Section 1 Registrant's Business and Operations

Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On January 10, 2006, Alberto-Culver Company (Alberto-Culver) entered into (i) a Separation Agreement (the Separation Agreement) with Sally Holdings, Inc., a subsidiary of Alberto-Culver (Sally Holdings), (ii) an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Sally Holdings, Regis Corporation (Regis), Roger Merger Inc., a subsidiary of Regis (Merger Sub), and Roger Merger Subco LLC, a subsidiary of Regis (Subco), (iii) an Employee Matters Agreement (the Employee Matters Agreement) with Sally Holdings and (iv) a Tax Allocation Agreement (the Tax Allocation Agreement) with Sally Holdings. The description of these agreements below is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by reference to, the Separation Agreement, the Merger Agreement, the Employee Matters Agreement and the Tax Allocation Agreement filed herewith and incorporated herein by reference. All stockholders of Alberto-Culver are urged to read the Separation Agreement, the Merger Agreement, the Employee Matters Agreement and the Tax Allocation Agreement carefully to understand the rights and obligations of the parties under those agreements. The representations, warranties, covenants and agreements contained in the Merger Agreement, Separation Agreement, Employee Matters Agreement and Tax Allocation Agreement are solely for the benefit of the parties thereto or the intended third party beneficiaries thereof, may represent an allocation of risk between the parties, are not necessarily statements of facts, may be subject to standards of materiality that differ from those that are applicable to investors and may be qualified by disclosures between or among the parties thereto.

Separation Agreement

Pursuant to the Separation Agreement, Alberto-Culver will, subject to the terms and conditions of the Separation Agreement, distribute (the Distribution) to the stockholders of record of Alberto-Culver on a pro rata basis one share of Sally Holdings common stock for each share of Alberto-Culver common stock held by such holder. Prior to the Distribution, Alberto-Culver will effect a recapitalization of Sally Holdings that will result in Alberto-Culver holding a number of shares of common stock of Sally Holdings equal to the number of shares of Alberto-Culver common stock outstanding as of the record date for the Distribution. In addition, prior to the Distribution, Sally Holdings will pay to Alberto-Culver, as the sole stockholder of Sally Holdings, a dividend of $400 million. It is anticipated that Sally Holdings or its subsidiaries will borrow the funds to pay the dividend.

Prior to the Distribution, Sally Holdings will transfer to Alberto-Culver all cash of Sally Holdings and its subsidiaries other than $17.5 million plus an amount to cover certain taxes (as specified in the Tax Allocation Agreement) and an amount to cover certain outstanding checks, drafts and similar items. After the Merger, Alberto-Culver will transfer an amount of cash (calculated pursuant to the Separation Agreement) related to the exercise of options to purchase Alberto-Culver common stock after the date of the Merger Agreement and prior to the record date for the Distribution. All intercompany receivables, payables and loans (other than trade payables and a specified amount of transaction expenses (as described below)) between Sally Holdings or any of its subsidiaries, on the one hand, and Alberto-Culver or any of its subsidiaries (other than Sally Holdings and its subsidiaries), on the other hand, will be cancelled prior to the Distribution. In addition, prior to the Distribution, all intercompany agreements between Sally Holdings or any of its subsidiaries, on the one hand, and Alberto-Culver or any of its subsidiaries (other than Sally Holdings or any of its subsidiaries), on the other hand, will terminate, other than those specifically designated to survive following the Distribution.

Edgar Filing: ALBERTO CULVER CO - Form 8-K/A

The Distribution is subject to the satisfaction or waiver of certain conditions set forth in the Separation Agreement, including the absence of any legal impediments prohibiting the Distribution and the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions to closing of the Merger under the Merger Agreement.

Pursuant to the Separation Agreement, Alberto-Culver and Sally Holdings will indemnify each other for liabilities relating to their respective businesses, subject to certain exceptions.

Merger Agreement

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, subject to the terms and conditions of the Merger Agreement, immediately following the Distribution, Merger Sub will be merged (the Merger) with and into Sally Holdings with Sally Holdings continuing as the surviving corporation. At the effective time of and as a result of the Merger, each share of Sally Holdings common stock (other than treasury shares or shares owned by Regis) will be converted into 0.600 shares of Regis common stock. All outstanding Sally Holdings stock options (which will be converted from Alberto-Culver stock options pursuant to the Employee Matters Agreement) will be converted into options to purchase shares of Regis common stock in such a manner as to retain the intrinsic value thereof. Immediately following the consummation of the Merger, Alberto-Culver's stockholders will hold approximately 54.5% of the Regis common stock, and the shareholders of Regis immediately prior to the Merger will hold the remaining 45.5% of the Regis common stock. Immediately following the Merger, the surviving corporation will merge with and into Subco, with Subco being the surviving entity.

Alberto-Culver intends to treat the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the Separation Agreement as though they constitute a Change in Control for purposes of Alberto-Culver's 2003 Restricted Stock Plan, 1994 Restricted Stock Plan, Employee Stock Option Plan of 2003, 2003 Stock Option Plan for Non-Employee Directors, 1994 Stock Option Plan for Non-Employee Directors, Employee Stock Option Plan of 1988, 1994 Shareholder Value Incentive Plan, Management Incentive Plan, Management Bonus Plan and Executive Deferred Compensation Plan.

The Merger Agreement provides that, following the Merger, Regis will have a ten member board of directors, and Regis will take all actions necessary so that at the effective time the board of directors is comprised of the following three individuals designated by Alberto-Culver: Howard B. Bernick, Sam J. Susser and John A. Miller, or their replacements if they are unable or unwilling to serve as members of the board of directors of Regis, and an individual to be named prior to closing by the Shareholders (the Alberto-Culver Designees) and the following four individuals designated by Regis: Paul D. Finkelstein, Rolf F. Bjelland, Van Zandt Hawn and Susan S. Hoyt, or their replacements if they are unable or unwilling to serve as members of the board of directors of Regis (the Regis Designees). Two additional individuals will serve on the Regis board of directors. These individuals will be mutually selected by Alberto-Culver and Regis at or prior to closing of the Merger and will have agreed prior to closing to serve on the board of directors at closing or within a reasonable period of time after closing. Three of the Alberto-Culver Designees (subject to certain exceptions), three of the Regis Designees and both persons mutually selected shall be independent of Regis within the meaning of the rules of The New York Stock Exchange. In addition, the Merger Agreement provides that at the effective time, Mr. Bernick will be appointed as the non-executive Chairman of the Regis board of directors, Mr. Finkelstein will continue as the Chief Executive Officer and President of Regis, and Mr. Susser will be appointed as the Chairman of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee of Regis. The Merger Agreement also provides that Regis will take all actions necessary to adopt an amendment to its Restated Articles of Incorporation, which will provide for certain governance arrangements with respect to the Regis board of directors for a period ending immediately after the 2007 annual meeting of Regis, which is expected to take place in October of that year.

The parties have made customary representations, warranties and covenants in the Merger Agreement, including, among others, covenants (i) not to solicit proposals relating to alternative business combination transactions or, subject to certain exceptions, not to enter into discussions concerning alternative business combination transactions, (ii) to cause shareholder meetings to be held to consider approval of, in the case of Regis, the issuance of shares of common stock of Regis, an amendment to Regis' Restated Articles of Incorporation to increase its authorized capital stock and an amendment to Regis' Restated Articles of Incorporation to include certain governance matters described above and, in the case of Alberto-Culver, to approve the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, (iii) subject to Alberto-Culver's and Regis' respective right to terminate the Merger Agreement to accept a superior proposal (as described in the Merger Agreement) and to the fiduciary duties of the respective boards of directors, for the board of directors of each party to recommend approval of the matters described above and (iv) for thirty months after the Merger, for Alberto-Culver not to engage in certain activities that compete with the business of Sally Holdings described in the Merger Agreement, subject to certain exceptions.

Consummation of the Merger is subject to various conditions, including, without limitation, the requisite approval by the shareholders of Alberto-Culver and Regis, respectively, no legal impediment to the Merger, the receipt of required regulatory approvals, the absence of a material adverse effect (as defined in the Merger Agreement) on Sally Holdings or Regis, the receipt of a Private Letter Ruling from the Internal Revenue Service and an opinion from legal counsel that the Distribution constitutes a tax-free distribution under Section 355 of the Internal Revenue Code and an opinion from legal counsel that the Merger constitutes a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

The Merger Agreement contains certain termination rights for both Alberto-Culver and Regis, and further provides that, upon termination of the Merger Agreement, a termination fee may be payable under specified circumstances, including (i) if either Alberto-Culver or Regis terminates to accept a superior proposal (as described in the Merger Agreement), a fee of $50 million payable by the terminating party and (ii) generally if the board of directors of either party changes its recommendation of the transactions and the other party terminates, a fee of $50 million payable by the non-terminating party.

The Merger Agreement provides that (i) Regis will bear all of its own transaction expenses and (ii) Sally Holdings will bear two-thirds and Alberto-Culver will bear one-third of the combined transaction expenses of Alberto-Culver and Sally Holdings; however, the amount of the combined transaction expenses of Alberto-Culver and Sally Holdings that Sally Holdings must bear cannot exceed $18 million.

In connection with the signing of the Merger Agreement, certain shareholders of Alberto-Culver, consisting of trusts for the benefit of Leonard H. Lavin and Bernice E. Lavin and their descendants, including Carol L. Bernick, the Chairman of Alberto-Culver (the Lavin Family), and a partnership whose partners are trusts for the benefit of members of the Lavin Family (the Shareholders), entered into a Support Agreement with Regis. Under the Support Agreement, the Shareholders agreed that, so long as the board of directors of Alberto-Culver is recommending approval of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and the Merger Agreement has not been terminated, they would vote their shares of Alberto-Culver in favor of the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement and against any action or transaction that would reasonably be expected to impede or prevent the Merger Agreement or the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. Furthermore, the Shareholders have agreed to certain restrictions on their ability to transfer their shares of Alberto-Culver common stock prior to the closing of the Merger or the termination of the Merger Agreement, whichever occurs first.

The Merger Agreement also provides that Regis will enter into a Shareholders Agreement with the Shareholders pursuant to which, among other things, the Shareholders will have the right to designate an individual to be nominated to the Regis board of directors (which individual will be considered an Alberto-Culver Designee) until the earlier of (i) the time the Shareholders no longer hold at least 5% of the issued and outstanding common stock of Regis (as calculated in accordance with the Shareholders Agreement) and (ii) the fifth anniversary of the Merger.

In connection with entering into the Merger Agreement, Alberto-Culver agreed to pay the legal expenses of the Shareholders relating to the negotiation of the Support Agreement and the Shareholders Agreement and matters incident to the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, including, if applicable, regulatory filing fees. In addition, Alberto-Culver agreed with the Shareholders that it would not waive or amend certain provisions of the Merger Agreement related to specific corporate governance matters, including the composition of the board of directors of Regis at the effective time of the Merger, without the prior written consent of the Shareholders.

Employee Matters Agreement

The Employee Matters Agreement generally provides that at the time of the Distribution, Sally Holdings will assume the liabilities and obligations of Alberto-Culver with respect to employees of Sally Holdings under the Alberto-Culver or Sally Holdings benefit plans, subject to certain exceptions. In addition, the Employee Matters Agreement provides for the conversion of Alberto-Culver options held by Sally Holdings employees into Sally Holdings options (which would be converted into Regis options pursuant to the Merger Agreement as described above).

Tax Allocation Agreement

The Tax Allocation Agreement allocates liability for taxes, including any taxes that may arise in connection with separating Sally Holdings from Alberto-Culver. Under the Tax Allocation Agreement, (i) Alberto-Culver is generally responsible for taxes with respect to the original filings of U.S. federal and consolidated state income taxes for fiscal year 2005 and the pre-Distribution period of fiscal year 2006 and (ii) Sally Holdings is responsible for its foreign, local, municipal and separate company state taxes as of the Distribution; however, Alberto-Culver is generally obligated to leave with Sally Holdings an amount of cash equal to the amount of the portion of the taxes described in clause (ii) above related to current income taxes (plus an additional $3.9 million). Sally Holdings is responsible for all tax liabilities of Sally Holdings and its subsidiaries arising from tax audits concluding after the Distribution. In addition, the Tax

Allocation Agreement provides the extent to which, and the circumstances under which, the parties would be liable if the Distribution were not to constitute a tax-free distribution under Section 355 of the Internal Revenue Code. The Tax Allocation Agreement is not binding on the Internal Revenue Service and does not affect the liability of each of Alberto-Culver, Sally Holdings and their respective subsidiaries to the Internal Revenue Service for all federal taxes of the consolidated group relating to periods through the date of the Distribution.

Severance Agreement Amendments

In connection with the entry into the transaction agreements described above, Alberto-Culver entered into amendments to the severance agreements of Mrs. Bernick, William J.
