Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

In furtherance of its revised plan of operations focusing on the development of new manufacturing technology for CIGS thin films and plans to establish manufacturing operations through joint venture license agreements for such new technology, XsunX, Inc., a Colorado corporation (the “Company”), has elected to eliminate its Oregon based facility. On August 27, 2009, the Company entered into a lease termination and mutual release of claims (the “Agreement”) with Merix Corporation, an Oregon corporation (“Merix”, and together with the Company, the “Parties”). Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, the Parties agreed to terminate that certain sublease agreement (the “Sublease”) by and between the Parties, dated April 1, 2008, related to certain real property described therein which comprised the Company’s Oregon based facility (the “Premises”). Accordingly, the Company agreed to vacate the Premises on or before September 1, 2009. In connection with the termination of the Sublease, the Company also agreed (a) to sell certain equipment, currently housed on the Premises, to Merix as set forth in the Agreement, (b) to allow Merix to complete a full drawdown of that certain $106,000 irrevocable letter of credit issued by Wells Fargo Bank, N.A., at the request of the Company, in favor of Merix and (c) to issue a promissory note (the “Promissory Note”) in favor of Merix in the amount of $456,920.66. Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement, the Parties agreed to unconditionally release each other from the obligations imposed by, or related to, the Sublease, except for the obligations established by the Agreement. The termination of the Sublease eliminates continued monthly operating costs associated with the facility, which the Company no longer requires for its plan of operations, while also reducing the Company’s short-term liabilities associated with the lease to zero and reducing the Company’s long-term liabilities by approximately sixty-five percent (65%). Copies of the Agreement and the Promissory Note are hereby incorporated by reference and attached hereto as Exhibits 99.1 and 99.2, respectively.
