PRUDENTIAL PLC ANNOUNCES THE APPOINTMENT OF IAN KERR AS CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF EGG

The Board of Prudential plc ("Prudential") announces the appointment of Ian Kerr as Chief Executive of Egg.

Ian Kerr, who was previously Chief Executive Retail Banking for Halifax Bank of Scotland plc, will join Prudential in November 2006.

Ian was appointed Group Services Director of HBOS in 2001, before being promoted to Chief Executive Retail Banking in 2004. He was previously Chief Executive of Birmingham Midshires.

Nick Prettejohn, Chief Executive, Prudential UK, said:

Edgar Filing: PRUDENTIAL PLC - Form 6-K

"Ian's background and experience mean that he is very well-suited to lead the business through its next stage of development and help deliver the integration between Egg and our UK insurance business. Ian has extensive experience in retail banking and we are delighted to welcome him to the Group.

"I would also like to thank Mark for the very significant contribution he has made to Egg over the years. We wish him all the best in his new role."

Ian Kerr said:

"I am delighted to be joining Prudential at this exciting time in the Group's development, and I look forward to working with the team. Egg is a leading brand and my challenge is to drive its profitable growth while exploiting its significant value as part of Prudential's broader customer and distribution strategy."

Forward-Looking Statements

Edgar Filing: PRUDENTIAL PLC - Form 6-K

This statement may contain certain "forward-looking statements" with respect to certain of Prudential's plans and its current goals and expectations relating to its future financial condition, performance, results, strategy and objectives. Statements containing the words "believes", "intends", "expects", "plans", "seeks" and "anticipates", and words of similar meaning, are forward-looking. By their nature, all forward-looking statements involve risk and uncertainty because they relate to future events and circumstances which are beyond Prudential's control including among other things, UK domestic and global economic and business conditions, market related risks such as fluctuations in interest rates and exchange rates, and the performance of financial markets generally; the policies and actions of regulatory authorities, the impact of competition, inflation, and deflation; experience in particular with regard to mortality and morbidity trends, lapse rates and policy renewal rates; the timing, impact and other uncertainties of future acquisitions or combinations within relevant industries; and the impact of changes in capital, solvency or accounting standards, and tax and other legislation and regulations in the jurisdictions in which Prudential and its affiliates operate. This may for example result in changes to assumptions used for determining results of operations or re-estimations of reserves for future policy benefits. As a result, Prudential's actual future financial condition, performance and results may differ materially from the plans, goals, and expectations set forth in Prudential's forward-looking statements. Prudential undertakes no obligation to update the forward-looking statements contained in this statement or any other forward-looking statements it may make.
