Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On December 17, 2007 (the “Effective Date”), Tasty Baking Company (the “Company”) filed Articles of Amendment (the “Articles of Amendment”) with the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to amend its Amended and Restated Articles of Incorporation. The Articles of Amendment amended Article FIFTH to permit the issuance of uncertificated shares of stock. The Articles of Amendment were approved by the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”) on December 13, 2007. On that same date, the Board approved several conforming amendments to the Company’s Amended and Restated By-laws (the “By-law Amendments”) to allow for the issuance and transfer of both certificated and uncertificated shares of stock, as well as to permit the Company’s President and Secretary to sign stock certificates. The By-law Amendments also permit the President to direct that new certificated or uncertificated shares be issued in place of lost certificates.

Both the Articles of Amendment and the By-law Amendments permitting the issuance and transfer of uncertificated shares were adopted to comply with the Nasdaq Stock Market’s requirement that Nasdaq-listed issuers be eligible, by January 1, 2008, to participate in the Direct Registration System (“DRS”). Participation in the DRS enables investors to have shares registered in their names without the issuance of physical certificates. Both the Articles of Amendment and the By-law Amendments became effective on the Effective Date.

The foregoing descriptions of the Articles of Amendment and the By-law Amendments are qualified in their entirety by reference to the text of the Articles of Amendment and By-law Amendments, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and Exhibit 3.2, respectively, and are incorporated herein by reference.
