amount of the shares within sixty days from options, warrants, rights, conversion privilege, or similar obligations. The amount owned is based on issued common stock, as well as stock options, which are currently exercisable.

- (4) This amount excludes 30,869,992 shares of the Company's common stock issuable upon conversion of the NuWay Note. The conversion of the NuWay Note is subject to the prior approval of the Company's stockholders. (See Part III, Item 12, "Certain Relationships and Related Transactions")
- (5) Percentage ownership is based on 51,981,236 shares of common stock outstanding on May 31, 2005. Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the SEC and generally includes voting or investment power with respect to securities. Except as indicated by footnote, and subject to community property laws where applicable, the persons named in the table have sole voting and investment power with respect to all shares of common stock shown as beneficially owned by them.

ITEM 12. CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Transactions with Dennis Calvert

New Millennium Capital Partners, LLC Purchase of Common Stock and Promissory Note from Mark Anderson and Affiliates

In March 2003, New Millennium, which is controlled by our president Dennis Calvert, purchased the Company's promissory note in the principal amount of $1,150,000 (the "NuWay Note"), which notes was held by Summitt Ventures, Inc. ("Summitt Ventures"), and purchased an aggregate of 5,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock from Camden Holdings and Summit Healthcare, Inc. ("Summit Healthcare") in consideration of the New Millennium Note. Camden Holdings, Summitt Ventures and Summit Healthcare are controlled by Mark Roy Anderson. The transaction was executed as part of a plan to remove Mr. Anderson totally from any involvement in the Company and provide a completely new focus and direction for the Company under management led by Mr. Calvert.

The New Millennium Note is secured by all the shares of the Company's common stock purchased in the transaction and is further secured by shares of the Company's common stock personally owned by Mr. Calvert, of which he currently owns none. The transaction was conditioned, among other things, on the Company's converting the NuWay Note into shares of the Company's common stock.

The sellers only delivered share certificates representing 4,182,107 shares of the Company's common stock, which certificates were delivered to Mr. Calvert on April 9, 2003. In the New Millennium Agreement, Mr. Anderson represented that he was selling 100% of his stock to New Millennium and would no longer own any of the Company's stock. Subsequent to the closing of that transaction, management learned through the Company's transfer agent that Camden Holdings still owns 340,894 shares of the Company's common stock. The Company and New Millennium believe that the existence of these 340,894 shares of the Company's common stock owned by Camden Holdings Inc. is a material breach of the New Millennium Agreement, and the Company and New Millennium are reviewing their respective legal rights with regards to this matter.

Technically, as a matter of the terms of the New Millennium Agreement, it is possible that Camden Holdings or Mr. Anderson could reacquire the shares of the Company's common stock that were sold to New Millennium, should New Millennium default on the promissory note issued by New Millennium to Camden Holdings to purchase the shares, which note is secured by the purchased shares of the Company's common stock

Conversion of NuWay Note to Common Stock

Pursuant to the NuWay Note, the Company owes New Millennium $1,120,000 plus accrued and outstanding interest. On March 26, 2003, the board of directors of the Company voted to convert the NuWay Note into 22,400,000 shares of common stock of the Company, reflecting a 37.5% discount to market price. New Millennium consented to the proposed conversion.

The business purpose of the conversion was to fulfill one of the conditions to the transaction between New Millennium and Mr. Anderson and his affiliates, and to retire $1,120,000 in debt owed by the Company with the effect increasing stockholder equity. The board of directors determined that a 37.5% discount to market price was appropriate given that (i) the shares into which the NuWay Note would be convertible would be subject to the one-year holding period provided by of Rule 144 prior to resale and (ii) even after such holding period, this large amount of shares could only be resold in the market over a significant period of time in light of the volume limitations of Rule 144 that would apply to such resales. The conversion was approved by the Company's non-interested directors.

After receiving advice from the staff of NASDAQ regarding the requirements of applicable NASDAQ Marketplace Rules, the board of directors made the conversion of the NuWay Note conditional upon receiving stockholder approval of the conversion. New Millennium agreed to extend the terms of the NuWay Note from June 15, 2003 to September 15, 2003, to allow sufficient time for the Company to obtain the requisite stockholder approval.

On December 9, 2003, the Company attempted to conduct a stockholder meeting to approve the terms of the conversion of the Company's Promissory Note. The Company was unable to obtain a quorum at the meeting. The meeting was adjourned to December 30, 2003, but again the Company was unable to obtain a quorum, and the conversion has not taken place as of the date of the filing of this Annual Report.

In conjunction with the Company's January 31, 2004 purchase of Premium Medical Group ("PMG") (later rescinded in October 2004), and as a condition to that transaction, the Premium Medical Group shareholders (the "PMG Shareholders") required the Company to convert the note so as to eliminate the obligation from the Company's balance sheet. At a meeting on February 10, 2004, the board of directors voted to convert the note into 30,869,992 shares of its common stock, at a conversion price of $0.04, discounted 20% from the then market price of $0.05. New Millennium agreed to this conversion. In arriving at a conversion price, the board of directors determined that a 20% discount to market price was appropriate based on a number of factors, including (i) the holding period of the stock will be two years, and thus is not liquid until that point, and (ii) the amount of the stock issued would make it impossible to liquidate the stock at the current market price. This discount was equal to the discount proposed to the stockholders in December 2003 at the abandoned stockholders meeting, and less than the discount used by the board at the first conversion attempt in April 2003.

The board approved the conversion knowing that, since its conversion was a condition imposed by the PMG Shareholders, they (who would hold 45% of the Company's common stock at the time of such meeting) would provide the additional shares necessary to obtain a quorum and formal stockholder approval. Stockholder approval was also necessary to increase the number of authorized shares necessary to convert the Note. However, due to lack of operational capital, the Company was unable to remain current in its SEC filings, and thus was unable to hold the required stockholder meeting.

In October 2004, the Company, PMG and the PMG Shareholders rescinded the Stock Purchase Agreement. Because the board of director's decision to convert the Note was based in part on the requirements of the PMG Stock Purchase Agreement, the board on October 28, 2004, determined not to convert the Note. Considering that the Company at the time was a shell corporation with no operations, Mr. Calvert also agreed to extend the maturity of the Note indefinitely until the Company's status changed.

Accordingly, as of September 30, 2004, the principal amount of the loan, together with $73,504 in accrued but unpaid interest, had not been repaid.

Under the terms of the New Millennium Note, it is possible that Summitt Ventures, Camden Holdings, and Summit Healthcare may have a claim to reacquire the shares of the Company's common stock that were sold to New Millennium. The New Millennium Note is purportedly secured by the purchased shares of the Company's common stock; however, New Millennium and Mr. Calvert believe that Mr. Anderson and his affiliates have not perfected their security interest in those shares. In addition, the Augustine Fund is the pledgee of 2,500,000 of these shares and has physical possession of those shares.

New Millennium has informed the Company's board of directors that New Millennium still intends to fully convert the Note to stock as soon as it is practical, following stockholder approval. As of the date of the filing of this report, the stockholder vote has not taken place and the Note has not been converted into shares of the Company's common stock.

Since that time, New Millennium has agreed to a further indefinite extension of the maturity date of the NuWay Note pending stockholder approval of the transaction. The Company has been unable to schedule such a meeting due to the delinquent status of its periodic reports with the SEC and limited resources to plan the meeting.

Transactions with Mark Roy Anderson

During the period from approximately June 2002 through March 2003, the Company entered into several transactions with entities controlled by Mark Roy Anderson. These entities are Med Wireless, Genesis, Camden Holdings, Summit Healthcare, Summitt Ventures, Summit Oil & Gas, Inc. ("Summit Oil") and CVP. The transactions are listed in chronological order. Neither the Company, nor any of its directors or officers, has had any communication with Mr. Anderson since May 2003.

Financing Agreement with Camden Holdings, Inc.

During June 2002, as part of a plan introduced to the Company by Mr. Anderson to shift the Company's focus to the medical technology field and bring in new management, Camden Holdings purchased 1,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock for $250,000. At the time of the transaction, Camden Holdings, whose president at the time of the transaction was Mr. Anderson, owned no shares in the Company, this being the initial transaction between the Company and Mr. Anderson and his affiliates. After this purchase, the 1,000,000 shares represented approximately 12.9% of the then-issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock.

Genesis Health Tech, Inc.

On June 28, 2002, the Company purchased a database of healthcare providers in the United States from Genesis, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Camden Holdings, which was controlled by Mr. Anderson. The total purchase price of $300,000 was satisfied by the issuance of 666,667 shares of the Company's common stock. After this purchase, the 1,666,667 shares of the Company's common stock beneficially owned by Mr. Anderson represented approximately 19.8% of the then-issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock.

Med Wireless, Inc.

By way of an agreement dated July 16, 2002 and amended August 21, 2002, the Company acquired a 15-year, fully paid license to certain technology from Med Wireless, a company whose founder and principal stockholder was Mr. Anderson. Pursuant to the related license agreement (i) the Company would license from Med Wireless all of its rights and interest in certain software applications relating to the movement of medical images and data over the Internet and via handheld wireless devices as well as customer lists; (ii) Med Wireless would assign its customers and distribution agreements related to the licensed intellectual property to the Company; and (iii) the Company would assume $1,120,000 of outstanding debt (see further discussions below). In return, the Company agreed to issue to the Med Wireless stockholders an aggregate of 6,600,000 shares, or approximately 44%, of the Company's common stock.

Through Camden Holdings and Summit Healthcare, Mr. Anderson received an additional 2,868,928 shares of the Company's common stock, as a result of the Med Wireless transaction, which increased Mr. Anderson's beneficial ownership to 4,535,595 shares, or approximately 28.3%, of the Company's common stock at the time this transaction was approved by the Company's stockholders. Mr. Anderson also held a minority interest in Med Wireless.

In addition, the Company's current president, Dennis Calvert, was entitled to receive approximately 9.9% of the stock of Med Wireless and 600,000 shares of the Company's common stock as a result of this transaction. Prior to this transaction, Mr. Calvert was not a stockholder of Med Wireless.

The transaction was approved by the board of directors and the vote of a majority of the Company's shares of common stock, including the shares held by Camden Holdings. Stockholders of the Company owning 3,930,183 shares of the 7,761,353 shares then outstanding consented to the transaction with Med Wireless, including the shares held by Mr. Anderson and his affiliates.

Sale of Casino Operations

The Company sold its wholly-owned casino rental subsidiaries, Latin American Casinos del Peru S.A., and Latin American Casinos of Colombia, LTDA, to CVP in October 2002. Mr. Anderson was a general partner of CVP at the time of the transaction. Although the purchase price for the stock was $300,000, less all outstanding liabilities of the two subsidiaries, the outstanding liabilities exceeded that amount and the Company received no cash in the sale. The transaction price was determined as a result of the Company's receiving no viable suitors, bidders or offers for the stock or assets of the Company's gaming businesses. The Company's board of directors approved this transaction, but it was not voted upon by the Company's stockholders.

Sale of Oil Operations

The Company entered into an agreement on December 15, 2002 to sell 100% of the stock of NuWay Resources, Ltd. ("NuWay Resources"), the Company's oil and gas subsidiary, for $100,000 less outstanding liabilities, to Summit Oil. Mr. Anderson was president of Summit Oil at the time of the transaction. The Company received no cash from the sale of the stock, but was able to insure contractually that it would not retain any liabilities, or incur new liabilities (which had been increasingly significantly), beyond October 1, 2002. The transaction price was determined as a result of the Company's receiving no other viable offers for NuWay Resources or its assets. The Company's board of directors approved the transaction, but it was not voted upon by the Company's stockholders.

Consultancy Arrangement

Beginning in September 2002, Mr. Anderson also served as a consultant to the Company pursuant to a written agreement and received 1,241,884 shares of the Company's common stock pursuant to the 2002 Consultant Equity Plan. The Consultancy Agreement was terminated in December 2002.

As a result of all of the foregoing transactions, the Company believes that Mr. Anderson was the beneficial owner of an aggregate of 5,777,479 shares, or more than 30%, of the Company's common stock outstanding as of December 31, 2002, assuming Mr. Anderson beneficially owned all the shares at the same time. The Company believes that Mr. Anderson sold some of the shares which were issued pursuant to the 2002 Plan, and as such the number and percentage of the Company's common stock held by Mr. Anderson at any one time may have been less than that indicated above. In any event, Mr. Anderson failed to file any reports with the SEC on Schedules 13D or 13G, or on Forms 3 or 4, and therefore, the Company cannot confirm any of these numbers at any given point in time.

Report of Independent Registered Public Accounting Firm

To the Board of Directors and Stockholders
NuWay Medical, Inc.

I have audited the consolidated balance sheets of NuWay Medical, Inc. and Subsidiary (the "Company") as of December 31, 2004 and 2003 and the related consolidated statements of operations, stockholders' deficit and cash flows for the years then ended. These consolidated financial statements are the responsibility of the Company's management. My responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on my audits.

I conducted my audits in accordance with standards of the Public Company Accounting Oversight Board (United States). Those standards require that I plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes consideration of internal control over financial reporting as a basis for designing audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Company's internal control over financial reporting. Accordingly, I express no such opinion. An audit also includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. I believe my audits provide a reasonable basis for my opinion.

In my opinion, the consolidated financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the consolidated financial position of NuWay Medical, Inc. and Subsidiary as of December 31, 2004 and 2003 and the results of their operations and their cash flows for the years then ended, in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

As discussed in Note 1 and 3 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company during 2003 discontinued its remaining operations.

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern. As discussed in Note 1 to the consolidated financial statements, the Company has limited liquid resources, recurring losses, and is seeking to implement its business plan, which requires the Company to acquire or develop a business. These matters raise substantial doubt about its ability to continue as a going concern. Management's plans in regard to these matters are also discussed in Note 1. The consolidated financial statements do not include any adjustment that might result from the outcome of this uncertainty.

Note 1. Business and Organization

Outlook

As of December 31, 2004, and as of May 31, 2005, the Company had no continuing business operations. Any perceived value in the Company is both speculative and intangible in nature. The Company is operating as a public shell and its business operations consist of management seeking merger and acquisition candidates with ongoing operations.

Cash and cash equivalents totaled $0 at December 31, 2004. The Company had no revenues in the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2004 (except insignificant other income) and was forced to consume cash on hand and sell the Company's common stock to fund operations. The Company's cash position is insufficient to meet its operating expenses for any reasonable period of time. The Company will be required to raise additional capital to sustain basic operations through the remainder of 2005 and until a merger candidate with operations of its own is located and a transaction is consummated. While the Company is actively seeking investments through private investors and other parties, there is no assurance that the Company will be able to raise additional capital for the period required.

The Company's consolidated financial statements have been prepared assuming the Company will continue as a going concern, which contemplates the realization of assets and satisfaction of liabilities in the normal course of business. As of December 31, 2004, the Company had limited liquid and capital resources and the Company's president is incurring costs on the Company's behalf while seeking acquisition opportunities.

Ultimately, the Company's ability to continue as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to attract new sources of capital, establish an acquisition or reverse merger candidate with continuing operations, attain a reasonable threshold of operating efficiencies and achieve profitable operations.

For the twelve-month period ended December 31, 2004, the Company raised $221,033. These funds were raised through straight debt financing, convertible debt financing, equity financing, and advances from the Company's president.

Organization

NuWay Energy, Inc., a Delaware corporation (formerly known as Latin American Casinos, Inc.), changed its name to NuWay Medical Inc. (NuWay) in October 2002. The name change reflected the Company's operating focus after it acquired a 15-year licensing right to certain medical technology from Med Wireless, Inc. in July 2002. (See Note 3.) The Med Wireless software is a HIPAA (Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act) compliant technological solution to electronically organize, store, and retrieve medical records and medical images. To market this licensing right, the Company formed NuWay Sports Medicine Ventures, LLC (subsequently renamed NuWay Sports LLC), in which it holds a 51% membership interest, in December 2002. Although formed in 2002, the subsidiary did not begin operations until 2003. NuWay Sports developed the Player Record Library System (PRLS), which is a derivative product of the Med Wireless technology. PRLS is a secure database for athlete/patient medical data that can be acquired, displayed, analyzed, interpreted, and archived in a completely digital format, which has been customized for the sports industry. NuWay Sports generated $40,000 in revenue during the first quarter of 2003 and entered into negotiating for the possible use of the product with several professional sports leagues and individual professional sport clubs. However, these negotiations did not result in a transaction and the Company has had little success in generating ongoing revenue. As of December 2004, NuWay Sports had ceased marketing the PRLS system as a result of inadequate capital, marketing resources, and market competition. The PRLS system has not developed into a profitable operation and the Company desires to sell its licensing rights and PRLS product, but does not have any offers with tangible value.

In addition, the Company pursued a business opportunity related to an ultrasound machine sale-leaseback program. The business opportunity came about as a result of the Med Wireless License transaction with the Company, but no cost associated with this business opportunity was recorded on the books of the Company. Under this program, the Company attempted to arrange the purchase of ultrasound machines by investors, who would lease the machines to the Company. In turn, the Company would sub-lease the ultrasound machines to the end user. The Company secured purchase orders from both investors and prospective end-use lessees of the ultrasound machines. These purchase orders were conditioned upon the Company's ability to secure financing of its own lease obligations of the ultrasound machines from the investors. This was not accomplished because the Company lacked the financial resources and credit to obtain such financing. The Company continued to pursue attempts to arrange such financing through March 2003. After March 2003, the Company focused primarily on the Med Wireless and PRLS technologies and, after occasional attempts to pursue the sale-leaseback program through mid-2003, this ultrasound program was no longer pursued.

Note 2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

a) Principles of Consolidation.

Management intends to sell NuWay Sports, LLC. Therefore as of December 31, 2003 revenues and expenses related to NuWay Sports, LLC have been reclassified from continuing operations to a Loss from Discontinued Operations. (Note 4) There are no other subsidiaries.

The consolidated balance sheets include the accounts of NuWay Medical, Inc. and NuWay Sports, LLC. The Company has significant influence of the business operations of NuWay Sports and operations are consolidated. All significant inter-company balances have been eliminated in consolidation.

b) Property and Equipment.

On April 1, 2004 the Company closed its offices and has in storage its furniture, fixtures and office equipment. As these items are idle and there is no foreseeable plan of use, management recorded a write down of the remaining net book value totaling $20,292 as of December 31, 2003. Any gain from the sale of these items would not have a material affect on these financial statements. While in use during 2003, depreciation was provided on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful life of the respective asset. Maintenance and repairs are charged to expense as incurred. There were no major renewals or betterments.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

c) Impairment of Long-Lived Assets.

The Company periodically reviews its long-lived assets for potential impairment as required by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 144, "Accounting for the Impairment of Long-Lived Assets and for Long-Lived Assets to be Disposed of." As discussed in Note 3, the Company recorded an impairment charge totaling $3,693,250, and $651,750 of depreciation and amortization charges relating to the acquired technology.

d) Subsidiary and Technology Held for Sale and Discontinued Operations.

The Company is attempting to sell its majority-owned subsidiary, NuWay Sports and the Med Wireless technology. Thus, as of December 31, 2003 the Company has reflected on its Statement of Operations a loss from Discontinued Operations of $4,938,113 related to the Med Wireless technology and its investment in NuWay Sports, LLC. (Note 3) This amount includes the impairment and depreciation and amortization amounts described above and $593,113 in net operation charges incurred in 2003. There are minimal future costs expected to be incurred to sell this subsidiary or the technology and, in accordance with FASB Statement No. 146 "Accounting for Costs associated with the exit or disposal activities", any costs will be expensed as incurred.

e) Earnings (Loss) Per Share.

The Company reports basic and diluted earnings (loss) per share (EPS) for common and common share equivalents. Basic EPS is computed by dividing reported earnings by the weighted average shares outstanding. Diluted EPS is computed by adding to the weighted average shares the dilutive effect if stock options and warrants were exercised into common stock. For the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, the denominator in the diluted EPS computation is the same as the denominator for basic EPS due to the anti-dilutive effect of the warrants and stock options on the Company's net loss.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

For the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, the computation of basic EPS is as follows:

Continuing Operations:	2004	2003
Numerator - net loss	$ (1,218,048)	$ (2,406,358)
Denominator - weighted shares outstanding	45,987,808	30,466,628
Loss per share from Continuing Operations	$ (0.03)	$ (0.08)
Discontinued Operations:
Numerator - net loss	$ --	$ (4,871,019)
Denominator - weighted shares outstanding	--	30,466,628
Loss per share from discontinued operations	$ (0.00)	$ (0.17)
TOTAL:
Numerator - net loss	$ (1,218,048)	$ (7,622,209)
Denominator - weighted shares outstanding	45,987,808	30,466,628
Loss per share	$ (0.03)	$ (0.25)

f) Use of Estimates.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, the disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and revenues and expenses during the period reported. Actual results could differ from those estimates. Estimates are used when accounting for stock-based transactions, uncollectible accounts receivable, asset depreciation and amortization, and taxes, among others.

g) Stock Options and Warrants issued for Services.

As permitted under the Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 123 (SFAS No. 123), "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation," the Company accounts for its stock-based compensation to employees in accordance with the provisions of Accounting Principles Board (APB) Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees," and related interpretations. The Company provides the pro forma net earnings, pro forma earnings per share, and stock based compensation plan disclosure requirements set forth in SFAS No. 123.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

In December 2004, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (“FASB”) issued FASB Statement No. 123 (Revised 2004), “Share-Based Payment” (“SFAS No.123(R)”). SFAS No. 123(R) replaces SFAS No. 123 “Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation”, which supersedes Accounting Principles Board (“APB”) Opinion No. 25 “Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees”, (“APB 25”), and amends FASB Statement No 95, “Statement of Cash Flows”. SFAS No. 123 (R) requires all share-based payments to employees, including grants to employee stock options, to be recognized in the financial statements based on their fair values. SFAS No. 123(R) is effective for the first annual reporting period beginning after June 15, 2005. The Company does not expect the impact of the adoption of SFAS 123(R) to have a material effect on the Company’s results of operations.

For stock issued to consultants and other non-employees for services, the Company records the expense based on the fair market value of the securities as of the date of the stock issuance.

h) Advertising

The Company expenses all advertising costs as incurred. Included in the Statement of Operations is approximately $0 and $4,500 of advertising expense charged to operations for the years ended December 31, 2004 and 2003, respectively. During 2003, substantially all advertising expenses to promote the Company's PRLS product, marketed through NuWay Sports, were paid through issuance of shares of the Company's common stock.

i) Non-Cash Transactions

The Company has established a policy relative to the methodology to determine the value assigned to each intangible acquired with or licensed by the Company and/or services or products received for non-cash consideration of the Company's common stock. The value is based on the market price of the Company's common stock issued as consideration, at the date of the agreement of each transaction or when the service is rendered or product is received, as adjusted for applicable discounts.

The methods, estimates and judgments the Company uses in applying these most critical accounting policies have a significant impact on the results of the Company reports in its financial statements.

Note 3. Impairment of Intangible Assets - 2003

During the third quarter of 2003, management conducted an impairment analysis of its two intangible assets, a marketing database purchased from Genesis Health Tech, Inc. and the Med Wireless software technology license acquired from Med Wireless, Inc. Both of those entities were controlled by Mark Roy Anderson.

With respect to the marketing database, management had no success in its marketing efforts and its future use was uncertain and at that time it had not used the marketing database to market any product or generate any revenue for the Company, and has thus determined to record a 100% impairment of that asset in the amount of $216,750.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

With respect to the Med Wireless license, management analyzed the sales prospects of its PRLS system (which is a derivative product based upon the technology licensed from Med Wireless) to the various professional and collegiate sports organizations. It evaluated the successes the Company's NuWay Sports subsidiary had in its sales efforts, and the revenue from projected future sales, and determined to record an impairment charge to the recorded value of the Med Wireless license of $1,649,594. This amount was calculated projecting sales over a three year period (calendar years 2004, 2005 and 2006), factoring in the costs of sales and the product costs, discounting projected net revenue to their present value using a 7.5% interest factor, and further discounts of the Company's projections for uncertainties relative to the timing of acceptance of this technology.

It was stated in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB for the period ended September 30, 2003 that management did not believe that further impairment of the Med Wireless license would be necessary. However, due to the lack of capital to sustain marketing, product development, and operational needs, the Company was unable to obtain significant sales and had not met any projected results. In addition, the Company is attempting to sell the NuWay Sports subsidiary that was marketing the PRLS system. In light of these circumstances, management determined that the book value of the license would not exceed the expected discounted cash flows of its sales projections. Thus management has recorded an additional impairment charge of $1,826,906 in the fourth quarter of the year ending December 31, 2003. For the fiscal year ending December 31, 2003, the Company recorded a total impairment charge of $3,693,250. Of this amount, $216,750 was related to the impairment of the marketing database and the remaining $3,476,500 related to the Med Wireless license. For the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company recorded an impairment charge totaling $3,693,250, and $651,750 of depreciation and amortization charges related to the technology acquired in 2002.

Note 4. Discontinued Operations

Management determined that because of the Company's limited financial resources and increased competition, it would discontinue operations of NuWay Sports and any effort to exploit the Med Wireless license, including development and marketing of the product. The Company faces increased competition from other more established companies with more human resources and capital resources to market their competing products. While PRLS is narrowly defined in its application to the sports industry, management believes the technology related to the PRLS and the Med Wireless license could be expanded by others to serve corporate, government or health provider markets. However, the Company is unable to adequately support the continued development and marketing of the product to take advantage of those potential markets. Because NuWay Sports was able to demonstrate its application with the NFL in the past, the underlying asset and its potential for future deployment has potential value to an entity desiring and capable of exploiting the pursuit of those customers. Therefore, management is actively seeking to sell NuWay Sports.

The consolidated statement of operations for the year ended December 31, 2003 reflects a discontinued operations segments related to the abandonment of the exploitation of the Med Wireless technology after a charge to impairment in an amount equal to the remaining net book value related to 2002 acquired technology. The aggregate of impairment, depreciation and amortization and net loss from discontinued operations was $4,938,113. Although the formal decision to discontinue the operations was made subsequent to December 31, 2003, management of the Company believes that this presentation appropriately reflects the current activity and status of the Company.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

Note 5. Property and Equipment.

On April 1, 2004 the Company closed its offices and has in storage its furniture, fixtures and office equipment. As these items are idle and there is no foreseeable plan of use, management recorded a write down of the remaining balance net book value totaling $20,292 as of December 31, 2003.

Note 6. Warrants

During 2003, the Company issued warrants to purchase a total of 7,011,036 shares of common stock on the following terms: (i) 120,000 shares to an investor in connection with a purchase of the Company's preferred stock, at a price of $0.20 per share, which expires March 7, 2006 (ii) 399,322 shares to investors in connection with a purchase of the Company's preferred stock, at a price of $0.20 per share, which expires April 15, 2006; (iii) 6,158,381 shares to an investor in connection with a loan to the Company, originally at a price of $0.16 per share, which price adjusted to $0.035 per share in connection with an extension of the loan repayment obligation, which expires June 10, 2008; (iv) 333,333 shares to a consultant in connection with consulting services, at a price of $0.06 per share, which expires August 29, 2008. The compensation expense related to (iv) above is immaterial.

On October 29, 2003, the Company issued an unvested warrant to an individual to purchase 2,000,000 shares of common stock at $0.05 a share. The warrant expired on October 29, 2004. The Warrant was not exercisable unless and until the Holder introduced to the Company an investor or investors which invest net proceeds in the Company of at least $250,000 within three months of the introduction. This condition was not satisfied and the warrant expired unvested.

In August 2002, the Company issued a warrant to purchase 100,000 shares of common stock at $0.30 per share to a former executive in connection with his resignation from the Company. The Company recorded compensation expense of $25,000 based on the difference between the exercise price and the market price at the date of issuance. These warrants expired unexercised February 23, 2004.

In December 2000, the board of directors authorized the issuance of 3,300,000 private five-year stock warrants to acquire common stock at $1.75 per share. 1,500,000 of these warrants as well as 200,000 shares of restricted stock were issued to the then existing executive officers. In February 2002, 3,000,000 of the 3,300,000 warrants issued in year 2000 were cancelled. The remaining 300,000 warrants expire in 2005.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

Effective June 5, 1998, the Company contracted with an investment banker to provide on a non-exclusive basis to the Company assistance in possible mergers, acquisitions and capital structuring. The duration of the contract is for five years. In consideration for these services, the Company granted warrants to purchase an aggregate of 225,000 shares of common stock at the closing bid price of $1.875 as of June 5, 1998. Effective February 8, 2000, the board of directors reduced the exercise price to $1.06, which was the closing price of the stock on that date. These warrants expired unexercised in June 2003.

Note 7. Stock Compensation Plans

On June 13, 1994, the board of directors adopted the 1994 Stock Option Plan in which the aggregate number of shares for which options may be granted under the Plan shall not exceed 1,000,000 shares . In June 1999, the Company increased the shares allocated to the plan to 1,500,000. The term of each option shall not exceed ten years from the date of granting (five years for options granted to employees owning more than 10 percent of the outstanding shares of the voting stock of the Company). The 1994 Plan terminated in June 2004.

2002 CONSULTANT EQUITY PLAN

In August of 2002, the board approved the formation of the 2002 Consultant Equity Plan designed to allow consultants to be compensated with shares of Company common stock for services provided to the Company. A total of 5,000,000 shares were registered under this plan with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") during 2002. The Board amended this plan in December 2002. Approval of this plan was not submitted to the vote of the shareholders. Persons eligible to receive stock awards under this plan included "consultants" that provide bona fide consulting services to the Company, excluding any services incident to the raising of capital or promotion or maintenance of a market for the Company's securities. The plan is set to expire 10 years from its inception. A plan committee of two or more members of the Board administers the plan. The plan committee can award shares or options to purchase shares at a price in its discretion, so long as the price chosen is not less than 85% of the fair market value of the underlying shares as of the date of the grant.

At December 31, 2002, there were 2,636,000 of unrestricted shares that were issued in January 2003 for services performed in 2002. Of this amount, 1,200,000 shares were issued to executive officers and the remaining balance was issued to various individuals for consulting, legal and accounting services. Compensation and consulting expense equal to the market value of the stock at the date of issuance totaling $645,000 was accrued in December 2002.

From August 2002 through February 2003, the Company issued all but 84,452 of the 5,000,000 shares available under this plan to approximately 26 consultants, employees and directors. Part of this issuance was a grant of 1,000,000 shares to Mr. Dennis Calvert, president and CEO of the Company, as consideration for his services. Those 1,000,000 shares were issued in January of 2003, but were returned by Mr. Calvert to the Company for cancellation that same month.

2003 STOCK COMPENSATION PLAN

On February 14, 2003, the board of directors approved the Company's 2003 Stock Compensation Plan as a means of providing directors, key employees and consultants' additional incentive to provide services for the Company. Both stock options and stock grants may be made under this plan. The Plan sets aside up to 15,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock for these purposes, which were registered with the SEC. Approval of this plan was not submitted to the vote of the shareholders. The Board administers this plan. The plan allows the Board to award grants of common shares or options to purchase common shares. The board has discretion to set the price of the options, but in no event shall that price be less than 100% of the fair market value of the shares at the time of the grant. The Board may at any time amend or terminate the plan. It does not expire on its terms.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

During 2003, the Company issued 19,248,759 shares to approximately 37 consultants, directors, and employees. Of this total, 17,327,753 have been registered with the SEC, while the balance of 1,921,006 shares, were not registered and are restricted securities. Of the total issued in 2003, 2,633,590 relate to services performed in 2002 and 16,519,169 relate to 2003. The expenses related to the shares issued for 2002 services in 2003 were recorded in the Company's financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2002. In 2003 there were $1,554,700 of expenses recorded related to the issuance of these shares. Of this amount $1,045,600 related to consulting services, $394,000 related to legal services, $63,000 related to Advisory and Board of Directors expense, and $52,100 related to salary expense.

At December 31, 2003, there were 900,000 unrestricted shares held, to be issued when the Company is in compliance with its regulatory filings. All of these shares are to be issued and the consulting expense related to these share totals $81,000 and is included in the Accounts Payable and Accrued Expenses as of December 31, 2003 .

The board of directors approved a grant of 3,000,000 shares of stock pursuant to the Company's 2003 Stock Compensation Plan to Mr. Dennis Calvert, president and CEO of the Company, as consideration for his services. Those 3,000,000 shares were issued in March 2003. The board of directors subsequently modified its approval of this issuance to make it conditioned upon stockholder approval of the transaction because of NASDAQ Marketplace Rules governing change of control transactions. Mr. Calvert returned those 3,000,000 shares to the Company and they are not included in the above-described issuance.

NUWAY MEDICAL, INC. 2004 EQUITY PLAN

On March 10, 2004, the board of directors approved the Company's 2004 Equity Plan as a means of providing directors, key employees and consultants additional incentive to provide services for the Company. Both stock options and stock grants may be made under this plan. The Plan sets aside up to 20,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock for these purposes, which were registered with the SEC. Approval of this plan was not submitted to the vote of the shareholders. The Board administers this plan. The plan allows the Board to award grants of common shares or options to purchase common shares. As plan administrator, the board has sole discretion to set the price of the options. The Board may at any time amend or terminate the plan. It does not expire on its terms.

During 2004, the Company issued approximately 9,180,000 shares to 16 consultants, directors, and employees. Of this total 5,680,000 have been registered with the SEC, while the balance, 3,500,000 shares were not registered and are restricted securities. Of the total issued in 2004, 1,580,000 shares relate to services performed in 2003 and 7,600,000 shares relate to 2004. The effect of the shares issued for 2003 services in 2004 was accrued in the Company's financial statements for the year ending December 31, 2003. In 2004 there were $275,400 of expenses recorded related to the issuance of these shares. Of this amount $120,000 related to consulting services, $5,400 related to legal services, $60,000 related to Board of Directors expense, and $90,000 related to salary expense.

Note 8. Sale of Unregistered Securities in 2004

In January 2004, The Company issued 30,000,000 shares of common stock to the Premium Medical Group Shareholders in connection with a transaction in which the Company acquired the outstanding stock of Premium Medical Group. This transaction has since been rescinded by the parties. (Note 15)

In February 2004, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $5,000 from an individual investor in connection with the sale of 156,250 shares of the Company's common stock. The issuance of the shares described above was made in reliance on the exemption from registration set forth in Section 4(2) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended.

In February, 2004, the Company issued 600,000 shares of its common stock to former convertible debenture holders to partially satisfy its obligations on a settlement agreement. The shares issued reduced the Company's settlement obligations by approximately $17,000.

In February, 2004, the Company issued an unvested warrant to Sachi International, Inc. to purchase up to 3,000,000 shares of common stock at $0.04 a share. The Warrant vests based on the amount of investment proceeds brought to the Company by the Holder, with 100% vesting if the Holder brings $500,000 in investment capital. In the event less than $500,000 is invested, the warrant vests in a pro-rata amount. The closing of any such investment shall be in the sole and absolute discretion of the Company. Sachi International, Inc., has not met the conditions to vest the warrant.

In March 2004, the Company issued 200,000 shares in exchange for professional services provided to the Company.

In March 2004, the Company issued 3,000,000 shares to three of its four directors in exchange for services provided to the Company.

In September, 2004, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $25,000 from two individual investors in connection with the sale of 5,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock.

In October, 2004, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $50,000 from an outside investor and issued its convertible promissory note due and payable one year from the date of issuance. The note bears interest at a rate of 10% per annum, payable on the maturity date. The note can be converted, in whole or in part, into shares of the Company's Series A Preferred stock, on the basis of $.005 per share, at any time prior to maturity by either the Company or the lender. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock may be converted by the holder into one share of the Company's common stock. If the noteholder converts the note into Series A Preferred Stock, on or after the note's original maturity date the noteholder may require the Company to buy back the shares of Series A Preferred Stock for 110% of the principal amount of the promissory note (the "Buy Back Provision"). If the Company is unable to do so, the Company's president, Dennis Calvert, has agreed to buy back the shares on the same terms. If shares of Series A Preferred Stock are converted into common stock, the holder has the right to include (piggyback) the shares of common stock in a registration of securities filed by the Company (other than on Form S-4 or Form S-8).

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

The Company's payment obligations under the note may be accelerated upon the following events: (i) the sale of the Company's assets outside the ordinary course of business; (ii) a breach of the representations and warranties contained within the agreement evidencing the loan; (iii) the failure to timely pay the note; (iv) the Company's default in any other loan obligation greater than $100,000; (v) the Company's dissolution, liquidation, merger, consolidation, bankruptcy, or future insolvency; and (vi) the commencement of any suit that threatens to have a material adverse effect on the Company, including the entry of a final judgment or settlement in excess of $100,000.

In November, 2004, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $10,000 from an outside investor and issued a convertible promissory note on substantially the same terms as the previously described note.

In December, 2004, the Company issued 500,000 shares of its common stock to its remaining former convertible debenture holder to partially satisfy its obligations on a settlement agreement. The shares issued reduced the Company's settlement obligations by approximately $8,700.

Sale of Preferred Shares

During the year ended December 31, 2003, the Company entered into two Convertible Preferred Stock and Warrant Purchase Agreements whereby the Company sold an aggregate of 559,322 shares of a newly created series of Preferred Stock, Series A Convertible Preferred Stock, par value $.00067, for a total consideration of $279,661. Each share of the Series A Preferred Stock is convertible into one share of the Company's common stock. In addition, for each share of preferred stock sold, the purchaser received one warrant to purchase one share of common stock at a price of $0.20 per share. Using the Black-Scholes pricing model, the Company estimated the fair value of these warrants to be approximately $35,000, and such amount has been netted in additional paid in capital on the December 31, 2003 consolidated balance sheet. The Black Scholes calculation assumed a discount rate of approximately five percent, volatility of 180 percent, and no dividends. The Series A Preferred Stock may be converted by the holder, at any time after six months from the purchase date and the warrant is exercisable for a period of three years from the purchase date. These Preferred Shares shall vote with the holders of the outstanding shares of Common Stock and not as a separate class or series.

The holders of outstanding shares of Series 2003 Convertible Preferred Stock (which may be referred to as the "Series 2003 Preferred Stock") shall be entitled to receive in any fiscal year, dividends, if, when and as declared by the Board of Directors, out of any assets at the time legally available therefore in cash at a rate equal to 7% per share, per annum, of the original liquidation preference of $2.00 per share, subject to adjustment as provided herein. There have been no dividends declared by the Board of Directors of the Company.

Note 9. Convertible Debentures

In December 2000, the Company, through a private placement, issued $3,500,000 principal amount of 6 percent Convertible Debentures to several investors. These debentures were originally due June 13, 2001 and their maturity date was subsequently extended to December 13, 2001. They are convertible into common stock at a price of $1.75 per share. The interest on the debentures is payable either in cash or shares of common stock, at the discretion of the Company. During 2001, $1,100,000 of the debentures plus accrued interest was converted into 666,283 shares of the Company's common stock. During 2002, $2,250,000 of the remaining debentures plus accrued interest was converted into 1,332,570 shares of common stock.

In December 2002 the Company received a notice from the remaining two debenture holders (the "Remaining Debenture Holders") requesting conversion of the remaining outstanding $150,000 of debentures. The notice provided that, as a condition to conversion, the certificates representing the shares issuable upon conversion of the debentures would need to be delivered to the Remaining Debenture Holders prior to the end of 2002. Pursuant to the request, and to complete the conversion, the Company issued to the Remaining Debenture Holders 96,006 shares of common stock and promptly notified the Remaining Debenture Holders' counsel and the Company's transfer agent of the approval and ratification of the issuance. However, the actual certificates representing the shares were not delivered to the Remaining Debenture Holders until the first quarter of 2003. The Remaining Debenture Holders then refused acceptance of the shares, claiming that because the actual certificates representing the shares were not delivered in 2002 as specified in the conversion notice, the conversion was invalid and the debentures would therefore remain outstanding and continue to accrue interest until repaid in full. The Remaining Debenture Holders then demanded full payment on their $150,000 of debentures (plus accrued interest).

In June 2003, the Remaining Debenture Holders filed suit in the Orange County Superior Court against the Company claiming it breached the debenture agreement by failing to honor the terms of the notice of conversion. The Company and the Remaining Debenture Holders then entered into a settlement agreement in which the Remaining Debenture holders would convert the debentures into common stock equal to approximately $70,000. The settlement agreement called for conversion into stock over a period of three months. The Company had partially satisfied the obligations under this agreement as of December 31, 2003, and further satisfied its obligations in 2004.

Note 10. Loan Agreement

On June 10, 2003 the Company entered into a Term Loan Agreement ("Loan Agreement") with Augustine II, LLC ("Augustine"), pursuant to which Augustine agreed to loan the Company $420,000, payable in installments of $250,000, $100,000, and $70,000 (the "Loan"). The Company received all scheduled installments, and principal and interest (at an annual rate of 10%) were originally due in full on February 29, 2004. Augustine, however, agreed to extend the maturity date of the Loan Agreement to August 2004. In addition to the extension of the maturity date, Augustine was given the option of having the Loan satisfied in cash or by the conversion of any remaining principal balance and any accrued interest on the Loan to shares of the Company's common stock at a 15% discount to market, so long as Augustine's holdings do not exceed 4.9% of the total issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock at any time. Since that time, the Company and Augustine have entered into negotiations to further extend the maturity date of the Loan and those negotiations are currently being finalized and the new terms documented. While the precise terms have not been finalized and are subject to change, the Company believes that the loan will be extended an additional six months. The Company recorded $69,445 for the year ended December 31, 2004 and $23,210 of interest expense for the year ended December 31, 2003. The Loan Agreement is subject to certain requirements that the Company make mandatory prepayments of the Loan from the proceeds of any asset sales outside of the ordinary course of business, and, on a quarterly basis, from positive cash flow. In addition, the Company may prepay all or any portion of the Loan at any time without premium or penalty. The proceeds of the Loan were used by the Company for working capital.

As additional consideration for making the Loan, Augustine received five year warrants to purchase up to 6,158,381 shares of the Company's common stock at an exercise price of $0.16 per share. The Company can require that the warrants be exercised if the Company's shares trade at or above $0.60 per share for each trading day within the 30 calendar days prior to the maturity date of the Loan, trading volume of the shares equals or exceeds 100,000 shares per day during such period, and the shares of the Company's common stock underlying the warrants have been included on a registration statement filed with and declared effective by the SEC prior to the maturity date. If these conditions are not fully satisfied by the maturity date, then Augustine may, at any time following the maturity date and so long as the warrants remain exercisable, elect to exercise all or any portion of the warrants pursuant to the "cashless exercise" provisions of the warrants. Using the Black-Scholes pricing model, the Company allocated approximately $245,000 of the Loan proceeds to the warrants and $175,000 to the note payable, which allocations were made on a pro rata basis based on the fair value of the warrants. The Black Scholes calculation assumed a discount rate of approximately four percent, volatility of 257 percent and no dividends. Given that the warrants were issued in conjunction with Loan Agreement, such fair value represents an effective discount on the debt and will be amortized over the term of the loan. Amortization of this discount for the year ended December 31, 2003 was approximately $183,500 and $61,500 for the year ended December 31, 2004 and is recorded as effective interest expense in the accompanying consolidated statement of operations. In conjunction with the extension of the maturity date of the Loan from February 2004 to August 2004, the warrants held by Augustine to purchase 6,158,381 shares of the Company's common stock were re-priced to an exercise price of $.035 per share.

As security for the Loan, New Millennium (an affiliate of Mr. Calvert) pledged 2.5 million shares of the Company's common stock owned by New Millennium, and the Company has granted Augustine a security interest in its ownership interest in the Company's subsidiary, NuWay Sports, LLC.

Note 11. Other Loan

On November 20, 2003, the Company received $50,000 in exchange for a promissory note in which it agreed to pay $65,000 to Dr. James Seay (the "noteholder") 90 days from the date of the loan. The Company's president personally guaranteed the note. The note matured on February 18, 2004. The Company has paid the noteholder $30,000 and the balance of $35,000 remains outstanding. On February 10, 2005, the Company amended its obligations to the noteholder, which amendment (i) extends the maturity date of the note to February 3, 2006, (ii) provides for interest to accrue at a rate of 10% per annum (15% upon default), and (iii) allows for the conversion of the note into 7,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock, or $.005 per share.

During 2004, the Company raised $60,000 and issued convertible promissory notes due and payable one year from the date of issuance. The notes bear interest at a rate of 10% per annum, payable on the maturity date, and can be converted, in whole or in part, into shares of the Company's Series A Preferred stock, on the basis of $.005 per share, at any time prior to maturity by either the Company or the lender. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock may be converted by the holder into one share of the Company's common stock. If the noteholder converts the note into Series A Preferred Stock, on or after the note's original maturity date, the noteholder may require the Company to buy back the shares of Series A Preferred Stock for 110% of the principal amount of the promissory note. If the Company is unable to do so, the Company's president, Dennis Calvert, has agreed to buy back the shares on the same terms. If shares of Series A Preferred Stock are converted into common stock, the holder has the right to include (piggyback) the shares of common stock in a registration of securities filed by the Company (other than on Form S-4 or Form S-8).

Note 12. Provision for Income Taxes

Any deferred tax assets have been subjected to a 100% valuation allowance, as management is unable to determine that it is more likely than not that such will be realized. Due to changes in the Company's ownership through various issuance of common stock during 2002 and 2003, the utilization of net operating loss carryforwards may be subjected to annual limitations under provisions of the Internal Revenue Code. Such limitations could result in the permanent loss of a portion of the net operating loss carry forwards. The Company has not yet evaluated the status of its net operating loss carry forwards and may not do so until such time as the Company expects operating profits.

The Company has not filed its 2002, 2003 and 2004 Federal and State Income tax returns. Management of the Company does not feel that it will have a material impact on the financial condition of the Company.

Note 13. Related Party Transactions

Due To President

New Millennium Note

In conjunction with the acquisition of the technology license from Med Wireless, Inc. on August 21, 2002, the Company assumed a $1,120,000 note with interest at 10% per annum payable by Med Wireless to Summitt Ventures, Inc., a company controlled by Mark Roy Anderson. The note is secured by the Company's assets and was originally due on June 15, 2003. On March 26, 2003, Summitt Ventures sold the note, together with 4,182,107 shares of the Company's common stock, to New Millennium Capital Partners LLC ("New Millennium"), a limited liability company controlled and owned by the Company's president and family, in exchange for a $900,000 promissory note issued by New Millennium in favor of Summitt Ventures.

This note is secured by all of the stock of the Company owned by New Millennium and Mr. Calvert. On March 26, 2003, the Company's board of directors voted to convert the $1,120,000 note held by New Millennium into 22,400,000 shares of restricted common stock of the Company (at a conversion price discounted 37.5% to the then market price of $0.08). New Millennium agreed to this conversion. Subsequent to the vote by the board to convert the note, the Company received notification from NASDAQ's Listing Qualifications Department that converting the note without shareholder approval violated certain NASDAQ Marketplace Rules. In response to this notification, the board, with the concurrence of New Millennium, voted to amend its resolution and withhold issuance of the shares to New Millennium until the Company's shareholders approved the conversion. This shareholder vote has not taken place and the shares have not been issued to New Millennium.

New Millennium Capital Partners, LLC, a Nevada limited liability company partially owned and controlled by the Company's President and his family as an investment vehicle was formed in 1999. No individual, entity or party (s) associated with the Company's business has ever had any ownership interest in New Millennium and it is an independent company. Mark Anderson, a principal or controlling stockholder of those companies, conditioned the purchase by New Millennium on the Company converting the promissory note to common stock. The conversion of the note held by New Millennium is a matter to be brought before the NuWay shareholders at its next available shareholders meeting.

The business purpose of the original decision to convert the note into equity was to retire $1,120,000 in debt owed by the Company thereby increasing shareholder equity by that amount and avoiding a default on the note and the insolvency and possible liquidation of the Company. In arriving at a conversion price, the board of directors determined that a 37.5% discount to market price was appropriate based on a number of factors, including that (i) with the quantity of the shares that would be issued, a block of shares that size could not be liquidated without affecting the market price of the shares, and (ii) the shares would be "restricted shares" and could therefore not be sold by New Millennium (an affiliate of the Company) in the public markets prior to two years from the date of the conversion, and thereafter would be subject to the volume and manner of sale limitations of Rule 144 under the Securities Act of 1933.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

To allow time for a shareholder vote with respect to the conversion, New Millennium agreed to extend the terms of the note, from June 15, 2003 to October 1, 2003.

At the Company's June 6, 2003 board meeting, Mr. Calvert, on behalf of New Millennium, and the Company, through the unanimous action of the Board (with Mr. Calvert abstaining), agreed that, in light of current market conditions (namely the significant increase in the trading price of the Company's common stock since March 26, 2003, the date on which the conversion of the note to equity was originally approved by the Board, from $0.08 to $0.28 as of June 6, 2003), it would be inequitable for New Millennium to convert the note at the originally agreed to $0.05 per share price. In this regard, Mr. Calvert, on behalf of New Millennium, and the Company orally agreed to rescind the agreement to convert the note. In addition, New Millennium orally agreed with the Company to extend the maturity date of the note to a first payment due October 1, 2003 in the amount of $100,000 and the balance of the principal due on April 1, 2004, with interest due according to the original terms of the note (to correspond to the payment terms of the note made by New Millennium in favor of Summitt), and furthermore to reduce the Company's obligation on the note to the extent that New Millennium is able to reduce its obligation on its note with Summitt Ventures. While the prior holder of the note, Summitt Ventures, purported to condition New Millennium's purchase on the conversion of the note, Mr. Calvert has represented to the Company that due to Mr. Anderson's actions, Mr. Calvert now believes that conversion of the note is no longer a required term of the agreement between New Millennium and Summitt.

The Company was unable to pay the note at the due date of October 1, 2003. At the board meeting on October 15, 2003, the board determined to put the issue of conversion of the note to the Company's shareholders at a special meeting of the shareholders scheduled for December 9, 2003. On November 7, 2003, the Company with respect to that meeting filed a Definitive 14a. The shareholders meeting was held on December 9, 2003, but adjourned without a vote, as there were not enough shareholders present to hold a vote. The meeting was rescheduled for December 30, 2003. At the December 30, 2003 shareholder meeting, the board was again advised that there was not a quorum, and therefore the vote could not be held. Because this was the second attempt to obtain a quorum, and more than 4,000,000 additional shares were required to be voted to obtain a quorum, the board voted to adjourn the meeting indefinitely.

Since that time, New Millennium has agreed to an indefinite extension of the maturity date of the NuWay Note pending stockholder approval of the transaction. The Company has been unable to schedule such a meeting due to the delinquent status of its periodic reports with the SEC and limited resources to plan the meeting. The amounts due to Mr. Anderson by New Millennium are in default. Technically, under the terms of the New Millennium Agreement, it is possible that Mr. Anderson has the right to reacquire the shares of the Company's common stock that were sold to New Millennium, if New Millennium defaults on the promissory note issued by New Millennium to Camden Holdings to purchase the shares. The New Millennium Note is purportedly secured by the purchased shares of the Company's common stock; however, New Millennium and Mr. Calvert believe that Mr. Anderson has not perfected his security interest in those shares. Moreover, the Augustine Fund is the pledgee of 2,500,000 of these shares and holds those shares as pledgee.

Operating Capital Loan

The Company's President, Dennis Calvert, loaned money to the Company by paying from his personal funds certain of the Company's expenses. A significant portion of these personal funds was obtained by Mr. Calvert by refinancing his primary residence and cashing out equity thereon. For the year ended December 31, 2004, Mr. Calvert loaned to the Company $131,033. From October, 2003 to February 28, 2005, Mr. Calvert loaned the Company a total of $143,141. As of December 31, 2005 and February 28, 2005, the Company repaid $10,371 and $41,371 of this amount, respectively. On March 7, 2005, the Company and Mr. Calvert agreed such that the $101,770 still outstanding and owed by the Company to Mr. Calvert will be repaid under the terms of a promissory note bearing interest of 10% per annum, requiring monthly payments and maturing on January 15, 2006.

As of December 31, 2004, the Company had accrued an expense related to the unpaid accrued compensation due its president, Mr. Calvert, in the amount of $204,900.

Transactions with Mark Roy Anderson

During the period from approximately June 2002 through March 2003, the Company entered into several transactions with entities controlled by Mark Roy Anderson. These entities are Med Wireless, Genesis, Camden Holdings, Summit Healthcare, Summitt Ventures, Summit Oil & Gas, Inc. ("Summit Oil") and CVP. The transactions are listed in chronological order. Neither the Company, nor any of its directors or officers, has had any communication with Mr. Anderson since May 2003.

Financing Agreement with Camden Holdings, Inc.

During June 2002, as part of a plan introduced to the Company by Mr. Anderson to shift the Company's focus to the medical technology field and bring in new management, Camden Holdings purchased 1,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock for $250,000. At the time of the transaction, Camden Holdings, whose president at the time of the transaction was Mr. Anderson, owned no shares in the Company, this being the initial transaction between the Company and Mr. Anderson and his affiliates. After this purchase, the 1,000,000 shares represented approximately 12.9% of the then-issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock.

Genesis Health Tech, Inc.

On June 28, 2002, the Company purchased a database of healthcare providers in the United States from Genesis, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Camden Holdings, which was controlled by Mr. Anderson. The total purchase price of $300,000 was satisfied by the issuance of 666,667 shares of the Company's common stock. After this purchase, the 1,666,667 shares of the Company's common stock beneficially owned by Mr. Anderson represented approximately 19.8% of the then-issued and outstanding shares of the Company's common stock.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

Med Wireless, Inc.

By way of an agreement dated July 16, 2002 and amended August 21, 2002, the Company acquired a 15-year, fully paid license to certain technology from Med Wireless, a company whose founder and principal stockholder was Mr. Anderson. Pursuant to the related license agreement (i) the Company would license from Med Wireless all of its rights and interest in certain software applications relating to the movement of medical images and data over the Internet and via handheld wireless devices as well as customer lists; (ii) Med Wireless would assign its customers and distribution agreements related to the licensed intellectual property to the Company; and (iii) the Company would assume $1,120,000 of outstanding debt (see further discussions below). In return, the Company agreed to issue to the Med Wireless stockholders an aggregate of 6,600,000 shares, or approximately 44%, of the Company's common stock.

Through Camden Holdings and Summit Healthcare, Mr. Anderson received an additional 2,868,928 shares of the Company's common stock, as a result of the Med Wireless transaction, which increased Mr. Anderson's beneficial ownership to 4,535,595 shares, or approximately 28.3%, of the Company's common stock at the time this transaction was approved by the Company's stockholders. Mr. Anderson also held a minority interest in Med Wireless.

In addition, the Company's current president, Dennis Calvert, was entitled to receive approximately 9.9% of the stock of Med Wireless and 600,000 shares of the Company's common stock as a result of this transaction. Prior to this transaction, Mr. Calvert was not a stockholder of Med Wireless.

The transaction was approved by the board of directors and the vote of a majority of the Company's shares of common stock, including the shares held by Camden Holdings. Stockholders of the Company owning 3,930,183 shares of the 7,761,353 shares then outstanding consented to the transaction with Med Wireless, including the shares held by Mr. Anderson and his affiliates.

Sale of Casino Operations

The Company sold its wholly-owned casino rental subsidiaries, Latin American Casinos del Peru S.A., and Latin American Casinos of Colombia, LTDA, to CVP in October 2002. Mr. Anderson was a general partner of CVP at the time of the transaction. Although the purchase price for the stock was $300,000, less all outstanding liabilities of the two subsidiaries, the outstanding liabilities exceeded that amount and the Company received no cash in the sale. The transaction price was determined as a result of the Company's receiving no viable suitors, bidders or offers for the stock or assets of the Company's gaming businesses. The Company's board of directors approved this transaction, but it was not voted upon by the Company's stockholders.

Sale of Oil Operations

The Company entered into an agreement on December 15, 2002 to sell 100% of the stock of NuWay Resources, Ltd. ("NuWay Resources"), the Company's oil and gas subsidiary, for $100,000 less outstanding liabilities, to Summit Oil. Mr. Anderson was president of Summit Oil at the time of the transaction. The Company received no cash from the sale of the stock, but was able to insure contractually that it would not retain any liabilities, or incur new liabilities (which had been increasingly significantly), beyond October 1, 2002. The transaction price was determined as a result of the Company's receiving no other viable offers for NuWay Resources or its assets. The Company's board of directors approved the transaction, but it was not voted upon by the Company's stockholders.

Consultancy Arrangement

Beginning in September 2002, Mr. Anderson also served as a consultant to the Company pursuant to a written agreement and received 1,241,884 shares of the Company's common stock pursuant to the 2002 Consultant Equity Plan. The Consultancy Agreement was terminated in December 2002.

As a result of all of the foregoing transactions, the Company believes that Mr. Anderson was the beneficial owner of an aggregate of 5,777,479 shares, or more than 30%, of the Company's common stock outstanding as of December 31, 2002, assuming Mr. Anderson beneficially owned all the shares at the same time. The Company believes that Mr. Anderson sold some of the shares which were issued pursuant to the 2002 Plan, and as such the number and percentage of the Company's common stock held by Mr. Anderson at any one time may have been less than that indicated above. In any event, Mr. Anderson failed to file any reports with the SEC on Schedules 13D or 13G, or on Forms 3 or 4, and therefore, the Company cannot confirm any of these numbers at any given point in time.

Note 14. Commitments and Contingencies

Litigation

The Company is a defendant from time to time in litigation arising out of the normal course of its business, none of which is expected to have a material adverse effect on its business, operations, financial position or corporate liquidity.

During 2002, Ms. Geraldine Lyons, the Company's former Chief Financial Officer, sued the Company for breach of her employment contract. The lawsuit was brought in the Circuit Court of the 11th Judicial Circuit in Miami-Dade County in of Florida and was initiated by the filing of the complaint in June 2002. The principal parties in the case are Ms. Lyons, the Company, and the Company's former president Todd Sanders. The amount at issue in her affirmative claim is the sum of approximately $25,000 due under the contract, and the issuance of 100,000 shares of common stock, with a guarantee that the stock could be sold by Ms. Lyons for $300,000. Ms. Lyons alleges that additional funds are due under her employment contract; that the contract requires the Company guarantee that she can sell for $300,000 the 100,000 shares of stock the Company is required to issue her; and, that Mr. Sanders promised to purchase from her 100,000 shares of Company common stock held by her at the price of $4.00 per share. The Company has counter-sued Ms. Lyons for breach of fiduciary duty, fraud, violation of section 12(a)(2) of the 1933 Securities Act, violation of section 517.301 of the Florida Statutes, negligent misrepresentation, conversion, and unjust enrichment resulting from the required restatement of the Company's financial statements for the years ended December 31, 2000 and December 31, 1999. The restatements corrected the previous omission of certain material expenses related primarily to compensation expense arising from warrants issued and repriced stock options, as well as other errors. The case is ongoing at this time. The Company intends to vigorously defend its actions and pursue its affirmative claims to the fullest extent possible. Management does not expect that this case will have a material adverse effect on the Company's financial position.

In December 2002, the Company settled an outstanding lawsuit filed by Devenshire Management Corp., a company owned by the Company's former president Todd Sanders. The settlement involved no payment of cash by the Company, and resolved all issues relating to the Company's obligation to remove restrictive legends from stock owned by Devenshire. As part of this settlement the Company agreed to defend, but not indemnify, Mr. Sanders in the Lyons lawsuit described immediately above.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

In May 2004, the Company was sued by Flight Options, Inc., a jet plane leasing company, in the Superior Court of Orange County California. The lawsuit alleges that the Company owes Flight Options approximately $418,300, pursuant to a five-year lease assigned to the Company by the Company's former president Todd Sanders, from his corporation, Devenshire Management Corporation ("Devenshire"). Management of the Company believes that the assignment of the lease was not properly authorized or approved by the Company, and that by Mr. Sander's failure to identify the lease in a December 2002 settlement agreement with the Company, he breached the terms of that settlement agreement and, pursuant to the settlement agreement, must indemnify the Company for any losses owed to Flight Options. The Company has cross-complained against Mr. Sanders for indemnity, and has added the affirmative claim of breach of fiduciary duty. The Company has settled with plaintiff Flight Options pursuant to a stipulation that allows the Company to either pay to Flight Options $100,000 on or before August 5, 2005, or allow Flight Options to file a judgment against the Company for $163,310. The Company's claims against Devenshire and Mr. Sanders will be litigated through binding arbitration prior to the date in which it must pay $100,000 to Flight Options. While the Company believes that it has meritorious positions in this litigation against Devenshire and Mr. Sanders, given the inherent nature of litigation, it is not possible to predict the outcome of this litigation or the impact it would have on the Company.

On December 4, 2004 the Company was sued by the law firm of Enenstein Russell and Saltz, LLP to collect fees that had been billed to the Company in the amount of $15,233, which had been disputed by the Company. The Company is defending its rights in the lawsuit. The case is in its beginning stage, and a trial date has not been set. While the Company believes that it has meritorious positions in this litigation, given the inherent nature of litigation, it is not possible to predict the outcome of this litigation or the impact it would have on the Company.

Employment Agreements

In January 1997, the Company entered into a five year employment agreement with Lloyd Lyons, which provided in part that in the event of a merger, consolidation, sale or conveyance of substantially all the assets of the Company which resulted in the discharge of Mr. Lyons, he would be entitled to 200 percent of the balance of payments remaining under the contract. The contract provided salary continuation for a period of two years after his death. In January 2000, Mr. Lyons passed away and effective August 2, 2000 the Company amended its employment contract with his widow and primary beneficiary of his estate, whereby the salary continuation clause included in his contract was replaced with a severance arrangement that requires the Company to pay Mrs. Lyons $100,000 over a one year period commencing on the first month following the termination of her employment with the Company. Furthermore, upon her termination she is to receive 100,000 shares of common stock pursuant to an amendment to her employment agreement. The amended employment agreement will obligate the Company to register these shares and reimburse her for the difference in the gross proceeds upon the sale of such shares and $300,000; regardless of the time she holds such shares. Effective October 29, 2001 Mrs. Lyons tendered her resignation and based upon the terms of her severance agreement, expenses of $350,000 had been recorded of which $308,000 is included in accounts payable and accrued expenses at December 31, 2003 and 2004.

In December of 2002, The Company entered into a five-year employment agreement with the Company's current president, Dennis Calvert. His agreement calls for a base monthly income of $14,000 plus performance bonuses and employee related benefits. He serves as president, Chief Executive Officer, Interim CFO and Chairman of the Board.

In March 2003, the Company entered into a five-year employment agreement with Joseph Provenzano. Mr. Provenzano serves the Company as Secretary, Board Member and Senior Executive reporting to Mr. Calvert. His agreement calls for him to receive not less than $10,900 per month in salary plus incentive bonuses, stock ownership participation and employee related benefits. At the Company's discretion, the Company may choose to pay up to $4,900 of this monthly salary with stock in lieu of cash.

Lease Commitment

The Company was obligated on a month-to-month office lease at its California facility. This lease required monthly rentals of $7,850. All other leases are of short duration or are on a month-to-month arrangement. Rent expense for December 31, 2004 and 2003 was $0 and $70,200, respectively. The lease was terminated in April 2004.

Stock-Based Commitments

The Company has utilized the services of a number of consultants who were compensated with shares of common stock. While each agreement can generally be terminated with a 15-day notice, the Company may be obligated to issue additional shares to the consultants.

Note 15. Abandoned Acquisition

On January 31, 2004, the Company entered into a Stock Purchase Agreement (the "Stock Purchase Agreement") with Premium Medical Group, Inc., a Florida corporation ("PMG") and PMG's sole stockholders, Eduardo A. Ruiz and Luis A. Ruiz (the "PMG Stockholders"). Prior to this transaction, there was no business or other relationship between the Company and its affiliates and PMG or the PMG Stockholders.

Pursuant to the Stock Purchase Agreement, the Company agreed to acquire 100% of the shares of PMG from the PMG Stockholders in exchange for 30,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock, subject to certain adjustments. The exact number of Company Shares to be issued to the PMG Stockholders was subject to adjustment in the event certain revenue was generated by PMG during one year following the closing of the transaction. PMG had been organized in June 2003 to provide medical products to hospitals and medical clinics in South America, primarily Venezuela. Luis A. Ruiz became a director of the Company in connection with the transaction.

The parties had a difference in expectations regarding who would be ultimately responsible for paying for the audit of PMG that was required in order for the Company to complete its disclosure obligations under the Securities Exchange Act. Additionally, the Company did not have a sufficient number of authorized and unissued shares of its common stock to both satisfy its obligations to the PMG Stockholders and to issue shares of common stock in a meaningful financing transaction, given the low price per share at which the Company's common stock trades. The Company lacked the financial resources to schedule a stockholders' meeting, prepare a proxy statement and solicit proxies for the purpose of amending its Certificate of Incorporation to increase its authorized capital stock. As a result of these and other factors, the Company and PMG never consolidated their operations, the Company never exercised control over PMG or its operations and the parties never exchanged stock certificates evidencing their ownership in each other.

Therefore, the parties entered into discussions and concluded amicably that it was in the mutual best interest of the respective companies and their respective stockholders, to rescind the transactions provided for in the Stock Purchase Agreement and return all parties to their respective positions prior to the transactions contemplated in the Stock Purchase Agreement.

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

The parties entered into a Rescission Agreement on October 14, 2004 that provides, in relevant part, that (i) all transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement shall be rescinded as if the Stock Purchase Agreement had never been executed and delivered; (ii) the parties forever waive all rights to receive stock in PMG and the Company, as the case may be; (iii) Luis A. Ruiz shall resign as a director of the Company; and (iv) the Company and PMG shall file appropriate documents with the Secretary of State of the State of Florida with respect to the rescission of the exchange of shares provided for in the Stock Purchase Agreement.

Note 16. Retirement of Treasury Stock

During 2004, the Company determined that based on reconciliations of its stock records and its stock transfer agent that 200,000 shares of the Company's common stock has been issued in prior years but not recorded in the Company's books. An adjustment was made as of December 31, 2004 to give effect to this non-material error. In addition, the shares included in treasury stock were determined to have been formally cancelled and an adjustment was made at December 31, 2004 to reflect this cancellation.

Note 17. Subsequent Events

Sales of Unregistered Securities

On January 6, 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $25,000 from an outside investor and issued a convertible promissory note on substantially the same terms as in Note 8.

On January 7, 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $75,000 from two outside investors and issued convertible promissory notes on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the notes do not include buy back provisions, and allow conversion into a total of 18,000,000 shares of common stock (at $0.0042 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

On February 10, 2005, the Company amended its obligations to Dr. James Seay (the "noteholder") under its promissory note dated November 20, 2003 in the principal amount of $50,000 and which matured on February 18, 2004. On the maturity date of the note the Company was obligated to pay the noteholder $65,000. The Company has paid the noteholder $30,000 and the balance of $35,000 remains outstanding. The amendment to the note entered into on February 10, 2005, (i) extends the maturity date of the note to February 3, 2006, (ii) provides for interest to accrue at a rate of 10% per annum (15% upon default), and (iii) allows for the conversion of the note into 7,000,000 shares of the Company's common stock, or $.005 per share.

In February, 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $16,000 from three outside investors and issued convertible promissory notes on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the note does not include buy back provisions, and allow conversion into a total of 2,261,701 shares of common stock (at $0.007 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

See accompanying notes to consolidated financial statements

On February 24, 2005, the Company received gross proceeds of $40,000 and net proceeds of $36,000 from two outside investors and issued convertible promissory notes on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the notes do not include buy back provisions, and allow conversion into a total of 4,000,000 shares of common stock (at $0.01 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

On April 18, 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $25,000 and $23,750, respectively, from an outside investor and issued a convertible promissory note on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the note does not include buy back provisions, and allows conversion into a total of 2,500,000 shares of common stock (at $0.01 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

On May 2, 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $50,000 and $47,500, respectively, from an outside investor and issued a convertible promissory note on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the note does not include buy back provisions, and allows conversion into a total of 7,142,857 shares of common stock (at $0.007 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

On June 7, 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $5,000 from an outside investor and issued a convertible promissory note on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the note does not include buy back provisions, and allows conversion into a total of 500,000 shares of common stock (at $0.01 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

On June 9, 2005, the Company received gross and net proceeds of $100,000 from two outside investors and issued convertible promissory notes on substantially the same terms as the previously described notes, except the notes do not include buy back provisions, and allow conversion into a total of 13,000,000 shares of common stock (at approximately $0.008 per common share, rather than $0.005 per Series A Preferred share).

All of these offerings and sales were made in reliance on the exemption from registration contained in Section 4(2) of the Securities Exchange Act and/or Regulation D promulgated thereunder as not involving a public offering of securities.

Until the Company's stockholders approve an amendment to the Company's charter to increase the number of authorized shares of common stock, the Company will be unable to fulfill its obligations to all convertible noteholders to permit the conversion into common stock of amounts due pursuant to the terms of the convertible notes. In the event that the Company has not raised further capital prior to the maturity dates of the convertible notes, the Company would be in default of those notes if its stockholders have not formally approved an increase in the number of authorized common shares. The Company is not, at this time, in default of the convertible notes.
