RANGER RESPONDS TO COMPUTER ASSOCIATES'
FIRST QUARTER FINANCIAL RESULTS

Edgar Filing: COMPUTER ASSOCIATES INTERNATIONAL INC - Form DFAN14A

Dallas, Texas, July 23, 2001 - Ranger Governance, Ltd. today issued the following statement in response to Computer Associates' (NYSE: CA) quarterly financial results announcement:

"We believe today's results demonstrate what we've been saying all along: CA's culture, structure and method of operation need to change so that the Company can begin delivering real growth for its shareholders. Once an investor puzzles through CA's `pro forma' reporting, we believe it's clear that performance, as defined by new contract signings, can only be described as `anemic.'

On today's conference call, Computer Associates said that net bookings under the `new model' for Q1 had previously been predicted in the range of $600 to $700 million. CA reported today that actual bookings in this quarter were only $502 million. We believe this represents a major shortfall in a significant metric that is not pro forma."
