Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On and effective August 28, 2008, the Board of Directors (the Board) of Tupperware Brands Corporation (the Company) amended the By-laws of the Company (the By-laws). The changes to the By-laws:

Amended Section 2.7 to clarify that a stockholder who intends to present a nominee for director election or a proposal (other than a proposal submitted pursuant to Rule 14a-8 promulgated under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) for stockholder approval at an annual meeting of Company stockholders must comply with the submission deadline and other requirements of Subsections 2.7(A)(2) through (A)(3).

Amended Section 2.7 to clarify that only the Board may present business for action at a special meeting of the Company stockholders.

Amended Section 2.7 to clarify that the adjournment of an annual or special meeting of Company stockholders does not commence a new time period for a stockholder to submit notice of a proposal or a nominee for director election to the Company.

Amended Section 2.7 to provide a stockholder an additional ten days to submit a notice of a nominee for election to a newly created directorship if the creation of the new directorship is not publicly announced at least ten days before the last day that a stockholder is otherwise required to deliver a notice of nominees to the Company. Before this amendment, a stockholder would be provided this additional ten days to submit a notice of a nominee for director election only if the creation of the new directorship was announced less than 80 days before the anniversary of the preceding year's annual meeting.

Amended Section 2.7 to supplement the requirements a stockholder must satisfy to propose business at an annual meeting of stockholders or to present nominees for director election at an annual or special meeting of stockholders. Among other changes, the amendments require a stockholder to disclose certain types of rights, interests and securities that are owned by the stockholder or the beneficial owner on whose behalf the stockholder is making a proposal or director nomination, including (among other items) any derivative instrument that allows such person to profit from a change in the Company's stock value, any agreement or arrangement that enables such person to vote shares of Company stock, any short interest in the Company's securities and any right to dividends payable on shares of Company stock.

Added a new Section 2.8, which requires nominees for director to provide certain information to the Company to be eligible for election. The foregoing summary of the By-law amendments is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Amended and Restated By-laws filed as Exhibit 3.2 attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference.
