Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement.

On December 15, 2004, Sprint Corporation and Nextel Communications, Inc. entered into a definitive merger agreement, pursuant to which Nextel will, subject to satisfaction or waiver of the conditions set forth in the merger agreement, merge into a wholly owned subsidiary of Sprint. Upon consummation of the merger, Sprint's name will be changed to Sprint Nextel Corporation.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, existing Sprint shares will remain outstanding and each Nextel common share will be converted into Sprint Nextel common shares and a small per share amount in cash, with a total value equal to 1.3 Sprint Nextel common shares. Nextel voting common shares will convert into Sprint Nextel voting common shares, and Nextel non-voting common shares will convert into Sprint Nextel non-voting common shares. The exact stock/cash allocation will be determined at closing of the merger in order to facilitate the spin-off of Sprint's local telecommunications business on a tax-free basis. The aggregate amount of the cash payment will not exceed $2.8 billion. The Sprint Series 1 FON Common Stock and Series 2 FON Common Stock will be redesignated as Series 1 Common Stock and Series 2 Common Stock, respectively, and the par value will be decreased to $.01 per share for each series. Each outstanding option to purchase Nextel common shares will be converted into an option to purchase a number of Sprint Nextel common shares equal to the number of Nextel common shares for which such option may be exercised multiplied by 1.3, at an exercise price equal to the original exercise price divided by 1.3.

The Sprint Nextel Board of Directors will consist of 12 directors, six from each company, including two co-lead independent directors, one from Sprint and one from Nextel. Sprint Nextel will have its executive headquarters in Reston, Virginia, and its operational headquarters in Overland Park, Kansas. Gary D. Forsee, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Sprint, will become President and Chief Executive Officer of Sprint Nextel. Timothy M. Donahue, Nextel's President and Chief Executive Officer, will become Chairman.

The merger is expected to close in the second half of 2005 and is subject to shareholder and regulatory approvals, as well as other customary closing conditions. The merger agreement contains certain termination rights for each of Nextel and Sprint and further provides that, upon termination of the merger agreement under specified circumstances involving an alternative transaction, each party may be required to pay the other a termination fee of $1 billion.

Following the closing of the merger, Sprint Nextel intends to spin off Sprint's local telecommunications business to the Sprint Nextel shareholders in a transaction that is expected to be tax free.

The foregoing description of the merger agreement does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the merger agreement, which is filed as Exhibit 2 and incorporated herein by reference.

Amendment to Employment Agreement.

On December 15, 2004, Sprint, a wholly owned subsidiary of Sprint and Mr. Forsee entered into an amendment to Mr. Forsee's employment agreement, dated as of March 19, 2003 and previously filed as Exhibit 10(c) to Sprint's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2003. The amendment provides that, following the merger, Mr. Forsee will serve as the Chief Executive Officer and President of Sprint-Nextel, confirms that the merger will not constitute a change in control under his employment agreement and clarifies that not being

Chairman of the Board and that the performance of his services at Sprint Nextel's executive headquarters in Reston, Virginia will not be a Constructive Discharge under his employment agreement. The amendment will be effective upon the closing of the merger.

The foregoing description of the amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the amendment, which is filed as Exhibit 10 and incorporated herein by reference.
