Item 4.02. Non-Reliance on Previously Issued Financial Statements or a Related Audit Report or Completed Interim Review

(a) Not applicable.

(b) On November 7, 2005 BDO Seidman, LLP, our independent registered public accounting firm, advised Smart Online it should amend its Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2005, when in consultation with BDO Smart Online concluded there was an error in Smart Online's June 30, 2005 financial statements contained in Smart Online's Form 10-Q for the second quarter of 2005. Smart Online informed its audit committee of this on November 7, 2005. The audit committee discussed the matter with BDO on November 7, 2005. Before filing the amendment to its second quarter Form 10-Q, Smart Online included in its Form 10-Q for the third quarter filed with the SEC on November 14, 2005 disclosure of the nature of the error and the intention to amend the second quarter form 10-Q. The disclosure language is set forth below.

“Amendment to Form 10-Q for Quarter Ended June 30, 2005

Smart Online has determined that it incorrectly applied certain provisions of Emerging Issuer Task Force (EITF) 00-19, Accounting For Derivative Financial Instruments Indexed to, and Potentially Settled in, a Company's Own Stock. Specifically, Smart Online incorrectly recorded $506,000 of general and administrative expense during the second quarter of 2005 related to a mark to market adjustment of certain warrants. Since these warrants were part of permanent equity, Smart Online should not have applied the mark to market provisions of EITF 00-19. Accordingly, the net loss for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 has been reduced by $506,000 and Smart Online will be filing an amended Form 10-Q for the quarter ended June 30, 2005 to reflect the reduction in net loss.”

(c) BDO has reviewed the disclosures contained in this Form 8-K report. BDO has furnished Smart Online with a letter addressed to the Securities and Exchange Commission, a copy of which is attached as Exhibit 16.1, indicating that it agrees with the above disclosure.
