1. Review of Operations and Financial Condition1. Review of operations*(1) Summary of the results of operations for the six months under review

For the six months ended September 30, 2009, revenues of Kubota Corporation and subsidiaries (hereinafter the Company) decreased ¥127.7 billion (22.3 %), to ¥444.6 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year. This decline of revenues was due to decline of domestic revenues in all 4 segments affected by continuous severe conditions in the domestic market and substantial decline of overseas revenues centering on Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery.

In the domestic market, revenues decreased ¥31.0 billion (11.9 %), to ¥228.6 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year. Sales of farm equipment, engines and construction machinery declined all together in Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery. Sales declines of plastic pipes, steel pipes and industrial castings resulted in a decrease in revenues of Pipes, Valves, and Industrial Castings, while sales of ductile iron pipes and valves increased. Revenues in Environmental Engineering declined and revenues in Other also decreased affected by decrease in demand.

In overseas markets, revenues decreased ¥96.7 billion (30.9 %), to ¥216.0 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year. Although sales of combine harvesters and rice transplanters increased steadily in Asia outside Japan, revenues in Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery decreased due to substantial sales declines of tractors, engines and construction machinery in North America and Europe. Revenues in Pipes, Valves, and Industrial Castings increased due to sales increase of ductile iron pipes. Revenues in Environmental Engineering also increased due to sales increase of pumps. Revenues in Other decreased slightly.

Operating income decreased ¥34.9 billion (51.3 %), to ¥33.1 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year. Operating income in Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery registered a significantly decline owing to a decrease in revenues and the appreciation of the yen. Operating income in Pipes, Valves, and Industrial Castings sharply increased due to lower raw material prices. While operating loss in Environmental Engineering was almost same level as the corresponding period in the prior year, operating income in Other decreased.

Income before income taxes and equity in net income of affiliated companies decreased ¥32.6 billion (49.5 %), to ¥33.3 billion. Income taxes were ¥11.0 billion (representing an effective tax rate of 33.1 %), and equity in net income of affiliated companies was ¥0.3 billion. Accordingly, net income decreased ¥17.7 billion (43.9 %), to ¥22.6 billion.

After deducting ¥3.3 billion of net income attributable to the noncontrolling interests, net income attributable to Kubota Corporation was ¥19.3 billion, ¥16.4 billion (46.0 %) lower than the corresponding period in the prior year.

* The Company adopted the FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 810, Consolidation . Net income presented in the consolidated financial statements until the year ended March 31, 2009 was renamed Net income attributable to Kubota Corporation to conform to ASC 810.

(2) Review of operations by industry segment1) Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery

Revenues in Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery were ¥309.8 billion, 26.4 % lower than the corresponding period in the prior year, comprising 69.7 % of consolidated revenues. Domestic revenues decreased 9.1 %, to ¥116.1 billion, and overseas revenues decreased 34.0 %, to ¥193.7 billion. This segment comprises farm equipment, engines and construction machinery.

In the domestic market, sales of farm equipment decreased affected by decreased off-farm income resulting from a weakening economy and holding-off buying farm equipment in waiting for governmental subsidy for leasing agricultural machinery. Sales of construction machinery largely decreased due to substantial demand decline. Sales of engines also declined sharply due to clients' adjustment of production and inventory.

In overseas markets, sales of tractors substantially decreased. Sales of tractors in North America, where is in severe market condition, decreased due to the slump in housing related markets in the U.S. Sales of tractors in Europe also decreased due to stagnant economy in this region. Sales of tractors in Asia outside Japan decreased affected by the appreciation of the yen, even though sales quantity in the region continued healthy growth centering on Thailand. Sales of construction machinery substantially decreased due to stagnation in North America and Europe. Sales of engines also decreased. On the other hand, sales of combine harvesters and rice transplanters increased sharply in China and Thailand.

2) Pipes, Valves, and Industrial Castings

Revenues in Pipes, Valves, and Industrial Castings decreased 7.6 %, to ¥85.6 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year, comprising 19.2 % of consolidated revenues. Domestic revenues decreased 11.9 %, to ¥67.2 billion, and overseas revenues increased 12.4 %, to ¥18.4 billion. This segment comprises pipes and valves (ductile iron pipes, spiral welded steel pipes, plastic pipes, and valves), and industrial castings.

In the domestic market, although sales of ductile iron pipes increased slightly and sales of valves expanded, sales of plastic pipes and steel pipes decreased due to declining demand. Sales of industrial castings also decreased due to drop in capital expenditure of private-sector.

Overseas revenues increased due to increased sales of ductile iron pipes in the Middle East, while sales of industrial castings decreased.

3) Environmental Engineering

Revenues in Environmental Engineering decreased 10.1 %, to ¥21.0 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year, comprising 4.7 % of consolidated revenues. Domestic revenues decreased 16.4 %, to ¥17.8 billion, and overseas revenues increased 54.3 %, to ¥3.2 billion. This segment consists of environmental control plants and pumps.

In the domestic market, sales of the waste engineering products substantially decreased, while sales of the water & sewage engineering products increased. In overseas markets, sales of pumps largely increased, while sales of submerged membrane system decreased.

4) Other

Revenues in Other decreased 19.7 %, to ¥28.3 billion from the corresponding period in the prior year, comprising 6.4 % of consolidated revenues. Domestic revenues decreased 19.8 %, to ¥27.5 billion, and overseas revenues decreased 14.3 %, to ¥0.8 billion. This segment comprises vending machines, electronic-equipped machinery, air-conditioning equipment, construction, septic tanks and other business.

Sales of vending machines and electronic-equipped machinery decreased due to decline in private capital investment affected by a weakened economy. Sales of construction and septic tanks decreased affected by decline of private investment in construction in Japan.

2. Financial condition

(1) Assets, liabilities and equity

Total assets at the end of September 2009 increased ¥15.0 billion (1.1 %) compared with those at the end of March 2009. As for assets, notes and accounts receivable, and inventories decreased, while short- and long-term finance receivables, and cash and cash equivalents increased substantially.

As for liabilities, accounts payable decreased affected by production adjustment. On the other hand, interest-bearing debt, centering on long-term debt, increased mainly due to issuances of bonds by overseas subsidiaries.

Equity largely increased due to an increase of accumulated other comprehensive income and recorded net income. Shareholders' equity ratio was 43.6 %, 1.9 percentage points higher than the prior year end.

Table of ContentsKubota Corporation and Subsidiaries*(2) Cash flows

Net cash provided by operating activities during the six months under review was ¥41.9 billion, increase of ¥49.9 billion of cash inflow from the corresponding period in the prior year. Although net income decreased, increased cash inflow by change in working capital such as notes and accounts receivable and inventories exceeded such decrease. Accordingly, cash flow status in operating activities changed from outflow to inflow.

Net cash used in investing activities was ¥20.6 billion, decrease of ¥22.2 billion of cash outflow from the corresponding period in the prior year. This decrease was mainly due to shrinkage of net increase in short- and long-term finance receivables, decrease in purchases of fixed assets, and large increase in proceeds from sales and redemption of investments.

Net cash provided by financing activities was ¥2.0 billion, decrease of ¥43.8 billion of cash inflow from the corresponding period in the prior year. This large decrease was due to decrease in fund-raising centering on short-term borrowings.

As a result, including the effect of exchange rate, cash and cash equivalents at the end of September 2009 was ¥94.4 billion, an increase of ¥24.9 billion from the beginning of the year.

3. Prospect for the fiscal year under review

The Company revised the forecasts of revenues for the year ending March 31, 2010 to be ¥950.0 billion, a decrease of ¥70.0 billion from the previous forecast on May 13, 2009. In the domestic market, although revenues in Environmental Engineering are forecast to the same level as the previous forecast, revenues in other 3 segments are forecast to decrease from the previous forecast. Overseas revenues are also forecast to decrease substantially due to large decrease of revenues in Internal Combustion Engine and Machinery from the previous forecast, which faces severer conditions in North America and Europe than the Company expected.

In spite of downward revision of revenues forecast, the Company expects same amount of operating income as the previous forecast. Income before income taxes and equity in net income of affiliated companies, and net income attributable to Kubota Corporation are forecast to increase by ¥1.5 billion from the previous forecasts. (These forecasts are based on the assumption of an exchange rate of ¥94=US$1.)

(3) Changes in accounting principles, procedures and presentations for consolidated financial statements

1) Changes due to the revision of accounting standards

The Company adopted the FASB Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) 105, Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in September 2009. ASC restructured the existing US GAAP, and the adoption of ASC 105 did not have an impact on the Company's consolidated results of operations and financial position.

The Company adopted ASC 810, Consolidation (former SFAS No. 160, Noncontrolling Interests in Consolidated Financial Statements an amendment of ARB No. 51) effective April 1, 2009. Upon the adoption of ASC 810, noncontrolling interests, which were previously referred to as minority interests and classified between total liabilities and shareholders' equity on the consolidated balance sheets, are now included as a separate component of total equity. Net income is classified and attributed between noncontrolling interests and Kubota Corporation in the consolidated statements of income, and related presentation of consolidated statements of cash flows and other consolidated financial statements has been changed. Amounts in the prior consolidated financial statements have been reclassified or adjusted to conform to the current presentation.

Under ASC 810, changes in a parent's ownership interest while the parent retains its controlling financial interest in its subsidiary are accounted for as equity transactions. The adoption of ASC 810 did not have a material impact on the Company's consolidated results of operations and financial position.

2) Changes in matters other than 1) above.

None

(4) Assumptions for going concern

None

< Cautionary Statements with Respect to Forward-Looking Statements >

This document may contain forward-looking statements that are based on management's expectations, estimates, projections and assumptions. These statements are not guarantees of future performance and involve certain risks and uncertainties, which are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual future results may differ materially from what is forecast in forward-looking statements due to a variety of factors, including, without limitation: general economic conditions in the Company's markets, particularly government agricultural policies, levels of capital expenditures, both in public and private sectors, foreign currency exchange rates, continued competitive pricing pressures in the marketplace, as well as the Company's ability to continue to gain acceptance of its products.
