On February 20, 2008, Celgene entered into a Collaboration, License and Option Agreement with Accelaron, and the parties amended the agreement as of August 2, 2011 (as amended, First Collaboration Agreement), which is Exhibit 1 hereto. The purpose of the First Collaboration Agreement is for the parties to investigate and develop certain protein-based product candidates incorporating ActRIIA for the treatment, prevention, or modulation of diseases and conditions in humans. On August 2, 2011, Celgene and Accelaron entered into a second Collaboration, License and Option Agreement (Second Collaboration Agreement and, together with the First Collaboration Agreement, Collaboration Agreements), which is Exhibit 2 hereto.
