Item 3.01. Triggering Events That Accelerate or Increase a Direct Financial Obligation or an Obligation under an Off-Balance Sheet Arrangement.

(a) On March 24, 2006, following the expiration of a waiver by the holders thereof, the Convertible Promissory Notes of the Registrant in the aggregate principal amount of $12,500,000 (the "Notes"), plus accrued but unpaid interest thereon, became due and payable by the Registrant to the holders thereof. The Registrant did not make the required payments on such Notes. Payment under these Notes is secured by all of the assets of the Registrant, pursuant to a security agreement among the Registrant and the holders.

As previously disclosed, OneTravel Holdings, Inc. (the "Registrant") received a notice from the American Stock Exchange (the "AMEX"), the national securities exchange that maintains the principal listing for the Registrant's common stock, of the AMEX's decision to suspend trading in the common stock of the Registrant on the AMEX and to file an application with the SEC to strike the Registrant's common stock from listing and registration on the AMEX due to the failure to satisfy certain of the AMEX's continued listing standards.

As of March 25, 2006, the de-listing of the Registrant's common stock constitutes an event of default that will result in an acceleration at the option of the holders of the 9% Secured Convertible Debentures of the Registrant in the aggregate principal amount of $15,625,000 originally due October 24, 2008, as amended (the "Debentures"). Also, as of March 25, 2006, the failure of the Registrant to make required payments under the Notes may constitute an event of default resulting in an acceleration at the option of the holders of the Debentures.

Upon the election of the holder, the amount due pursuant to the Debentures will be the greater of (i) the outstanding principal amount, plus all accrued and unpaid interest thereon, or (ii) (A) the principal amount of the Debentures, plus accrued and unpaid interest thereon, divided by (B) the conversion price on the date such default amount is demanded by the holder or the date of payment in full, whichever is less, multiplied by the daily volume weighted average price VWAP on such date. Further, commencing April 1, 2006, the interest rate on the Debentures will increase to 18% per annum, provided that the holder eventually accelerates this debt. Pursuant to a security agreement among the Registrant, its wholly-owned subsidiaries, OneTravel, Inc and Farequest, Inc, and the holders of the Debentures, payment under the Debentures is secured by a lien on the assets of the Registrant which is junior to the lien securing the Notes, and a lien on all of the assets of OneTravel, Inc. and Farequest, Inc., which in the case of Farequest, Inc. is junior to a secured lender to Farequest, Inc.

This summary description of the Debentures, the Notes and such security agreements does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the copy of the form of Debenture, form of Note and such security agreements previously filed by the Registrant.
