<Results of Operations>

During the three months under review, revenues increased ¥15.9 billion (6.3 %), to ¥269.0 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year. Although an increase in domestic revenues was limited, overseas revenues increased largely due to steady growth in Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery.

Total domestic revenues increased ¥1.1 billion (1.0 %), to ¥116.6 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year. Revenues in Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery decreased from the corresponding period in the prior year mainly due to sales downturn of farm equipment. Revenues in Pipes, Valves, and Industrial Castings increased due to substantial sales increase in Industrial Castings Division, while sales of ductile iron pipes and plastic pipes were almost the same level as the corresponding period in the prior year. Revenues in Environmental Engineering sharply decreased due to effect from downsizing of business in Waste Engineering Division and compliance issues. Revenues in Other segment substantially increased due to sales increase of vending machine and construction business.

Overseas revenues increased ¥14.8 billion (10.7 %), to ¥152.4 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year. In Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery, sales of tractors, engines and construction machinery increased. Sales of tractors increased because of substantial sales expansion in Europe and Asia, while sales in the U.S. were almost the same level as the corresponding period in the prior year. Sales of engines and construction machinery largely increased in Europe, on the background of its brisk market condition. Revenues in Pipes, Valves, and Industrial Castings decreased mainly due to sales decline in ductile iron pipes, while revenues in Environmental Engineering increased mainly due to sales increase of pumps.

Operating income decreased ¥0.5 billion (1.4 %), to ¥38.2 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year. Operating income in Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery was almost the same level as the corresponding period in the prior year. Operating income in Pipes, Valves, and Industrial Castings decreased due to soaring costs of raw materials, mainly steel scraps. Operating income in Environmental Engineering decreased due to sales decrease and profit deterioration resulting from price decline of sales orders. Operating income in Others increased mainly due to sales expansion in vending machine.

Income from continuing operations before income taxes, minority interests in earnings of subsidiaries, and equity in net income (loss) of affiliated companies increased ¥2.6 billion (6.4 %), to ¥42.8 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year, mainly due to increased foreign exchange gains. Income taxes were ¥16.5 billion (38.6 % of effective tax rate), and net amount of minority interests in earnings of subsidiaries and equity in net income (loss) of affiliated companies to deduct was ¥2.2 billion. After deduction of loss from discontinued operation, net income increased ¥1.6 billion (7.0 %), to ¥24.0 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year.

<Financial Position>

(Comparison with the end of corresponding period in the prior year)

Total assets at the end of the period under review amounted to ¥1,503.8 billion, an increase of ¥101.5 billion (7.2 %) from the end of corresponding period in the prior year. As for assets, notes and accounts receivable and short- and long-term finance receivables increased substantially reflecting expansion of overseas business in Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery. Property, plant, and equipment also increased reflecting an increase in investments to expand production capacity in Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery. As for liabilities, accrued retirement and pension costs decreased substantially as a result of the application of a new accounting standard for pensions at the end of March 2007. However, interest-bearing debt increased reflecting the increased short- and long-term finance receivables. Other long-term liabilities also increased due to an increase in deferred tax liabilities resulting from the application of the new accounting standard for pensions. Shareholders' equity increased substantially due to recorded net income and an increase of accumulated other comprehensive income resulting from the application of the new accounting standard for pensions.

(Comparison with the end of the prior year)

Total assets remained almost the same level as the end of March 2007. As for assets, notes and accounts receivable decreased due to collection of receivables from public sector, which increase seasonally at the end of fiscal year. However, investments and long-term finance receivables increased due to an increase of unrealized gain of marketable securities. As for liabilities, notes and accounts payable decreased substantially. Other current liabilities also decreased due to the payments of income taxes. On the other hand, shareholders' equity increased due mainly to recorded net income and the increased unrealized gains on securities. Shareholders' equity ratio was 45.5%, 1.6 percentage points higher than that at the prior year end.

<Prospect for the Fiscal Year>

The forecasts of the anticipated results of operations for the year ending March 31, 2008, and for the six months ending September 30, 2007, which were announced on May 11, 2007, are unchanged.

The forecasts anticipate an exchange rate of ¥116=US$1.

< Cautionary Statements with Respect to Forward-Looking Statements >

This document may contain forward-looking statements that are based on management's expectations, estimates, projections and assumptions. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks and uncertainties, which are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual future results may differ materially from what is forecast in forward-looking statements due to a variety of factors, including, without limitation: general economic conditions in the Company's markets, particularly government agricultural policies, levels of capital expenditures, both in public and private sectors, foreign currency exchange rates, continued competitive pricing pressures in the marketplace, as well as the Company's ability to continue to gain acceptance of its products.

6. In the consolidated statements of income for the three months ended June 30, 2006, finance income and expenses from retail finance business were classified mainly into Interest income and Interest expense in other income (expenses). However, from the consolidated statements of income for the year ended March 31, 2007, the Company has classified them into Revenues and Cost of revenues, since the significance of retail finance business has been increasing and the business is becoming one of the major or central operations of the Company. Accordingly, the reclassification has been made to the presentation of the consolidated statements of income for the three months ended June 30, 2006.

Notice on the production of tractors in Thailand

Kubota Corporation (hereinafter the Company) and The Siam Cement Group (hereinafter Siam Cement) located in Bangkok, Thailand will jointly establish a company and construct a plant for manufacturing tractors that will be sold in Thailand.

1. The closing date of the agreement

August 20, 2007

2. Outline of the new company

|-----------------------------|--|
| Name: | Siam Kubota Tractor Co., Ltd. |
| Time of foundation: | September 2007 (production will begin in March 2009) |
| Location: | Amata Nakorn Industrial Estate, Chonburi, Thailand (60 km southeast of center of Bangkok City) |
| Plant size: | Land 324,320 square meters, Floor space 31,200 square meters |
| Capital: | 1.1 billion Bahts (Approx. ¥4.4 billion) |
| Share allotment ratio: | Kubota Corporation 60%, The Siam Cement Group 40% |
| Total amount of investment: | 1.76 billion Bahts (Approx. ¥7.04 billion) |
| Business: | Manufacturing tractors and implements sold in Thailand (Sales of tractors and implements in Thailand will be ongoingly conducted by The Siam Kubota Industry Co., Ltd.) |
| Capacity of production: | 25,000 thousand tractors per year |
| Employee: | 300 (in the first year) |

3. Backgrounds and purposes of establishing the new company

(1) Expansion of Asian market outside Japan and tractor business in Thailand

The Company is enhancing its business operation of Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery in Japan, North America, Europe and Asia outside Japan. Among them, Asian market outside Japan has been expanding rapidly during past several years. Especially, sales of brand-new tractors in Thailand is expanding due to rising income levels of farmers and labor shortage in rural area resulted from its economic growth.

(2) Necessity of establishing a production base for low-priced tractors

The Company has concluded that it is necessary to establish a production base for tractors with low price and high price performance in Thailand as soon as possible, in order to relief shortage of production capacity of Tsukuba plant (Tsukubamirai, Ibaraki, Japan) resulted from a rapid increase of the demand for brand-new tractors in Thailand and to compete against low-priced tractors made in Korea and India.

The Company will consider exporting the low-priced tractors produced by the new company to North America and Europe.

(3) Reasons for selecting Thailand as the site for establishing the new plant

The Company decided to establish a production base in Thailand for the following reasons; there is an advantage in procuring parts and components because there are a lot of parts supply companies in Thailand resulted from the growth of automobile industry; it is suitable to export its products to neighboring countries because the location of the plant is very close to a harbor; there is a strong operational base established by the Siam Kubota Industry Co., Ltd., which was jointly established in 1978 by the Company and Siam Cement.

(4) Building KUBOTA BRAND in Asia outside Japan

The Company will further expand its business in Thailand by locally producing tractors sold in Thailand. Moreover, with utilizing the new production base, the Company will promptly build KUBOTA BRAND in Asia outside Japan through expanding its business in rice farming countries in Southeast Asia that are potential markets for the Company.

4. Business Target

Sales target of the new company in 2010 will be 7.0 billion Bahts (Approx. ¥28.0 billion).
