PART III - NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q and Form 10-QSB, N-SAR, or the transition report or portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed period.

(Attach Extra Sheets if Needed)

The registrant's Quarterly Report on Form 10-QSB for the three months ended March 31, 2006 could not be filed by the prescribed due date of May 15, 2006 because the registrant had not yet finalized its financial statements for the three month period and the review of those financial statements is ongoing. The delay is due in part to unforeseen circumstances encountered in closing and consolidating with Magic 1 Cruise Line Corp., a British Virgin Island corporation and registrant's wholly-owned subsidiary, such subsidiary's books and records for the quarter ended March 31, 2006 within the prescribed time period. Accordingly, the registrant is unable to file such report within the prescribed time period without unreasonable effort or expense. The registrant anticipates that the subject quarterly report will be filed on or before May 22, 2006.

Yes       No

If so, attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narrative and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

For the three months ended March 31, 2005, the registrant had revenues of $2,201,000 and a net gain of $304,000. For the three months ended March 31, 2006, the registrant currently estimates that it had revenues of approximately $3,045,000 and a net gain of approximately $ 500,000. At this time, registrant believes that revenues for the three months ended March 31, 2006 will include a non-recurring one-time payment to the registrant in the approximate amount of $2.6 million as settlement of a lawsuits initiated by registrant.
