Dear Shareholder:

We are delivering to you the enclosed Information Statement in connection with the approval by our Board of Directors and BFC Financial Corporation, our majority shareholder, of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of November 1, 2011, between us and BB&T Corporation, as amended on March 13, 2012, including the sale to BB&T of all of the shares of the capital stock of BankAtlantic, our banking subsidiary. In addition, as contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement, our Board of Directors and BFC have approved an amendment to our Restated Articles of Incorporation to change our name to BBX Capital Corporation. BFC's approval was effected through an action by written consent without a shareholder meeting delivered to us on [], 2012 and was given with respect to all of the shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock owned by BFC, which in the aggregate represent approximately 75% of the total voting power of our common stock. BFC's written consent also included an approval, on an advisory basis, of the compensation to be received by our named executive officers in connection with the closing of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement.

We are not asking you for a proxy and you are requested not to send us a proxy. As each of the foregoing actions has been approved by our Board of Directors and by the written consent of BFC with respect to shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the actions, the requisite approval for these actions has already been obtained. As a result, shareholders are not being asked for proxies to vote their shares with respect to the actions, and no meeting of shareholders will be held to consider the actions.

The enclosed Information Statement is being provided to you pursuant to Rule 14c-2 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 and Florida law. It contains more detailed information concerning each of the foregoing actions. You are urged to read the Information Statement in its entirety, including the copies of the Stock Purchase Agreement, fairness opinions received by our Board of Directors in connection with the transaction and form of amendment to our Restated Articles of Incorporation attached to the Information Statement. Under Rule 14c-2(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the actions described in the Information Statement may be consummated no earlier than 20 calendar days following the date on which the Information Statement is first mailed to our shareholders. It is anticipated that the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement will be consummated, and that our name change will be effected, as soon as practicable after the expiration of such 20-day period and, with respect to the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement, after necessary regulatory approvals are obtained and all other closing conditions are satisfied or, to the extent permitted under applicable law or the terms of the Stock Purchase Agreement, waived.

On behalf of our Board of Directors and employees, I would like to express our appreciation for your continued support.

Sincerely,

Alan B. Levan

PRELIMINARY INFORMATION STATEMENT SUBJECT TO COMPLETION

BANKATLANTIC BANCORP, INC.

2100 West Cypress Creek Road

Fort Lauderdale, Florida 33309

Information Statement

This Information Statement is first being mailed on April 11, 2012 to the shareholders of BankAtlantic Bancorp, Inc., a Florida corporation (we, us, our, BankAtlantic Bancorp or the Company), in connection with the approval by our Board of Directors and BFC Financial Corporation (BFC), our majority shareholder, of the transactions contemplated by the Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of November 1, 2011, between us and BB&T Corporation (BB&T), as amended on March 13, 2012 (the Purchase Agreement), including the sale to BB&T of all of the shares of the capital stock of BankAtlantic, our banking subsidiary (collectively, the Sales Transaction). In addition, as contemplated by the Purchase Agreement, our Board of Directors and BFC have approved an amendment to our Restated Articles of Incorporation, as amended (our Articles of Incorporation), to change our name to BBX Capital Corporation (the Name Change). BFC 's approval was effected through an action by written consent without a shareholder meeting delivered to us on [redacted], 2012 and was given with respect to all of the shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock owned by BFC. BFC 's written consent also included an approval, on an advisory basis, of the compensation to be received by our named executive officers in connection with the closing of the Sales Transaction. Each of these actions is discussed in greater detail in this Information Statement. You are urged to read this Information Statement in its entirety, including the copies of the Purchase Agreement, fairness opinions received by our Board of Directors in connection with the Sales Transaction and form of amendment to our Articles of Incorporation attached as appendices hereto.

Our Board of Directors approved the Purchase Agreement, the Sales Transaction and the Name Change on March 12, 2012.

Under the Florida Business Corporation Act (the FBCA), in addition to the approval of our Board of Directors, the Sales Transaction and the Name Change require shareholder approval. Additionally, under the rules and regulations promulgated by the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the Exchange Act), our shareholders are required to vote upon or consent to, on an advisory basis, the compensation payable to our named executive officers in connection with the closing of the Sales Transaction. To be approved by our shareholders by written consent without a shareholder meeting, each of these actions requires the consent of holders of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock representing a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by all of our shareholders, with holders of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock voting together as a single group.

As of [redacted], 2012, we had issued and outstanding [redacted] shares of Class A Common Stock and 195,045 shares of Class B Common Stock. Under our Articles of Incorporation, holders of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock were entitled to vote as a single voting group on each of the actions described in this Information Statement, with the holders of our Class A Common Stock being entitled to one vote per share and possessing in the aggregate 53% of the total voting power of our common stock. Our Class B Common Stock represents in the aggregate the remaining 47% of the total voting power of our common stock.

On [redacted], 2012, we received from BFC an action by written consent without a shareholder meeting with respect to the [redacted] shares of our Class A Common Stock and 195,045 shares of our Class B Common Stock owned by BFC approving the Sales Transaction, the Name Change and, on an advisory basis, the compensation payable to our named executive officers in connection with the closing of the Sales Transaction. The shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock with respect to which BFC provided its consent represented in the aggregate 75% of the total votes entitled to be cast on each action. Accordingly, BFC's written consent is sufficient under the FBCA and our Articles of Incorporation to approve the Sales Transaction, Name Change and compensation payable to our named executive officers in connection with the closing of the Sales Transaction on behalf of our shareholders without any further shareholder action.

This Information Statement is being provided to all holders of record of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock as of the close of business on _____, 2012. Under Rule 14c-2(b) of the Exchange Act, the actions described in this Information Statement may be consummated no earlier than 20 calendar days after the initial mailing date of this Information Statement indicated above. It is anticipated that the Sales Transaction will be consummated, and that the Name Change will be effected, as soon as practicable after the expiration of such 20-day period and, with respect to the Sales Transaction, after necessary regulatory approvals are obtained and all other conditions to closing the Sales Transaction are satisfied or, to the extent permitted under applicable law or the terms of the Purchase Agreement, waived.

Under the FBCA, our shareholders do not have dissenters' rights in connection with the Sales Transaction or other actions described in this Information Statement.

This Information Statement is being provided to you for informational purposes only in compliance with the requirements of Regulation 14C of the Exchange Act and the rules and regulations of the SEC promulgated thereunder. The distribution of this Information Statement to our shareholders also satisfies the notice requirements of the FBCA with respect to the actions described herein taken by BFC by written consent without a shareholder meeting.

We are not asking you for a proxy and you are requested not to send us a proxy.

BB&T Corporation

BB&T is a financial holding company headquartered in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. BB&T conducts its business operations primarily through its commercial bank subsidiary, Branch Banking and Trust Company. In addition, BB&T's operations consist of a federally chartered thrift institution, BB&T Financial, FSB, and several nonbank subsidiaries, which offer financial services products. BB&T's Internet website address is www.bbt.com. BB&T's principal executive office is located at 200 West Second Street, Winston-Salem, North Carolina 27101. Its telephone number is (336) 733-2000. BB&T's Internet website and the information contained in or connected to its website are not a part of, or incorporated into, this Information Statement.

We have entered into the Purchase Agreement with BB&T which provides for the sale to BB&T of all of the shares of capital stock of BankAtlantic. These shares had a net book value of approximately $306.1 million as of September 30, 2011. In addition, BB&T has agreed to assume at the closing of the Sales Transaction the obligations with respect to our approximately $285 million in principal amount of outstanding trust preferred securities (TruPs). We have agreed to pay at the closing of the Sales Transaction all interest accrued on the TruPs through closing, and to pay or escrow certain legal fees and expenses with respect to the TruPs-related litigation described in this Information Statement.

Prior to the closing of the Sales Transaction, BankAtlantic will contribute to a newly established limited liability company (the Newco LLC) approximately $424 million of loans and $17 million of real estate owned and other assets, net (based on BankAtlantic's book value gross of any reserves as of January 31, 2012) (collectively, the Newco LLC Assets) and distribute to us 100% of the membership interests in Newco LLC. At the closing of the Sales Transaction, we will transfer to BB&T 95% of the preferred membership interests in Newco LLC in connection with BB&T's assumption of the TruPs. We will continue to hold the remaining 5% of Newco LLC's preferred membership interests. BB&T will hold its 95% preferred interest in Newco LLC until such time as it has recovered $285 million in preference amount plus a priority return of LIBOR + 200 basis points per annum on any unpaid preference amount. At that time, BB&T's interest in Newco LLC will terminate, and we will thereafter be entitled to any and all residual proceeds. The Newco LLC Assets are expected to be monetized over a period of seven years, or longer provided BB&T's preference amount is repaid within such seven-year period. We have also agreed to provide BB&T with an incremental $35 million guarantee to further assure BB&T's recovery of the $285 million preference amount within seven years. Newco LLC will assume any liabilities related to the Newco LLC Assets.

Prior to the closing of the Sales Transaction, BankAtlantic will also contribute approximately $175 million in commercial real estate nonaccrual loans and real estate owned (based on BankAtlantic's book value gross of any reserves as of January 31, 2012) and all rights, claims and judgments with respect to previously written-off assets (collectively, the Retained Assets) to its wholly owned subsidiary, Retained Assets, LLC, and will distribute to us 100% of the membership interests in Retained Assets, LLC. Retained Assets, LLC will assume any liabilities related to the Retained Assets.

The contribution of the Newco LLC Assets to Newco LLC and the Retained Assets to Retained Assets, LLC, and the distribution to us of the membership interests in Newco LLC and Retained Assets, LLC are sometimes hereinafter referred to collectively as the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions.

The cash consideration to be exchanged at the closing of the Sales Transaction under the Purchase Agreement will reflect a deposit premium (estimated based on September 30, 2011 balances to be $300.9 million) to the closing net asset value of BankAtlantic. The estimated premium represents 9.05% of total deposits and 10.32% of non-CD deposits of BankAtlantic at September 30, 2011, and will be increased or decreased at closing by 10.32% of the amount by which the average daily closing balance of non-CD deposits during the ten business day period ending on the business day immediately preceding the closing exceeds or is less than $2.915 billion, provided that the premium will not exceed $315.9 million. At the closing, the sum of the premium and the net asset value of BankAtlantic, as calculated pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement as of the closing after giving effect to the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions, is to be paid in cash. If the sum is a positive number, it is to be paid by BB&T to us. If the sum is a negative number, it is to be paid by us to BB&T.

The Purchase Agreement (page 30)

The Purchase Agreement is the governing document with respect to the Sales Transaction and sets forth the various rights and obligations of the Company and BB&T as parties to the transaction.

In addition to the terms and conditions described above, the Purchase Agreement contains various representations and warranties by the Company and BB&T, as well as covenants and agreements to be complied with by the parties, including to use reasonable best efforts to obtain necessary regulatory approvals. The Purchase Agreement also contains covenants regarding BankAtlantic's operations during the period between the execution of the Purchase Agreement and closing of the Sales Transaction and covenants by us not to (i) engage in activities relating to the business of soliciting or accepting deposits competitive with the business of BankAtlantic in Florida for three years following the closing, or (ii) solicit or hire, with certain exceptions, any employees of BankAtlantic for 18 months following the closing.

The Purchase Agreement contains certain conditions which are required to be satisfied or, to the extent permitted under the Purchase Agreement or applicable law, waived for the Sales Transaction to be completed. These closing conditions include the receipt of all required regulatory approvals, the absence of any injunction or other legal prohibition on the completion of the Sales Transaction, the accuracy of the representations and warranties of the parties (generally subject to a material adverse effect standard), material compliance by the parties with their obligations under the Purchase Agreement, the contribution of the Newco LLC Assets and the Retained Assets, and the distribution of the membership interests in Newco LLC and Retained Assets, LLC. In addition, under the rules and regulations of the SEC, we are not permitted to close the Sales Transaction until at least 20 calendar days after the date of the first mailing of this Information Statement. Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, either party may terminate the Purchase Agreement if, among other things, the Sales Transaction is not consummated by July 31, 2012.

The Purchase Agreement also contains indemnification obligations of each party with respect to breaches of representations, warranties and covenants and certain other specified matters.

Our Reasons for the Sales Transaction (page 15)

Based on adverse economic conditions in Florida and the impact that those conditions have had on our business, financial condition and operating results, as well as regulatory issues and increased regulatory requirements, our Board of Directors determined that it was in our best interest to pursue available strategic alternatives, including a sale of our Company or our assets, including our interest in BankAtlantic. Following the strategic review process, our Board of Directors approved the Purchase Agreement and the Sales Transaction based on its belief that it was the strategic alternative most likely to maximize value for our shareholders. In making this determination, our Board of Directors also considered the deferred interest and other payment obligations with respect to our outstanding TruPs and reviewed prior efforts relating to strategic alternatives, including our efforts to raise capital through issuances of capital stock. In addition, our Board consulted with our financial advisors and reviewed and considered the fairness opinions rendered by them with respect to the Sales Transaction, and consulted with our legal advisors and members of our senior management.

Opinion of our Financial Advisors (page 15)

On October 31, 2011, our financial advisors with respect to the Sales Transaction, Cantor Fitzgerald & Co. (Cantor Fitzgerald) and Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P. (Sandler O'Neill), rendered their respective opinions to our Board of Directors, that, as of that date, and based upon and subject to the various considerations, assumptions and limitations set forth in their opinions, the Consideration to be Received (as defined below), in the case of Cantor Fitzgerald's opinion, and the Consideration (as defined below), in the case of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, under the terms of the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company. In connection with the March 13, 2012 amendment to the Purchase Agreement, Cantor Fitzgerald and Sandler O'Neill updated their respective opinions, which updates were rendered orally to our Board of Directors on March 12, 2012 and subsequently confirmed in writing, that, as of the respective dates of such updated opinions, and based upon and subject to the various considerations, assumptions and limitations set forth therein, the Consideration to be Received, in the case of Cantor Fitzgerald's opinion, and the Consideration, in the case of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, as amended on March 13, 2012, was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company.

For purposes of Cantor Fitzgerald's opinion, the term Consideration to be Received was defined to mean the Retained Assets, the Newco LLC Assets and the cash payment to be made or received by us at the closing of the Sales Transaction based on the deposit premium and the net asset value of BankAtlantic as of the closing after giving effect to the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions. For purposes of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, the term Consideration was defined to mean the deposit premium and the cash payment to be made or received by us at the closing of the Sales Transaction based on the deposit premium and the net asset value of BankAtlantic as of the closing after giving effect to the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions.

The analyses undertaken and matters considered by Cantor Fitzgerald in rendering its opinion are summarized in the section of this Information Statement entitled Opinion of Cantor Fitzgerald, and the full text of Cantor Fitzgerald's written opinion is attached to this Information Statement as Appendix B. The analyses undertaken and matters considered by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion are summarized in the section of this Information Statement entitled Opinion of Sandler O'Neill, and the full text of Sandler O'Neill's written opinion is attached to this Information Statement as Appendix C. The opinions describe the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of the reviews undertaken by our financial advisors in rendering their opinions. You are encouraged to read the opinions of Cantor Fitzgerald and Sandler O'Neill carefully.

Our Operations Following the Sales Transaction (page 25)

As described above, at the closing of the Sales Transaction, we will either be entitled to receive a cash payment from BB&T or required to make a cash payment to BB&T depending on the amount of the deposit premium and the net asset value of BankAtlantic at closing after giving effect to the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions. In addition to any cash payment which we may receive at the closing, we will also hold the Retained Assets and a 5% preferred interest (and the residual interest) in Newco LLC.

Following the closing of the Sales Transaction, we expect to focus our operations on managing the Retained Assets as well as approximately $73 million of commercial nonaccrual loans to be held by Newco LLC. The remainder of the Newco LLC Assets will be managed by one or more independent servicers. We will also continue to manage the assets held by our wholly owned asset workout subsidiary, which currently consists of approximately $20 million of loans and real estate owned. Our operations with respect to the assets to be managed by us may, subject in the case of the Newco LLC Assets to the terms of a servicing agreement to be entered into between the Company and Newco LLC, include renewing, modifying, increasing, extending, refinancing and making protective advances with respect to the assets. We may also enter into real estate joint ventures, partnerships or other structures involving these assets or participate in the management of real estate development activities. In addition, based on the timing and volume of cash flows generated in connection with our management of these assets, we may, in the near-term, make short-term investments and, over time, engage in various specialty finance activities.

Our shareholders at the time of the closing of the Sales Transaction will continue to own 100% of our Company following the closing. In addition, following the closing, we will continue as a public company and, assuming that we meet the continued listing standards of the New York Stock Exchange (the "NYSE"), our Class A Common Stock will continue to be listed on the NYSE.

As described above, under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, we will be restricted from engaging in activities relating to the business of soliciting or accepting deposits competitive with the business of BankAtlantic in Florida for three years following the closing of the Sales Transaction. In addition, subject to the approval of the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System (the "Federal Reserve"), following the closing of the Sales Transaction, we will no longer be a unitary savings and loan holding company or subject to regulation as such, or subject to our Cease and Desist Order with the Federal Reserve. The Purchase Agreement also restricts our right to use the name "BankAtlantic" following the closing of the Sales Transaction. See "The Name Change" below for further information.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Sales Transaction (page 26)

Shareholders should note that some of our directors and executive officers have interests in the Sales Transaction that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of our shareholders generally. Specifically, Alan B. Levan, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and John E. Abdo, our Vice Chairman, also serve as Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of BFC and Vice Chairman of BFC, respectively, and may be deemed to control BFC by virtue of their ownership interest in BFC's Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock. As described herein, BFC owns shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock representing approximately 75% of the total voting power of our common stock, and BFC has provided to us, with respect to all of its shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, its written consent to the Sales Transaction and other actions which are the subject of this Information Statement. BFC's written consent is sufficient under the FBCA to approve these actions on behalf of our shareholders. In addition, certain of our executive officers, including Messrs. Levan and Abdo, as well as other members of our senior management, will, subject to any applicable regulatory approval, receive severance and other payments in connection with the closing of the Sales Transaction, and, subject to the approval of our Compensation Committee, certain restricted stock awards of shares of our Class A Common Stock held by them will accelerate and immediately vest.

The Name Change (page 37)

Pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement, we are required to change our name, and each of our subsidiaries' names, so that they no longer contain the name BankAtlantic. On March 12, 2012, our Board of Directors approved, subject to the approval of our shareholders, an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to change our name to BBX Capital Corporation. The action by written consent without a shareholder meeting which we received from BFC on [REDACTED], 2012 approving the Sales Transaction also included its approval of the Name Change. Accordingly, we intend to file an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation with the Florida Department of State to change our name from BankAtlantic Bancorp, Inc. to BBX Capital Corporation on or as soon as practicable after the date which is 20 days following the first mailing of this Information Statement to our shareholders and, in any event, no later than the closing of the Sales Transaction.

Regulatory Approvals (page 27)

As described above, closing of the Sales Transaction remains subject to certain closing conditions, including the receipt of all required regulatory approvals. In connection therewith, BankAtlantic has submitted notices to, and filings with, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (the OCC), and we have submitted information to, and made filings with, the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta. Branch Banking and Trust Company, a subsidiary of BB&T, submitted an application to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (the FDIC). In addition, BB&T filed an application with the Federal Reserve and presented the Sales Transaction for approval by the North Carolina Office of the Commissioner of Banks. Further, pursuant to the terms of the Cease and Desist Orders to which we and BankAtlantic are currently subject, we and BankAtlantic submitted requests to the Federal Reserve and the OCC, respectively, to take certain actions to facilitate the Sales Transaction. In connection with the March 13, 2012 amendment to the Purchase Agreement, updated notices and filings have been or will be submitted to the applicable regulatory agencies. The North Carolina Office of the Commissioner of Banks approved the Sales Transaction from the floor at a public hearing on March 14, 2012. The remainder of the filings submitted to date are currently under review by the applicable regulatory agencies.

Litigation Regarding the Sales Transaction (page 28)

Following the initial announcement of the Purchase Agreement on November 1, 2011, purported holders of direct or indirect interests in the TruPs filed an action in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, and certain of the trustees under the indentures underlying the TruPs sent notices of default or joined in the action, seeking a declaration that the transaction contemplated by the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement violated certain covenants contained in the TruPs indentures and that the assumption of the TruPs by BB&T was required. On February 27, 2012, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware entered an injunction prohibiting the sale of BankAtlantic pursuant to the terms of the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement.

Following the entry of the injunction, the Company and BB&T entered into negotiations to revise the terms of the Sales Transaction to provide for BB&T's assumption of the TruPs. On March 13, 2012, we entered into an amendment to the Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which, among other things, BB&T agreed to assume our outstanding TruPs obligations following the closing of the Sales Transaction, while we agreed to pay at the closing all interest accrued on the TruPs through closing and to pay or escrow certain legal fees and expenses with respect to the above-described litigation. Based on BB&T's assumption of our outstanding TruPs obligations, the Company and BB&T agreed in the amendment that certain of the assets originally contemplated to be retained by us following the closing will now be contributed to Newco LLC and that BB&T will receive a 95% preferred interest in Newco LLC, as described herein.

No Dissenters' Rights (page 28)

Under the FBCA, our shareholders are not entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the Sales Transaction or the other actions described in this Information Statement.

Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences (page 28)

The Sales Transaction will be treated by us as a taxable transaction for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is anticipated that any gain resulting from the Sales Transaction will be offset against our net operating loss carryforwards. However, utilization of these carryforwards could subject us to an alternative minimum tax.

Accounting Treatment (page 29)

Upon completion of the Sales Transaction, we will remove from our consolidated balance sheet all of the assets transferred to BB&T in connection with the Sales Transaction and our financial statements will reflect, to the extent applicable, the effect of the receipt and the use of the proceeds of the Sales Transaction. We will record a gain or loss with respect to the Sales Transaction in an amount equal to the difference between the purchase price for the transferred assets and the book value of the assets as recorded in our consolidated balance sheet. It is expected that, following the closing of the Sales Transaction, we will have a controlling financial interest in Newco LLC, and Newco LLC will therefore be consolidated in our financial statements.

THE SALES TRANSACTION

The terms and conditions of the Sales Transaction are set forth in the Purchase Agreement. A copy of the Purchase Agreement, including the March 13, 2012 amendment, is attached as Appendix A to this Information Statement. The description in this Information Statement of the terms and conditions of the Sales Transaction and the Purchase Agreement is a summary only. You should carefully read the copy of the Purchase Agreement attached to this Information Statement as Appendix A in its entirety. Unless stated to the contrary or the context otherwise requires, references to the Purchase Agreement in this Information Statement refer to the Stock Purchase Agreement entered into on November 1, 2011, as amended on March 13, 2012.

Our Board of Directors and shareholders, by action by written consent of BFC without a shareholder meeting given with respect to all of the shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock owned by BFC and representing a majority of the total voting power of our common stock, have approved the Sales Transaction on the terms and subject to the conditions of the Purchase Agreement.

Overview

On November 1, 2011, we entered into the Purchase Agreement with BB&T which provides for the sale to BB&T of all of the shares of capital stock of BankAtlantic. These shares had a net book value of approximately $306.1 million as of September 30, 2011. Under the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, as entered into on November 1, 2011, BankAtlantic was to distribute to us a wholly owned subsidiary owning certain performing and non-performing loans and tax certificates, real estate owned and related reserves as well as previously written off assets that were recorded on the balance sheet of BankAtlantic at approximately $623.6 million as of September 30, 2011. Further, the Purchase Agreement, as entered into on November 1, 2011, required that we fund amounts necessary to pay the outstanding deferred interest on the TruPs through closing, but did not provide for the assumption by BB&T of any obligations with respect to our outstanding TruPs.

As described under Litigation Regarding the Sales Transaction below, following the November 1, 2011 announcement of the Purchase Agreement, purported holders of direct or indirect interests in the TruPs filed an action, and certain of the trustees under the indentures underlying the TruPs sent notices of default or joined in the action, seeking a declaration that the Sales Transaction contemplated by the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement violated certain provisions of the indentures and the assumption of the TruPs by BB&T was required. On February 27, 2012, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware entered an injunction prohibiting the sale of BankAtlantic pursuant to the terms of the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement.

Following the injunction, the Company and BB&T entered into negotiations to revise the terms of the Purchase Agreement and Sales Transaction to provide for BB&T's assumption of the TruPs. On March 13, 2012, the Company and BB&T entered into an amendment to the Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which, among other things, BB&T agreed to assume our approximately $285 million in principal amount of outstanding TruPs. We remain obligated to pay at the closing of the Sales Transaction all interest accrued on the TruPs through closing, and we agreed to pay or escrow certain legal fees and expenses with respect to the TruPs-related litigation described below. Based on BB&T's assumption of our TruPs obligations, the Company and BB&T agreed in the amendment that certain of BankAtlantic's assets originally contemplated to be contributed to Retained Assets, LLC, the newly formed BankAtlantic subsidiary contemplated to be distributed to us prior to closing and thereafter held as our wholly owned subsidiary, will now be contributed to Newco LLC, a newly formed limited liability company, as described below. The balance of the assets, which includes approximately $175 million in commercial real estate nonaccrual loans and real estate owned (based on BankAtlantic's book value gross of any reserves as of January 31, 2012) and all rights, claims and judgments to previously written-off assets, will be contributed to Retained Assets, LLC, which will also assume any liabilities related to the Retained Assets.

As contemplated by the March 13, 2012 amendment to the Purchase Agreement, prior to the closing of the Sales Transaction, BankAtlantic will contribute to Newco LLC approximately $424 million of loans and $17 million of real estate owned and other assets, net (based on BankAtlantic's book value gross of any reserves as of January 31, 2012) and distribute to us 100% of the membership interests in Newco LLC. At the closing of the Sales Transaction, we will transfer 95% of the preferred membership interests in Newco LLC to BB&T in connection with its assumption of the TruPs obligations. We will continue to hold the remaining 5% of Newco LLC's preferred membership interests. BB&T will hold its 95% preferred interest in Newco LLC until such time as it has recovered $285 million in preference amount plus a priority return of LIBOR + 200 basis points per annum on any unpaid preference amount. At that time, BB&T's interest in Newco LLC will terminate, and we will thereafter be entitled to any and all residual proceeds. The Newco LLC Assets are expected to be monetized over a period of seven years, or longer provided BB&T's preference amount is repaid within such seven-year period. We have also agreed to provide BB&T with an incremental $35 million guarantee to further assure BB&T's recovery within seven years of the $285 million preference amount. Newco LLC will assume any liabilities related to the Newco LLC Assets.

The cash consideration to be exchanged at the closing of the Sales Transaction under the Purchase Agreement will reflect a deposit premium (estimated based on September 30, 2011 balances to be $300.9 million) to the closing net asset value of BankAtlantic. The estimated premium represents 9.05% of total deposits and 10.32% of non-CD deposits of BankAtlantic at September 30, 2011, and will be increased or decreased at closing by 10.32% of the amount by which the average daily closing balance of non-CD deposits during the ten business day period ending on the business day immediately preceding the closing exceeds or is less than $2.915 billion, provided that the premium will not exceed $315.9 million. At the closing, the sum of the premium and the net asset value of BankAtlantic, as calculated pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement as of the closing after giving effect to the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions, is to be paid in cash. If the sum is a positive number, it is to be paid by BB&T to us. If the sum is a negative number, it is to be paid by us to BB&T.

See also The Stock Purchase Agreement below for a further discussion of the other material terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement.

Following the closing of the Sales Transaction, we expect to focus our operations on managing the Retained Assets as well as approximately $73 million of commercial nonaccrual loans to be held by Newco LLC. The remainder of the Newco LLC Assets will be managed by one or more independent servicers. We will also continue to manage the assets held by our wholly owned asset workout subsidiary, which currently consists of approximately $20 million of loans and real estate owned. Our operations with respect to the assets to be managed by us may, subject in the case of the Newco LLC Assets to the terms of a servicing agreement to be entered into between the Company and Newco LLC, include renewing, modifying, increasing, extending, refinancing and making protective advances with respect to the assets. We may also enter into real estate joint ventures, partnerships or other structures involving these assets or participate in the management of real estate development activities. In addition, based on the timing and volume of cash flows generated in connection with our management of these assets, we may, in the near-term, make short-term investments and, over time, engage in various specialty finance activities. See Our Operations Following the Sales Transaction below for further information.

Background of the Sales Transaction

Based on adverse economic conditions in Florida and the impact that those conditions have had on our business, financial condition and operating results, as well as regulatory issues and increased regulatory requirements, our Board of Directors determined that it was in our best interest to pursue available strategic alternatives. In connection with this determination, we engaged Cantor Fitzgerald on March 31, 2011 to serve as our financial advisor and to provide general investment banking and consultation services with respect to capital raising and other transactions. We subsequently updated Cantor Fitzgerald's engagement on May 24, 2011 and September 16, 2011 as the strategic alternative process progressed to include a possible sale of the Company or BankAtlantic.

During July 2011, our management and representatives of Cantor Fitzgerald discussed a potential strategic alternative which would involve the sale of BankAtlantic, with BankAtlantic Bancorp retaining certain of BankAtlantic's assets, specifically criticized and nonperforming assets. On August 2, 2011, our Board of Directors authorized management to explore the potential of a sale on this basis and also discussed and approved the engagement of Sandler O'Neill as an additional financial advisor to assist with such a transaction. In the following weeks, the financial advisors performed due diligence activities relating to our Company as well as BankAtlantic and its assets.

During the period from August 29, 2011 through September 5, 2011, the financial advisors contacted a number of financial institutions to determine their interest in considering a transaction under the contemplated structure. Neither BankAtlantic Bancorp nor BankAtlantic was identified during these initial communications. On September 6, 2011, our Board of Directors once again met and discussed, among other things, the potential transaction.

In response to the initial communications by our financial advisors, nine financial institutions (the Potential Bidders) expressed an interest in considering the transaction and were sent non-disclosure agreements. Following negotiation and execution of the non-disclosure agreements, each of the Potential Bidders was provided an executive summary describing our Company, BankAtlantic and the contemplated structure of the potential transaction. In addition, each of the Bidders was granted access to a virtual data site which we established for the purpose of providing the Potential Bidders with financial and other due diligence information.

During the month of September, the Potential Bidders performed due diligence and had numerous discussions with representatives of Cantor Fitzgerald and Sandler O'Neill. BB&T was sent the executive summary and granted access to the virtual data site and began its due diligence procedures on September 12, 2011.

On September 30, 2011, we received a non-binding letter of intent from BB&T with respect to the proposed transaction. In addition to the other terms and conditions set forth therein, the letter of intent contemplated an exclusive negotiation period between the Company and BB&T. On October 4, 2011, our Board of Directors held a meeting at which the proposed transaction was discussed and BB&T's letter of intent was reviewed and approved.

During the week of October 10, 2011, BB&T performed in-person due diligence, including management interviews and financial information and legal, regulatory and other document review. Thereafter, the Company and BB&T, through their respective legal and financial advisors, negotiated the terms of, and exchanged drafts of, the Purchase Agreement. In addition, our Board of Directors held meetings on October 21, 2011 and October 28, 2011 to discuss the proposed transaction and the status of negotiations with BB&T.

On October 31, 2011, our legal and financial advisors attended the meeting of our Board of Directors. At the meeting, a draft of the Purchase Agreement, which had previously been distributed to our Board, was discussed, with our legal advisors reviewing with the Board the material terms, conditions and provisions of the Purchase Agreement. Our financial advisors then reviewed with the Board the contents of previously provided materials regarding their respective financial analyses of the Sales Transaction. Thereafter, Cantor Fitzgerald and Sandler O'Neill each rendered an oral opinion (which was subsequently confirmed in writing by delivery of their respective written opinions, dated as of October 31, 2011), to the effect that, as of October 31, 2011 and based upon and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the reviews undertaken and other matters considered by Cantor Fitzgerald and Sandler O'Neill in their opinions, the Consideration to be Received, as defined in, and in the case of, Cantor Fitzgerald's opinion, and the Consideration, as defined in, and in the case of, Sandler O'Neill's opinion, under the terms of the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to our Company. After further discussions and deliberations, our Board of Directors unanimously determined that the Sales Transaction was advisable, fair to and in the best interests of the Company and our shareholders, and approved the Purchase Agreement and the Sales Transaction substantially upon the terms discussed with such changes as management considered appropriate.

On October 31, 2011, a meeting of the Board of Directors of BFC was called to discuss the Sales Transaction. At the meeting, BFC's Board of Directors reviewed the terms of the Sales Transaction and the Purchase Agreement. BFC's Board of Directors also discussed BB&T's request that BFC enter into a support agreement with BB&T pursuant to which BFC would, with respect to all of its shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, approve the Purchase Agreement and the Sales Transaction and other matters contemplated thereby. Following this review and discussion, BFC's Board of Directors agreed to vote its shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock for the approval of the Purchase Agreement and the Sales Transaction and other matters contemplated thereby, and authorized its Chairman, Alan B. Levan, to execute and deliver the support agreement on behalf of BFC.

The Purchase Agreement and support agreement were entered into on November 1, 2011. Both the Company and BB&T publicly announced our entry into the Purchase Agreement prior to the opening of the market on November 1, 2011.

Following the execution of the definitive Purchase Agreement, both the Company and BB&T commenced taking actions required to consummate the Sales Transaction, including the filing of required regulatory notices and applications. See Regulatory Approvals below for further information regarding the required notices, applications and filings.

On November 28, 2011, purported holders of direct or indirect interests in our TruPs filed an action in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware alleging that the Sales Transaction contemplated by the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement violated certain provisions contained in the TruPs indentures and that the indentures required that BB&T assume the TruPs as part of the Sales Transaction. Between December 27, 2011 and January 6, 2012, certain trustees of the TruPs joined in the action or sent notices of default based on substantially the same allegations contained in the action. An expedited three-day trial on the merits was held on January 26, 27 and 30, 2012. On February 27, 2012, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware entered an injunction prohibiting the sale of BankAtlantic pursuant to the terms of the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement.

Following the entry of the injunction, the Company and BB&T discussed strategies to enable us to complete the sale of BankAtlantic to BB&T in light of the injunction. At the same time, BB&T conducted diligence regarding the assets that were to be retained by us under the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement. These discussions included a proposal regarding the formation of a limited liability company to be jointly owned by the Company and BB&T which would hold certain of the assets contemplated to be retained by the Company under the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement. During the week of March 5, 2012, the parties, directly and through their respective legal and financial advisors, negotiated revisions to the terms of the Sales Transaction as well as definitive documentation relating thereto, including the amendment to the Purchase Agreement and the form of operating agreement of Newco LLC. At a meeting held on March 6, 2012, our Board of Directors discussed the status of negotiations with BB&T to restructure the Sales Transaction.

On March 12, 2012, our Board of Directors held a meeting at which our legal and financial advisors were present. At the meeting, the terms of the amendment to the Purchase Agreement and the form of operating agreement of Newco LLC, preliminary copies of which had previously been distributed to our Board, were discussed, and our legal advisors reviewed the material terms and conditions of those agreements. Our financial advisors then reviewed and discussed with the Board previously provided materials regarding their respective financial analyses of the Sales Transaction, as revised pursuant to the amendment. Following such reviews and discussions, Cantor Fitzgerald and Sandler O'Neill each rendered an oral opinion (which was subsequently confirmed in writing by delivery of their respective written opinions), to the effect that, as of the respective dates thereof and based upon and subject to the procedures followed, assumptions made, qualifications and limitations on the reviews undertaken and other matters considered by Cantor Fitzgerald and Sandler O'Neill in their opinions, the Consideration to be Received, in the case of Cantor Fitzgerald's opinion, and the Consideration, in the case of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, as proposed to be amended, was fair, from a financial point of view, to our Company. After further discussions and deliberations, our Board of Directors unanimously determined that the Sales Transaction, as proposed to be revised pursuant to the amendment, was advisable, fair to and in the best interests of the Company and our shareholders, and approved the Purchase Agreement and the Sales Transaction, in each case as proposed to be amended and substantially on the terms discussed with such changes as management considered appropriate.

A meeting of the Board of Directors of BFC was held on March 12, 2012 to review and discuss the revised terms of the Sales Transaction and consider BFC's support of the revised transaction. At the meeting, BFC's Board of Directors reviewed the terms of the proposed amendment to the Purchase Agreement and considered BB&T's request that BFC enter into an amendment to its support agreement confirming its approval of the Sales Transaction as proposed to be amended and effecting such approval by delivering an action by written consent without a shareholder meeting. Following this review and discussion, BFC's Board of Directors confirmed its agreement to vote its shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock for the approval of the Purchase Agreement and the Sales Transaction and other matters contemplated thereby, in each case as proposed to be revised, and authorized its Chairman, Alan B. Levan, to execute and deliver the amendment to the support agreement on behalf of BFC.

The amendments to the Purchase Agreement and support agreement were entered into on March 13, 2012. Both the Company and BB&T publicly announced our entry into the Purchase Agreement amendment prior to the opening of the market on March 13, 2012.

Our Reasons for the Sales Transaction

Based on adverse economic conditions in Florida and the impact that those conditions have had on our business, financial condition and operating results, as well as regulatory issues and increased regulatory requirements, our Board of Directors determined that it was in our best interest to pursue available strategic alternatives, including a sale of our Company or our interest in BankAtlantic or other assets. Following the strategic review process, our Board of Directors approved the Purchase Agreement and the Sales Transaction based on its belief that it was the strategic alternative most likely to maximize value for our shareholders. In making this determination, our Board of Directors consulted with our financial advisors and reviewed and considered the fairness opinions rendered by them with respect to the Sales Transaction. See Opinion of Cantor Fitzgerald and Opinion of Sandler O'Neill below for further information. Our Board of Directors also consulted with our legal advisors with respect to, among other things, the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, and consulted with members of our senior management and considered their judgment, advice and analysis relating to the potential benefits of the Sales Transaction. Our Board of Directors also reviewed and considered our and BankAtlantic's future prospects, anticipated capital requirements at the parent company level, and likely earnings potential given regulatory limitations on BankAtlantic's activities, as well as the need to maintain BankAtlantic's capital levels in excess of regulatory requirements. In addition, our Board considered the deferred interest and other payment obligations with respect to our outstanding TruPs and prior efforts relating to strategic alternatives, including our efforts to raise capital through issuances of capital stock. After considering these factors, our Board of Directors determined that the Purchase Agreement and Sales Transaction were advisable to, and in the best interests of, the Company and our shareholders.

Opinion of Cantor Fitzgerald

On March 31, 2011, the Company's Board of Directors retained Cantor Fitzgerald to provide general investment banking and consultation services with respect to capital raising and other transactions. The Company and Cantor Fitzgerald subsequently updated the engagement as the strategic alternative process progressed to include a possible sale of the Company or BankAtlantic, with respect to which Cantor Fitzgerald's engagement related to its provision of financial advisory services and issuance of a fairness opinion in connection with the transaction. At the meeting of the Company's Board of Directors on October 31, 2011, Cantor Fitzgerald rendered its oral opinion that, as of October 31, 2011 and based upon and subject to the various assumptions, considerations, qualifications and limitations set forth in its written opinion, the Consideration to be Received in connection with the Sales Transaction was fair, from a financial point of view, to the Company. At the March 12, 2012 meeting at which the Company's Board of Directors approved the Purchase Agreement, as amended by the March 13, 2012 amendment thereto, Cantor Fitzgerald delivered to the Company's Board of Directors an amended oral opinion, subsequently confirmed in writing, which updated the original opinion delivered on October 31, 2011 that the Consideration to Be Received is fair from a financial point of view to the Company. For purposes of Cantor Fitzgerald's opinion, the term "Consideration to be Received" was defined to mean the Retained Assets, the Newco LLC Assets and the cash payment to be made or received by the Company at the closing of the Sales Transaction based on the deposit premium and the net asset value of BankAtlantic as of the closing after giving effect to the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions.

The full text of the written opinion of Cantor Fitzgerald, dated as of March 12, 2012, is attached to this Information Statement as Appendix B. The opinion sets forth, among other things, the assumptions made, procedures followed, matters considered and limitations on the scope of the review undertaken by Cantor Fitzgerald in rendering its opinion. We encourage you to read the entire opinion carefully and in its entirety. Cantor Fitzgerald's opinion is directed to the Company's Board of Directors and addresses only the fairness from a financial point of view of the Consideration to be Received pursuant to the Purchase Agreement as of the date of the opinion. It does not address any other aspects of the Sales Transaction, including the assumption by BB&T of the obligations with respect to the Company's outstanding TruPs, or address the price or range of prices at which the shares of common stock of the Company or BB&T may trade subsequent to the announcement or consummation of the Sales Transaction. Further, while Cantor Fitzgerald is aware that the Company's shareholders are not being asked to vote on the Sales Transaction and no meeting of the Company's shareholders will be held to consider the Sales Transaction, and that no approval or consent of BB&T's shareholders is required or will be sought in connection with the Sales Transaction, Cantor Fitzgerald notes that its opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any holder of the Company's or BB&T's common stock. Cantor Fitzgerald's opinion does not address the Company's underlying business decision to pursue the Sales Transaction, the relative merits of the Sales Transaction as compared to any alternative business or financial strategies that might exist for the Company, the financing of the Sales Transaction or the effects of any other transaction in which the Company might engage. In addition, Cantor Fitzgerald's opinion does not constitute a solvency opinion or a fair value opinion, and Cantor Fitzgerald has not evaluated the solvency or fair value of the Company under any federal or state laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. Furthermore, Cantor Fitzgerald does not express any view or opinion as to the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount or nature of any compensation payable to or to be received by any of the Company's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, in connection with the Sales Transaction relative to the Consideration to be Received by the Company.

The summary of the opinion of Cantor Fitzgerald set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion.

In arriving at its opinion, Cantor Fitzgerald, among other things:

reviewed the Purchase Agreement, dated as of November 1, 2011;

reviewed a March 11, 2012 draft of the March 13, 2012 amendment to the Purchase Agreement;

reviewed the Company's Annual Reports to Shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the years ended December 31, 2010, 2009 and 2008, its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, 2011, June 30, 2011 and September 30, 2011 and its Current Reports on Form 8-K filed since December 31, 2010;

reviewed certain operating and financial information relating to the Company's businesses and prospects, including pro forma balance sheet as of September 30, 2011 and January 31, 2012 for the Company, all as prepared and provided to Cantor Fitzgerald by the Company's management; met with certain members of the Company's senior management to discuss the Company's businesses, operations, historical and projected financial results and future prospects;

reviewed the historical prices, trading multiples and trading volumes of the Company's Class A Common Stock;

reviewed certain publicly available financial data, stock market performance data and trading multiples of companies which Cantor Fitzgerald deemed generally comparable to the Company;

reviewed the terms of certain relevant mergers and acquisitions involving companies or assets of companies which Cantor Fitzgerald deemed generally comparable to the Company and its assets;

reviewed certain capital raising transactions executed by the Company;

reviewed the pro forma financial condition and capitalization of the Company giving effect to the Sales Transaction; and conducted such other studies, analyses, inquiries and investigations as Cantor Fitzgerald deemed appropriate. Cantor Fitzgerald relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information provided to or discussed with Cantor Fitzgerald by the Company or obtained by Cantor Fitzgerald from public sources, including, without limitation, the projections, pro forma balance sheet and net book value of the Newco LLC Assets and the Retained Assets referred to above. With respect to the projections, pro forma balance sheet and net book value of the Newco LLC Assets and the

Retained Assets, Cantor Fitzgerald relied on representations that they were reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the senior management of the Company, as to the expected future performance of the Company. Cantor Fitzgerald did not assume any responsibility for the independent verification of any such information, including, without limitation, the projections, pro forma balance sheet, pro forma capitalization and net book value of the Newco LLC Assets or the Retained Assets; Cantor Fitzgerald expresses no view or opinion as to such projections, pro forma balance sheet, net book value and fair market value of the Newco LLC Assets or the Retained Assets, the assumption by BB&T of the obligations with respect to the Company's outstanding TruPS and the assumptions upon which they are based; and Cantor Fitzgerald further relied upon the assurances of the senior management of the Company that they are unaware of any facts that would make the information and projections, pro forma balance sheet and net book value of the Newco LLC Assets and the Retained Assets inaccurate, incomplete or misleading.

In arriving at its opinion, Cantor Fitzgerald did not perform or obtain any independent appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or BB&T, nor was Cantor Fitzgerald furnished with any such appraisals. In addition, Cantor Fitzgerald did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan and lease losses (ALLL) for the Company or BB&T, nor did Cantor Fitzgerald conduct any review of the credit files of the Company or BB&T and, as a result, Cantor Fitzgerald has assumed that the respective ALLL for the Company and BB&T are adequate to cover such future loan and lease losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the Company. During the course of its engagement, Cantor Fitzgerald was asked by the Company's Board of Directors to solicit indications of interest from various third parties regarding a transaction with the Company, and have considered the results of such solicitation in rendering its opinion. Cantor Fitzgerald assumed that the Sales Transaction will be consummated in a timely manner and in accordance with the terms of the Purchase Agreement, as amended on March 13, 2012, without any limitations, restrictions, conditions, or further amendments or modifications, regulatory or otherwise, that collectively would have a material effect on the Company. Cantor Fitzgerald is not a legal, regulatory, tax or accounting expert and has relied on the assessments made by the Company and its advisors with respect to such issues.

The issuance of Cantor Fitzgerald's opinion was approved by an authorized internal committee of Cantor Fitzgerald.

The following is a summary of the material financial analyses performed by Cantor Fitzgerald, in connection with preparing its oral opinion, which was subsequently confirmed in writing, dated as of March 12, 2012. Some of these summaries of financial analyses include information presented in tabular format. In order to understand fully the financial analyses used by Cantor Fitzgerald, the tables must be read together with the text of each summary. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses.

In reviewing the Sales Transaction and calculating transaction multiples, Cantor Fitzgerald analyzed multiples across the following illustrative range of values:

Tier 1 Core Capital Ratio of 0%

Tier 1 Core Capital Ratio of 6%

Tier 1 Core Capital Ratio of 8%

Net Book Value of the Consideration to be Received

Cantor Fitzgerald used a variety of methodologies, including (i) comparable public company analysis, (ii) precedent transaction analysis for whole-bank transactions and (iii) precedent transaction analysis for bank branch transactions.

Comparable Public Companies Analysis. Cantor Fitzgerald reviewed certain financial information discussed above and compared that information to the corresponding financial information, ratios and public market multiples of selected publicly trading banking companies located in the Southeast with total assets of between $2 billion and $10 billion. These companies were selected, among other reasons, because they share similarities to BankAtlantic, including, but not limited to, operating profiles and geography. While none of the companies listed is identical to BankAtlantic or one another, Cantor Fitzgerald made judgments and assumptions concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the selected companies and other factors that could affect the publicly trading values of the selected companies. These companies include:

Capital City Bank Group, Inc.

CenterState Banks, Inc.

Renasant Corporation

SCBT Financial Corporation

Seacoast Banking Corporation of Florida

State Bank Financial Corporation

Trustmark Corporation

United Community Banks, Inc.

In addition, Cantor Fitzgerald reviewed similar financial information but did not include in the comparable universe banks of similar size and geographic location that had either entered into loss sharing agreements with the FDIC or had a concentrated ownership structure.

For the companies listed above, Cantor Fitzgerald calculated their (i) price to book ratio, (ii) price to tangible book ratio, (iii) premium to deposits (calculated as market capitalization less tangible book value then divided by deposits), (iv) premium to core deposits (calculated as market capitalization less tangible book value then divided by core deposits) and (v) price to pre-tax core earnings for the twelve-month period ended September 30, 2011 (pre-tax core earnings are earnings before provisions, impairments, expenses related to other real estate owned, merger and asset disposition expense and gains and losses on the sale of assets or extinguishment of debt). The ranges of these multiples were compared with the range of transaction metrics calculated for the Company as shown below.

Precedent Transaction Analysis Whole Bank. Cantor Fitzgerald reviewed certain financial information pertaining to 36 transactions with bank or thrift target companies announced with transaction values after January 1, 2010. Cantor Fitzgerald focused its analysis on recent transactions given the financial and regulatory changes the banking sector has undergone over the past few years and excluded transactions involving banks that had received Troubled Asset Relief Program funds from the federal government.

Cantor Fitzgerald based its analysis on assumptions that it deemed reasonable, including assumptions concerning general business and economic conditions and industry-specific factors. Cantor Fitzgerald did not form an opinion as to whether any individual analysis or factor, whether positive or negative, considered in isolation, supported or failed to support its opinion. In arriving at its opinion, Cantor Fitzgerald considered the results of all its analyses and did not attribute any particular weight to any one analysis or factor. Cantor Fitzgerald arrived at its ultimate opinion based on the results of all analyses undertaken by it and assessed as a whole and believes that the totality of the factors considered and analyses performed by Cantor Fitzgerald in connection with its opinion operated collectively to support its determination as to the fairness of the Consideration to be Received by the Company. The foregoing summary does not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Cantor Fitzgerald in connection with the rendering of its opinion. The preparation of a fairness opinion involves various determinations as to the most appropriate and relevant quantitative and qualitative methods of financial analyses and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances and therefore, such an opinion is not readily susceptible to summary description. The analyses performed by Cantor Fitzgerald, particularly those based on estimates, are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. None of the public companies used in the comparable company analysis described above are identical to the Company, and none of the precedent transactions used in the precedent transactions analyses described above are identical to the Sales Transaction. Accordingly, an analysis of publicly traded comparable companies and comparable precedent transactions is not mathematical; rather it involves complex considerations and judgments concerning the differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and precedent transactions and other factors that could affect the value of the Company and BankAtlantic and the public trading values of the companies and precedent transactions to which they were compared. The analyses do not purport to be appraisals or to reflect the prices at which any securities may trade at the present time or at any time in the future.

Cantor Fitzgerald's opinion was just one of the many factors taken into consideration by the Company's Board of Directors in determining to approve the Sales Transaction. Consequently, Cantor Fitzgerald's analysis should not be viewed as determinative of the decision of the Company's Board of Directors.

Cantor Fitzgerald has acted as a financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Sales Transaction and will receive a customary fee for such services, which is contingent on successful consummation of the Transaction. In addition, the Company has agreed to reimburse Cantor Fitzgerald for certain expenses and to indemnify Cantor Fitzgerald against certain liabilities arising out of its engagement. Cantor Fitzgerald has previously been engaged by the Company and BB&T to provide certain investment banking and other services on matters unrelated to the Sales Transaction, for which we have received (or expect to receive) customary fees. Cantor Fitzgerald may seek to provide the Company and BB&T and their respective affiliates with certain investment banking and other services unrelated to the Sales Transaction in the future.

In the ordinary course of business, Cantor Fitzgerald and its affiliates may actively trade the equity and debt securities and/or debt of the Company, BB&T and their respective affiliates for Cantor Fitzgerald's own account and for the account of Cantor Fitzgerald's customers and, accordingly, may at any time hold a long or short position in such securities or bank debt.

Opinion of Sandler O'Neill

By letter dated August 2, 2011, the Company retained Sandler O'Neill to act as its financial advisor in connection with a sale of BankAtlantic. Sandler O'Neill is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, Sandler O'Neill is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor to the Company in connection with the Sales Transaction and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement and the March 13, 2012 amendment. Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, prior to the closing of the Sales Transaction, BankAtlantic will contribute approximately $441 million of specified assets to Newco LLC and approximately $175 million of other specified assets to Retained Assets, LLC, and distribute 100% of the membership interests in Newco LLC and Retained Assets, LLC to the Company, leaving BankAtlantic with negative equity. As part of the Sales Transaction, BB&T will assume the obligations with respect to the Company's TruPs. The Company will pay the deferred accrued interest on the TruPs through the closing and pay or escrow certain other obligations related to the TruPs-related litigation described in this Information Statement. Following the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions, the Company will sell to BB&T all of the issued and outstanding shares of BankAtlantic's capital stock at closing, and if the sum of the Closing NAV (as defined in the Purchase Agreement) plus the Premium (as defined in the Purchase Agreement), after giving effect to the adjustments to be made to BankAtlantic's balance sheet in connection with the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions, is a positive number, BB&T will pay that amount in cash to the Company. If that amount is a negative number, the Company will pay that amount in cash to BB&T. At the March 12, 2012 meeting at which the Company's Board of Directors considered and approved the Purchase Agreement, as proposed to be amended, Sandler O'Neill delivered to the Board an amended opinion, which updated the original opinion delivered on October 31, 2011, that the Consideration to the Company is fair from a financial point of view. For purposes of Sandler O'Neill's opinion, the term "Consideration" was defined to mean the deposit premium and the cash payment to be made or received by the Company at the closing of the Sales Transaction based on the deposit premium and the net asset value of BankAtlantic as of the closing after giving effect to the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions. The full text of Sandler O'Neill's opinion is attached as Appendix C to this Information Statement. The opinion outlines the procedures followed, assumptions made, matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by Sandler O'Neill in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion. You are urged to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with your review of the Sales Transaction.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to the Company's Board of Directors and is directed only to the fairness of the Consideration to the Company from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the Sales Transaction or any other aspect of the Sales Transaction.

In connection with rendering its March 13, 2012 opinion, Sandler O'Neill reviewed and considered, among other things:

the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement and drafts of the March 13, 2012 amendment to the Purchase Agreement;

drafts of the limited liability company operating agreement of Newco LLC; certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of the Company and BankAtlantic that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant;

certain publicly available financial statements of BB&T that Sandler O'Neill deemed relevant in determining BB&T's financial capacity to undertake the Sales Transaction;

a comparison of certain financial information for BB&T with similar institutions for which publicly available information is available;

certain analyses and financial information provided to the Company's Board of Directors in Sandler O'Neill's original October 31, 2011 opinion, including the financial terms of certain recent asset sales and business lines and business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available;

the current market environment generally and the commercial banking industry environment in particular; and such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as Sandler O'Neill considered relevant.

Sandler O'Neill also discussed with certain members of the Company's senior management the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of the Company and BankAtlantic, including certain regulatory, liquidity and capital matters existing at the Company and BankAtlantic.

In performing its review, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to it from public sources, that was provided to it by the Company or that was otherwise reviewed by it, and assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering its opinion. Sandler O'Neill further relied on the assurances of the management of the Company that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. Sandler O'Neill was not asked to, and did not, undertake an independent verification of any of such information, and it does not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. Sandler O'Neill did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing the assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of the Company or BB&T or any of their respective subsidiaries, and Sandler O'Neill has conducted no analyses or evaluation regarding, and it rendered no opinion with respect to, the value of any assets or liabilities in connection with the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions, and Sandler O'Neill informed the Company of the same. With Sandler O'Neill's permission, with respect to the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions, and the values of the related assets and liabilities, Sandler O'Neill relied solely on the values set forth in the Company's and BankAtlantic's financial statements.

Sandler O'Neill did not review, and rendered no opinion on, the on-going strategy or operations of the Company or Newco LLC following the Sales Transaction. Sandler O'Neill also assumed that there was no material change in the Company's and BB&T's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to it. Sandler O'Neill assumed in all respects material to its analysis that the Company and BB&T will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to its analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each of the Company and BB&T will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by it under the Purchase Agreement and all related agreements, and that the conditions precedent in the Purchase Agreement are not waived. Finally, with the Company's consent, Sandler O'Neill relied upon the advice the Company had received from its legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting, regulatory and tax matters relating to the Sales Transaction.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to it as of, the date of such opinion. Events occurring after that date could materially affect the opinion. Sandler O'Neill did not undertake to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw its opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date of its opinion. Sandler O'Neill will receive a fee for its services which is contingent on the closing of the Sales Transaction, and the Company also agreed to reimburse Sandler O'Neill for certain expenses and to indemnify Sandler O'Neill against certain liabilities arising out of its engagement. In the past, Sandler O'Neill provided certain investment banking services to the Company and received customary fees for those services.

Sandler O'Neill's opinion was directed only to the Company's Board of Directors in connection with its consideration of the Sales Transaction and, while Sandler O'Neill is aware that the Company's shareholders are not being asked to vote on the Sales Transaction and no meeting of the Company's shareholders will be held to consider the Sales Transaction, Sandler O'Neill notes that its opinion does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of the Company as to how any such shareholder should vote in the event that the Sales Transaction was to be presented for shareholder approval. Sandler O'Neill's opinion relates only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Consideration to the Company and does not address the underlying business decision of the Company to engage in the Sales Transaction or any related transactions, the relative merits of the Sales Transaction and any related transactions as compared to any other alternative business strategies that might exist for the Company or the effect of any other transaction in which the Company might engage. Sandler O Neill was aware that the Company previously unsuccessfully pursued other strategic alternative transactions prior to entering into the Agreement. Sandler O Neill’s opinion shall not be reproduced or used for any other purposes, without Sandler O Neill’s prior written consent. Sandler O Neill’s opinion was approved by Sandler O Neill’s fairness opinion committee. It did not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Sales Transaction by any officer, director, or employee, or class of such persons, relative to the Consideration to be received by the Company in the Sales Transaction.

Our Operations Following the Sales Transaction

As described above, at the closing of the Sales Transaction, we will either be entitled to receive a cash payment from BB&T or be required to make a cash payment to BB&T depending on the amount of the deposit premium and the net asset value of BankAtlantic at closing after giving effect to the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions. In addition to any cash payment which we may receive at the closing, we will hold the Retained Assets, a 5% preferred interest in Newco LLC and the right to all residual proceeds from Newco LLC after such time, if any, as BB&T has recovered from Newco LLC $285 million in preference amount plus a priority return of LIBOR + 200 basis points per annum on any unpaid preference amount.

Following the closing of the Sales Transaction, we expect to focus our operations on managing the Retained Assets as well as approximately $73 million of commercial nonaccrual loans to be held by Newco LLC. The remainder of the Newco LLC Assets will be managed by one or more independent servicers. We will also continue to manage the assets held by our wholly owned asset workout subsidiary, which currently consists of approximately $20 million of loans and real estate owned. Our operations with respect to the assets to be managed by us may, subject in the case of the Newco LLC Assets to the terms of a servicing agreement to be entered into between the Company and Newco LLC, include renewing, modifying, increasing, extending, refinancing and making protective advances with respect to the assets. We may also enter into real estate joint ventures, partnerships or other structures involving these assets or participate in the management of real estate development activities. In addition, based on the timing and volume of cash flows generated in connection with our management of these assets, we may, in the near-term, make short-term investments and, over time, engage in various specialty finance activities.

Under the terms of the Purchase Agreement, we will be restricted from engaging in activities relating to the business of soliciting or accepting deposits competitive with the business of BankAtlantic in Florida for three years following the closing of the Sales Transaction. In addition, subject to the approval of the Federal Reserve, following the closing of the Sales Transaction, we will no longer be a unitary savings and loan holding company or subject to regulation as such, or subject to our Cease and Desist Order with the Federal Reserve. The Purchase Agreement also restricts our right to use the name BankAtlantic following the closing of the Sales Transaction. As described herein, we intend to file an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to change our name to BBX Capital Corporation on or as soon as practicable after the date which is 20 days following the first mailing of this Information Statement to our shareholders and, in any event, no later than the closing of the Sales Transaction.

Our shareholders at the time of the closing of the Sales Transaction will continue to own 100% of our Company following the closing. In addition, following the closing, we will continue as a public company and, assuming that we meet the continued listing standards of the NYSE, our Class A Common Stock will continue to be listed on the NYSE under its current ticker symbol, BBX.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Sales Transaction

Shareholders should note that some of our directors and executive officers have interests in the Sales Transaction that are different from, or are in addition to, the interests of our shareholders generally. Specifically, Alan B. Levan, our Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, and John E. Abdo, our Vice Chairman, also serve as Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of BFC and Vice Chairman of BFC, respectively, and may be deemed to control BFC by virtue of their ownership interest in BFC's Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock. As described herein, BFC owns shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock representing approximately 75% of the total voting power of our common stock, and BFC has provided to us, with respect to all of its shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock, its written consent to the Sales Transaction and other matters which are the subject of this Information Statement. BFC's written consent is sufficient under the FBCA to approve the Sales Transaction and other matters which are the subject of this Information Statement on behalf of our shareholders without any further shareholder action.

In addition, certain of our executive officers, including Alan B. Levan, John E. Abdo and Jarett S. Levan, and other members of our senior management will, subject to any applicable regulatory approval, receive severance and other payments in connection with the closing of the Sales Transaction. With respect to each of

Regulatory Approvals

The financial services industry is a highly regulated industry. As a unitary savings and loan holding company, we are subject to the primary supervision of the Federal Reserve. As a federal savings bank, BankAtlantic is subject to the primary supervision of the OCC. In addition, BB&T and its subsidiaries are subject to regulation by, among other authorities, the Federal Reserve and the FDIC, as well as the North Carolina Office of the Commissioner of Banks.

In connection with the Sales Transaction, certain regulatory approvals are required, and closing of the Sales Transaction is subject to the receipt of all such required regulatory approvals. Specifically, we have submitted information to, and made filings with, the Federal Reserve Bank of Atlanta, and BankAtlantic has submitted notices to, and filings with, the OCC. Further, pursuant to the terms of the Cease and Desist Orders to which we and BankAtlantic are currently subject, we and BankAtlantic submitted requests to the Federal Reserve and the OCC, respectively, to take certain actions to facilitate the Sales Transaction. In addition, Branch Banking and Trust Company, a subsidiary of BB&T, submitted an application to the FDIC. BB&T filed an application with the Federal Reserve and presented the Sales Transaction for approval by the North Carolina Office of the Commissioner of Banks. Each of these notices, filings, applications, forms and requests were submitted to the applicable regulatory agencies and, in connection with the March 13, 2012 amendment to the Purchase Agreement, updated notices and filings have been or will be submitted. The North Carolina Office of the Commissioner of Banks approved the Sales Transaction from the floor at a public hearing on March 14, 2012. The remainder of the filings submitted to date are currently under review by the applicable regulatory agencies.

In addition, we are required to comply with the applicable regulations of the SEC in connection with this Information Statement and the FBCA in connection with the Name Change.

Litigation Regarding the Sales Transaction

As described above, the Purchase Agreement, as entered into on November 1, 2011, did not provide for the assumption of the TruPs by BB&T. Following the initial announcement of the Purchase Agreement on November 1, 2011, purported holders of direct or indirect interests in the TruPs filed an action in the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware, and certain of the trustees under the indentures underlying the TruPs sent notices of default or joined in the action, seeking a declaration that the transaction violated certain covenants contained in the TruPs indentures and that the assumption of the TruPs by BB&T was required. An expedited three-day trial on the merits was held on January 26, 27 and 30, 2012. On February 27, 2012, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware entered an injunction prohibiting the sale of BankAtlantic pursuant to the terms of the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement.

Following the entry of the injunction, the Company and BB&T entered into negotiations to revise the terms of the Sales Transaction to provide for BB&T's assumption of the TruPs. On March 13, 2012, we entered into an amendment to the Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which, among other things, BB&T agreed to assume the obligations with respect to our outstanding TruPs, while we agreed to pay at the closing of the Sales Transaction all interest accrued on the TruPs through closing and to pay or escrow certain legal fees and expenses with respect to the above-described litigation. Based on BB&T's assumption of our outstanding TruPs obligations, the Company and BB&T agreed in the amendment that certain of the assets originally contemplated to be retained by us following the closing will now be contributed to Newco LLC and that BB&T will receive a 95% preferred interest in Newco LLC. See Overview and Background of the Sales Transaction above for further information regarding the March 13, 2012 amendment to the Purchase Agreement.

No Dissenters' Rights

Under the FBCA, our shareholders are not entitled to dissenters' rights in connection with the Sales Transaction or the other actions described in this Information Statement.

Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Consequences

General

We intend for the following discussion to provide only a general summary of certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Sales Transaction to the Company and our shareholders. This summary does not address the treatment of shareholders under the laws of any state, local or foreign taxing jurisdiction. Shareholders should consult their own tax advisors as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences, as well as the effects of state, local and non-U.S. tax laws.

This discussion describes certain U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Sales Transaction. This discussion is based on currently existing provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder and current administrative rulings and court decisions, all of which are subject to change. Any such change, which may or may not be retroactive, could alter the tax consequences as described herein. This discussion is limited to U.S. citizens or residents, U.S. corporations, and U.S. trusts and estates that hold their shares of the Company's common stock as capital assets for U.S. federal income tax purposes (generally, assets held for investment). This discussion does not address all of the tax consequences that may be relevant to a particular person or the tax consequences that may be relevant to persons subject to special treatment under U.S. federal income tax laws (including, among others, foreign persons, tax-exempt organizations, dealers in securities or currencies, banks, insurance companies, financial institutions or persons that hold our stock as part of a hedge, straddle, constructive sale or conversion transaction, persons whose functional currency is not the U.S. dollar, persons that are, or hold our stock through, partnerships or other pass-through entities, or persons who acquired our stock through the exercise of an employee stock option or otherwise as compensation). In addition, this discussion does not address any aspects of state, local, non-U.S. taxation or U.S. federal taxation other than income taxation.

No ruling has been or will be sought from the Internal Revenue Service (the IRS) as to the U.S. federal income tax consequences of the Sales Transaction, and no assurance can be given that the IRS would not assert, or that a court would not sustain, a position contrary to any of the tax consequences set forth below. Furthermore, we have not sought and will not seek an opinion of counsel with respect to the anticipated tax treatment of the Sales Transaction.

Consequences to the Company

The Sales Transaction will be a taxable transaction to the Company for U.S. federal income tax purposes. It is anticipated that any gain resulting from the Sales Transaction will be offset against the Company's net operating loss carryforwards. However, utilization of these carryforwards could subject the Company to the alternative minimum tax. As of the date of this Information Statement, the Company is unable to determine the amount of gain or loss that it will recognize in connection with the Sales Transaction and, to the extent the Company recognizes a gain and is able to offset the gain against its net operating loss carryforwards, the alternative minimum tax that may be generated for federal income tax purposes.

Consequences to our Shareholders

The Sales Transaction will not result in any separate and independent tax consequences for our shareholders. However, any distribution to our shareholders of any amounts (whether in cash or in kind) would generally be taxable to our shareholders. No distributions to shareholders are contemplated to be made in connection with the consummation of the Sales Transaction.

Accounting Treatment

Upon completion of the Sales Transaction, we will remove from our consolidated balance sheet all of the assets transferred to BB&T in connection with the Sales Transaction and our financial statements will reflect, to the extent applicable, the effect of the receipt and the use of the proceeds of the Sales Transaction. We will record a gain or loss on our consolidated statement of operations in connection with the Sales Transaction equal to the difference between the purchase price for the assets transferred to BB&T and the book value of those assets as recorded in our consolidated balance sheet.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is expected that, following the closing of the Sales Transaction, we will have a controlling financial interest in Newco LLC, and Newco LLC will therefore be consolidated in our financial statements. The Newco LLC Assets will be recorded on our balance sheet at their carrying value at the time of BankAtlantic's distribution to us of the membership interests in Newco LLC. If in the future the Newco LLC Assets are determined to be held for sale rather than held for investment, whether as a result of the Sales Transaction or otherwise, then the Newco LLC Assets will be recorded on our balance sheet at the lower of cost or fair value.

THE STOCK PURCHASE AGREEMENT

The following description summarizes the material provisions of the Purchase Agreement and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Purchase Agreement, including the March 13, 2012 amendment to the Purchase Agreement, which is attached to this Information Statement as Appendix A and is incorporated herein by reference. The following description is not intended to provide any other factual information about us, BankAtlantic, BB&T or any other person or entity. In particular, the representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement were made only for purposes of the Purchase Agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the Company and BB&T, as the case may be, as the parties to the Purchase Agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the parties, including being qualified by certain confidential disclosures not reflected in the text of the Purchase Agreement. In addition, the representations and warranties in the Purchase Agreement may have been made for the purpose of allocating contractual risk between the parties instead of establishing matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, the representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement should not be viewed or relied on as characterizations of the actual state of facts about or conditions of us, BankAtlantic, BB&T or any other person or entity. We urge you to carefully read in its entirety the copy of the Purchase Agreement, including the March 13, 2012 amendment to the Purchase Agreement, that is attached to this Information Statement as Appendix A because it is the legal document that governs the Sales Transaction.

Unless stated to the contrary or the context otherwise requires, references to the Purchase Agreement below refer to the Stock Purchase Agreement entered into on November 1, 2011, as amended on March 13, 2012.

Purchase and Sale of the Capital Stock of BankAtlantic

Subject to the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, BB&T has agreed to purchase from us all of the shares of capital stock of BankAtlantic. These shares had a net book value of approximately $306.1 million as of September 30, 2011.

BB&T's Assumption of the TruPs

As described above, the Purchase Agreement, as entered into on November 1, 2011, did not provide for the assumption by BB&T of any TruPs obligations. On February 27, 2012, the Court of Chancery of the State of Delaware entered an injunction prohibiting the sale of BankAtlantic pursuant to the terms of the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement, finding that the assumption of the TruPs by BB&T was required. On March 13, 2012, the Company and BB&T entered into an amendment to the Purchase Agreement, pursuant to which, among other things, BB&T agreed to assume the TruPs. We anticipate that the aggregate principal balance of the TruPs at the closing of the Sales Transaction will be approximately $285 million. We have agreed to pay at the closing all interest accrued on the TruPs through closing, which is expected to be approximately $45.4 million. We have also agreed to escrow at the closing certain obligations relating to trustee fees and costs incurred in connection with the TruPs-related litigation described above.

The Retained Assets

Under the terms and conditions of the November 1, 2011 Purchase Agreement, prior to the closing of the Sales Transaction, BankAtlantic was to contribute to Retained Assets, LLC certain performing and non-performing loans and tax certificates, real estate owned and related reserves as well as previously written off assets that were recorded on the balance sheet of BankAtlantic at approximately $623.6 million as of September 30, 2011 and distribute to us 100% of the membership interests in Retained Assets, LLC. Based on BB&T's agreement to assume the obligations with respect to our outstanding TruPs, the assets to be contributed to Retained Assets, LLC were modified and reduced under the March 13, 2012 amendment to the Purchase Agreement such that BankAtlantic will now contribute to Retained Assets, LLC, prior to the closing of the Sales

Table of Contents

Transaction, approximately $175 million in commercial real estate nonaccrual loans and real estate owned (based on BankAtlantic's book value gross of any reserves as of January 31, 2012) and all rights, claims and judgments with respect to previously written-off assets. The balance of the assets will now be contributed to Newco LLC, a newly formed limited liability company, as described below. 100% of the membership interests in Retained Assets, LLC will be distributed to us prior to the closing of the Sales Transaction. Retained Assets, LLC will assume any liabilities related to the Retained Assets.

Newco LLC

As contemplated by the March 13, 2012 amendment to the Purchase Agreement, prior to the closing of the Sales Transaction, BankAtlantic will contribute to Newco LLC approximately $424 million of loans and $17 million of real estate owned and other assets, net (based on BankAtlantic's book value gross of any reserves as of January 31, 2012) and distribute to us 100% of the membership interests in Newco LLC. At the closing, we will transfer 95% of the preferred membership interests in Newco LLC to BB&T in connection with its assumption of the TruPs obligations. We will continue to hold the remaining 5% of Newco LLC's preferred membership interests. BB&T will hold its 95% preferred interest in Newco LLC until such time as it has recovered $285 million in preference amount plus a priority return of LIBOR + 200 basis points per annum on any unpaid preference amount. Thereafter, BB&T's interest in Newco LLC will terminate, and we will be entitled to any and all residual proceeds. The Newco LLC Assets are expected to be monetized over a period of seven years, or longer provided BB&T's preference amount is repaid within such seven-year period. We have also agreed to provide BB&T with an incremental $35 million guarantee to further assure BB&T's recovery within seven years of the $285 million preference amount. Newco LLC will assume any liabilities related to the Newco LLC Assets.

The Deposit Premium and the Closing Consideration

The cash consideration to be exchanged at the closing of the Sales Transaction under the Purchase Agreement will reflect a deposit premium (estimated based on September 30, 2011 balances to be $300.9 million) to the closing net asset value of BankAtlantic. The estimated premium represents 9.05% of total deposits and 10.32% of non-CD deposits of BankAtlantic at September 30, 2011, and will be increased or decreased at closing by 10.32% of the amount by which the average daily closing balance of non-CD deposits during the ten business day period ending on the business day immediately preceding the closing exceeds or is less than $2.915 billion, provided that the premium will not exceed $315.9 million.

At the closing of the Sales Transaction, the sum of the premium and the net asset value of BankAtlantic, as calculated pursuant to the terms of the Purchase Agreement as of the closing after giving effect to the Asset Contributions and Membership Interest Distributions, is to be paid in cash. If the sum is a positive number, it is to be paid by BB&T to us. If the sum is a negative number, it is to be paid by us to BB&T.

Covenants

The Purchase Agreement also sets forth various covenants and agreements to be complied with by the Company and BB&T, including the following:

Conduct of BankAtlantic's Business Pending Closing. Until the closing of the Sales Transaction, except as otherwise provided in the Purchase Agreement, consented to in writing by BB&T or required by the Cease and Desist Orders to which the Company and BankAtlantic are currently subject, we have agreed to cause BankAtlantic and its subsidiaries to (i) maintain their existence under applicable law, (ii) conduct their businesses and operations in all material respects in the ordinary and usual course of business and in a manner consistent with prior practice, and (iii) use commercially reasonable efforts to keep available the services of its current officers and employees and preserve the rights, franchises, goodwill and relations of its customers, clients and others with whom business relationships exist.

Approvals and Filings. The parties have agreed to use their reasonable best efforts to take, or cause to be taken, all actions necessary to fulfill the conditions to closing the Sales Transaction and to consummate the Sales Transaction in the most expeditious manner practicable, including obtaining all required regulatory and other approvals and consents required to consummate the transaction.

Non-competition and Non-solicitation Covenants. Under the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, we agreed that, for a period of three years following the closing, we will not, and we will cause our affiliates not to, in each case in the State of Florida, directly or indirectly own, manage, operate or engage in, or participate in the ownership, management or operation of or engagement in, any business soliciting or accepting deposits, in the context of operating a branch banking business serving the mass retail and small commercial banking markets of the type conducted by BankAtlantic and its subsidiaries; provided, however, that we and our affiliates are not prohibited from engaging in any of the following activities: (i) specialty finance, (ii) origination or purchase of commercial loans (including commercial real estate loans with respect to the acquisition, development and/or construction of residential land or residential properties, and commercial land and commercial properties) or renewing, modifying, increasing, extending, refinancing, making protective advances with respect to or otherwise dealing with any loans which comprise the Retained Assets or Newco LLC Assets; (iii) servicing (including collection and foreclosure activities with respect to) commercial loans; or (iv) engaging in tax certificate acquisition and investment activities. In addition, the record or beneficial ownership of 5% or less of the outstanding capital stock of any company will not be a violation of the non-competition covenant. See The Sales Transaction - Our Operations Following the Sales Transaction for a discussion of our expected operations following the closing.

Under the terms and conditions of the Purchase Agreement, we agreed that, for a period of 18 months following the closing, we will not, and we will cause our affiliates not to, directly or indirectly solicit for employment or employ any employee of BankAtlantic who continues employment with BankAtlantic following the closing (a Continuing Employee); provided, however, that we and our affiliates are not prohibited from conducting any general solicitation or general recruitment effort conducted by a third party and not targeted at any Continuing Employee. Our non-solicitation covenant also does not prohibit the solicitation or employment of any Continuing Employee that (i) was terminated by BB&T or any of its affiliates or (ii) voluntarily resigned from the employ of BB&T or any of its affiliates and, subject to certain limited exceptions, has not been employed by BB&T or any of its affiliates for at least six months.

The Purchase Agreement also requires that each of our named executive officers enters into non-competition and non-solicitation agreements in favor of BB&T in a mutually agreeable form with terms consistent with the above-described restrictive covenants applicable to the Company. See The Sales Transaction - Interests of Certain Persons in the Sales Transaction above for information regarding the payments to be made to our named executive officers in consideration for their entry into these agreements.

Restriction on the use of the BankAtlantic Name. The Purchase Agreement requires us to change our name, and the name of each of our subsidiaries, upon the closing to remove and omit any reference to the term BankAtlantic. Following the closing, the BankAtlantic name will be owned and used exclusively by BB&T and BankAtlantic. In connection with such requirement, we intend to file an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation to change our name to BBX Capital Corporation. See Amendment to Our Articles of Incorporation (The Name Change) below for further information.

Exclusivity. Through the closing or, if earlier, the date on which the Purchase Agreement is terminated, we agreed not to, directly or indirectly, (i) take any action to solicit, initiate, encourage or knowingly facilitate any inquiries with respect to, or the making of, any Acquisition Proposal (as hereinafter defined), (ii) approve, negotiate, endorse or recommend any Acquisition Proposal or (iii) enter into any agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal. Capitalization of BankAtlantic. BB&T agreed that, after the closing, it will contribute assets to BankAtlantic or merge, consolidate or combine BankAtlantic with an insured depository institution subsidiary of BB&T such that, in either case, BankAtlantic will have sufficient capital to meet all applicable regulatory capital adequacy requirements.

TruPs-related Obligations. We agreed to deposit in escrow certain legal fees and expenses with respect to the TruPs-related litigation described herein and to pay amounts necessary to bring current our deferred interest obligations with respect to the TruPs at the closing. Subject to the foregoing, BB&T agreed that, effective upon closing, it will assume all obligations with respect to the TruPs and, to the extent required, deliver such supplemental indentures and other documents and take such other actions as the trustees for such the TruPs may reasonably require under the indentures and other governing documents applicable to the TruPs.

Lease of Corporate Headquarters. Our corporate headquarters are owned by BankAtlantic. At our request, BB&T will engage with us in good faith negotiations with respect to a lease agreement effective as of the closing providing for BB&T's lease to us of such premises.

The action by written consent without a shareholder meeting which we received from BFC on _____, 2012 approving the Sales Transaction with respect to its shares of our Class A Common Stock and Class B Common Stock representing in the aggregate 75% of the total voting power of our common stock also included its approval of the Name Change. Accordingly, we intend to file an amendment to our Articles of Incorporation with the Florida Department of State to change our name from BankAtlantic Bancorp, Inc. to BBX Capital Corporation. The amendment will also update historical information contained in Article I of our Articles of Incorporation to set forth the address of our current principal office and our current mailing address. We expect to file the amendment on or as soon as practicable after the date which is 20 days following the first mailing of this Information Statement to our shareholders and, in any event, no later than the closing of the Sales Transaction. HOUSEHOLDING OF PROXY

AND INFORMATION STATEMENTS

The SEC has adopted rules that permit companies and intermediaries, such as brokers, to satisfy delivery requirements for proxy and information statements with respect to two or more shareholders sharing the same address by delivering a single proxy or information statement, as applicable, addressed to those shareholders. This process, which is commonly referred to as householding, potentially provides extra convenience for shareholders and cost savings for companies. We and some brokers household proxy and information materials, delivering a single proxy or information statement, as applicable, to multiple shareholders sharing an address unless contrary instructions have been received from the affected shareholders. Once you have received notice from your broker or our transfer agent, American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC (AST), that they or we will be householding materials to your address, householding will continue until you are notified otherwise or until you revoke your consent. However, we will deliver promptly upon written or oral request a separate copy of this Information Statement to a shareholder at a shared address to which a single copy of this Information Statement was delivered. If, at any time, you no longer wish to participate in householding and would prefer to receive a separate proxy or information statement, or if you are receiving multiple proxy or information statements and would like to request delivery of a single proxy or information statement, please notify your broker if your shares are held in a brokerage account or AST if you hold registered shares. You can notify AST by sending a written request to American Stock Transfer & Trust Company, LLC, 59 Maiden Lane Plaza Level, New York, NY 10038, attention: Jennifer Donovan, Vice President.

All such Leases are valid, legally binding, in full force and effect, and enforceable in accordance with their terms. Other than as set forth on Schedule 3.13(c), there is not under any of the Leases: (i) any default by Bank or its Subsidiaries or any claim of default which with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default; or (ii) any default or claim of default against any lessor to or lessee of Bank or its Subsidiaries, or any event of default or event which with notice or lapse of time, or both, would constitute a default by any such lessor or lessee. For purposes of this Section 3.16(a), the phrase "enforceable in accordance with its terms" as it relates to a Loan does not mean that the borrower has the financial ability to repay a Loan or that any collateral is sufficient to result in payment of the Loan secured thereby.

(b) Seller has previously disclosed a complete and correct list of all Loans that, as of the Interim Balance Sheet Date (i) are contractually past due 90 days or more in the payment of principal and/or interest, (ii) that are on nonaccrual status or (iii) are classified as Watch List, Special Mention, Substandard, Doubtful or Loss, together with the principal amount on each such Loan and the identity of the obligor thereunder. There are no Loans to any employee, officer, director or other Affiliate of Bank on which the borrower is paying a rate other than that reflected in the note or the relevant credit agreement. All such Loans are and were made in compliance in all material respects with all Applicable Laws. Each Loan disclosed on Schedule 3.16(e) has been made in the ordinary course of business, and on the same terms, including interest rate and collateral, as those prevailing at the time for comparable arms-length transactions, did not involve more than the normal risk of collectability or present other unfavorable features.

3.17 Allowance for Loan Losses. The allowances for loan and lease losses and for credit losses contained in the Financial Statements and the allowance for loan and lease losses and for credit losses shown on any financial statements delivered in accordance with Section 3.9(b), as the case may be, were and will be established in accordance with the practices and experiences of Bank and its Subsidiaries and were and will be adequate under and in accordance with the requirements of GAAP and applicable guidelines issued by the Regulatory Agencies to provide for possible losses on loans (including accrued interest receivable) and credit commitments (including stand-by letters of credit) outstanding as of the date of such balance sheet.

Bank owns or otherwise has the right to use, each such Intellectual Property Right. Except as set forth on Schedule 3.20, the conduct of the business of Bank as currently conducted does not infringe, misappropriate or otherwise violate any Intellectual Property Rights of any Person in any material respect, and no claims are pending or, to Seller's Knowledge, threatened alleging that Bank is infringing the rights of any Person with regard to any Intellectual Property Right. Purchaser is duly qualified and in good standing as a foreign corporation authorized to do business in each jurisdiction in which the nature of its activities or the character of the properties it owns or leases make such qualification necessary, except in such cases where the lack of said authorization or qualification has not had and would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Purchaser to perform its obligations under, and to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.2 Authority; Binding Nature. Purchaser has all requisite power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to carry out its obligations hereunder and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Purchaser, and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby has been duly authorized by all necessary action on the part of Purchaser and no other corporate proceedings on the part of Purchaser are necessary to authorize the execution and delivery of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Purchaser and, constitutes (in each case assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by Seller) the legal, valid and binding obligations of Purchaser enforceable against Purchaser in accordance with its terms, subject to the effect of any applicable bankruptcy, reorganization, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, moratorium, restructuring or similar Laws affecting creditors' rights and remedies generally and general equitable principles regardless of whether such enforceability is considered in a proceeding at law or in equity.

4.3 No Conflict. The execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Purchaser and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby do not (a) conflict with, or result in a breach of or default under, any terms or conditions of Purchaser's Charter Documents, or (b) conflict with or violate any Applicable Law as to Purchaser.

Other than the Regulatory Approvals, no consents, approvals, authorizations or other actions by, or filing with or notifications with, or notifications to, any Person or any Governmental Authority on the part of Purchaser is required in connection with the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by Purchaser, except for such consents, approvals, authorizations or other actions, or filings or notifications, the failure of which to be obtained would not have a material adverse effect upon the ability of Purchaser to perform its obligations under, and to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

4.5 Regulatory Matters. Purchaser has timely filed all material reports, registrations and statements, together with any amendments required to be made with respect thereto, that it was required to file since December 31, 2010 with any Regulatory Agency, and has paid all applicable material fees and assessments due and payable in connection therewith, except where the failure to do so would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Purchaser to perform its obligations under, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. To Purchaser's Knowledge, no Regulatory Agency or other Governmental Authority has initiated or has pending any formal enforcement action regarding the business, disclosures or operations of Purchaser that could reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect on the ability of Purchaser to perform its obligations under, and to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby. There is no material unresolved written violation, criticism, comment or exception by any Regulatory Agency or other Governmental Authority with respect to any report or statement relating to any examinations or inspections of Purchaser except where such adverse determination would not reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect upon the ability of Purchaser to perform its obligations under, and to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. 4.6 Litigation.

(a) There is no Proceeding pending or, to Purchaser's Knowledge, threatened against Purchaser, or any of its Subsidiaries, which, if determined adversely, would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect upon the ability of Purchaser to perform its obligations under, and to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(b) There is no Order outstanding against Purchaser or any of its Subsidiaries, or its businesses that would reasonably be expected to have a material adverse effect upon the ability of Purchaser to perform its obligations under, and to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

Each party will provide the other with copies of any applications and all correspondence relating thereto prior to filing, other than material filed in connection therewith under a claim of confidentiality. If any Governmental Authority shall require the modification of any of the terms and provisions of this Agreement as a condition to granting the Regulatory Approvals, the parties hereto will negotiate in good faith and use commercially reasonable efforts to seek a mutually agreeable adjustment to the terms of the transaction contemplated hereby.

(c) The parties shall advise within twenty-four hours of receipt each other upon receiving any communication from any Governmental Authority whose consent or approval is required for consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement that causes such party to believe that there is a reasonable likelihood that the Regulatory Approvals or any other consent or approval required hereunder will not be obtained or that the receipt of any such approval will be materially delayed.

5.3 Access; Integration of Data Processing; Confidentiality.

(a) In order to facilitate the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and the integration of the business and operations of Bank, subject to Section 5.5 and Applicable Laws relating to confidentiality and the exchange of information, Seller shall, and shall cause Bank to, permit Purchaser and its officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives, access, upon reasonable notice and during customary business hours throughout the period before the Closing Date, at Purchaser's sole expense, to Bank's books, papers and records relating to the assets, properties, operations, obligations and liabilities (other than minutes that discuss any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, any proposals to acquire the Seller or Bank which were made prior to the date of the Agreement or any other subject matter Seller reasonably determines should be treated as confidential) in which Purchaser may have a reasonable interest; provided, however, that neither Seller nor Bank shall be required to take any action that would provide access to or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would result in the waiver by it of the privilege protecting communications between it and any of its counsel or where such access or disclosure would contravene any Applicable Law or Order or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement; provided, further, that the parties shall attempt to make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements. Purchaser shall use commercially reasonable efforts to minimize any interference with Bank's regular business operations during any such access to Bank's property, books and records.

(b) At the request of Purchaser, during the period from the date of this Agreement to the Closing, Seller shall, and shall cause Bank and their respective officers and employees to, and shall make all reasonable efforts to cause their respective data processing service providers to, cooperate and assist Purchaser in connection with preparation for an electronic and systematic conversion of all applicable data regarding Bank to Purchaser's system of electronic data processing; provided, however, that no such conversion shall occur until the Closing. Purchaser shall be responsible for reasonable and agreed upon costs incurred by Seller, including all fees to third parties, in connection with any such efforts.

(c) Purchaser acknowledges and agrees that the Confidentiality Agreement remains in full force and effect and, in addition, covenants and agrees to keep confidential, in accordance with the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement, information provided to Purchaser pursuant to this Agreement. purposes, (iii) any Proceeding involving the party requesting access to such documents, (iv) Tax purposes and (v) the Retained Assets, subject to confidentiality requirements. Seller shall use reasonable efforts to minimize disruption or interference with regular business operations of Purchaser and Bank. All material, information, records and other documents, whether held by Purchaser, Bank or Seller, shall be maintained for such periods as are required by Law, unless the parties shall agree in writing to a longer period. Between the date hereof and the Closing Date, the parties shall use commercially reasonable efforts to agree to policies and procedures to be followed by each party in connection with any request by Seller, following the Closing Date, for Purchaser and Bank to provide Seller with any information which may be requested hereunder.

5.4 Notification. Seller and Purchaser shall promptly (and in any event within three Business Days after becoming aware of any such breach) notify the other party in writing (a) if it believes that such party has breached any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in this Agreement or (b) if it believes that any event shall have occurred that might reasonably be expected to result, individually or in the aggregate, in a failure of a condition set forth in Section 6.2 or Section 6.3 if continuing on the Closing Date.

5.5 Public Announcements. Seller and Purchaser shall consult with each other before issuing any press release or otherwise making any public statements or filings with respect to this Agreement or any of the transactions contemplated hereby and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statement without the prior written consent of the other party, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed; provided, however, that a party may, without the prior written consent of the other party, issue such press release or make such public statement or filing as may be required by Applicable Law or Order, or any listing agreement with a national stock exchange or automated quotation system; provided, further, however that such party shall have first used reasonable best efforts to consult with the other party with respect to such release, statement or filing.

5.6 No Control of Bank. Nothing contained in this Agreement shall give Purchaser, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct the operations of Bank prior to the Closing Date.

5.7 Employee Benefit Matters.

(a) As of the Closing Date, Purchaser shall provide or cause its Affiliates to provide to each employee of Bank who continues employment with Bank following the Closing Date (a Continuing Employee) (i) base wages or salaries, as applicable, and (ii) employee benefit plans, programs, policies and arrangements (excluding, however, all equity plans) that, are substantially comparable, in the aggregate, to the salaries or base wages, as applicable, and the Employee Benefit Plans of the Bank provided to such Continuing Employee immediately prior to the Closing Date (but in no event greater than the employee benefits provided to Purchaser's similarly situated employees).

(b) Seller shall ensure that as of immediately prior to the Closing Date, each employee or other service provider of Seller and its Affiliates who provides services to the business of Bank is employed by Bank and that no other individual is employed by Bank. Only employees (and their dependents) shall be participants in the Employee Benefit Plans sponsored by Bank.

(c) Purchaser shall provide, or cause its Affiliates to provide, each Continuing Employee who is terminated without cause by Purchaser or its Affiliates during the one (1) year period immediately following the Closing Date with severance benefits under General Separation Policy of BankAtlantic; provided, however, that for purposes of determining Years of Service under said plan, such a Continuing Employee shall be credited with (i) the service with which he or she was credited for severance plan purposes with Seller and its Affiliates as of the Closing Date, plus (ii) his or her service with Purchaser and its Affiliates after the Closing Date; provided, however, that such benefit payments may be conditioned on execution of a release of claims in a form satisfactory to Purchaser.

(d) With respect to any employee benefit plan of Purchaser or Purchaser's Affiliates in which any Continuing Employee becomes eligible to participate on or after the Closing Date (a Purchaser Plan),

Purchaser shall (i) waive all preexisting conditions, actively at work requirements, exclusion and waiting periods with respect to participation and coverage requirements under any such Purchaser Plan to the extent they were inapplicable to, or were satisfied under, any Employee Benefit Plan in which such Continuing Employee participated prior to the Closing Date; and (ii) ensure that each Continuing Employee receives full credit (including eligibility to participate, vesting, vacation entitlement and severance benefits, but excluding benefit accrual under any defined benefit Purchaser Plan) under each Purchaser Plan in which such Continuing Employee becomes or may become a participant for service with Bank (or any predecessor to Bank and its Affiliates), solely to the extent such service was credited under the Employee Benefit Plans. As of the Closing Date, Purchaser shall credit to Continuing Employees the amount of vacation time that such employees had accrued under any vacation policy or arrangement listed on Schedule 3.23 as of the Closing Date. With respect to each Purchaser Plan that is a health plan in which Continuing Employees participate after Closing, Purchaser shall (i) cause to be waived any eligibility waiting period, any evidence of insurability requirement and the application of any pre-existing condition limitation under such plan; and (ii) cause each Continuing Employee to be given credit under such health plan with respect to the plan year in which the Closing Date occurs (Closing Date Plan Year) for amounts (such as deductibles and co-payments) paid under any similar Employee Benefit Plan by such Continuing Employee, with respect to the Closing Date Plan Year and for which verification is provided by the insurer or third party administrator of such Employee Benefit Plan, as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of any applicable Purchaser Plan.

(e) Purchaser and Seller acknowledge and agree that all provisions contained in this Section 5.7 are included for the sole benefit of Purchaser and Seller and nothing contained herein shall (i) be construed as an amendment to any Employee Benefit Plan or Purchaser Plan or the creation of any new employee benefit plan, (ii) create any third-party beneficiary or other rights in any other person, including any employee or former employee of any of Purchaser or Seller or their respective Affiliates, or any dependent or beneficiary thereof or (iii) otherwise obligate Purchaser or any of its Affiliates to maintain any particular Purchaser Plan or other employee benefit plan or retain the employment of any particular employee following the Closing Date. Purchaser and Seller further acknowledge and agree that Seller shall cause Bank and Subsidiaries to provide to Purchaser all employee books and records relating to Continuing Employees no later than the Closing Date.

(f) Seller shall, at its expense, cause Bank to terminate the 401(k) Plan immediately prior to the Closing by resolution adopted by the board of directors of Bank, on terms acceptable to Purchaser, and simultaneously amend the 401(k) Plan to the extent necessary to comply with all Applicable Laws to the extent not previously amended. Said termination shall provide that all participants in the 401(k) Plan shall be fully vested in their account balances thereunder; and Seller shall cause Bank to notify the 401(k) Plan participants and beneficiaries of such termination prior to the Closing Date pursuant to Applicable Law requirements. Purchaser will permit rollover of 401(k) plan assets by Continuing Employees in cash and with respect to loans, in kind, to a Purchaser s defined contribution retirement plan with a 401(k) feature.

(g) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary provided herein, Seller shall (i) provide COBRA benefits with respect to all qualified beneficiaries, other than the Continuing Employees, under any Employee Benefit Plan that is a group health plan; (ii) be liable for and pay all severance obligations and benefits under any Employee Benefit Plan to any eligible individual, other than a Continuing Employee; and (iii) comply with all obligations and pay all benefits, costs and expenses with respect to all individuals, other than the Continuing Employees, under all Employee Benefit Plans.

(a) any breach of any of the representations or warranties made by Seller in this Agreement, other than any breach of Section 3.12, which shall be governed by Section 5.17;

(b) the breach of any covenant or agreement to be performed by Seller herein, including Seller's obligation to indemnify directors and officers under Section 5.9;

(c) the Retained Assets, the Retained Assets Liabilities, or the Retained Assets Contribution and Assumption;

(d) the Proceedings set forth on Schedule 7.1(d);

(e) the Seller Trust Preferred Securities;

(b) the breach of any covenant or agreement to be performed by Purchaser herein.

7.3 Limitations on Liability.

(a) Time Limitations and Nonsurvival. The representations or warranties set forth in this Agreement shall survive for two years following the Closing Date, except that the representations and warranties set forth in (i) Section 3.1, Section 3.2, Section 3.6, Section 3.27, Section 4.1, Section 4.2 and Section 4.8 shall survive the Closing Date indefinitely and (ii) Section 3.12 shall survive as specified in Section 5.17 and thereafter neither party shall have any liability (for indemnification or otherwise) with respect to any representation or warranty, unless on or before the second (2nd) anniversary of the Closing Date the indemnified party notifies the indemnifying party of a claim to be asserted specifying the factual basis of that claim in reasonable detail. The agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement shall not survive the Closing Date except to the extent expressly contemplating performance thereafter.

(b) Limitations on Seller's Indemnification. Seller will have no obligation to indemnify Purchaser for any Losses pursuant to Section 7.1(a) until such time as such Losses, in the aggregate, exceed one million dollars ($1,000,000) at which point Seller shall be liable for the amount of such Losses solely to the extent they are in excess of one million dollars ($1,000,000). An indemnified party shall use commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate any claim or liability that such indemnified party asserts under this ARTICLE VII; provided that the indemnified party shall not be required to incur any out-of-pocket fees or expenses in connection with such mitigation. In the event that an indemnified party shall fail to use such commercially reasonable efforts to mitigate any claim or liability, then notwithstanding anything else to the contrary contained in this Agreement, the indemnifying party shall not be required to indemnify any indemnified party for any portion of a Loss that could reasonably be expected to have been avoided if the indemnified party had made such efforts.

7.4 Third-Party Indemnification Procedure.

(a) Promptly after receipt by any indemnified party of notice of the commencement of any Proceeding in respect of which the indemnified party intends to seek indemnification pursuant to Section 7.1 or Section 7.2, the indemnified party shall notify the indemnifying party in writing; provided that the omission to so notify shall not relieve the indemnifying party of its indemnification obligations except to the extent the indemnifying party is materially prejudiced thereby. The indemnifying party shall be entitled to assume control of the defense of such action or claim; provided that:

(i) the indemnified party shall be entitled to participate in the defense of such claim and to employ counsel at its own expense to assist in the handling of such claim;

(ii) no indemnifying party shall consent to the entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement that does not include as an unconditional term thereof the giving by each claimant or plaintiff to the indemnified party and its Affiliates of a release from all liability in respect of such claim or if, pursuant to or as a result of such consent or settlement, injunctive or other equitable relief would be imposed against the indemnified party or such judgment or settlement could materially interfere with the business or operations of the indemnified party; and

(iii) after written notice by the indemnifying party to the indemnified party of its election to assume control of the defense of any such action in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the indemnifying party shall not be liable to such indemnified party hereunder for any legal fees, costs and expenses subsequently incurred by such indemnified party in connection with the defense thereof.

(b) If the indemnifying party does not assume control of the defense of such claim in a reasonable period of time following its receipt of notice of such claim in accordance with the foregoing provisions, the indemnified party shall have the right to defend such claim in such manner as it may deem appropriate, and the indemnifying party will promptly reimburse the indemnified party therefor; provided, that the indemnified party

(b) by either Seller or Purchaser if the Closing Date shall not have occurred on or before July 31, 2012; provided, that the right to terminate this Agreement under this Section 8.1(b) shall not be available to any party whose failure to fulfill any obligation under this Agreement shall have been the cause of, or shall have resulted in, the failure of the Closing Date to occur on or prior to such date;

(c) by either Seller or Purchaser in the event of (i) a material breach by the other party of any representation or warranty contained in this Agreement, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within thirty (30) days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach, and which breach or breaches would result in a failure to satisfy any condition to Purchaser's or Seller's obligations set forth in Section 6.2 or Section 6.3, respectively, or (ii) a material breach by the other party of any of its obligations contained in this Agreement, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within thirty (30) days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach, and which breach or breaches would result in a failure to satisfy any condition to Purchaser's or Seller's obligations set forth in Section 6.2 or Section 6.3, respectively; or

(d) by either Seller or Purchaser if (i) final action has been taken by a Regulatory Agency whose approval is required in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, which final action (x) has become final and nonappealable and (y) does not approve this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby, or (ii) any Governmental Authority shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any law, or final nonappealable judgment which has the effect of making illegal the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

8.2 Effect of Termination. In the event of termination of this Agreement by a party pursuant to Section 8.1, written notice thereof shall promptly be given to the other party(ies) hereto, and upon such notice this Agreement shall terminate. 9.2 Entire Agreement. This Agreement (including the Disclosure Schedules hereto) and the other documents and agreements delivered at the Closing Date pursuant to the provisions hereof constitute the full and entire understanding and agreement of the parties hereto in respect of its subject matter, and supersedes all prior agreements, understandings (oral and written) and negotiations between or among the parties with regard to such subject matter. The Disclosure Schedules and the Confidentiality Agreement constitute a part hereof as though set forth in full herein.

9.3 Amendments. This Agreement (including the Disclosure Schedules attached hereto) may not be modified, amended, supplemented, canceled or discharged, except by a written instrument executed by all parties hereto.

9.4 Waivers. No failure to exercise, and no delay in exercising, any right, power or privilege under this Agreement shall operate as a waiver, nor shall any single or partial exercise of any right, power or privilege hereunder preclude the exercise of any other right, power or privilege. No waiver of any breach of any provision shall be deemed to be a waiver of any preceding or succeeding breach of the same or any other provision, nor shall any waiver be implied from any course of dealing between the parties. No extension of time for performance of any obligations or other acts hereunder or under any other agreement shall be deemed to be an extension of the time for performance of any other obligations or any other acts. Any waiver, permit, consent or approval of any kind or character by any party of any breach or default under this Agreement, must be in writing and shall be effective only to the extent specifically set forth in such writing.

9.5 Binding Effect; Assignment. The rights and obligations of this Agreement shall be binding on and enforceable by the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns. Except as expressly provided herein, the rights and obligations of this Agreement may not be assigned by Seller or Purchaser without the express prior written consent of the other party. Nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended or shall be construed to confer upon any Person other than the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement, except as expressly provided in this Agreement.

9.6 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be construed and enforced in accordance with, and the rights of the parties shall be governed by, the laws of the State of New York, without regard to principles of conflicts of laws.

9.7 Consent to Jurisdiction.

(a) Each party hereto agrees that it shall bring any action or proceeding in respect of any claim arising out of or related to this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, whether in tort or contract or at law or in equity, exclusively, in the United States District Court for the Southern District of New York or the Supreme Court of the State of New York for the County of New York, and (1) irrevocably submits to the exclusive jurisdiction of such courts, (2) waives any objection to laying venue in any such action or proceeding in such courts, and (3) waives any objection that such courts are an inconvenient forum or do not have jurisdiction over any party. Each of the parties hereto agrees that a final judgment in any action shall be conclusive and may be enforced in other jurisdictions by suit on the judgment or in any other manner provided by Applicable Law.

(b) Each party hereby (i) consents to service of process in any action between the parties arising in whole or in part under or in connection with this Agreement in any manner permitted by New York Law, (ii) agrees that service of process made in accordance with clause (i) or made by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at its address specified pursuant to Section 9.1, will constitute good and valid service of process in any such action and (iii) waives and agrees not to assert (by way of motion, as a defense, or otherwise) in any such action any claim that service of process made in accordance with clause (i) or (ii) does not constitute good and valid service of process.

9.8 Waiver of Jury Trial. EACH PARTY ACKNOWLEDGES AND AGREES THAT ANY CONTROVERSY THAT MAY ARISE UNDER THIS AGREEMENT IS LIKELY TO INVOLVE COMPLICATED AND DIFFICULT ISSUES, AND THEREFORE EACH SUCH PARTY HEREBY IRREVOCABLY AND UNCONDITIONALLY WAIVES ANY RIGHT SUCH PARTY MAY HAVE TO A TRIAL BY JURY IN RESPECT OF ANY LITIGATION DIRECTLY OR INDIRECTLY ARISING OUT OF OR RELATING TO THIS AGREEMENT OR THE TRANSACTIONS CONTEMPLATED BY THIS AGREEMENT. EACH PARTY CERTIFIES AND ACKNOWLEDGES THAT (A) NO

REPRESENTATIVE, AGENT OR ATTORNEY OF ANY OTHER PARTY HAS REPRESENTED, EXPRESSLY OR OTHERWISE, THAT SUCH OTHER PARTY WOULD NOT, IN THE EVENT OF LITIGATION, SEEK TO ENFORCE THE FOREGOING WAIVER, (B) EACH SUCH PARTY UNDERSTANDS AND HAS CONSIDERED THE IMPLICATIONS OF THIS WAIVER, (C) EACH SUCH PARTY MAKES THIS WAIVER VOLUNTARILY, AND (D) EACH SUCH PARTY HAS BEEN INDUCED TO ENTER INTO THIS AGREEMENT BY, AMONG OTHER THINGS, THE WAIVERS AND CERTIFICATIONS IN THIS SECTION 9.8.

9.9 Severability. In the event that any one or more of the provisions contained herein, or the application thereof in any circumstances, is held invalid, illegal or unenforceable in any respect for any reason, the parties shall negotiate in good faith with a view to the substitution therefor of a suitable and equitable solution in order to carry out, so far as may be valid and enforceable, the intent and purpose of such invalid provision, provided, that the validity, legality and enforceability of any such provision in every other respect and of the remaining provisions contained herein shall not be in any way impaired thereby, it being intended that all of the rights and privileges of the parties hereto shall be enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by Applicable Law.

9.10 Cumulative Remedies; Specific Performance. All rights and remedies under this Agreement or otherwise afforded by Applicable Law to any party, shall be cumulative and not alternative. Without limiting the rights of a party hereto to pursue all other legal and equitable rights available to such party for another party's failure to perform its obligations under this Agreement, the parties hereto acknowledge and agree that the remedy at law for any failure to perform their respective obligations hereunder would be inadequate and that each party shall be entitled to specific performance, injunctive relief or other equitable remedies in the event of any such failure.

9.11 Expenses. Each party to this Agreement shall bear its own expenses incurred in connection with the preparation, execution and performance of this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, whether or not such transactions are consummated, including all fees and expenses of agents, representatives, counsel and accountants.

9.12 Prevailing Party. In the event that any litigation between the parties hereto should arise as the result of any breach or alleged breach of this Agreement, the prevailing party in said litigation shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs, including attorneys' fees and costs incurred in litigating entitlement to attorneys' fees and costs and in determining or quantifying the amount of recoverable attorneys' fees and costs (through both trial and appellate levels) from the nonprevailing party.

9.13 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in two or more counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which together shall constitute one instrument.

9.14 Schedules. Following the date of this Agreement, Seller may update the disclosures schedules to disclose any development or circumstance occurring between the date hereof and the Closing. No such update shall be taken into account in determining whether a Material Adverse Effect has occurred. However, any such update shall be taken into account for the purpose of determining the accuracy of any representation or warranty of Seller.

5.3 Curative Allocations. The allocations set forth in Section 5.2 (other than Section 5.2(h)) and Section 5.6 (the Regulatory Allocations) are intended to comply with certain requirements of the Treasury Regulations. It is the intent of the Members that, to the extent possible, all Regulatory Allocations shall be offsets either with other Regulatory Allocations or with special allocations of other items of Company income, gain, loss or deduction pursuant to this Section 5.3. Therefore, notwithstanding any other provision of this Article V (other than the Regulatory Allocations), the Company shall make such offsetting special allocations of Company income, gain, loss or deduction in whatever manner it determines appropriate so that, after such offsetting allocations are made, each Member's Capital Account balance is, to the extent possible, equal to the Capital Account balance such Member would have had if the Regulatory Allocations were not part of the Agreement and all Company items were allocated pursuant to Sections 5.1 and 5.6.

5.4 Allocation Rules.

(a) For purposes of determining the Profits, Losses or any other items allocable to any period, Profits, Losses and any such other items shall be determined on a daily, monthly or other basis, as determined by the Board using any method that is permissible under § 706 of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder.

(b) Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement, all items of Company income, gain, loss, deduction and any other allocations not otherwise provided for shall be divided among the Members in the same proportions as they share Profits and Losses for the Fiscal Year in question.

(c) The Members are aware of the income tax consequences of the allocations made by this Article V and hereby agree to be bound by the provisions of this Article V in reporting their shares of Company income and loss for income tax purposes.

5.5 Tax Allocations; Section 704(c) of the Code.

(a) In accordance with § 704(c) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder, income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to any property contributed to the capital of the Company shall, solely for income tax purposes, be allocated among the Members so as to take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such property to the Company for federal income tax purposes and its initial Gross Asset Value (computed in accordance with Section 1.1).

Table of Contents

(b) In the event the Gross Asset Value of any Company asset is adjusted pursuant to paragraph (ii) of the definition of Gross Asset Value contained in Section 1.1, subsequent allocations of income, gain, loss and deduction with respect to such asset shall take account of any variation between the adjusted basis of such asset for federal income tax purposes and its Gross Asset Value in the same manner as under § 704(c) of the Code and the Treasury Regulations thereunder.

(c) Any elections or other decisions relating to allocations under this Section 5.5, including the selection of any allocation method permitted under Treasury Regulations § 1.704-3, shall be made by the Tax Matters Partner in any manner that reasonably reflects the purpose and intention of this Agreement. Allocations pursuant to this Section 5.5 are solely for purposes of federal, state and local taxes and shall not affect, or in any way be taken into account in computing, any Member's Capital Account or share of Profits, Losses, other items or distributions pursuant to any provision of this Agreement.

5.6 Loss Limitation. Losses allocated pursuant to Section 5.1 to a Member shall not exceed the maximum amount of Losses that can be allocated to such Member without causing such Member to have an Excess Loss. For this purpose, Excess Loss means any Loss the allocation of which would cause such Member to have an Adjusted Capital Account Deficit (or increase the amount of such deficit) at the end of any Fiscal Year. In the event some but not all of the Members would be allocated an Excess Loss as a consequence of an allocation of Losses pursuant to Section 5.1, the limitation set forth in this Section 5.6 shall be applied on a Member by Member basis and Losses not allocable to any Member as a result of such limitation shall be allocated to the other Members in accordance with the positive balances in such Member's Capital Accounts so as to allocate the maximum permissible Losses to each Member under Treasury Regulations § 1.704-1(b)(2)(ii)(d).

ARTICLE VI

DISTRIBUTIONS; SPECIAL SURRENDER OF UNITS

6.1 Distributions. On the 15th day of the second month of each Fiscal Quarter (or, if such day is not a business day, on the immediately succeeding business day), the Company shall (and the Board shall cause the Company to), to the extent of funds of the Company that are legally available for distribution, distribute to the Members such amount as may be determined by the Board, which shall not be less than an amount equal to (x) all proceeds from the disposition of, returns and interest on, repayments of and other positive cash flows in respect of Portfolio Assets since the date of the Company's formation minus (y) all Company Expenses incurred since the date of the Company's formation minus (z) all amounts previously distributed under Article VI; provided, however, that the Board may withhold an amount that would otherwise be distributable with respect to any Fiscal Quarter if the Board reasonably determines in good faith that the Company will otherwise have insufficient cash to pay Company Expenses during a future period; provided, further, however, that any amounts so withheld shall be carried forward for future distribution to the Members to the extent not disbursed to pay Company Expenses.

6.2 Distribution Rules.

(a) Distributions to be made to the Members shall only be made (x) after the payment of Company Expenses then due to third parties and the Members and their respective Affiliates and (y) in the following order of priority:

(i) First, to the Members with unpaid Priority Distributions, pro rata according to the amount of such unpaid Priority Distributions, until each Member has received an amount under this Section 6.2(a)(i) equal to such Member's Priority Distribution;

(ii) Second, to the Members holding Class A Units, pro rata according to the number of Class A Units; provided, however, that the aggregate amount distributed to Members under this Section 6.2(a)(ii) shall not exceed the aggregate initial Preference Amount of the Members; and

(iii) Third, to the Members holding Class R Units, pro rata according to the number of Class R Units.

(b) Priority Distribution shall mean, with respect to any Member for any period commencing on or after the Effective Date, an amount equal to the product of (i) LIBOR plus 200 basis points per annum (the Priority Rate) and (ii) the sum of the average daily Preference Amount of each Member for such period and the amount of any unpaid Priority Distributions of such Member on the first day of such period.

(c) Preference Amount shall initially mean (i) in respect of the Purchaser Member, $285,000,000 and (ii) in respect of the Seller Member, $15,000,000; provided, however, that the Preference Amount of each Member shall be reduced (but not below zero) by the amount of any distributions received by such Member under Section 6.2(a)(ii).

(d) All amounts withheld pursuant to the Code or any provision of any state or local tax law with respect to any payment, distribution or allocation to the Company or the Members shall be treated as amounts distributed to the Members pursuant to this Article VI for all purposes of this Agreement. The Board is authorized to withhold from distributions or with respect to allocations to the Members and to pay over to any federal, state or local government any amounts required to be so withheld pursuant to the Code or any provision of any other federal, state or local law and shall allocate such amounts to those Members with respect to which such amounts were withheld.

6.3 Surrender of Class A Units. For each dollar of distributions made to a Member under Section 6.2(a)(ii), such Member shall immediately and automatically, and without any further action by the Company or any Member, surrender for no consideration one Class A Unit to the Company. If a Member ceases to be an owner of any Units as a result of the application of this Section 6.3, such Member shall cease to be a Member, shall cause its designees serving on the Board to resign and shall have no further rights to any distributions from the Company, to appoint members of the Board or otherwise under this Agreement, except (a) to receive such reports as are required by this Agreement with respect to the Fiscal Year in which the Purchaser Member surrenders its last remaining Units to the Company and (b) under the provisions of Article X.

ARTICLE VII

MANAGEMENT OF PORTFOLIO ASSETS

7.1 Appointment of Asset Servicers. The Board shall have the authority to appoint asset servicers with respect to the Schedule I Assets and Schedule II Assets (collectively, the Servicers) to manage the Portfolio Assets that with respect to the Schedule I Assets shall, unless otherwise agreed by the Board, be selected from the list of servicers set forth on Annex 2 as eligible to service the types of assets set forth opposite such asset servicers' names on Annex 2, and the number of Servicers shall be set forth on Annex 2. As of the Effective Date, the Servicer of the Schedule I Assets shall be [] and the Servicer of the Schedule II Assets shall be the Seller Member.

7.2 Asset Servicing. The Company shall, and shall cause its agents (including the Servicers) to, use reasonable best efforts to maximize the net realizable value of the Portfolio Assets and the economic interests of the Company with a view, among other things, to ensure that the collections with respect to the Portfolio Assets result in the full recovery of the Preference Amount and Priority Distributions of the holders of the Class A Units and maximize the value of the Class R Units, and in any event to service the Portfolio Assets in accordance with the principles set forth on Annex 3.

7.3 Right of First Refusal.

(a) A Servicer shall be authorized to sell or dispose of Schedule I Assets only in accordance with Annex 3 and subject to this Section 7.3. Notwithstanding the foregoing, a Servicer shall be permitted to sell or dispose of Schedule I Assets without complying with the terms of this Section 7.3 where an individual sale or disposition relates to Schedule I Asset(s) having an aggregate then current Threshold Net Asset Value of less than $250,000.

Table of Contents

(b) A Servicer shall promptly advise the Company and the Seller Member of discussions with prospective purchasers with respect to any Portfolio Asset, and shall promptly, upon receipt of any purchase offer, send written notice (the Transfer Notice) to the Seller Member, which notice shall state (i) the name and address of the proposed transferee, (ii) the Schedule I Asset or Schedule I Assets to be sold (the Offered Schedule I Assets), (iii) the amount and form of the proposed consideration for the Offered Schedule I Assets and (iv) any other terms and conditions of the proposed transfer. In the event the proposed consideration for the proposed transfer includes consideration other than cash, the Transfer Notice shall include a calculation of the fair market value of such consideration and an explanation of the basis for such calculation. The total value of the consideration for the proposed transfer as stated in the Transfer Notice is referred to as the Offer Price.

(c) Until 5:00 p.m. (eastern time) on the second business day after delivery of the Transfer Notice (the Offer Period), the Seller Member shall have the right, exercisable by delivery of an Acceptance Notice (as hereinafter defined), to elect to purchase all, but not less than all, of the Offered Schedule I Assets for cash at a purchase price that results in the same net proceeds to the Company as would have been received in a sale to the proposed transferee at the Offer Price and upon the other terms and conditions set forth in the Transfer Notice, including with respect to any required deposit and time for closing. The right to purchase the Offered Schedule I Assets shall be exercisable by delivering written notice of exercise (an Acceptance Notice) within the Offer Period to the Servicer with a copy of the Acceptance Notice delivered contemporaneously to the Company and the Purchaser Member. An Acceptance Notice shall be irrevocable and shall constitute a binding agreement by the Seller Member to purchase the Offered Schedule I Assets. The failure of the Seller Member to deliver an Acceptance Notice within the Offer Period shall be deemed to be a waiver of such purchase right.

(d) Unless the Seller Member elects to purchase the entire Offered Schedule I Assets as provided above, a Servicer may transfer the Offered Schedule I Assets to the proposed transferee identified in the Transfer Notice on the terms and conditions set forth in the Transfer Notice; provided, however, that (1) the price for the sale of the Offered Schedule I Assets to the proposed transferee is a price not less than the Offer Price and the sale is otherwise on terms and conditions no less favorable to the Company than those set forth in the Transfer Notice and (2) the transfer is made within 90 days after the end of the Offer Period or such other time period as the Board and the Members may mutually agree.

(e) If such a transfer of the Offered Schedule I Assets does not occur within the time period referred to in clause (2) of Section 7.3(d) for any reason, the restrictions provided for herein shall again become effective, and no transfer may be made by the Servicer thereafter without again making an offer to the Seller Member in accordance with this Section 7.3.

7.4 Right of Purchase. The Seller Member will have the right to purchase Schedule II Assets and certain other Portfolio Assets on the terms and subject to the conditions set forth in paragraph 7 of Annex 3.

7.5 Liquidation of Portfolio Assets. In the event that on the seventh anniversary of the Effective Date the Company continues to own any Portfolio Assets, the Company shall promptly begin to liquidate for cash consideration all or such portion of any remaining Portfolio Assets then held by the Company sufficient to produce proceeds that result in distributions that reduce the aggregated Preference Amount of the Members to zero, and the Company shall complete the liquidation of such Portfolio Assets owned by the Company within 180 days of the seventh anniversary of the Effective Date. The Company shall, and shall cause its agents to, use reasonable best efforts to maximize the proceeds from the liquidation of the Portfolio Assets. Notwithstanding the foregoing, if no Class A Units are outstanding on the seventh anniversary of the Effective Date, then this Section 7.5 shall no longer apply.

8.1 Accounting, Books and Records. At all times during the continuance of the Company, the Company shall keep full and accurate books and records of all transactions of the Company. For accounting and income tax purposes, the books shall be kept in accordance with the method of accounting selected by the Board, consistently applied. 8.2 Purchaser Member to Maintain Records. The Company will delegate to the Purchaser Member or one of its Affiliates the responsibility to maintain the books and records of the Company in accordance with Section 8.1, to prepare reports in accordance with Section 8.3 and to prepare such information as is necessary for the Company to perform its obligations under Section 8.4. The Purchaser Member and/or its Affiliates will provide such services without compensation but will be entitled to reimbursement by the Company for its reasonable and customary third party costs and expenses incurred in connection with providing accounting services to the Company. The Members agree and acknowledge that (a) the Purchaser Member and/or its Affiliates will rely on, and compile the books and records of the Company from, reports produced by the Servicers, (b) such books and records shall not be maintained in accordance with GAAP and (c) the Purchaser Member will engage a third party to prepare the tax returns for the Company in accordance with Section 8.4.

8.3 Reports. The Company shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to cause to be delivered to the Members: (a) unaudited financial statements for each completed Fiscal Year, promptly after such unaudited financial statements are available and in any event within 15 days of the end of such completed Fiscal Year; and (b) unaudited financial statements for each completed Fiscal Quarter, promptly after such unaudited financial statements are available and in any event within 15 days of the end of such completed Fiscal Quarter. The Company acknowledges and agrees that each of the Members has reporting obligations pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, that each Member is responsible for its own accounting and reporting obligations under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, and that the Company will cooperate with each Member and provide access and information as reasonably necessary to permit each Member to timely prepare its audited financial statements and to comply with its legal and regulatory obligations, including reporting obligations under the Securities Act of 1933 and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934.

8.4 Tax Returns. The Company shall prepare and file, or cause to be prepared and filed, all federal and any required state and local income or other tax returns for the Company for each Fiscal Year of the Company. The Company shall use commercially reasonable best efforts to provide to the Members by June 1 (but in no event later than June 30) of each taxable year, an Internal Revenue Service Schedule K-1 for the prior taxable year. Upon the written request of any Member, the Company shall provide any additional information reasonably necessary for the preparation of any federal, state, local and foreign income, franchise or other tax returns which may need to be filed by such Member. In the event of an audit of the Company's income tax returns, the Board shall participate in, and may retain, at the expense of the Company, accountants and/or other professionals to participate in, such audit and contest assertions by the auditing agent that may be adverse to the Members or the Company.

8.5 Title to Property. All property of the Company shall be held in the name of the Company (or a subsidiary of the Company) or in the names of one or more nominees designated by the Board.

Each Member shall have the right to participate in administrative tax proceedings related to the determination of tax matters at the Company level. The Tax Matters Partner shall take such action as may be reasonably necessary to constitute each Member a notice partner within the meaning of Section 6231(a)(8) of the Code. In the event of the foregoing Member's death, retirement, resignation, expulsion or bankruptcy, the Tax Matters Partner shall be such Person as the Board shall determine.

9.2 Right to Make Section 754 Election. The Company shall make an election in accordance with Section 754 of the Code, so as to adjust the basis of Company property in the case of a distribution of property within the meaning of Section 734 of the Code and in the case of a transfer of a Company interest within the meaning of Section 743 of the Code, and the Company shall not apply for permission from the Commissioner of the Internal Revenue Service to revoke such election without the prior written consent of each Member (not to be unreasonably withheld). The Company shall cause an election under Section 754 of the Code to be in effect for each subsidiary treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes owned directly or indirectly (other than through a corporation) by the Company as of the Effective Date, in each case for the taxable year that includes the Effective Date. Each of the Members shall, upon request of the Tax Matters Partner, supply the information necessary to give effect to such an election.

9.3 No Election to be Taxed as Association. The Company shall be treated as a partnership for federal and state income tax purposes. No Member shall cause the Company to elect to be treated as a corporation for federal or state income tax purposes, unless such election is approved in writing by all of the Members.

ARTICLE X

LIABILITY, EXCULPATION AND INDEMNIFICATION

10.1 Liability. Except as otherwise provided by the Delaware Act, the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, whether arising in contract, tort or otherwise, shall be solely the debts, obligations and liabilities of the Company, and no Covered Person shall be obligated personally, whether under a judgment, decree or order of a court, or in any other manner, for any such debt, obligation or liability of the Company solely by reason of being a Covered Person.

10.2 Exculpation. No Covered Person shall be liable to the Company or any other Covered Person for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of any act or omission performed or omitted by such Covered Person on behalf of the Company in satisfaction of the standards set forth in Section 10.3 and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of authority conferred on such Covered Person by this Agreement, the Board or by an appropriate Officer or employee of the Company, except that a Covered Person shall be liable for any loss, damage or claim incurred by reason of such Covered Person's bad faith, fraud or willful misconduct as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction upon entry of a final judgment. A Covered Person shall be fully protected in relying in good faith upon the records of the Company and upon such information, opinions, reports or statements presented to the Company by any Person as to matters the Covered Person reasonably believes are within such other Person's professional or expert competence, including information, opinions, reports or statements as to the value and amount of the assets, liabilities, Profits or Losses or any other facts pertinent to the existence and amount of assets from which distributions to Members might properly be paid.

10.3 Fiduciary Duty. Except as otherwise expressly provided in this Agreement, to the maximum extent permitted by applicable law, including Sections 1101(b) and (c) of the Delaware Act, no Covered Person shall owe any fiduciary or other duties to the Company or any subsidiary of the Company or to any other Member or its Affiliates. Unless otherwise expressly specified herein, any determination or action to be made or taken by any member of the Board (or any other Covered Person) pursuant to this Agreement is to be so made or taken in such Person's sole and absolute discretion.

10.4 Indemnification by the Company. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, a Covered Person shall be entitled to indemnification from the Company for any loss, damage or claim incurred by such Covered Person by reason of any act or omission (including any act or omission constituting negligence) performed or omitted by such Covered Person on behalf of the Company and in a manner reasonably believed to be within the scope of authority conferred on such Covered Person by or pursuant to this Agreement, the Board or by an appropriate Officer or employee of the Company, except that no Covered Person shall be entitled to be indemnified in respect of any loss, damage or claim incurred by such Covered Person by reason of bad faith, fraud or willful misconduct with respect to such acts or omissions as determined by a court of competent jurisdiction upon entry of a final judgment; provided, however, that any indemnity under this Section 10.4 shall be provided out of and to the extent of Company assets only, and no Covered Person shall have any personal liability on account thereof. For the avoidance of doubt, no indemnification shall be available under this Section 10.4 to any Member in respect of any action, proceeding, claim or investigation arising out of the transactions that gave rise to the formation of the Company or any proceeding brought by such Member's Affiliates, stockholders or other stakeholders.

10.5 Advancement of Expenses. To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, expenses (including legal fees) incurred by a Covered Person who was, is or is threatened to be made a defendant or respondent in any claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding (but not in any such claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding where such Covered Person is suing, is being sued by or is otherwise adverse to the Company) by reason of such Covered Person's status as a Covered Person shall, from time to time, be advanced by the Company prior to the final disposition of such claim, demand, action, suit or proceeding and without any determination as to the Covered Person's ultimate entitlement to indemnification upon receipt by the Company of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Covered Person to repay such amount if it shall be determined by a court of competent jurisdiction upon entry of a final judgment that the Covered Person is not entitled to be indemnified as authorized in Section 10.4.

10.6 Indemnification Agreements. The Company may enter into indemnity contracts with Covered Persons and such other Persons as the Board may determine and adopt written procedures pursuant to which arrangements are made for the advancement of expenses and the funding of obligations under Section 10.5 and containing such other procedures regarding indemnification as are appropriate.

10.7 Savings Clause. If this Article 10 or any portion hereof shall be invalidated on any ground by any court of competent jurisdiction, the indemnity obligations set forth in any applicable portion of this Article 10 that shall not have been invalidated shall apply to the fullest extent permitted by applicable law.

ARTICLE XI

TRANSFER OF UNITS; ADDITIONAL MEMBERS

11.1 Transfer of Units. Other than as required by applicable law, no Member may, directly or indirectly, sell, gift, assign, distribute, pledge, hypothecate, convey, dispose of or otherwise voluntarily or involuntarily transfer or encumber in any way, whether by operation of law or otherwise or whether or not for value (or offer any of the foregoing) (Transfer) the whole or any part of its Units or other interests in the Company without the prior written consent of the other Members; provided, however, a Member may Transfer its Units or other interests in the Company in connection with a sale, merger or similar change of control transaction of the Member; provided, further, however, that a Member will not unreasonably withhold its consent to a Transfer by the other Member to one of such other Member's controlled subsidiaries.

Table of Contents

11.2 Validity of Transfer by Company. Any attempt to Transfer any Units or other interests in the Company in violation of Section 11.1 shall be null and void ab initio. No purported assignee shall have any right to any Profits or Losses or distributions of the Company. Neither the Company nor the nonassigning Members shall incur any liability as a result of refusing to make any such distributions to the assignee of any such invalid assignment.

11.3 Indemnification. In the case of an assignment or attempted assignment of an interest in the Company that has not received the consents required by Section 11.1, the parties engaging or attempting to engage in such assignment shall be personally liable (notwithstanding the provisions of Article X) to indemnify and hold harmless the Company and the other Members from all costs, liabilities and damages that any of such indemnified Persons may incur (including incremental tax liability and lawyers' fees and expenses) as a result of such assignment or attempted assignment and efforts to enforce the indemnity granted hereby.

11.4 Effective Date of Assignment. Any valid assignment of a Member's interest in the Company, or part thereof, pursuant to the provisions of Section 11.1 shall be effective as of the close of business on the last day of the calendar month in which the Board gives its written consent to such assignment, if required (or the last day of the calendar month in which such assignment occurs, if later). The Company shall, from the effective date of such assignment, thereafter pay all further distributions on account of the Company interest (or part thereof) so assigned, to the assignee of such interest, or part thereof. As between any Member and his assignee, Profits and Losses for the Fiscal Year of the Company in which such assignment occurs shall be apportioned for federal income tax purposes in accordance with any convention permitted under § 706(d) of the Code and selected by the Board.

11.5 Additional Members. The admission of any Person as Additional Member shall be conditioned upon such Person's written acceptance and adoption of all the terms and provisions of this Agreement. Additional Members shall not be entitled to any retroactive allocation of the Company's income, gains, losses, deductions, credits or other items; provided, however, that, subject to the restrictions of § 706(d) of the Code, Additional Members shall be entitled to their respective share of the Company's income, gains, losses, deductions, credits and other items arising under contracts entered into before the effective date of the issuance of any Additional Members to the extent that such income, gains, losses, deductions, credits and other items arise after such effective date. To the extent consistent with § 706(d) of the Code and Treasury Regulations promulgated thereunder, the Company's books may be closed at the time Additional Members are admitted (as though the Company's tax year had ended) or the Company may credit to the Additional Members' allocations of the Company's income, gains, losses, deductions, credits and items for that portion of the Company's Fiscal Year after the effective date of the admission of the Additional Members.

11.6 Transferee Bound by Agreement. Any Person who acquires in any manner whatsoever any interest in the Company, irrespective of whether such Person has accepted and adopted in writing the terms and provisions of this Agreement, shall, to the fullest extent permitted by law, be deemed by the acceptance of the benefit of the acquisition thereof to have agreed to be subject to and bound by all the obligations of this Agreement to or by which any predecessor in interest of such Person was subject or bound.

11.7 No Right of Redemption. No transferee of any interest in the Company shall have any right to have the value of its interest ascertained or to receive the value of such interest, or, in lieu thereof, profits attributable to any right in the Company, except as provided herein.

ARTICLE XII

DISSOLUTION, LIQUIDATION AND TERMINATION

12.1 No Dissolution. The Company shall not be dissolved by the admission of Additional Members in accordance with the terms of this Agreement or by the death, retirement, resignation, expulsion or bankruptcy of one or more Members or the occurrence of any other event under the Delaware Act that terminates the continued membership of a Member in the Company unless such Member is the last remaining Member of the Company; provided, however, the Company will not be dissolved if one or more Additional Members are admitted into the Company within the time period and according to the other terms provided in the Delaware Act for continuing the Company in such an event.

12.2 Events Causing Dissolution. The Company shall be dissolved and its affairs shall be wound up upon the occurrence of any of the following events:

- (a) the unanimous written consent of (i) the Board, (ii) the Purchaser Member and (iii) the Seller Member to dissolve the Company;
- (b) the sale of all of the Company's assets; or
- (c) the entry of a decree of judicial dissolution under Section 18-802 of the Delaware Act.

12.3 Liquidation. Upon dissolution of the Company, the Person or Persons (who may be a Member or Members) appointed by the Board (or by the Members in the absence of an appointment by the Board) to carry out the winding-up of the Company shall promptly notify the Members of such dissolution, and shall immediately commence to wind up the Company's affairs; provided, however, that such Person or Persons shall proceed diligently and as promptly as possible, but in an orderly and businesslike manner so as not to involve undue sacrifice, to (i) following the completion of winding up of the Company, cause the cancellation of the Certificate in accordance with the Delaware Act and (ii) liquidate the assets of the Company. The Members shall continue to share Profits and Losses during liquidation in the same proportions, as specified in Article V, as before liquidation. The proceeds of a liquidation of the Company, if any, shall be distributed in the following order and priority:

- (a) First, to creditors of the Company, including Members who are creditors, to the extent otherwise permitted by law, in satisfaction of the liabilities of the Company (whether by payment or the making of reasonable provision for payment thereof);
- (b) Thereafter, pursuant to Section 6.2.

12.4 Distribution in Kind. Upon dissolution and liquidation of the Company, distributions of the Company's property may be made in kind. Any such distribution of property shall be made pro rata to each of the Members in accordance with Section 12.3.

12.5 Termination. The Company shall terminate when all of the assets of the Company, after payment of or due provision for all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company, shall have been distributed to the Members in the manner provided for in this Article XII, and the Certificate shall have been canceled in the manner required by the Delaware Act.

12.6 Claims of the Members. The Members shall look solely to the Company's assets for the return of their Capital Contributions, and if the assets of the Company remaining after payment of or due provision for all debts, liabilities and obligations of the Company are insufficient to return such Capital Contributions, the Members shall have no recourse against the Company or any other Member.

ARTICLE XIII

All such notices shall be deemed to have been given when received.

13.2 Failure to Pursue Remedies. The failure of any party to seek redress for violation of, or to insist upon the strict performance of, any provision of this Agreement shall not prevent a subsequent act, which would have originally constituted a violation, from having the effect of any original violation; and no waiver of any breach or condition of this Agreement shall be deemed to be a waiver of any other subsequent breach or condition, whether of like or different nature.

13.3 Cumulative Remedies. The rights and remedies provided by this Agreement are cumulative and the use of any one right or remedy by any party shall not preclude or waive his right to use any or all other remedies. 13.4 Binding Effect. This Agreement shall be binding upon and inure to the benefit of all of the parties and, to the extent permitted by this Agreement, their successors, legal representatives and assigns. None of the provisions of this Agreement shall be for the benefit of or enforceable by any creditor of the Company.

13.5 Interpretation. Throughout this Agreement, nouns, pronouns and verbs shall be construed as masculine, feminine, neuter, singular or plural, whichever shall be applicable. All references herein to Articles, Sections and paragraphs shall refer to corresponding provisions of this Agreement.

13.6 Severability. The invalidity or unenforceability of any particular provision of this Agreement shall not affect the other provisions hereof, and this Agreement shall be construed in all respects as if such invalid or unenforceable provision were omitted.

13.7 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in any number of counterparts (including counterparts delivered by facsimile or other electronic means) with the same effect as if all parties hereto had signed the same document. All counterparts shall be construed together and shall constitute one instrument.

13.8 Integration: Conflict. This Agreement constitutes the entire agreement among the parties hereto pertaining to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements and understandings pertaining thereto.

The Board of Directors

BankAtlantic Bancorp, Inc.

2100 West Cypress Creek Road

Fort Lauderdale, FL 33309

Ladies and Gentlemen:

We understand that BankAtlantic Bancorp, Inc. (Bancorp) and BB&T Corporation (BB&T) entered into a Purchase and Assumption Agreement dated as of November 1, 2011 (the Agreement) and intends to enter into the First Amendment to Stock Purchase Agreement to be dated as of March 13, 2012 (the First Amendment and together with the Agreement, the Revised Agreement), pursuant to which BB&T will acquire 100% of the equity in BankAtlantic (the Bank), Bancorp s bank subsidiary (the Transaction). As part of the Transaction, Bancorp will receive a distribution of assets as described in Section 2.3 of the Agreement and as amended by the First Amendment, which include (i) all of the Bank s loans graded Special Mention as of September 30, 2011, (ii) all nonaccrual loans and nonaccrual tax certificates as of September 30, 2011, (iii) all performing loans and tax certificates graded sub-standard as of September 30, 2011, (iv) all real estate owned (REO) as of September 30, 2011 and all REO acquired by the Bank after the date of the Agreement through foreclosure, deed in lieu or other enforcement proceeding or settlement with respect to any retained assets (which may include the contribution of wholly-owned single purpose entities of the Bank that hold REO) and those other specifically identified parcels of real estate (as described in the Agreement), (v) the Bank s interest in BABC, LLC (its factoring joint venture), (vi) all right, title and interest to all loans, tax certificates and other extensions of credit of the Bank previously written off, (vii) computer software programs used by the Bank and its subsidiaries in connection with the Bank s tax certificate acquisition, investment and administrative activities and related codes, databases, models and other intellectual property, (viii) any and all judgments, claims and rights of action related to or arising out of such assets (including, without limitation, those related to loans, tax certificates and other extensions of credit previously written off) and (ix) cash as determined in Section 1.1(m) and Section 2.2(e) (assuming no downward adjustment) of the Revised Agreement (collectively, the Consideration to be Received). You have provided us with a copy of the Revised Agreement in substantially final form.

You have asked us to render our opinion as to whether the Consideration to be Received is fair, from a financial point of view, to Bancorp.

In the course of performing our reviews and analyses for rendering this opinion, we have:

reviewed the Agreement, dated November 1, 2011;

reviewed a draft of the First Amendment, dated March 11, 2012;

reviewed Bancorp s Annual Reports to Shareholders and Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the years ended December 31, 2010, 2009 and 2008, its Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended March 31, 2011, June 30, 2011 and September 30, 2011 and its Current Reports on Form 8-K filed since December 31, 2010;

reviewed certain operating and financial information relating to Bancorp s businesses and prospects, including pro forma balance sheet as of September 30, 2011 and January 31, 2012 for Bancorp, all as prepared and provided to us by Bancorp s management;

met with certain members of Bancorp's senior management to discuss Bancorp's businesses, operations, historical and projected financial results and future prospects;

reviewed the historical prices, trading multiples and trading volumes of the common shares of Bancorp;

reviewed certain publicly available financial data, stock market performance data and trading multiples of companies which we deemed generally comparable to Bancorp;

reviewed the terms of certain relevant mergers and acquisitions involving companies or assets of companies which we deemed generally comparable to Bancorp and its assets;

reviewed certain capital raises executed by Bancorp;

reviewed the pro forma financial condition and capitalization of Bancorp giving effect to the Transaction; and conducted such other studies, analyses, inquiries and investigations as we deemed appropriate.

We have relied upon and assumed, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information provided to or discussed with us by Bancorp or obtained by us from public sources, including, without limitation, the projections, pro forma balance sheet and net book value of the assets to be transferred to Bancorp referred to above. With respect to the projections, pro forma balance sheet and net book value of the assets to be transferred to Bancorp, we have relied on representations that they have been reasonably prepared on bases reflecting the best currently available estimates and judgments of the senior management of Bancorp, as to the expected future performance of Bancorp. We have not assumed any responsibility for the independent verification of any such information, including, without limitation, the projections, pro forma balance sheet and net book value of the assets to be transferred to Bancorp; we express no view or opinion as to such projections, pro forma balance sheet, pro forma capital structure, net book value and fair market value of the assets to be transferred to Bancorp, the assumption of the trust preferred securities by BB&T and the assumptions upon which they are based; and we have further relied upon the assurances of the senior management of Bancorp that they are unaware of any facts that would make the information and projections, pro forma balance sheet and net book value of the assets to be transferred to Bancorp inaccurate, incomplete or misleading.

In arriving at our opinion, we have not performed or obtained any independent appraisal of the assets or liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Bancorp and BB&T, nor have we been furnished with any such appraisals. In addition, we did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan and lease losses (ALLL) for Bancorp and BB&T, nor have we conducted any review of the credit files of Bancorp or BB&T and, as a result, we have assumed that the respective ALLL for Bancorp and BB&T are adequate to cover such future loan and lease losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for Bancorp. During the course of our engagement, we were asked by the Board of Directors to solicit indications of interest from various third parties regarding a transaction with Bancorp, and we have considered the results of such solicitation in rendering our opinion. We have assumed that the Transaction will be consummated in a timely manner and in accordance with the terms of the Revised Agreement without any limitations, restrictions, conditions, amendments or modifications, regulatory or otherwise, that collectively would have a material effect on Bancorp. We are not legal, regulatory, tax or accounting experts and have relied on the assessments made by Bancorp and its advisors with respect to such issues.

We do not express any opinion as to the price or range of prices at which the shares of common stock of Bancorp may trade subsequent to the announcement or consummation of the Transaction.

We have acted as a financial advisor to Bancorp in connection with the Transaction and will receive a customary fee for such services, which is contingent on successful consummation of the Transaction. A portion of our compensation is payable upon signing of the Agreement with the remainder of the fee payable upon consummation of the Transaction. In addition, Bancorp has agreed to reimburse us for certain expenses and to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement.

Cantor Fitzgerald & Co. (CF&CO) has previously been engaged by Bancorp to provide certain investment banking and other services on matters unrelated to the Transaction, for which we have received (or expect to receive) customary fees. CF&CO may seek to provide Bancorp and BB&T and their respective affiliates with certain investment banking and other services unrelated to the Transaction in the future.

Consistent with applicable legal and regulatory requirements, CF&CO has adopted certain policies and procedures to establish and maintain the independence of CF&CO's research departments and personnel. As a result, CF&CO's research analysts may hold views, make statements or investment recommendations and/or publish research reports with respect to Bancorp, BB&T, the Transaction and other participants in the Transaction that differ from the views of CF&CO's investment banking personnel.

In the ordinary course of business, CF&CO and its affiliates may actively trade (for their own accounts and for the accounts of their customers) certain equity and debt securities, bank debt and/or other financial instruments issued by Bancorp and/or BB&T and their respective affiliates, as well as derivatives thereof, and, accordingly, may at any time hold long or short positions in such securities, bank debt, financial instruments and derivatives.

It is understood that this letter is intended solely for the benefit and use of the Board of Directors of Bancorp in connection with its consideration of the Transaction. This letter and our opinion are not to be used for any other purpose, or be reproduced, disseminated, quoted from or referred to at any time, in whole or in part, without our prior written consent. This letter and our opinion do not constitute a recommendation to the Board of Directors of Bancorp in connection with the Transaction, nor do this letter and our opinion constitute a recommendation to any holders of Bancorp common stock as to how to vote in connection with the Transaction if the Transaction were to be presented for shareholder approval. Our opinion does not address Bancorp's underlying business decision to pursue the Transaction, the relative merits of the Transaction as compared to any alternative business or financial strategies that might exist for Bancorp, the financing of the Transaction or the effects of any other transaction in which Bancorp might engage. In addition, this opinion does not constitute a solvency opinion or a fair value opinion, and we have not evaluated the solvency or fair value of Bancorp under any federal or state laws relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or similar matters. Furthermore, we do not express any view or opinion as to the fairness, financial or otherwise, of the amount or nature of any compensation payable to or to be received by any of Bancorp's officers, directors or employees, or any class of such persons, in connection with the Transaction relative to the Consideration to be Received.

Our opinion has been authorized for issuance by the Fairness Opinion and Valuation Committee of CF&CO. Our opinion is subject to the assumptions, limitations, qualifications and other conditions contained herein and is necessarily based on economic, market and other conditions, and the information made available to us, as of the date hereof. We assume no responsibility for updating or revising our opinion based on circumstances or events occurring after the date hereof.

Based on and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Consideration to be Received is fair, from a financial point of view, to Bancorp.

Very truly yours,

CANTOR FITZGERALD & CO.

Board of Directors

BankAtlantic Bancorp, Inc.

2100 West Cypress Creek Road

Fort Lauderdale, FL 33309

Ladies and Gentlemen:

BankAtlantic Bancorp, Inc. (Parent) and BB&T Corporation (BB&T) have entered into an amended Stock Purchase Agreement, dated as of March 13, 2012 (the Agreement), pursuant to which Parent will sell to BB&T all of the issued and outstanding shares of common stock and preferred stock, each par value $0.01 per share of BankAtlantic (collectively, the Shares), a federal savings association and a wholly owned subsidiary of Parent (the Bank and such transaction the Sale). Under the terms of the Agreement, prior to the closing of the Sale, Bank will transfer approximately $441 million of specified assets to a newly formed limited liability company (NewCo) and dividend approximately $175 million of other specified assets to Parent, leaving the Bank with negative equity (the Transfer). As part of the Sale, BB&T will assume all the outstanding TruPS of Parent. Parent will bring current the deferred accrued interest through the Closing. Following the Transfer, Bancorp will sell to BB&T the Shares at closing, and if the sum of the Closing NAV (as defined in the Agreement) plus the Premium (as defined in the Agreement), after giving effect to the Bank balance sheet adjustments for the Transfer is a positive number, BB&T shall pay that amount in cash to Parent, and if that amount is a negative number, Parent shall pay that amount in cash to BB&T.

The amount of the cash payment to or from Parent, as the case may be, and the Premium, together, are referred to herein as the Consideration . The terms of the Sale are more fully described in the Agreement. Capitalized terms used herein without definition shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Consideration to Parent.

Sandler O'Neill & Partners, L.P., as part of its investment banking business, is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions. In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things: (i) the Agreement; (ii) the NewCo limited liability company agreement; (iii) certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Parent and Bank that we deemed relevant; (iv) certain publicly available financial statements of BB&T that we deemed relevant in determining BB&T's financial capacity to undertake the Sale; (v) a comparison of certain financial information for BB&T with similar institutions for which publicly available information is available; (vi) certain analysis and financial information provided to the board of directors in our original fairness opinion presentation dated October 31, 2011, including the financial terms of certain recent asset sales and business lines and business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available; (vii) the current market environment generally and the commercial banking industry environment in particular; and (viii) such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as we considered relevant. We also discussed with certain members of senior management of Parent the business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects of Parent and Bank including certain regulatory, liquidity and capital matters facing the Parent and Bank.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources, that was provided to us by Parent or that was otherwise reviewed by us and have assumed such accuracy and completeness for purposes of rendering this opinion. We have further relied on the assurances of the management of Parent that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Parent or BB&T or any of their respective subsidiaries, and as you are aware, we have conducted no analyses or evaluation regarding, and we render no opinion with respect to, the Transfer or the value of any assets or liabilities to be transferred in the Transfer to Parent. With your permission, with respect to the Transfer and the values of such assets and liabilities, we have relied solely on the values set forth in the Parent's and Bank's financial statements.

We have not reviewed and render no opinion on as the on-going strategy or operations of Parent or NewCo following the Sale. We have also assumed that there has been no material change in Parent's and BB&T's assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the most recent financial statements made available to us. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Parent and BB&T will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to the agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under the agreements, that the conditions precedent in the Agreement are not waived. Finally, with your consent, we have relied upon the advice Parent has received from its legal, accounting, regulatory and tax advisors as to all legal, accounting, regulatory and tax matters relating to the Sale and the other transactions contemplated by the Agreement.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We will receive a fee for our services that are contingent on the closing of the Sale and Parent has also agreed to indemnify us against certain liabilities arising out of our engagement. In the past we have provided certain investment banking services to Parent and have received customary fees for those services.

Our opinion is directed only to the Board of Directors of Parent in connection with its consideration of the Sale and does not constitute a recommendation to any shareholder of Parent as to how any such shareholder should vote in the event that such shareholders are asked to consider and vote upon the Sale. Our opinion is directed only to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the Consideration to Parent and does not address the underlying business decision of Parent to engage in the Sale and any related transactions, the relative merits of the Sale and related transactions as compared to any other alternative business strategies, including a sale of Parent, that might exist for Parent or the effect of any other transaction in which Parent might engage. We are aware that Parent previously unsuccessfully pursued other strategic alternative transactions prior to entering into the Agreement. This opinion shall not be reproduced or used for any other purposes, without Sandler O'Neill's prior written consent. This Opinion has been approved by Sandler O'Neill's fairness opinion committee. We do not express any opinion as to the fairness of the amount or nature of the compensation to be received in the Sale by any officer, director, or employees, or class of such persons, relative to the consideration to be received by Parent in the Sale.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the Consideration is fair to Parent from a financial point of view.

Very truly yours,

/s/ Sandler O'Neill + Partners, L.P.
