Item 8.01. Other Events.

On March 26, 2009, Life Sciences, Inc. received a document dated March 25, 2009 and entitled "Consent of Stockholders" that purported to elect Robert Aldrich and Terry A. McHugh as directors of Life Sciences. The document was received from Robert W. Berend, Esquire, of the New York law firm of Wachtel & Maryr, LLP. That firm has represented Simon Srybnik and various interests controlled by him and his brother Louis D. Srybnik (collectively, the "Srybnik Interests") in actions with respect to Life Sciences, including the August 2008 lawsuit brought in New York for more than 9 years of allegedly due back rent on the Company's manufacturing, laboratory and office facilities in St. Petersburg, Florida.

Simon Srybnik resigned on November 6, 2008 as a director and officer of the Company after serving in those capacities for more than 40 years, including as Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and President for more than the 10 years preceding his resignation. Together the Srybnik Interests own approximately 60% of the outstanding common stock of Life Sciences.

By letter dated March 30, 2009, Life Sciences advised Mr. Berend of the invalidity of the purported election by the Srybnik Interests of Mr. Aldrich and Mr. McHugh as directors of the Company. The reasons for the invalidity of the Srybnik Interests' "Consent of Stockholders" includes the long-standing provision of Life Sciences' Bylaws to the effect that the stockholders of the Company may only take action by written consent if all of the stockholders consent in writing to the corporate action.

The letter to Mr. Berend also contained reminders of the duties of the Srybnik Interests to comply with the applicable requirements of Sections 13(d) and 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

The details of the "Consent of Stockholders" and the Company's March 30, 2009 response are set forth in the attached Exhibit 99.03, which is incorporated herein by this reference.

See also, among other matters, the Forms 8-K filed by Life Sciences with the Securities and Exchange Commission on November 10, 2008 (cover and signed dates of September 16, 2008 and November 10, 2008), November 26, 2008 (cover and signed dates of November 20, 2008 and November 26, 2008), December 2, 2008 (cover and signed dates of November 26, 2008 and December 2, 2008), January 9, 2009 (cover and signed dates of January 5, 2009 and January 9, 2009), March 9, 2009 (cover and signed dates of March 5, 2009 and March 9, 2009), and March 12, 2009 (cover and signed dates of March 9, 2009 and March 12, 2009).
