On May 15, 2015, Check-Cap Ltd. (the “Company”) issued a press release reminding the holders of its ordinary shares who purchased units in the Company’s initial public offering that in order to be eligible to receive and exercise the Long Term Incentive Warrants that are to be issued to the purchasers of such units, they must register the ordinary shares underlying the units purchased by them in the Company’s initial public offering in their own names and not in “street name” by no later than June 24, 2015.

Any holder who fails to register the ordinary shares underlying the units purchased by such holder in the Company’s initial public offering by June 24, 2015, will not receive any Long Term Incentive Warrants. Holders of Long Term Incentive Warrants who currently hold ordinary shares underlying units purchased in the Company’s initial public offering in “street name” are urged to contact their brokers to initiate the process of registering these ordinary shares in their own names as soon as possible.

A copy of the press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
