EMC Comments on Analyst Day

HOPKINTON, Mass. Aug. 6, 2003 Earlier today, EMC Corporation ( EMC ) held its annual financial analyst meeting in New York and issued a press release which included the following business outlook:

EMC expects its revenue growth rate to be in the mid-teens for the second half of 2003 and fiscal year 2004, compared to the prior comparable periods.

EMC expects its gross margins will continue to improve to 48% or greater by the fourth quarter of 2004. However, gross margins may fluctuate from quarter to quarter based on varying rates of revenue growth.

EMC reaffirmed that it is on track to be profitable for each of the remaining quarters in 2003 and to meet its previously stated expectations for the third quarter of 2003. (See July 16, 2003, news release, EMC Reports Second Quarter Results. )

The above statements are based on current expectations. These statements are forward-looking, and actual results may differ materially. Except for the planned acquisition of LEGATO Systems, Inc., these statements do not include the potential impact of any mergers, acquisitions, divestitures, or business combinations that may be completed after the date hereof.

EMC expanded its business outlook stating that it expects its revenue growth rate to be between 13% and 17% for the second half of 2003 and the fiscal year 2004, compared to the prior comparable periods. The revenue growth rate is expected to be at the low end of the range without the impact of the acquisition of LEGATO Systems, Inc. The revenue growth rate is expected to be at the high end of the range including the impact of the acquisition of LEGATO Systems, Inc. Consensus revenue growth estimates for each of EMC and LEGATO Systems, Inc. for fiscal year 2004 compared to fiscal year 2003 are approximately 13%.
