Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Merger Agreement

On May 9, 2005, Nuance Communications, Inc. (Nuance) announced it has entered into a definitive Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) by and among ScanSoft, Inc., a Delaware corporation (ScanSoft), Nova Acquisition Corporation, a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of ScanSoft (Sub I), Nova Acquisition LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and a wholly-owned subsidiary of ScanSoft (Sub II), and Nuance. Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, Sub I will merge with and into Nuance (the First Step Merger), with Nuance as the surviving corporation (the Interim Surviving Corporation), and as soon as practicable thereafter the Interim Surviving Corporation will merge with and into Sub II, the separate corporate existence of the Interim Surviving Corporation shall cease, and Sub II shall continue as the surviving entity and as a wholly-owned subsidiary of ScanSoft (the Second Step Merger) and, taken together with the First Step Merger, the Merger). Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, each outstanding share of Nuance common stock will be converted into the right to receive 0.77 shares of ScanSoft common stock (the Stock Consideration) and $2.20 of cash (the Cash Consideration). To the extent permitted by Nuance s stock option plans, (i) each outstanding Nuance stock option issued under Nuance s stock option plans, other than Nuance s 1994 Flexible Stock Incentive Plan, with an exercise price equal to or less than $10.00 per share and (ii) each outstanding Nuance stock option issued under Nuance s 1994 Flexible Stock Incentive Plan regardless of the exercise price, will be assumed by ScanSoft and converted into a ScanSoft stock option to purchase that number of shares of ScanSoft common stock equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of Nuance common stock issuable upon exercise of such Nuance stock option and (ii) the sum of the Stock Consideration and the quotient obtained by dividing the Cash Consideration by the average of the closing trading prices of ScanSoft common stock as reported on the Nasdaq National Market during the five trading days immediately preceding the date of the closing of the Merger. To the extent permitted by Nuance s stock option plans, all other outstanding Nuance stock options not assumed by ScanSoft will be cancelled in connection with the Merger. In the event that tax counsels to Nuance and ScanSoft both reasonably determine that the First Step Merger and the Second Step Merger, taken together, may not satisfy the continuity of interest requirements under applicable U.S. federal income tax principles relating to reorganizations under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), then the Cash Consideration will be reduced and the Stock Consideration will be correspondingly increased to the minimum extent necessary to enable the tax counsels to Nuance and ScanSoft to issue written opinions to the effect that the Merger constitutes a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

Nuance and ScanSoft have made customary reciprocal representations, warranties and covenants. Nuance and ScanSoft have also agreed to covenants regarding non-solicitation. In particular, Nuance has agreed not to, directly or indirectly, (i) solicit proposals relating to any alternative business combination transaction, (ii) subject to certain exceptions, engage in discussions concerning, or provide confidential information in connection with, any alternative business combination transaction, (iii) subject to certain exceptions, approve, endorse or recommend any alternative business combination transaction, or (iv) enter into any letter of intent or similar document or any contract, agreement or commitment contemplating or otherwise relating to any alternative business combination transaction.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to reciprocal closing conditions, including stockholder approvals, antitrust approvals, absence of governmental restraints, effectiveness of a Form S-4 registration statement, accuracy of representations and receipt of tax opinions. The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Nuance and ScanSoft, and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement under specified circumstances, the terminating party must pay a termination fee of $6.63 million.

A copy of the Merger Agreement is attached hereto as Exhibit 2.1 and is incorporated herein by reference. The foregoing description of the Merger Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Merger Agreement.
