Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On January 9, 2012, Peter L. Lynch, the Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of Winn-Dixie Stores, Inc. ( Winn-Dixie or the Company ) provided notice to the Company that he will resign his position as the Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of Winn-Dixie shortly following the completion of the previously announced merger between Winn-Dixie and BI-LO, LLC ( BI-LO ).

In addition, on January 11, 2012, Mr. Lynch entered into an Executive Retention Bonus Agreement (the Retention Bonus Agreement ) with BI-LO Holding, LLC (the Parent ), which will be the parent of Winn-Dixie following the completion of the merger, to encourage Mr. Lynch to remain with the Company and use his best efforts to promote the success and profitability of the Company and its integration with Parent following the merger. Pursuant to the terms of the Retention Bonus Agreement, after the closing of the merger, Mr. Lynch will no longer be the Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of the Company but will remain employed with the Company as an adviser. Contingent upon the closing of the merger, if Mr. Lynch remains employed with the Company from the date of the merger agreement through the end of the first full consecutive 28 day period, commonly known as a grocery period, following the closing of the merger (the Transition Period ), he will have the opportunity to earn a Performance Bonus (as defined below) and a Discretionary Bonus (as defined below) from the Company.

If Mr. Lynch remains employed with the Company through the Transition Period, then for each grocery period ending within the Transition Period in which the Company meets its fiscal 2012 budgeted EBITDA (defined as earnings before interest, taxes, depreciation and amortization) and fiscal 2012 cash balance targets as set forth in the Company s fiscal 2012 internal annual operating plan and fiscal 2012 internal cash flow forecast, respectively, he will be entitled to receive from the Company an amount equal to the quotient of $750,000 divided by the number of grocery periods ending within the Transition Period (a Performance Bonus ). In the alternative, Mr. Lynch may also earn the full $750,000 Performance Bonus if the Company meets its aggregate fiscal 2012 budgeted EBITDA and cash balance targets for the entire Transition Period, whether or not such performance goals were met in each and every grocery period within the Transition Period.

In addition, contingent upon the closing of the merger, if Mr. Lynch remains employed with the Company through the Transition Period, he will be eligible to receive a discretionary bonus of up to a maximum of $750,000 if it is determined in good faith by Parent at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors of Parent that Mr. Lynch has completed certain objectives during the Transition Period, including, among others, assisting with the transition of the new management and the integration of the Company with the Parent (a Discretionary Bonus ).

The Retention Bonus Agreement will have no effect on Mr. Lynch s existing Employment Agreement dated October 23, 2006, as amended on November 20, 2007 (the Employment Agreement ) or Mr. Lynch s rights thereunder, and the Employment Agreement will remain in full force and effect unless and until amended or terminated in accordance with its terms. If Mr. Lynch s employment is terminated not for Cause (as defined in the Employment Agreement) after the closing of the merger but prior to the end of the Transition Period, he will remain entitled to a Performance Bonus, but if Mr. Lynch s employment is terminated prior to the end of the Transition Period for any other reason, no Performance Bonus will be payable.

This description of the Retention Bonus Agreement is qualified in its entirety by reference to the Retention Bonus Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1.
