Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

First Amendment to Consulting Agreement

On October 30, 2006, Curis, Inc. (the Company) entered into First Amendment ( Amendment One ) to the Consulting Agreement dated June 19, 2006 (the Consulting Agreement ), with Joseph M. Davie, Ph.D., M.D., a member of the Company's board of directors and the interim chief scientific officer. Amendment One eliminates the $40,000 cap on aggregate compensation to be paid by the Company to Dr. Davie under the Consulting Agreement.

The foregoing description of Amendment One does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such document attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and is incorporated into this Item 1.01 by reference.

Amendments to Offer Letters and Employment Agreement

On October 31, 2006, the Company entered into amendments to the offer letters by and between the Company and Michael P. Gray, Mary Elizabeth Potthoff and Mark W. Noel, executive officers of the Company, and to the employment agreement by and between the Company and Daniel R. Passeri, the chief executive officer and president of the Company (each, an Amendment and collectively, the Amendments ). The following summary of the Amendments does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of such Amendments, copies of which are attached hereto as Exhibits 10.2, 10.3, 10.4 and 10.5 and are incorporated into this Item 1.01 by reference.

Each Amendment provides that in the event the Company terminates the executive officer's employment without Cause or if the executive officer resigns for Good Reason (each as defined in the Amendments), the executive officer will receive: (1) his or her base salary accrued through the last day of employment; (2) continuation of his or her then base salary or a portion thereof for a period of six months, in the case of Messrs. Gray and Noel and Ms. Potthoff and for a period of one year, in the case of Dr. Passeri; and (3) reimbursement from the Company for a portion of any COBRA premiums paid by the employee for medical/dental insurance (collectively, the Severance ) for a period of six months, in the case of Messrs. Gray and Noel and Ms. Potthoff and for a period of one year, in the case of Dr. Passeri. In the event of a termination without Cause or a resignation by the executive officer for Good Reason within twelve months after a change in control of the Company, the executive officer will also be entitled to receive the Severance for a period of six months, in the case of Messrs. Gray and Noel and Ms. Potthoff and for a period of one year, in the case of Dr. Passeri.

In addition, each Amendment provides that the Company will indemnify the executive officer for claims arising in his or her capacity as the Company's director or officer, or, at the request of the Company, as a director, officer, partner, trustee, member, employee or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, limited liability company or other enterprise, provided that he or she acted in good faith and in a manner that he or she reasonably believed to be in, or not opposed to, the best interests of the Company and, with respect to any criminal proceeding, had no reasonable cause to believe that his or her conduct was unlawful. If the claim is brought by the Company or on its behalf, the Company will not be obligated to indemnify the executive officer if he or she is found liable to the Company, unless the court determines that, despite the adjudication of liability, in view of all the circumstances of the case the executive officer is fairly and reasonably entitled to be indemnified. In the event that the Company does not assume the defense of a claim against the executive officer, the Company is required to advance his or her expenses in connection with his or her defense, provided that he or she undertakes to repay all amounts advanced if it is ultimately determined that he or she is not entitled to be indemnified by the Company.

Pursuant to the terms of each Amendment, the Company will require that any successor to its business assumes and agrees to perform the obligations of the Company under such Amendment.
