PART II — RULES 12b-25(b) AND (c)

If the subject report could not be filed without unreasonable effort or expense and the registrant seeks relief pursuant to Rule 12b-25(b), the following should be completed. (Check box if appropriate)

(a) The reason described in reasonable detail in Part III of this form could not be eliminated without unreasonable effort or expense; (b) The subject annual report, semi-annual report, transition report on Form 10-K, Form 20-F, Form 11-K, Form N-SAR or Form N-CSR, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date; or the subject quarterly report or transition report on Form 10-Q or subject distribution report on Form 10-D, or portion thereof, will be filed on or before the fifth calendar day following the prescribed due date; and (c) The accountant's statement or other exhibit required by Rule 12b-25(c) has been attached if applicable.

PART III — NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Trinity Place Holdings Inc. (the "Company") requires additional time to complete the financial statements, related footnotes and other disclosures in its Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended November 24, 2012. The predecessor to the Company, Syms Corp. ("Syms"), together with its subsidiaries, filed voluntary petitions for relief under Chapter 11 of Title 11 of the United States Bankruptcy Code (the "Bankruptcy Case") in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the "Court").

On August 30, 2012, the Court entered an order confirming the Modified Second Amended Joint Chapter 11 Plan of Reorganization of Syms Corp. and Its Subsidiaries (the "Plan"). On September 14, 2012, the Plan became effective and Syms and its subsidiaries consummated their reorganization under Chapter 11 through a series of transactions contemplated by the Plan and emerged from bankruptcy. As part of those transactions, reorganized Syms merged with and into the Company, with the Company as the surviving corporation and successor issuer pursuant to Rule 12g-3 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act").

The Bankruptcy Case resulted in a severe reduction in the Company's workforce and the devotion of substantially all of the Company's resources to activities necessary to conclude the Bankruptcy Case. The legacy issues associated with the Bankruptcy Case have continued to require a substantial amount of time and attention from the Company's reduced workforce. Also, this will be the Company's first Form 10-Q after its emergence from bankruptcy in which the Company will not have the assistance of the financial consultants who worked with Syms during the Bankruptcy Case. In accordance with Rule 12b-25 under the Exchange Act, the Company anticipates filing its Form 10-Q within several days, but in no event later than five calendar days following the due date.

PART IV — OTHER INFORMATION

(1) Name and telephone number of person to contact in regard to this notification

Richard G. Pyontek 201 902-9600
(Name) (Area Code) (Telephone Number)

Have all other periodic reports required under Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or (2) Section 30 of the Investment Company Act of 1940 during the preceding 12 months or for such shorter period that the registrant was required to file such report(s) been filed? If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal (3) year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof? Yes No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

Due to adverse business conditions, the Bankruptcy Case, and other circumstances, there was a significant adverse change in the Company's results of operations for the quarter ended November 24, 2012, as compared to the same fiscal period in the prior year. Since the same period in 2011, Syms ceased its retail operations and liquidated its inventory, furniture and fixtures, and transitioned from the going concern basis to the liquidation basis of accounting. This transition has caused the presentation of assets and liabilities in the Company's financial statements to differ significantly from that reported by Syms in the corresponding 2011 period.

Under the Plan, the Company will attempt to monetize its real estate assets over time in a manner intended to maximize their value for the benefit of creditors and shareholders. The Company's current business plan includes the monetization of its 15 commercial real estate properties existing as of September 14, 2012, and the sale or development of 28-42 Trinity Place in Lower Manhattan. The Company also plans to explore the licensing of its intellectual property, including its rights to the Filene's Basement trademark, the Stanley Blacker and Maine Bay brands, and the intellectual property associated with the well-known Running of the Brides event and An Educated Consumer is Our Best Customer slogan. The discontinuation of retail operations and the change in the Company's business plan will continue to impact the Company's results of operations. These results will be reflected using the liquidation basis of accounting as of November 24, 2012, and management is in the process of calculating and verifying the results. For these reasons, the Company is unable to reasonably estimate its results of operations for the quarter ended November 24, 2012.
