FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

STEWART INFORMATION SERVICES CORPORATION TO REVIEW PRELIMINARY SHAREHOLDER SOLICITATION MATERIALS IN CONNECTION WITH DEMAND FOR SPECIAL MEETING

HOUSTON, July 28, 2016 -- Stewart Information Services Corporation (the “Company” or “Stewart”) (NYSE:STC) today confirmed that Foundation Asset Management, LP (“Foundation”) filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) a preliminary solicitation statement seeking to call a Special Meeting of Stewart’s shareholders.

Stewart shareholders are advised to take no action at this time. Stewart’s Board of Directors, in consultation with its financial and legal advisors, is reviewing Foundation’s preliminary solicitation materials.

Stewart issued the following statement:

The Stewart Board of Directors and management team are committed to continuing to drive value for all Stewart shareholders. Consistent with that commitment, the Stewart Board has taken significant actions and instituted a number of important changes over the last several years. We have maintained an open and productive relationship with our shareholders and have demonstrated our commitment to improving the Company’s corporate governance profile. To that end, Stewart has:

- Added three new directors over the last three years, including shareholder representatives, which we believe ensures strong alignment between the Stewart Board and our shareholders;

- Eliminated the Company’s dual class structure and now has a single class of stock;

- Improved core title margins and reduced expenses by $30 million from centralization, optimization, offshoring, and technology rationalization; and

- Implemented shareholder-friendly initiatives, including completing a $70 million capital return program and increasing the annual dividend from $0.10 per share to $1.20 per share in 2015.

Stewart has aggressively transformed its business and is making strong progress against its strategic initiatives. We believe strongly in our strategic plan and think Stewart is well-positioned to deliver meaningful shareholder value over the coming years. Although we believe Stewart’s go-forward business performance will reflect the positive impact of these significant restructuring initiatives, the Stewart Board regularly considers a wide range of strategic options to maximize shareholder value.
