Item 2.02. Results of Operations and Financial Condition.

On February 7, 2013, Corrections Corporation of America, a Maryland corporation (the "Company"), issued a press release providing, among other matters, an update of the Company's financial guidance for the fourth quarter and full-year of 2012. The release also includes information regarding the Company's receipt of a favorable private letter ruling from the Internal Revenue Service and the Company's intent to elect to qualify as a real estate investment trust for the taxable year commencing January 1, 2013. A copy of the release is furnished as a part of this Current Report as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein in its entirety by this reference. The release contains certain financial information calculated and presented on the basis of methodologies other than in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, or GAAP, which the Company believes is useful to investors and other interested parties. The Company has included information concerning this non-GAAP information in the release, including a reconciliation of such information to the most comparable GAAP measures, the reasons why the Company believes such information is useful, and the Company's use of such information for additional purposes.

The information furnished pursuant to this Item 2.02 of Form 8-K shall not be deemed to be filed for the purposes of Section 18 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Section 11 of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, or otherwise subject to the liabilities of those sections. This Current Report will not be deemed an admission by the Company as to the materiality of any information in this report that is required to be disclosed solely by Item 2.02. The Company does not undertake a duty to update the information in this Current Report and cautions that the information included in this Current Report is current only as of February 7, 2013 and may change thereafter.

Item 9.01. Financial Statements and Exhibits.
