ADVANT-E CORPORATION AND SUBSIDIARY

NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED CONDENSED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS (Unaudited)

Note 1: Basis of Presentation

The accompanying unaudited consolidated financial statements include the accounts of Advant-e Corporation and its wholly-owned subsidiary Edict Systems, Inc. (the Company).

The statements have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and the instructions to Form 10-QSB. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and notes to financial statements required by U.S. generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, the unaudited consolidated financial statements include all adjustments considered necessary for a fair presentation of financial position, results of operations, and cash flows for the interim periods.

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

Results of operations for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 are not necessarily indicative of the results to be expected for the full year ending December 31, 2004. These unaudited consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the consolidated financial statements, accounting policies, and financial notes thereto included in Advant-e Corporation s 2003 Form 10-KSB filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Note 2: Software Development Costs

Software development costs at September 30, 2004 and the changes during the nine months then ended are summarized as follows:

	Cost	Accumulated Amortization	Net
Balance, January 1, 2004	$ 1,067,297	585,619	481,678
Additions	116,589		116,589
Amortization		250,828	(250,828)
Balance, September 30, 2004	$ 1,183,886	836,447	347,439

The unamortized costs relate exclusively to internal use software and costs associated with web site development and related enhancements.

The ongoing assessment of recoverability of capitalized software development costs requires considerable judgment by management with respect to certain external factors, including, but not limited to, anticipated future revenues, estimated economic life and changes in software and hardware technologies. Impairment of asset value is considered whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that the carrying amount of an asset may not be recoverable.

Note 3: Deferred revenue

Deferred revenue is comprised of the following:

	September 30, 2004	December 31, 2003
Annual software license fees recognized as revenue ratably over twelve months	$ 48,688	58,451
Amounts received for customized Web EDI and EnterpriseEC development recognized as revenue over twelve months when services are performed	48,283	14,625
Advance payments from a customer in exchange for discounted future services recognized as revenue monthly as services are performed	10,789	17,855
	$ 107,760	90,931

Note 4: Income taxes

Income taxes that would have been currently payable in the amounts of $74,000 for the three months ended September 30, 2004 and $268,000 for the nine months ended September 30, 2004 were offset in both periods by the benefits from a net operating loss carryforward recognized for financial reporting purposes in prior years. The Company at September 30, 2004 has available remaining net operating loss carryforwards of approximately $139,000 that begin to expire in 2020.

ITEM 2 - MANAGEMENT S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

Forward Looking Statements

This Form 10-QSB contains forward-looking statements, including statements regarding the expectations of future operations. For this purpose, any statements contained in this Form 10-QSB that are not statements of historical fact may be deemed to be forward-looking statements. Without limiting the foregoing, words such as may, will, expect, believe, anticipate, estimate, or continue or comparable terminology a intended to identify forward-looking statements. These statements by their nature involve substantial risks and uncertainties, and actual results may differ materially depending on a variety of factors, many of which are not within the Company s control. These factors include, but are not limited to, economic conditions generally and in the industries in which the Company may participate, competition within the chosen industry, including competition from much larger competitors, technological advances, and the failure to successfully develop business relationships. In light of these risks and uncertainties, you are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements. The Company acknowledges that the safe harbor contained in the Litigation Reform Act of 1995 is not applicable to the disclosure in this Form 10-QSB. This item should be read in conjunction with Item 1. Financial Statements and other items contained elsewhere in this report.

Products and services

The Company, through its wholly owned subsidiary Edict Systems, Inc., is a provider of business-to-business (B2B) electronic commerce (e-commerce) products and services, offering Electronic Data Interchange (EDI) based and proprietary solutions for businesses of all sizes. The Company develops, markets, and supports B2B e-commerce software products and provides Internet-based communication and data processing services that enable businesses to process transactions electronically.

The Company s software products enable businesses to integrate e-commerce data into their businesses and enable smaller companies to process electronic transactions.

The Company provides consultative services for its customers, generally small and medium sized suppliers of larger companies, where the Company interfaces between its customers and the buyers to facilitate the EDI connectivity required for document processing.

The following comprise the Company s four principal business products/services:

Web EDI Internet-based supply chain solution for the grocery and other industries

EnterpriseEC® Internet-based Electronic Business Transaction Network Services

Formula_One® EDI software and Bar Code Label Module software

Value-Added Applications Internet-based solutions that enhance the value of electronic commerce capabilities

Critical Accounting Estimates and Policies

Revenue recognition for Web-EDI and EnterpriseEC subscription fees

The Company recognizes monthly subscription fees of $25 per month per customer ($45 if the Customer does not pay by credit card) and $5 per month per trading partner the customer connects to (up to 5 partners) upon the completion of one month of services. These fees are non-refundable. The Company recognizes transaction fees (document processing fees) upon completion of the processed transactions; these transactions are invoiced or charged to a customer s credit card once per month at the end of a monthly period. These fees are non-refundable and are only billed after services are provided.

The Company recognizes as revenues one-time Account Activation Fees ($100 per new customer), Trading Partner Setup Fees ($50 per partner for web-EDI) and Interconnect Setup Fees ($50 per interconnect) after the Company performs consultative work required in order to establish the electronic trading partnership between the customer and their desired trading partner. The Company s EDI administration, technical support and systems maintenance personnel provide these consultative services that enable the Company s customers (suppliers) and their trading partners (usually buying organizations of large companies or hubs) to conduct EDI transactions as requested by the hub by interfacing with the hub on behalf of the Company s customers. Because each hub has established processes in place to migrate a non-EDI supplier to an EDI-enabled supplier, and because these procedures vary among the hubs, the Company acts as a liaison between its customers and the hub to establish this EDI connection. Since most of the Company s customers are small to medium-sized companies, they recognize that the Company has the resources and expertise to establish this connection for them. This trading partner connection and relationship, once established, is portable to other EDI service providers if the customer chooses to do so.

Time periods of these web-EDI agreements can be cancelled at any time by customers with 30-days prior written notice. EnterpriseEC agreements can be cancelled at any time during the one-year contract period with 90-days prior written notice and in subsequent years, when the agreement extends automatically on a month-to-month basis, with 30-days prior written notice.

The Company periodically receives payments from customers in advance for the Company s development of Web-EDI and EnterpriseEC applications designed to meet specific customer specifications for processing Internet transactions. The Company expects to re-sell some of these applications, with minor modifications, to other customers. The Company recognizes these advance payments as revenue over the twelve-month contract period. The Company recognizes revenue from the transaction fees that result from processing Internet transactions upon completion of the processed transactions at the end of each month. These transaction fees are non-refundable and are only invoiced after services are provided.

Software Development Costs

The Company capitalizes software development costs and amortizes those costs over a three-year estimated economic life of the software applications. Internet technology can change and does change rapidly. As a result, any or all of our products could have an economic life of less than (or more than) three years. In addition, our products could become economically obsolete if we cannot sell the products in the marketplace at a margin that is adequate to produce positive cash flow. We review quarterly the economic lives of our capitalized products, expected cash flow, and profitability of our products. Capitalized software costs are reported at the lower of unamortized cost or net realizable value.

Deferred Income Taxes

Deferred income taxes are provided to recognize future tax benefits of net operating loss carry forwards, to the extent realization of such benefits is more likely than not. Deferred income taxes are also provided for temporary differences in recognition of assets and liabilities for financial statements and for income tax purposes. The tax rates used are those expected to be in effect when the temporary differences reverse.

Results of Operations

Revenue

Revenue for the third quarter of 2004 exceeded revenue for the same quarter of 2003 by $160,173, or 21%. Revenue for the first nine months of 2004 exceeded revenue for the first nine months of 2003 by $486,304, or 23%. On a quarter-to-quarter basis, revenues increased by 8% in the third quarter compared to quarter-to-quarter increases of 2% in both the first and second quarters.

The following table details revenues by product and percentage growth for the quarters ended September 30, 2004 and 2003, respectively:

	Quarter Ended September 30,			Nine Months Ended September 30,
	2004	2003	Growth (Decline)	2004	2003	Growth (Decline)
Internet products and services				,
Web-EDI	$ 806,373	657,802	23%	2,306,840	1,848,554	25%
EnterpriseEC	90,778	64,609	41%	228,013	139,298	64%
	897,151	722,411	24%	2,534,853	1,987,852	28%
Software and software licenses	22,887	37,454	(39)%	75,802	136,499	(44)%
	$ 920,038	759,865	21%	2,610,655	2,124,351	23%

Our Web-EDI service, primarily for the grocery and retail industries, continues to provide the largest source of revenue for the Company. The Company is a leading provider of web-based B2B e-commerce in the grocery industry with its GroceryEC service. Revenues from the sale of software and software licenses continue to decline as the Company focuses on Internet products and services.

The Company is strengthening its sales and marketing capabilities to achieve increased market share in the grocery industry, improved marketing of Web-EDI services to companies in other industries and increased revenues from EnterpriseEC services. In addition, the Company is identifying for future development new products that have significant sales potential.

Expenses

Marketing, general and administrative expenses amounted to approximately 44% of revenue in the third quarter of 2004 and 43% of revenue in the first nine months of 2004. Those same expenses in absolute dollars increased by $85,275 in the third quarter and by $66,447 in the first nine months reflecting the Company s efforts to strengthen its sales and marketing programs and by increasing salaries for key personnel.

Interest expense in 2004 decreased significantly compared to 2003 due to the Company paying in full the principal and accrued interest on all outstanding interest bearing payables in the first quarter of 2004.

Margins

The Company s gross margin, as a percent of revenue was 66% in the third quarter of 2004 and 65% in the first nine months of 2004, compared to 2003 levels (65% and 59%, respectively). This improvement was primarily due to the revenue increases in both periods in 2004 compared to 2003 and the Company s efforts to control costs.

The Company reported income before income taxes of $202,628, or 22% of revenue in the third quarter of 2004 and $572,612, or 22% of revenue for the first nine months of 2004.

Income taxes

Income taxes in the first nine months of 2004 were recorded at a 40% tax rate; no income taxes are currently payable, however, because the Company has a net operating loss carryforward sufficient to offset taxable income. At September 30, 2004 the Company has a remaining unused net operating loss carryforward of $139,000.

Capitalized Development Costs

The following table sets forth the cost and accumulated amortization of the products comprising the Software Development Costs asset at September 30, 2004:

Product	Cost	Accumulated Amortization	Net
GroceryEC (Web EDI)	$ 428,260	410,997	17,263
Web EDI enhancements	284,965	92,065	192,900
EnterpriseEC	470,661	333,385	137,276
Total	$ 1,183,886	836,447	347,439

GroceryEC (WebEDI) is the Company s largest and primary source of revenue. Sales of EnterpriseEC continue to grow in 2004, up 64% compared to the first nine months of 2003. Based on our current marketplace analysis and marketing efforts we expect EnterpriseEC product revenues and cash flows to continue to increase.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

In the nine months ended September 30, 2004 the Company reported net cash provided by operating activities of $880,198. The Company acquired during the nine-month period computer equipment and related software to increase internal IT infrastructure and other capabilities at a cost of $171,197. The Company increased its cash balance from June 30, 2004 by $168,978 to $698,556 at September 30, 2004.
