Subject: Safeguard Announces Management Changes

To Safeguard Partner Company CEO,

I am reaching out to share some important news regarding Safeguard. Today we announced a series of management changes to further align the organization and cost structure with the Company's newly announced strategy. I will be retiring from Safeguard, effective September 30 of this year. Brian Sisko, who you already know, will assume the role of President and Chief Executive Officer on July 1, and we will use the remaining three months of my tenure to help facilitate a seamless transition. In addition, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer, Jeffrey McGroarty will depart from the Company on June 30, and Senior Vice President of Investor Relations and Corporate Communications, John Shave, will depart thereafter at a specific date yet to be determined. David Kille, Safeguard's Corporate Controller, will assume the role of Chief Financial Officer, effective June 1, 2018. Dr. Gary Kurtzman, Senior Vice President and Managing Director, Healthcare will remain in his role and will work closely with Brian in providing oversight of the Partner Companies. The news release we issued today can be found here.

I have enjoyed working closely with you. Safeguard and I have been driven by a strong belief in your innovative business, and the new senior team led by Brian, David and Gary will continue to work closely with you as your business advances towards milestones and your ultimate goals.

As always, we appreciate your confidence in Safeguard over the years. I look forward to working together over the next few months as we continue our efforts to create and maximize value for your stakeholders, as well as for Safeguard's shareholders.

Sincerely,

/s/ Stephen T. Zarrilli

Steve
